Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF SALT LAKE COUNTY, SALT LAKE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of ANNE HALLIDAY LENTZ, Petitioner, and JACOB STANLEY LENTZ, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE AND JUDGMENT Civil No. 264904521 Judge James Blanch Commissioner Renee Blocher

The above-entitled matter came before the Honorable Judge James Blanch. Petitioner, Anne Hallliday Lentz, (herein after referred to as “Anne” or “Petitioner”) was represented by Sydney Mateus, Legal Aid Society of Salt Lake. Respondent, Jacob Stanley Lentz, (herein after referred to as “Jacob” or “Respondent”) was regularly served but failed to appear in person or otherwise file responsive pleadings and the Court therefore enters Jacob's default. Anne has attended the Divorce Orientation and Parenting Class for Divorcing Parents and said attendance has been waived for Jacob. The Court, having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, it is hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Anne is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from Jacob, such to become final upon signature and entry herein.

Provisions Relating to Child Custody and Parent-Time

2. Anne is awarded the sole physical custody of the parties' minor child, subject to Jacob's right to parent-time at reasonable times and places pursuant to the following statutory schedules below. In order for Jacob to exercise his parent-time as indicated herein, he needs to have a stable residence for himself and the minor child, including a separate bedroom with a door for the minor child, so that Jacob may facilitate his overnight parent-time with the minor child. If Jacob does not have his own residence and a separate bedroom for the minor child when exercising parent-time, he should inform Anne, in writing, of his current address where he is residing, within 24 hours of Jacob exercising his parent-time. Jacob's brother's residence located at 3777 South 400 East, Salt Lake City, Utah, is an acceptable residence for Jacob to exercise his parent-time with the minor child, including overnight parent-time.

3. Reasonable parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule, the following schedule pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-302 shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which the noncustodial parent and the child shall be entitled:

Utah Code 81-9-302. Minimum schedule for parent-time for a child five to 18 years old.

a. Every week:

i. one weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court or Wednesday if not specified beginning at 5:30 p.m. and ending at 8:30 p.m.; or

iii. the custodial parent is entitled to uninterrupted parent-time with the child for two weeks, which may be consecutive, when school is not in session for summer break.

v. If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described above, the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.

vi. If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described above, the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for the other parent.

vii. If a custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's parent-time, the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent of the intent to interrupt parent-time within 10 days after the day on which the custodial parent receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of interrupted extended parent-time.

viii. An election should be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of the divorce decree or court order, except that the election may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the child's schedule. An election by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the decree and made a part of the parent-time order.

ix. Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule under this section, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

B. the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

xii. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day.

xiii. If there is more than one child and the children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any child returns to school.

xiv. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

xv. Virtual parent-time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.

A. If the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

1. the best interests of the child;

2. each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

3. any other factors the court considers material.

Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace, in-person parent-time.

xvi. If there is a child five to 18 years old and a child under five years old and both children are the natural or adopted children of the parties, the parents and the court should consider an upward deviation for parent-time with all the children so that parent-time is uniform based on a schedule under this section.
