7. There has been one (1) child born of the parties' marriage, to wit:

- K.R.S., date of birth February 2017

The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act

9. All parties and the child are presently residing in Utah. Utah is the home state of the child pursuant to Utah Code §78B-13-102(7) and/or Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this matter pursuant to Utah Code §78B-13-201.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

11. Consistent with Utah Code § 81-9-205(2), the parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child consistent with the Parenting Plan set forth herein.

12. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor child.

13. The parties shall exercise equal parent-time with the minor child on a week-on/week-off basis. Each parent's regular parent-time week shall begin on Friday at 6:30 p.m. and continue until the following Friday at 6:30 p.m., at which time the child shall be exchanged to the other parent. Except for the foregoing week-on/week-off schedule and exchange time, the parties shall follow the parent-time provisions set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-305, including the holiday and uninterrupted summer parent-time provisions contained therein.

PARENTING PLAN

14.1 In addition to the parent-time set forth above, the parties shall be governed by the advisory guidelines contained in Utah Code § 81-9-202.

Neither party shall demean, disparage, criticize, or make negative or derogatory comments about the other party in the presence or within the hearing of the minor child. Neither party shall permit or encourage third parties to engage in such conduct in the presence or within the hearing of the minor child. The parties shall encourage the child to maintain a positive and healthy relationship with the other parent.

Decision Making

14.3 The parent who has physical custody of the child during the time-shared block may make minor day-to-day decisions without having to consult with the other parent.

14.4 The parents shall consult with one another and reach agreements on major issues concerning the developmental, medical, dental, psychological treatment, and education of the child.

14.5 In the event the parties are unable to agree regarding legal custody matters, the parties shall seek assistance from an involved or apprised third party concerning the subject of the dispute (i.e., a teacher, counselor, or principal regarding an education dispute, medical provider regarding a medical dispute) in an attempt to reach an agreed upon decision.

14.6 Neither parent shall have presumptive or final decision-making authority with respect to major decisions concerning the child. If the parties are unable to reach a joint decision after good-faith consultation with one another and, when appropriate, after obtaining input from an involved or knowledgeable professional as provided above, the parties shall participate in mediation in an effort to resolve the dispute. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute through mediation, either party may file an appropriate motion with the Court requesting that the Court resolve the disputed issue.

Communication Plan

14.7 The parents shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information about the child with each other.

14.8 The parents shall use their best efforts to communicate with each other often about the child in the most reasonable manner, whether in person, by phone, email or letter.

14.9 The parents shall be flexible with each other when minor changes are necessary and give as much advance notice as possible if changes are necessary.

The child shall not walk to or from school alone or solely in the company of other minor children. The parties shall ensure that the child is transported to and from school by school bus, by a parent or other responsible adult, or, if the child walks to or from school, that the child is accompanied by a responsible adult for the duration of the walk.

Significant Occasions

14.15 The parents shall notify one another of any special occasions or events that involve the child such as extracurricular activities, social and sports events, graduations, community functions, etc.

14.16 Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the lives of the child or either parent.

Medical and Professional Appointments

14.17 A parent shall notify the other parent of significant illnesses involving the child and any information relating to the child's medications. In the case of an emergency, the parent shall inform the other parent immediately.

14.18 The parent that provides medical insurance for the child shall give the other parent a duplicate insurance card in order for her/him to present such to medical providers.

14.19 The parents shall be entitled to initiate his/her own relationship with all of the child's medical providers and have complete access to their records.

Vacations/Non-Routine Travel

14.20 Neither parent shall engage in non-routine travel with the child without the written consent of the other parent or an order of the Court unless the following information has been provided to the other parent: (1) an itinerary of travel dates and destinations, (2) how to contact the child or traveling party, and (3) the name and telephone number of an available third person who will know the child's location.

Significant Others

14.21 Both parties shall be obligated to introduce any new romantic partners to the other parent before introducing them to the child.

Miscellaneous

14.22 Any parental duties or rights not specifically addressed in this plan shall be discussed and mutually decided on by both parents.

14.23 If a parent fails to comply with a provision of the above Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under the Parenting Plan are not affected.

14.24 The parties propose this Parenting Plan in good faith.

CHILD SUPPORT

15. The Petitioner is employed and earns $4,187.00 gross per month for purposes of calculating child support.

16. The Respondent is employed and earns $7,627.00 gross per month for purposes of calculating child support.

17. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-101 et seq., Respondent shall pay child support to Petitioner, based upon the parties' respective incomes as set forth above and the guidelines for joint physical custody, effective October 1, 2026, as follows:

- A. Base monthly child support in an amount of $178.00, divided into two (2) equal monthly installments with payments due on the 5th and 20th days of each month, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until the child reaches 18 years of age, or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs last.
- B. The obligee (custodial parent) shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code §26B-9-403. This income withholding procedure applies to existing and future payors, and all withheld income should be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services.
- C. Each of the parties shall be under a mutual obligation to notify the other within ten (10) days of any change in monthly income of thirty percent (30%) or more.
- D. Under Utah Code §81-6-202, the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code §26B-9-211, if the child receives TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

- E. Under Utah Code §81-6-202(6) the parties have the right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (1) material change in custody; (2) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (3) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (4) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (5) material changes in the medical needs of the children; (6) material change in (1) through (5) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

MINOR CHILD'S HEALTH INSURANCE AND OUT-OF-POCKET MEDICAL EXPENSES

18. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-208, it is reasonable and proper that effective upon entry of the Decree of Divorce:

- B. Both parents shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance.
- C. Both parents shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, all dental and orthodontic expenses, deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.
- D. Both parents shall provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. Both parents shall notify the other, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date that parent first knew, or should have known, of the change.
- E. The parent who incurs the medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost of paying the medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The parent obligated to reimburse an expense shall do so within 30 days of receipt of verification of the expense and proof of payment.

- F. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to comply with the subparagraphs above.

19. If at any point in time the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child.

HEALTH INSURANCE

20. Consistent with U.C.A. § 81-4-406(6), the Decree of Divorce shall not be considered absolute until six (6) months after the signing of the Decree of Divorce to allow Petitioner to remain on Respondent's health insurance. For a period of six months following the signing of the Decree of Divorce, Respondent shall maintain Petitioner and her other child that is not part of this action on the health insurance policy as presently constituted and at Respondent's sole cost. At the conclusion of the six month period, Petitioner and her other child shall be removed from the Respondent's insurance policy, but the parties' minor child shall remain on Respondent's insurance policy pursuant to paragraph 18 above.
