Parent-time transfers

12. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

13. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

14. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education plan

15. The school the children will attend is based on Steve Alexander Jasso's home residence.

16. Marissa Patricia Jasso and Steve Alexander Jasso has authority to check the children out of school. Marissa Patricia Jasso and Steve Alexander Jasso has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Marissa Patricia Jasso.

Communication with each other

17. Parents will communicate with each other by:

In person
By telephone:	Marissa Patricia Jasso	(801) 935-6142
	Steve Alexander Jasso	(602) 517-3029
By texting:	Marissa Patricia Jasso	(801) 935-6142
	Steve Alexander Jasso	(602) 517-3029

Communication with the children

18. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

19. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- In person
- By telephone

  Parents will maintain voice mail so the children can leave and receive messages.

- By text
- Other communication method: The parties may communicate regarding matters involving the minor child(ren) by telephone, text message, or through a mutually agreed-upon co-parenting communication application, such as OurFamilyWizard, TalkingParents, AppClose, or another similar application. The parties are encouraged to use the co-parenting application for matters requiring documentation, including scheduling, parent-time exchanges, school information, medical updates, extracurricular activities, reimbursement requests, and other significant parenting issues. If the parties mutually elect to use a co-parenting communication application, each parent shall maintain an active account and communicate in a respectful, child-focused, and businesslike manner. Communications through the application shall remain available as a record of the parties' exchanges and may be referenced to resolve disputes or presented to the Court, subject to the Utah Rules of Evidence. Nothing in this provision prohibits the parties from communicating by telephone or text message, particularly for time-sensitive matters or emergencies involving the immediate health, safety, or welfare of the child(ren).

Records and information sharing

20. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

22. If the children will be travelling for more than 1 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 14 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 14 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

23. Other agreements about travel by the children: A parent who elects to travel with the children during that parent's regularly scheduled parenting time shall not be entitled to make-up or compensatory parenting time for any portion of such parenting time missed as a result of the travel. The parties acknowledge and agree that voluntary travel shall not alter the established parenting time schedule, and upon the conclusion of the travel, the regular parenting time schedule shall immediately resume as set forth in this Parenting Plan, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both parties.

Child care

24. A child care provider for our children must be:

A licensed child care provider.
A relative, friend, or neighbor.
Over the age of 18.

Relocation of a parent

25. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 150 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

26. If either parent lives 150 miles or more away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parent who moved.

27. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

28. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

29. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

30. A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Marissa Patricia Jasso) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

31. Marissa Patricia Jasso's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3437. Marissa Patricia Jasso receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Marissa Patricia Jasso is employed at University of Utah Health. Marissa Patricia Jasso earns $3436.68 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

32. The adjusted gross monthly income for Marissa Patricia Jasso is $3437.

Income: Respondent (Steve Alexander Jasso) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

33. Steve Alexander Jasso's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3783. Steve Alexander Jasso receives the following gross monthly income:

a. Steve Alexander Jasso is employed at GL Pro Soccer Training. Steve Alexander Jasso earns $3783.43 gross (pre-tax) monthly income working a 40-hour a week job or less.

34. The adjusted gross monthly income for Steve Alexander Jasso is $3783.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

35. Marissa Patricia Jasso believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:

The reason(s) for deviation are absence of need of the parent to receive child support.

36. It is in the best interest of the parties' children that neither party be ordered to pay child support to the other. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.

a. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:

- a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
- a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

37. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

38. Child support will be paid as follows:

Child support payments shall be made through automatic payment withholding and/or direct deposit into a designated separate account established for the receipt of child support funds. Payments shall be made in accordance with the applicable child support order and shall be considered timely when received through the approved payment method. Both parties shall maintain accurate records of all child support payments made and received.

39. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

40. Steve Alexander Jasso will pay any ORS fees. If Marissa Patricia Jasso is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Marissa Patricia Jasso, Steve Alexander Jasso will reimburse Marissa Patricia Jasso.

41. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

42. The parties will do the following for child related support or expenses:

a. Child support shall be paid in the amount ordered by the Court and in accordance with Utah law. Payments shall be made through automatic income withholding, the Utah Office of Recovery Services, direct deposit, or another method approved by the Court. Neither party may modify, waive, or suspend child support without a written agreement approved by the Court or a subsequent Court order. The parties shall notify each other of significant changes in employment, income, or circumstances that may affect child support. Uninsured medical, dental, vision, and other reasonable child-related expenses shall be divided as ordered by the Court. Each party shall maintain records of child support payments and related expenses.

43. The Office of Recovery Services (https://ors.utah.gov/) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

44. Marissa Patricia Jasso may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

45. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Heath care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

46. Marissa Patricia Jasso must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Marissa Patricia Jasso's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Steve Alexander Jasso's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Marissa Patricia Jasso's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Steve Alexander Jasso's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

47. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

48. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

49. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.
