DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
TOOELE COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF:	DECREE OF DIVORCE
REBECKA LYNN HANSON,	Civil No. 264300079 DA
and	Honorable Todd Hilbig Commissioner Renee Blocher
DREW HANSON.

THIS MATTER having come before the Court based upon the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement executed by Petitioner and Respondent, before the Honorable Todd Hilbig; Petitioner having heretofore filed her Declaration as to Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce and Declaration of Military Service; the Court having heretofore made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and upon motion of Matthew N. Olsen, attorney for Petitioner, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Bonds of Matrimony. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Petitioner, REBECKA LYNN HANSON, and Respondent, DREW HANSON, be and the same are hereby dissolved.

2. Residency. That Petitioner and Respondent are residents of County of Tooele, State of Utah, and have been for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of the Petition in this matter.
3. Marriage Information. That Petitioner and Respondent were married on the 11th day of November 2010, in West Jordan, County of Salt Lake, State of Utah.
4. Separation. That Petitioner and Respondent separated in February 2026.
5. Grounds. That Petitioner and Respondent have experienced irreconcilable differences which cannot be resolved, and such has made it impossible for the marital relationship to continue (See Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-405(1)(h)).
6. Children, Custody, and Parent Time. That Petitioner and Respondent have four (4) minor children born as issue of the marriage, to-wit: T.L.N., born September 2012; E.D.H., born August 2015; G.H.H., born October 2017; and R.O.H., born October 2019.
7. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be awarded the joint legal custody of the minor children pursuant to the Joint Parenting Plan below:

PARENTING PLAN

a. Petitioner and Respondent desire to create an effective co-parenting relationship for the benefit of their children. Petitioner and Respondent desire to raise happy and well-adjusted children and to respect one another in their respective parenting roles.

b. Petitioner and Respondent realize that they each have different parenting functions and will make every effort to support and acknowledge the benefits to the children of having a healthy relationship with both parents.

c. Petitioner and Respondent agree to reduce the conflict between them and learn problem-solving skills and implement those skills to eliminate future conflict. Petitioner and Respondent desire to have open communication with each other and focus on the needs and interests of the children ahead of the parties' own personal interests.

d. To implement Petitioner and Respondent's vision of a shared parenting plan, and because of their concern for the children's emotional well-being, the governing principles Petitioner and Respondent agree to are as follows:

i. The parties shall have a co-parenting relationship built on trust and respect;

ii. The parties shall establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the children's needs;

iii. The parties shall support each other in their respective parenting roles and say positive words about the other parent to the children and be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent. The parties shall not involve the children in their legal proceedings or subsequent legal matters between them;

iv. The parties shall listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;

v. The parties shall make all attempts to resolve all conflict between them and utilize experts, such as medical professionals, therapists, etc., to assist them in this endeavor if they are unsuccessful personally;

vi. The parties shall solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making process which is described herein;

vii. If tension arises as part of the parties' communication, the parties shall take a break from the communication for a period of 24 hours;

viii. The parties shall work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;

ix. The parties shall live by the golden rule that they will treat each other as they would like to be treated;

x. The parties shall start over and recommit to this parenting plan when one or both of them step outside of the plan and forget about the commitment made in this plan; and

xi. The parties shall see the other parent as a resource, consultant and ally; the parties shall effectively work together as co-parents to promote the best interests of the children.

e. Parenting Meeting. In order to implement the above parenting plan as outlined by the governing principles, the parties shall communicate by email and/or text which shall be limited to child-related issues only.

f. Time Sharing Schedule. The parties shall cooperate to plan their children's time sharing schedule based on the following principles:

i. The parties shall trade favors and do their best to ensure that the children have meaningful time in both homes;

ii. The parties shall be flexible with each other when minor changes are necessary; and

iii. The parties shall give as much advance notice as possible if changes are necessary.

