Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: LAURIE BLACK (formerly Belcher), Petitioner, and GABRIEL BELCHER, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil Number: 264904560 Judge: Todd M. Olsen Commissioner: Kim M. Luhn

This matter came before the Court on Petitioner's Petition for Divorce in accordance with applicable Utah law. The Petitioner ("Mother") and Respondent ("Father") reached a settlement agreement which is filed contemporaneously with the Court. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and documents filed with the Court, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, for good cause appearing:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

JURISDICTION

1. Residency: Mother has been an actual and bona fide resident of Weber County, State of Utah, for at least three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Marriage Information: The parties were married on August 6, 2011, in Cannon Beach, Oregon and have been husband and wife since that date.

3. Date of Separation: The parties have been separated since January 2025.

4. Grounds: The parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in the marriage, rendering the continuation of the marriage impossible. Therefore, a divorce shall be granted to the parties, pursuant to U.C.A. § 30-3-1(3)(h).

CHILD CUSTODY

5. The parties have one minor child either born or adopted of this marriage:

   a. B.B. born 7/5/2012

6. There are no other children as issue of this marriage, and none are expected.

7. The parties' minor child has resided in Utah for at least six (6) months prior to the filing of this action and Utah is the home state of the minor child.

8. Neither party has participated, as a party, witness, or in any other capacity, in any other litigation concerning the custody of the parties' minor child in Utah or any other state.

9. Neither party has knowledge of any custody proceeding concerning the parties' minor child pending in a court in Utah or any other state.

10. There are no pending criminal, delinquency, or other protective order cases in any court in this State or any other state or country in which a party or any of the parties' child is involved.

CUSTODY

11. Legal Custody: The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the minor child, subject to the decision-making process outlined below.

12. Physical Custody: The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor child. Mother shall have primary custody, and Father is entitled to reasonable and liberal parent-time as the parties are able to agree. In the event the parties are unable to agree, Father shall have parent-time on alternating weekends beginning Friday night at 5 p.m. until Sunday night at 5 p.m. as well as every Wednesday night from 5 p.m. overnight until 7 a.m. on Thursday morning.

13. Exchanges: Father shall pick the child up on Wednesdays and Fridays for his scheduled parent-time, and he shall drop the child off either at home or at school on Thursday mornings. In general, pick up and drop off shall be at school when school is in session. Mother shall pick up the child on Sundays from Father's home at the end of his scheduled parent-time. The parties shall be cordial and polite during parent-time exchanges.

14. Holidays and Extended Time: The parties shall alternate parent-time for major holidays according to the schedule below. All holidays not specifically outlined herein shall not impact or change the regular parent-time schedule.

Mother	Father	New Year's Day beginning at 6 p.m. the evening before

15. Extended Parent-Time: The parties shall continue to follow the standard parent-time schedule during the summer school break.

PARENTING PLAN

16. Parenting Plan: The parties' joint-parenting relationship will continue for many years and it is in the best interests of the child to have a meaningful and quality relationship with both parents. In furtherance of that goal, the parties must incorporate the following as a binding and enforceable parenting plan:

a. Parent-time schedules mutually agreed upon by both parents are preferable to a court-imposed solution.

b. The parent-time schedule shall be utilized to maximize the continuity and stability of the child's life. The parties agree to work together in a reasonable manner to accommodate each other and to provide the child consistency and stability.

c. Special consideration shall be given to each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in their life or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

d. Each party understands the importance of exercising parent-time responsibly and consistently. Each shall use his or her best efforts to ensure that such parent-time occurs as smoothly as possible. Each party shall call the other if he or she is delayed for any reason.

e. Regular school hours shall not be interrupted for the child for the exercise of parent-time.

f. The parties shall work together to make alterations in the parent-time schedule to reasonably accommodate the work schedules of both parents, the schedules of the child, and the distance between the parties and the expenses of exercising parent-time.

g. Neither parent-time nor child support shall be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court ordered parent-time schedule.

h. The parties shall notify each other immediately of all emergency medical, educational, or legal events involving the child, including anything which requires the child to miss more than one day of school or be treated in any medical facility for any reason.

i. Each parent shall provide the other with his or her current address and telephone number at the time of this Agreement and within 24 hours of any change.

j. Both parents shall have access directly to all medical, education, and religious records, and shall notify the other party immediately in the event of a medical emergency.

k. The parties shall provide each other with the names and telephone numbers of teachers and others who work with the minor child at school, medically, or otherwise so that each party can initiate their own relationship with these professionals.

l. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored email, telephone, and virtual communications with the child while the child is in his or her care.

m. Mother shall be designated as the residential parent for purposes of identifying the appropriate school where the child will attend, for as long as she remains in the marital home.

n. Each party shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent and shall provide the other parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

17. Decision Making: The parent exercising physical custody at the time shall have the primary authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities.

18. The parties shall mutually discuss any major or significant decisions, including religious, medical, or educational decisions and attempt to reach a joint solution. Both parties must give good faith consideration to the input from the other parent in attempting to reach a shared solution. If the parties are not able to reach a shared agreement, Mother shall have authority to make the final decision.

19. Emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of a minor child shall be made by the parent who is with the child at the time, and that parent must provide notice to the other parent as soon as possible.

20. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of the final Agreement, the other parent's obligations shall not be affected.

21. Dispute Resolution: No dispute related to parental decision making or the parenting plan shall be presented to the Court without a good faith attempt by both parents to resolve the issue through counseling or mediation. The parties shall equally share the cost of any counselor or mediation to resolve a parenting dispute. If the Court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the Court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent.

22. Phone Communication: Each party is entitled to and responsible for reasonable and liberal telephone communication with the minor child when the minor child is in the custody of the other party. The child must be able to contact either parent at any time upon request.

23. Both parties must ensure that phone numbers and contact information for the other party are up to date and not blocked.

24. Communication: Each party is restrained from using the minor child as messengers for any purpose. Information relating to the child shall be provided to the other parent as soon as practical.

25. Restraints Related to the Child: Any communication between the parties must be civil in nature and free from any disparaging comments, threats, or derogatory language.

26. Each party is permanently restrained from saying or doing anything negative or derogatory against the other in the presence of the minor children. The parties shall also remove the children from the presence of any other person making such statements.

27. The parties must not demean or disparage the other parent in the presence of the child. Neither party shall excessively discuss this matter with the child, attempt to undermine the other parent's authority or otherwise involve the child in this dispute.

28. Child Rearing: The parties must focus their attention on conversations about the child rather than each other. The parties shall encourage the child to understand that differences in parenting styles and households occur, and attempt to adapt to those differences without suggesting that the other parent is better or worse. The parties shall respect the other parent's right to establish an independent life with the child so long as it is not detrimental to the child's development.

29. Each party is permanently restrained from discussing adult issues with the minor child, including finances, the status of this divorce case, or parent time issues, etc. The parties shall not put the child in the middle.

30. Each party must refrain from the use of illegal drugs or prescription drugs used in a non-prescribed manner or from using alcohol to the level of intoxication when the child is present.

31. Both parties are restrained from exposing the minor child to adult content, material harmful to minors, or other content that would be inappropriate for a child depending on his/her age.

32. Both parties shall have an affirmative duty to remove the child from the presence of another who is engaging in activity that party would be prohibited from doing themselves.

33. Travel with the Child: If either party intends to travel out of state, they shall provide the other parent, as soon as practical before the expected travel, with an itinerary, destination, and contact information where the children can be reached.

34. Relocation: If either party relocates as defined by Utah Code Ann. §81-9-209, then the parties shall be subject to the notification requirements of that statute.

CHILD SUPPORT

35. Mother is employed full time and has a total countable gross monthly income of approximately $5,487 for purposes of calculating child support.

36. Father is currently employed full time and has a gross monthly income of approximately $6,922 for purposes of calculating child support.

37. Using a joint physical custody calculator, with Mother having 245 overnights per year, and Father having 120 overnights per year, and pursuant to the Utah Child Support Guidelines, Father must pay monthly child support in the amount of $633 per month.

38. The monthly child support shall be paid via direct deposit one-half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month.

39. This child support shall continue until a minor child reaches 18 years of age or graduates from high school during their normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

40. A parent, legal guardian, or the office of recovery services may at any time petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A change in the base combined child support obligation table set forth in U.C.A. § 81-6-302 is not a substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of this section.

41. At the time the child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the child support shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the base child support obligation consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 78B-12-205 and §78B-12-301.

42. A parent, legal guardian, or the office of recovery services may at any time petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A change in the base combined child support obligation table set forth in U.C.A. § 81-6-302 is not a substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of this section.

43. Medical Insurance: Both parties shall provide medical and dental insurance for the minor child. Mother shall continue to provide medical and dental insurance coverage for the child. The parties shall equally share the child's portion of all out-of-pocket cost of the premium incurred for any medical, health, vision, or dental insurance incurred on behalf of the minor child, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

44. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in this case who are covered by such policy. This amount may be added or deducted from child support by the payor.

45. If both parents carry medical insurance for the child, each party shall pay their own premiums, with no right of reimbursement. While a dependent child is covered by the medical insurance plans of both parents, the insurance plan of Mother shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the insurance plan of Father shall be the secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's medical insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child. Both parties shall provide verification of coverage upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. The parties are required to provide notice of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty calendar days of the change.

46. Each parent shall give the other parent a duplicate insurance card to present to medical providers for care.

47. Out of Pocket Expenses: The parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, vision, and dental expenses incurred and paid out of pocket for the minor child, including but not limited to deductibles and copayments.

48. A parent who incurs medical, vision, or dental expenses on behalf of the parties' minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent with thirty (30) days of payment for such expense and shall be entitled to reimbursement of one-half by the notified party within thirty (30) calendar days. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-6-208, the parent who fails to comply with this paragraph may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of those expenses.

49. Division of Accounts: Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7, the parties may elect that a medical/dental expenses be divided by the service provider into two separate accounts for payment, one for each parent as long as the service provider receives a copy of the Decree at or before the day on which the service provider first renders services or issues a bill for fees.

