This matter came before the Court on the parties' Stipulation for Entry of Judgment. The Court having reviewed the Stipulation for Entry of Judgment and all pleadings and memoranda on file in the above-captioned action, and being fully advised in the premises, and for good cause showing, hereby orders, adjudges, and decrees as follows:

4. Defendants are jointly and severally liable to Plaintiff for the entire Judgment Amount.

5. If any of the payments required in section 2 above are not made in full when due, Mulligan may file with this Court a Notice of Non-Payment of Judgment indicating which payments Defendants made and which they failed to make in whole or in part. If Defendants fail to contest the amounts set forth in the Notice of Non-Payment of Judgment within fourteen (14) days of it being filed, then this Judgment shall be amended to provide that Plaintiff may execute on the amount of the unpaid Judgment set forth in the Notice of Non-Payment of Judgment. If Defendants dispute the factual contention made in the Notice of Non-Payment of Judgment, then within fourteen (14) days Defendants shall submit evidence of the payments they claim to have made which were not accounted for by Mulligan in the Notice of Non-Payment of Judgment. If Defendants proffer any such evidence, then Mulligan shall have fourteen (14) business days to dispute Defendants' evidence or Defendants' evidence will be deemed admitted for purposes of ascertaining the amount of the unpaid Judgment. If there is a dispute over the evidence, then an evidentiary hearing will be scheduled and held.