g. Special Occasions. The parties shall notify each other of any special events involving the children such as school activities, sports events, graduations, etc., so that each party shall have the option of attending the special event if possible.

h. The parties shall have liberal access to the children by way of telephone or virtual contact.

i. The children shall be allowed to telephone either of the parties at any time or at any place and neither parent shall interfere with this privilege.

j. Shared Information. The parties shall use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other, and whenever necessary, to convey information regarding the children's school work, school schedule, medical and dental treatment, counseling, emotional needs, accomplishments, and other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

k. The parties shall affirmatively notify the other parent of all school programs, church events, extracurricular activities, sports activities, and special occasions.

l. The parties shall notify the other parent of significant illnesses involving the children and of any information relating to any medications the children may be prescribed.

m. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the children at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.

n. As part of the parties' communication, the parties shall summarize for each other all significant information relating to their children's progress during the prior month. The parties shall also share information relating to doctors or dental work, plays, sports, special lessons, new skills, new language development, discipline challenges, etc.

o. The parties shall immediately notify the other parent of any change of address and telephone number and agree to inform the other parent regarding logistical details of extended vacations.

p. The parties shall communicate in the most reasonable manner, whether by email and/or text message. Petitioner and Respondent recognize that the children feel more secure and loved when their parents are working together in a positive, cooperative and constructive manner.

q. Consistency in Parenting. The parties' consistency in parenting shall help them to raise emotionally healthy and secure children. Therefore, the parties shall discuss parenting strategies, and develop, if possible, consistent rules and parenting approaches. The parties shall ensure that all technology (e.g., cell phones, internet, etc.) has appropriate filters.

r. The parties shall implement, whenever possible, consistent bedtimes, discipline strategies and other rules. Moreover, Petitioner and Respondent recognize that parenting will be more effective if the parties work together as a united front.

s. Decisions. The parties shall be awarded the joint legal custody of their children, and shall share joint decision making as follows:

i. Day-to-Day Decisions: The parent in charge during any time-shared block may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the children's care without having to consult with the other parent;

ii. Major Decisions: The parties shall consult with one another and reach agreements on major issues concerning the medical, dental, psychological treatment, education and religion of their children, and any joint decisions shall be made in writing. The parties shall give deference to the professional experts involved with the children;

iii. Emergency Treatment: The parent who has custody of the children during the time sharing block may initiate emergency medical, dental, or psychological treatment, and shall notify and involve the other parent as soon as possible;

iv. Petitioner shall be allowed to manage haircuts for the children.

t. Procedure for Joint Decision Making. The parties shall share all major decisions concerning the children's health, education, and general welfare. The decision-making procedure shall be:

i. Identify the issue;

ii. Research the issue and create possible solutions;

iii. Brainstorm all possible solutions;

iv. Use the most sensible resolution that considers the needs and interests of everyone involved, particularly the children;

v. If in disagreement, retain the assistance of an expert or mediator before seeking resolution in court. Fees shall be split 50/50.

u. Interim Decision-Making Authority: If the parties cannot reach consensus after following the procedure above, Petitioner shall have interim decision-making authority, subject to Respondent's ability to address the matter in Court.

v. Extended Family. The parties shall explain the parenting plan to extended family members and encourage civil, friendly relationships.

w. The parties shall encourage extended family members to have a civil and friendly relationship with the other parent.

y. Work-related daycare expenses incurred on behalf of the children shall be shared 50/50.

z. Respondent shall be allowed to perform any LDS ordinances applicable to the minor children subject to the ordinances taking place in the ward/stake where Petitioner resides.