50. Child Care: Each party is responsible for the cost of any daycare they require during their own parent-time.

51. School Fees: Each parent shall share equally any school fees, registration, school lunch, yearbooks, etc.

52. Extracurricular Activities: The parties shall equally be responsible for any agreed upon in writing extracurricular expenses. If the parties do not agree, the party who signs the child up for the extracurricular activity shall be solely responsible for the expenses, and both parties shall work together to facilitate transportation for the child to the extracurricular activities. The parties shall equally share all educational related expenses for the minor child.

53. Federal and State Income Tax Dependency: Laurie shall claim the minor child as a dependent for tax purposes each tax year.

SPOUSAL SUPPORT

54. Neither party is awarded alimony.

MARITAL PROPERTY

55. Marital Home: Laurie is awarded the marital home as her sole and separate property, subject to no interest by Gabe other than that identified below. Within 30 days of the entrance of the final Decree of Divorce, Gabe must sign a quit-claim deed transferring ownership of the home to Laurie. Laurie shall pay Gabe $50,000 within 120 days of the entrance of the final Decree of Divorce. Upon receipt of the $50,000 payment, Gabe's interest in the home will be satisfied. Laurie is responsible to make all payments related to the home, including mortgage, property taxes, insurance, maintenance, improvements, and any other associated costs. Laurie shall indemnify and hold Gabe harmless from any loss or liability related to the marital home. Gabe's name shall remain on the mortgage to enable Laurie to continue to reside there with the minor child. He shall not be entitled to any interest related to market changes in the value of the home, principal payments reducing the balance of the mortgage, or any other value related to the home beyond the one-time payment of $50,000 as described above.

56. Debts: Each party is responsible for their own debts and credit card accounts acquired during the marriage or separation that are not outlined here.

57. Both parties shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any loss or liability related to any debt for which they are responsible under the final Settlement Agreement.

58. Vehicles: Gabe is awarded the Nissan Rogue as his sole and separate property. Laurie shall sign the title of the Nissan Rogue transferring ownership to Gabe within 30 days of entering this Decree of Divorce. At this point, she shall also stop maintaining insurance on the Nissan Rogue. Gabe is responsible to provide insurance for both Nissans. Laurie is awarded the 2013 Toyota Corolla as her sole and separate property. Gabe is awarded the Nissan Z he acquired after the parties' separation. Gabe is awarded and shall maintain possession of the 2016 Trailer Keystone Hideout. Laurie shall sign the title of the trailer to Gabe within 30 days of entering this Decree of Divorce.

59. Both parties are solely responsible for any costs related to the vehicles they are awarded and shall hold the other harmless from any loss or liability related thereto.

60. Bank Accounts: The parties' financial accounts are already divided and their shared savings account has been closed. Each party is entitled to any bank accounts currently held in their own names. Neither party is entitled to access to or money from any of the other party's accounts or savings including bank accounts, stock, etc.

61. Retirement Accounts: Each party shall keep any retirement accounts or pension benefits held in their own names.

62. Personal Property: The parties have already divided their personal property and each party is awarded any personal property currently in their possession.

63. Other Assets: Laurie shall maintain possession of the basic yard tools/equipment in order to maintain the home. Gabe shall keep all specialized tools and equipment. Anything received by either party as a gift shall be kept by the receiver.

64. Cellphones: Laurie and Leah shall be removed from Gabe's cellphone plan upon a final Decree of Divorce. Any remaining balance on Laurie or Leah's plans shall be paid by Laurie. Gabe shall continue providing coverage for the minor child on his cell plan. Before or upon the finalization of the final Decree of Divorce, Gabe shall provide Laurie with a transfer code (port out pin) from T-Mobile.

65. Pets: The parties adopted two dogs during the marriage. Each party is responsible for paying half of any vet bills as long as the need for a veterinarian was not caused by negligent care. The dogs shall follow the child and the parent exercising parent-time shall also be entitled to time with the dog. Each parent is responsible for providing the dogs with food and supplies during their time.

MISCELLANEOUS

66. Name change: Mother is restored to the use of her maiden name, Black.

67. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Gabe shall pay for half of the fees for attorneys, filings, court fees, etc. Alternatively, these costs shall be deducted from equity paid. If Gabe shall choose to obtain his own attorney, he is responsible for all additional costs.

68. Mutual Restraints: Both parties are restrained from threatening, harassing, bothering, or harming the other party at their respective homes, future place of employment, as well as telephonically and electronically.

a. Each party is restrained from obtaining any new debt or credit in the name of the other party and from incurring any new debt on any joint account, during the pendency of this action.

b. Both parties are restrained from using the other party's likeness or image on social media and online.

c. The parties are restrained from dissipating, transferring, or in any way disposing of marital assets or accounts during the pendency of this matter, without a written agreement by the parties or further action of the Court.

69. Each party is ordered to provide a certified copy of the final Settlement Agreement and any modifications to all creditors pursuant to U.C.A. §15-4-6.5 and to effectuate compliance with the statute.

70. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provision of the Settlement Agreement entered in this case by these parties. shall a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of signing of the Agreement, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document, pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
