Attorney for Respondent

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the matter of the children of:

JORDON DUSTIN WILLIAMS,

KASONDA JUNE BREEDING.

PARENTAGE DECREE

Civil No.: 264901454

Judge: Stephen Nelson

Commissioner: Joanna Sagers

This matter came before the Court on a Parentage Petitioner filed by Petitioner JORDON DUSTIN WILLIAMS and Counterpetition filed by Respondent KASONDA JUNE BREEDING. The parties have reached an agreement regarding all issues in this matter. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing, ORDERS, JUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

PROVISIONS RELATING TO JURISDICTION AND GROUNDS

1. Petitioner is a bona fide and actual resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.
2. Respondent is a bona fide and actual resident of Davis County, State of Utah, and has been for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.
3. The parties were never married but at one time maintained an intimate relationship and are the parents of two (2) minor children to wit: [M.D.W. DOB 8/18/2015 and A.J.W. DOB 11/13/2016]. The minor children reside in the State of Utah and are bona fide residents of the State of Utah.
4. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-3-205 as the court of original jurisdiction.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE CHILD AND PATERNITY OF THE PARTIES

5. The parties are the biological parents of the minor child.

6. Pursuant to Rule 100 Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the parties state, upon information and belief, that there are no proceedings for custody of the above-named minor children filed or pending in the Juvenile Court.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE UNIFORM CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION AND ENFORCEMENT ACT

7. Utah has jurisdiction to make child custody and parent-time determinations pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-101 et seq. in that:
 - a. Utah is the home state of the minor children at the commencement of this proceeding.
 - b. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §78B-13-209, said minor children currently reside in Davis County, but this Court is the Court of original jurisdiction.
 - c. The parties have not participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other proceeding concerning the custody of or visitation/parent time with the child.
 - d. The parties have no information of any other proceedings that could affect the current proceeding, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions.
 - e. The parties do not know of any person, not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the children or who claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, child support or visitation/parent time rights with respect to the child.

CHILD CUSTODY, PARENT-TIME AND PARENTING PLAN

8. Legal Custody: The parties should be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children, subject to the decision-making process outlined in the parenting plan below.
9. Physical Custody and Parent Time: The parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children according to a modified Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303 schedule:

Petitioner shall have parent-time on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 5th weekend a month. Respondent shall have the 4th weekend a month. A weekend is defined as Friday after school PM to Sunday at 3 PM (if school is not in session, the pick up shall take place at 1:30 PM). On the 4th week of the month, Petitioner shall have an overnight on Thursday after school. On that Thursday, Petitioner shall be responsible for taking the children to school Friday morning. If school is not in session, the exchange shall take place at 8:30 AM.
10. Pickup and Delivery for Parent Time: Both pick-up and drop off shall be as the parties agree. If an agreement cannot be reached, the party exercising parent time will pick up the minor children.
11. Summer/Extended Parent Time: The parties will exercise summer/extended parent time as they agree, or pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303 if they cannot agree. Notice of scheduled summer vacations shall be given in writing by the other party.
12. Holidays: The parties will continue to exercise holiday parent time as they agree, or pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303 if they cannot agree, with Respondent being designated as the custodial parent on the schedule. Holiday time shall trump the usual parent-time schedule.
13. Relocation: If either of the parties intends to relocate more than 50 miles from their present location, the relocating parent shall give the other 60 days' notice along with his/her new contact information, and at a minimum, parent time shall be subject to the relocation provision contained in Utah Code §81-9-209 and Ross v. Ross, 2019 UT App 104.

PARENTING PLAN

14. Advisory Guidelines: In addition to the parent-time schedules provided in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-303 and Utah Code Ann. §81-9-203 the following advisory guidelines in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202 are suggested to govern all parent-time arrangements between parents in the event the parties do not agree to the parent time schedule.
15. Decision-Making: Day-to-day decisions involving the children shall be made by the parent with whom the children are then located. Emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children shall be made by the parent who is with the children at that time. Significant decisions involving legal matters, health, education and religious upbringing, shall be discussed in advance in an attempt to reach an agreement. If there is a dispute that cannot be resolved through discussion of the parties, Respondent shall have interim final say, subject to Petitioner's right to a court review of the decision. Either party may request mediation regarding a dispute. If mediation is requested by one party, the other party shall participate in good faith.
- a. The parties agree M.D.W. shall schedule an Autism Spectrum Disorder Evaluation within 30 days of this Stipulation. The parties shall mutually agree on a provider, with recommendations from DeAnna Franson, CMHC. If there is a dispute on the provider, the evaluation shall be done by a provider at Davis Behavioral Health. The parties shall follow the recommendations of the treating physician or therapist regarding M.D.W.'s care.

- b. The parties agree A.J.W. shall have an eye appointment within 60 days. The parties shall follow the recommendation of the eye doctor.

16. School: The children shall continue to attend school at their current school and feeder schools. The parties may mutually agree upon a new school if desired. The parties shall have access to the children during school and authority to check the children out of school. The minor children shall attend school absent extenuating circumstances, medical appointments, sickness, or as otherwise agreed by the parties.

17. Notice of Events: The parties will notify one another within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the children are participating or being honored, and both parents are entitled to attend and participate fully.