- END OF PARENTING PLAN -

8. That Petitioner shall initially be awarded the primary physical custody of the minor children.
9. That provided Respondent remains in St. George, Utah, he shall be awarded parent-time as the parties may agree, or in the event they cannot agree, then in that event, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209, with the understanding that he will be allowed to exercise every Martin Luther King holiday, Presidents Day holiday during the year Petitioner is entitled to Spring Break, and Labor Day during the year Petitioner is entitled to Fall Break. These specified holidays shall be considered his allotted one weekend per month under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.
10. That Respondent shall exercise his monthly parent time on the last weekend of each month. Respondent may elect to exercise his monthly parent time on a different weekend by providing Petitioner with at least thirty (30) days' advance notice.
11. That if Respondent elects not to exercise his scheduled parent time, he shall provide Petitioner with at least ten (10) days' advance notice
12. That if either parent intends to travel more than five hundred (500) miles from their residence with the minor child, that parent shall provide the other parent with at least seven (7) days' advance notice and a travel itinerary containing the information required by applicable Utah law.

13. That the parties agree that the minor children shall remain enrolled in their current schools and shall thereafter attend the schools within the established feeder-school pattern for their current schools, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing.
14. That in the event Respondent moves within 15 miles of the children's school, he shall be awarded parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305. Should Respondent move within 25 miles of the school, he shall be awarded parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-303. In the event Respondent moves to Northern Utah, but remains more than 25 miles away from the school, he shall be awarded parent-time pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302.
15. That for the calendar year 2026 and alternating thereafter consistent with the holiday parent-time schedule under § 81-9-209, Respondent shall be allowed to exercise Thanksgiving, and Petitioner the minor children's Christmas break. Should the parties move to the holiday parent-time schedule under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302 or § 81-9-303 as applicable as more fully set forth above, then Petitioner shall be considered the custodial parent and Respondent the non-custodial parent for purposes of the holiday parent-time schedule.
16. That while Respondent remains in St. George, Utah, the parties shall meet halfway in Fillmore for Respondent's parent-time with the exception of his monthly weekend parent-time, or in the event he is coming north to exercise parent-time, during which he shall be solely responsible for transportation for his parent-time.
17. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be restrained from making disparaging or demeaning remarks about the other party in the presence of the minor children, and to whatever extent possible, preclude third parties from doing so.

18. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be restrained from harassing, bothering or otherwise annoying the other party.
19. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be restrained from involving the minor children in their litigation, including, but not restricted to, discussing custody and parent-time arrangements.
20. That the states and names of the persons with whom the minor children have resided within the last five (5) years are set forth below. The minor children have resided in Utah for at least six (6) months immediately preceding the filing of this action. Utah is the home state for the minor children and has jurisdiction under Utah Code Ann. § 78B-13-102(7).

    Lived with: Petitioner and Respondent

    Relation: Mother and Father

    State: Utah

    Begin Living With: Petitioner and Respondent upon birth

21. Rule 100 Information. That pursuant to Rule 100 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-13-101 et seq. and The Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, Utah Code Ann. §78B-14-101 et seq., the parties state upon information and belief that:

a. Unless otherwise noted below, there are no proceedings in a court of law or governmental agency for custody, child support, parent-time, or visitation concerning the minor children which have been filed, or are pending, or have been completed with an order.

b. The parties are unaware of any person who is not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the parties' minor children, and who claims to have custody, child support, and/or parent-time or visitation rights with the minor children.

22. That Petitioner and Respondent are not receiving public assistance for the benefit of the minor children.

23. Child Support. That Petitioner is employed and earns average gross monthly income in the amount of $6,933.00. Respondent is likewise employed and earns average gross monthly income in the amount of $5,297.00.

24. That commencing October 1, 2026, Petitioner shall be awarded child support from Respondent in the amount of $1,053.00 per month, which sum is pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines for the State of Utah. Child support should be payable in two equal installments on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Additionally, Respondent shall pay to Petitioner the sum of $4,000.00 within 30 days of the parties' execution of this Stipulation to resolve any and all obligations either party may have against the other party.

25. That Petitioner shall be awarded said child support until the minor children reach the age of eighteen (18) years and graduate from high school with their normal and expected graduating class.

