IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the matter of the marriage of: MOSES NMINKUMA BONDONG and PINKY LARPO BONDONG	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264903847 Judge: Shaughnessy Commissioner: Luhn

The above-captioned matter having come before the above-referenced court, the Court having reviewed the file and finding the necessary pleadings in the file, the Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, states:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

Provisions Relating to Termination of Marriage

1. Moses and Pinky were married in Farmington, Utah, on January 13, 2025.

2. The parties are awarded a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and the marriage between the parties is hereby terminated.

Provisions Relating to Minor Children

3. The parties have one minor child: W.S.B. (01/24/2025).

Provisions Relating to Legal Custody

4. The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child.

Parenting Plan

Decision Making

1. Each party may make day to day decisions while the child is in their care or custody.
2. Each party may make emergency decisions while the child is in their care or custody but must notify the other parent of the emergency as promptly as possible under the circumstances.
3. The parties will discuss all important or major decisions; including, but not limited to, non-emergency medical decisions, educational decisions, and religious decisions; regarding the minor child and make good faith efforts to come to an agreement.

Dispute Resolution

4. Regarding day-to-day decisions:
 - a. With respect to minor day-to-day decisions, the parent in charge of the child during his or her designated parent-time shall have the right to make all such day-to-day decisions regarding the care of the child without consulting with the other parent. As pertaining to the day-to-day decisions, the parties recognize that each parent may have their own parenting style, their own rules, and their own style of discipline. As long as such decisions do not threaten the health and safety of the child, each parent will respect the decisions of the other parent and give each other the due deference that they equally deserve.

5. Major Decisions

- a. With respect to major decisions, such as those matters pertaining to the health, education, and religion of the child, the parties shall confer and work together in good faith to reach joint decisions regarding these matters. Should a dispute arise relating to these matters (i.e. the health, education, or religion of the child), the parties shall adhere to the following dispute resolution procedure:
- b. Notice: The parties shall notify one another no later than within forty-eight (48) hours of being made aware of an issue that requires a decision pertaining to these matters.
- c. Information: The parties shall exchange all relevant information and/or documentation pertaining to the matter in dispute.
- d. Discussion: The parties shall then discuss the matter in good faith and take into account one another's full point of view regarding the matter.
- e. Consultation: If a decision cannot be reached after consulting in good faith, the parties shall consult with a relevant professional or expert in the area of dispute, or other mutually agreed third party.

- f. Agreement: If the parties come to an agreement jointly at this stage it will be considered the final decision.
- g. If the parties still cannot agree, Moses shall have final say as it relates to health issues. Pinky shall have final say as it relates to religious issues and the parties will not have a final say as to education decisions.
 - i. Mediation: If one of the parties exercises their final say after completing the above and the other is wanting that decision reviewed, the parties shall promptly retain the assistance of a mediator, with the parties splitting the costs of such mediation 50/50.
 - ii. Court Review: If the parties still cannot agree after mediation either party may bring the issue before the court.
- h. No Undue Delay: Neither party shall cause any undue delay in utilizing this decision-making process and shall pursue the speedy resolution of all disputes.

Education Plan

- 6. The residence of Pinky is used for the purpose of identifying where the child is enrolled in school unless the parties agree otherwise.
- 7. Both parties may have authority to check the child out of school but shall not do so without good reason nor should they do so in order to exercise parent-time.

Holidays