18. Access to Records: Both parties shall have access directly to all school reports and medical records and shall be notified immediately by the other parent in the event of a medical emergency.

19. Travel: In the event the parties vacation away from their home, the parent exercising parent-time with the children should provide, as soon as reasonably possible, but not less than 7 days to the other parent the following prior to leaving for vacation with the minor children:

- a. An itinerary of travel dates;
- b. Destinations, including an exact address where the children will be staying and a phone number where they can be reached (for example, if they are staying at a hotel or at the home of a family member or friend);

c. Places where the minor children or traveling party can be reached.

i. Passports: Both parties should facilitate in a timely manner in obtaining passports for the minor children upon written agreement between the parties for any out-of-the-country trips the minor children take with either parent.

ii. The minor children should not leave the United States without express written permission from both parties, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

20. Notice of Contact Information: Each parent should provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change.

21. Notice Regarding Illnesses: The parties should notify one another of any illness that the children have while in their home for parenting time. They will also keep one another informed of any medications prescribed for the children, as well as any scheduled appointments with medical, dental or mental health professionals.

22. Sharing of Information: The parties should use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other regarding the children.

23. Reasonable Contact: Each parent shall make an effort to have the children contact the other parent as frequently as is reasonably requested or as desired by the children. Each party shall have uncensored, reasonable virtual time with the minor children.

24. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of the parenting plan or a child support order, the other parent's obligations under the parenting plan or the child support order are not affected. Failure to comply with a provision of the parenting plan or a child support order may result in a finding of contempt of court.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SUPPORT PAYMENTS

25. Petitioner is employed and earns $3172 per month in gross income for purposes of calculating child support.
26. Respondent is employed and earns $4816 per month in gross income for purposes of calculating child support.
27. Beginning October 2026, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202, Petitioner should pay child support to Respondent for in the amount of $264 per month for two (2) minor children of the parties pursuant to a joint custody worksheet with Petitioner having 145 nights and Respondent having 220 nights.
28. Child Support Adjustment Upon Emancipation: The parties acknowledge that the child support obligation shall be subject to automatic reduction pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-213, effective upon the emancipation of each child, which occurs upon the child reaching age eighteen (18) years or graduation from high school, whichever occurs later. Upon such event, the child support obligation shall be reduced proportionately to reflect the remaining number of children entitled to support without the need for further court order or motion, unless otherwise modified by the court.

29. There are no child support arrears by either party as of the date of this Stipulation.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

30. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, if health insurance for the benefit of the minor children is available to either party, that party should be required to maintain said insurance and should follow the provisions stated in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208 in regard to health insurance for the minor children. If the children are insured by both parties, Respondent's shall be primary and Petitioner's shall be secondary.

31. The parties should each pay one-half (½) of any out-of-pocket medical expenses incurred on behalf of the minor children, including medical, dental, orthodontic, vision, and therapy costs. If a party incurs an out of pocket expense, they shall provide proof of payment within 14 days of payment to the other party. The party receiving proof of the expense shall reimburse ½ of the expense within 30 days of receipt of the proof of expense.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CHILD CARE EXPENSES

32. The parties should follow the provisions of Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209. Each party should be responsible for one-half (½) of any work-related childcare expenses for the minor children.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND EXPENSES

33. The parties should equally share the extracurricular activity and education expenses of the minor children to which both parties agree in writing, and neither party will unreasonably withhold this agreement.
34. The parties should allow the children to attend agreed upon extracurricular activities even if it is on the parent-time day of the other party.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO TAX CREDIT

35. The parties agree to claim the minor children for federal and state tax purposes as follows: On even numbered tax years, each party shall claim one minor child, with Petitioner claiming the youngest and Respondent claiming the oldest. On odd numbered tax years, Respondent shall claim both minor children.

- a. If a party is unable to receive a tax benefit, the other party shall be awarded the benefit.
- b. The parties shall cooperate in providing or signing any required documents to effectuate this provision.

36. For all tax years, Petitioner must be 100% caught up on his child support obligations by December 31 of the applicable tax year to claim the minor children.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO MUTUAL NON-HARASSMENT

37. The parties should be subject to the following Mutual Restraining Order:

- a. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the children's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the children or speaking to the children about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the children's preference regarding custody or visitation.
- b. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.
- c. Both parties are restrained from discussing custody issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise “pumping” the children.

- d. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes unreasonable contact between parent and children during the other parent’s parenting time.
- e. Neither party shall enter the residence and/or work location of the other party unless they are invited to do so.
- f. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do in front of the children what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this section, and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, or shall remove the children from such circumstances.
- g. Both parties agree to only communicate electronically through the OurFamilyWizard application with each other about issues related to the children. Communication will be between the parties themselves and not their significant others or third parties. If the parties mutually agree, they may select a different communication application.
- h. Both parties shall keep the other party informed regarding their current physical address, phone number and email address.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

38. Each party should pay their own attorney’s fees.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

39. Each party should be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the Decree of Paternity and Custody entered by the Court.

40. Final Order: The resulting Parentage Decree settles all disputed issues, including litigation issues between the parties pertaining to this action in this case and case 204905877. All hearings set in both cases shall be cancelled.