26. That at the time a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the child support amount for the remaining child(ren) who is eligible to receive support shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the base child support obligation shown in the table for that number of children. This shall be done by using the appropriate calculation and worksheet pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 78B-12-219.

27. That in the event Respondent falls in arrears in his child support obligation, Petitioner shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11-401, et seq., and Universal Income Withholding pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 62A-11-501, et seq.
28. That Respondent shall arrange to make his child support payments via automatic transfer or as agreed upon by the parties.
29. Extracurricular Activity Expenses. That Petitioner and Respondent shall pay one-half of all extracurricular activities of the minor child(ren). However, said extracurricular activity must be agreed to, in writing, by the parties prior to the child(ren) being enrolled or taking part in such activities. If the parties are unable to agree on the extracurricular activity, either party shall still be entitled to have the child(ren) participate in the extracurricular activity if that party pays entirely for the extracurricular activity and so long as the extracurricular activity does not interfere with the other party's parent time. The parties shall act in good faith in deciding whether the child(ren) should participate in an extracurricular activity.
30. Medical Insurance. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be ordered to provide and maintain medical and dental insurance for the benefit of the minor child(ren) as long as a policy is available to them at their place of employment, at a reasonable cost.
31. That if at any point in time a dependent child(ren) is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be primary coverage for the dependent child(ren) and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child(ren). If a parent remarries and the dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child(ren). Should there be double coverage, neither party shall be responsible to reimburse the other party for one-half of the medical insurance premiums. Should a party subsequently lose or terminate the insurance coverage, they shall be ordered to notify the other party accordingly and commence paying their one-half share.

32. That the parent who is ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent upon initial enrollment of the dependent child(ren) and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.
33. That the parent who is ordered to maintain insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.
34. Medical Expenses. That Petitioner and Respondent shall divide equally all out-of-pocket medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, pharmaceutical, counseling, co-pay and deductible expenses which are incurred on behalf of the minor child(ren) and not paid by insurance, including, but not restricted to, the insurance premiums.

35. That the parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.
36. That the parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.
37. That the parent who incurs the medical expenses shall be reimbursed within thirty (30) days of providing verification of the cost and payment to the other parent.
38. That Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.
39. Childcare Expenses. That pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-209, the parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child(ren). The parties shall look to family members and friends for childcare at little, or no cost. For any periods of time, the minor children are being cared for by a family member or friend, the parties shall ensure the babysitter is at least 12 years old for daytime care, and is a family member for any overnight care who is at least 24 years old.
40. That if an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent should begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense, but if the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

41. That in the absence of a court order to the contrary, a parent who incurs a childcare expense should provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.
42. That in the absence of a court order to the contrary, the parent should notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.
43. That in addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with the provisions of the order relating to childcare.
44. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be granted the right of first refusal to care for the minor child(ren) when the other party is unavailable to do so for a period of a given overnight(s).
45. Alimony. That neither Petitioner nor Respondent shall be awarded alimony from the other party, and their claims shall be forever waived.
46. Real Property. That during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent acquired a home and real property located at 32 West Clear Water Drive, Stansbury Park, Tooele, Utah.
47. That Petitioner shall be allowed to reside in the marital home until June 1, 2027. Thirty (30) days prior to that date, Petitioner and Respondent shall list the home and real property for sale with a mutually agreed upon third party. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with the suggestions made by the realtor regarding repairs, and Petitioner shall be responsible for maintaining the upkeep of the home and real property and make it available for showings.

