Attorney for Petitioner

DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
SALT LAKE COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: JOHN HENRY LEE CREWS, Petitioner and KATHY JEAN CREWS, Respondent	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264904272 Judge: Amanda Montague Commissioner: Russell Minas

The above-entitled matter came before the Court on the Petitioner's Request to Submit for Decision and Affidavit of Jurisdiction and Grounds for Divorce in accordance with Rule 104 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. The parties have submitted all of the appropriate pleadings to the Court. The Court has reviewed the file in this matter and has determined that based upon the Respondent's Acceptance of Service, Appearance, Consent, and Waiver, the Court can proceed to enter this final Decree of Divorce. Having reviewed the applicable laws, and all pleadings, and being fully advised in the premises, the Court having previously entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES:

DIVORCE

1. The parties are awarded a divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences. The Petitioner and the Respondent have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making it impossible for the marriage to continue.

ALIMONY

2. Both parties are fully capable of supporting themselves through appropriate employment and self-sufficiency. Additionally, the parties have been separated for approximately sixteen (16) years and have been supporting themselves during that time. Each party has knowingly and voluntarily waived any claim to alimony or spousal support, whether past, present, or future. Accordingly, neither party is awarded alimony or spousal support now or in the future, and the Court's jurisdiction to award alimony to either party is terminated.

REAL PROPERTY

3. The parties do not own any real property, and therefore there is no real property to be divided between them.

PERSONAL PROPERTY AND VEHICLES

4. The parties have already divided their personal property and vehicles to their mutual satisfaction.

5. Each party is awarded, as his or her sole and separate property, all personal property and vehicles currently in that party's possession and control, free and clear of any claim by the other. Specifically, the Petitioner is awarded the 2025 Hyundai Santa Fe that is titled in his name alone.

6. Each party shall be solely responsible for any loan, lien, insurance, registration, or other obligation associated with the property or vehicles awarded to that party, and shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other harmless from any and all claims arising therefrom.

BANK ACCOUNTS

7. Prior to and during the course of the marriage, the parties maintained separate bank accounts, and there are no bank accounts jointly titled in both parties' names.

8. Petitioner is awarded all bank accounts titled in his individual name alone, and Respondent is awarded all bank accounts titled in her individual name alone, free and clear of any claim by the other.

9. Each party shall be solely responsible for any obligations, fees, overdrafts, or liabilities associated with the bank accounts awarded to that party, and each shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other harmless therefrom.

RETIREMENT AND INVESTMENT ACCOUNTS

10. The parties do not own any investment or retirement accounts, and therefore there are no accounts to be divided between them.

DEBTS

11. The parties have maintained their financial affairs separately, and there are no joint marital debts requiring allocation by the Court.

12. Each party shall be solely responsible for any debts, liabilities, credit obligations, or other financial responsibilities titled in that party's individual name, whether incurred before or during the marriage, free and clear of any claim by the other.

13. Each party shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other harmless from any and all claims, demands, losses, liens, damages, costs, and attorney fees arising out of or relating to any debt or obligation assigned to that party under this Decree of Divorce.

14. Each party shall notify any creditor or obligee holding a debt, obligation, or liability assigned to that party under this Decree of Divorce of the Court's division of debts, obligations, and liabilities, and of the parties' separate and current addresses, in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 15-4-6.5.

MISCELLANEOUS

15. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-406(3)(d), the Court acknowledges that each party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries on any life insurance policy or annuity contract owned by that party; that each party has affirmed that the individuals listed as beneficiaries are the intended beneficiaries after this Decree of Divorce becomes final; and that each party understands that if no changes are made to the policy or contract, the beneficiaries currently listed will receive any funds paid by the insurance company under the terms of the policy or contract.

16. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own attorney fees and costs incurred herein.

17. Each party shall execute and deliver any titles, releases, assignments, or other instruments reasonably necessary to carry out and effectuate the terms of this Decree of Divorce, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction to implement, interpret, and enforce the same.

18. This Decree of Divorce is absolute and effective upon being signed by the Court and entered by the clerk in the register of actions, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-406(5)(a).