48. The real property should be listed for sale by May 1, 2027 with the understanding that Petitioner may remain in the home until at least June 1, 2027 or until the home is sold, whichever last occurs. The real estate agent shall serve as the neutral listing agent and perform other such duties as identified herein. The parties will use a mutually agreed upon real estate agent to list the property, where Respondent proposes three names (unrelated persons) within 48 hours and Petitioner selects one of those three 48 hours later. The parties are required to execute a real estate Listing Agreement with that agent. An addendum to the Listing Agreement or Disclosure, as applicable, will also be provided to the parties explaining the agent's duties as the listing agent. The agent is approved to:

    a. Perform analysis of real property value, assess encumbrances and clouds on title, explain consequences arising therefrom, and provide recommendations of viable options to the parties and the Court;

    b. List and sell the real property identified herein if the conditions are met to require the sale;

    c. Communicate with Petitioner and Respondent and their attorneys regarding critical issues including but not limited to (a) Setting of the sale price; (b) Showing of the real property; (c) Evaluation of offers; (d) General handling of the transaction; (e) Disposition of sale proceeds;

d. Earn fees relating to their appointment, as necessary.

49. The parties must ensure the following:

a. A walkthrough of the property shall be scheduled within 7 calendar days of May 1, 2027.

b. Listing appointments shall be completed within 7 calendar days, or less, after the walkthrough is completed.

c. Listing paperwork shall be signed within 72 hours, or less, after listing appointments are completed.

d. Should the parties not mutually agree on a list price, the agent shall set the list price and future price modifications, supported by a market analysis, and provide such reports to the parties and to Counsel.

e. Contractual Obligations: The parties shall respond to offers, counteroffers, repair requests, and any other contractual obligations prior to their expiration or deadline, which may be less than 24 hours. Should either party fail to respond prior to these timelines and cause offers to expire or cause the parties to be in breach of contractual obligations, the agent shall notify Counsel and the Court, if required, immediately.

f. The agent’s work, as required by the Court, cannot be performed without cooperation of the parties. The parties must fully cooperate with and be responsive to the agent’s processes, procedures, and requests in furtherance of selling the real property. The parties must provide all documents requested by the agent or their staff upon request. Any objections shall be directed to each party’s Counsel or directly to the Court.

g. Each party must provide timely responses to questions and requests of the agent and their staff.

h. If requested by the agent, the parties must provide them with written authorizations, including third-party authorizations for lenders or services, directing third parties to provide documents, records, and/or information. Any objections shall be directed to the agent, each party's Counsel, and directly to the Court. The agent's scope of services shall include ensuring the division and distribution of proceeds from the sale of the property are provided to Escrow/Title Company and that Escrow's/ the Title Company's amendments and/or instructions are consistent with the Court's orders as contained herein.

The equity in the property shall be divided equally between the parties, one-half to each. Equity will be divided as follows:

- Sales price
- Subtract any and all expenses of the sale and all mortgages or liens against the property
- Petitioner shall receive the reduction in principal related to the mortgage payments made by her between October 1, 2026 and the month the house is sold prior to the division of the net sales proceeds. The remaining amount will be divided equally between the parties.

50. Personal Property. That during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have acquired certain items of personal property.

51. That Petitioner shall be awarded the following personal property, free and clear of any claim by Respondent:

    a. 2023 Subaru Ascent, subject to any indebtedness thereon;

    b. The furniture, furnishings and fixtures in Petitioner's possession; and

    c. Petitioner's personal belongings.

52. That Respondent shall be awarded the following personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner:

    a. 2020 Nissan Armada, subject to the indebtedness thereon;

    b. The furniture, furnishings and fixtures in Respondent's possession, with the following caveats:

        i. Respondent's toolbox

        ii. Harry Potter Books (already in his possession);

        iii. Bunkbeds once the house is sold;

        iv. Christmas Santa figurines;

        v. BBQ;

        vi. Pearl necklace and earrings if located by Petitioner;

        vii. Respondent shall also be allowed to do a walkthrough of the home with a mutually agreed upon third party to identify any additional items of personal property. Should the parties be unable to agree upon the item(s) of personal property, the item shall remain in the home and the parties shall return to mediation to address the same.

    c. Respondent's personal belongings.

53. Debts and Obligations. That Petitioner shall assume and pay the following indebtedness:

    a. Mortgage on the home and real property until the home is sold;

    b. Automobile loan (2023 Subaru Ascent);

    c. Student loans in her name and debt consolidation payments. Loan maintained by Firstmark Services; and

    d. Petitioner's individual debts and obligations.

54. That Petitioner shall indemnify and hold Respondent harmless on all debts and obligations Petitioner is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).

55. That Respondent shall assume and pay the following indebtedness:

    a. Automobile loan maintained by Santander;

    b. JP Morgan Chase Visa credit card;

    c. Respondent's student loans; and

    d. Respondent's individual debts and obligations.

56. That Respondent will indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless on all debts and obligations Respondent is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).

Debt Description	Approximate Balance	Responsible Party
1st Mortgage (Chase Bank)	$323,374.00	Paid upon sale of home
2nd Lien (Unlock)	$60,715.00	Paid upon sale of home

Rebecka Student Loan (Firstmark)	$3,714.00	Petitioner
2020 Nissan Armada (Santander)	$22,050.00	Respondent
Chase credit card	$3,477.00	Respondent
National Debt Relief Program	$3,786.00	Petitioner

57. The parties each state, under penalty of perjury, that they have fully disclosed all debts, bank accounts, savings accounts, brokerage accounts, and all other financial assets, liabilities, and information necessary for the fair adjudication of this divorce.
58. That the allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other party. As a result, the parties will not discharge the debts in bankruptcy if it causes the non-bankrupt party to be liable for the debt. The parties understand that this provision may not be binding on the bankruptcy court.
59. That each party will make their best efforts to remove each other from any joint debts, obligations, loans, etc., by refinancing the debt, obligation, loan, etc., into their sole name.
60. That Petitioner and Respondent shall each assume and pay all debts and obligations incurred by them subsequent to the date of separation.
61. Savings Accounts, Checking Accounts and Investment Accounts. That during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have acquired certain savings accounts, checking accounts, and/or investment accounts.
62. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be awarded their individual savings accounts, checking accounts, and/or investment accounts.

63. Retirement. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be awarded one-half of any and all individual retirement accounts, pension plans, savings plans, profit sharing plans, 401(k) accounts, or IRA's, which either party has acquired at their place or employment or otherwise, pursuant to the Woodward v. Woodward formula.
64. Tax Credits. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be awarded the Federal and State tax credits applicable to the minor children, to include any and all other governmental benefits, with Petitioner claiming the parties' two (2) youngest minor children and Respondent claiming the parties' two (2) oldest children. In years where only three (3) children are eligible, the parties shall alternate the right to claim the third child. Petitioner shall claim the third child in even years, and Respondent shall claim the third child in odd years, while each party continues to claim one of the other two eligible children as set forth above. In years where only two (2) children are eligible, Petitioner shall claim one child and Respondent shall claim the other child annually. In years where only one child remains eligible, the parties shall alternate claiming that child, with Petitioner claiming the child in even years and Respondent claiming the child in odd years. Respondent's ability to claim a child(ren) shall be subject to him being current on his child support by December 31st each year.
65. Maiden Name. That Petitioner shall be restored to her maiden name upon entry of the Decree of Divorce, if she so desires.
66. Attorney Fees. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be ordered to assume and pay their individual court costs and attorney fees incurred herein.

67. Deeds and Other Documents. That each party will execute and deliver to the other party such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court, including but not limited to titles and deeds.

68. Default. That in the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the parties will nevertheless be responsible for their individual attorney fees and costs.

69. Notice to Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.5, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, the parties are required to provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce.

b. Therefore, the party not obligated to pay a joint obligation will:

i. Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each joint creditor he/she is not required to pay as soon as possible.

ii. Notify that joint creditor of the current address for each party.

iii. Inform that joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract, and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who was not required to pay the debt.

In accordance with the Utah State District Court's Efiling Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Decree of Divorce does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge, but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page of this Order.
