Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: ELLEE RENAE GORRINGE, Petitioner, and CORBIN MARCUS GORRINGE, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264903332 Judge Dianna Gibson Commissioner Michelle Blomquist

Based on the Stipulation of the parties, the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law previously entered, the pleadings and affidavits on file, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. Petitioner is hereby granted a Decree of Divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties. The grounds for Divorce being irreconcilable differences, the divorce to become final and absolute upon entry.

2. Petitioner is now and has been for a period of three months or more immediately prior to the filing of the Petition for Divorce in this action, a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

3. The parties to this action are husband and wife, having been married in Laie, Honolulu County, State of Hawaii on July 19, 2025.

4. Irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties, making continuation of the marriage impossible.

5. The parties separated on May 25, 2026.

6. The parties mainly maintained their marital domicile in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and the acts complained of herein occurred primarily in Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

7. The parties do not have any children as issue of their marriage and none are expected.

8. The parties are both able to financially support themselves and neither shall be entitled to or awarded alimony or future alimony.

9. The Petitioner shall be responsible for all costs associated with her own health care, including but not limited to: providing health insurance, health insurance premiums, insurance co-payments, all out-of-pocket medical expenses, and all non-covered medical bills. The Petitioner shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold the Respondent harmless from liability or costs relating to Petitioner’s health care or accident insurance.

10. The Respondent shall be responsible for all costs associated with his own health care, including but not limited to: providing health insurance, health insurance premiums, insurance co-payments, all out-of-pocket medical expenses, and all non-covered medical bills. The Respondent shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold the Petitioner harmless from liability or costs relating to Respondent's health care or accident insurance.

11. During the course of the marriage the parties did not acquire any real property.

12. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired marital personal property. The parties have already divided the personal property in a fair and equitable manner and the Court should affirm the division. Each party shall retain all personal property currently in his or her possession, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

13. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came unless such has been commingled, gifted, and/or transferred in some manner that makes it marital property. In addition, all specific gifts to one party shall be awarded to that party.

14. During the course of the marriage the parties have not acquired, or have not acquired interests in joint marital vehicles.

15. Petitioner shall be awarded the vehicle currently in her possession. Petitioner shall be responsible for all costs associated with the vehicle(s), including but not limited to: payments, maintenance, insurance, registration fees, taxes, liabilities, gas, repairs, and general upkeep. The Petitioner shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold Respondent harmless from liability or costs relating to the vehicle in her possession.

16. Respondent shall be awarded the vehicle currently is his possession. Respondent shall be responsible for all costs associated with the vehicle(s), including but not limited to:

payments, maintenance, insurance, registration fees, taxes, liabilities, gas, repairs, and general upkeep. The Respondent shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold Petitioner harmless from liability or costs relating to the vehicle in his possession.

17. The parties have a joint marital banking account that they have already divided in a fair and reasonable manner. The Court should affirm the division of the marital banking account. The parties shall close this account.

18. The parties shall each be awarded the funds in their own individual bank accounts. The parties each waive any and all claims that they have in the other party's individual bank accounts.

19. The parties shall each be awarded their own individual 401k, pension, retirement plan and retirement savings, if any, free of any claim from the other party. The parties each waive any and all claims that they have in the other party's individual 401k, pension, retirement plan and retirement savings.

20. The parties did not acquire any marital debt. Should any debts exist, each debt shall be the responsibility of the party incurring the debt. Any existing debts in the name of a party shall be the sole responsibility of that party.

21. It is reasonable and proper that all debts and obligations incurred independently by the parties before the date of marriage and after the date of separation unless provided otherwise herein, shall be the sole responsibility of the party who incurred the particular debt.

22. The Petitioner shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold the Respondent harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred by Petitioner in her name and all debt incurred before the date of marriage and after the date of separation.

23. The Respondent shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold the Petitioner harmless from liability on all debts and obligations incurred by Respondent in his and all debt incurred before the date of marriage and after the date of separation.

24. All joint accounts shall be closed permanently, and the parties are required to provide adequate proof of closing such accounts to the other within a reasonable time. Petitioner and Respondent have a joint banking account. The parties will cooperate to close both accounts no later than 14 days after the signing of the Stipulation.

25. Neither party shall obtain any new debt or credit in the name of the other party or obtain any new debt on any jointly held accounts.

26. The parties shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs incurred in relation to this matter.

27. In any action Petitioner or Respondent is required to take to enforce an order concerning division of property or any other matter addressed in the Decree of Divorce, the non-prevailing party shall pay the prevailing party's attorney fees and costs.

28. The parties shall file individual tax returns for the 2026 tax year, and each year moving forward.

29. The Respondent shall be responsible and solely obligated for all tax debt, tax obligations, and unpaid taxes related to 2025 taxes for the parties. Respondent shall assume, pay, indemnify, and hold Petitioner harmless from liability or costs related to all such tax debt, tax obligations, and unpaid taxes.

30. Each party shall be responsible for their own outstanding taxes owed or tax liabilities incurred before the date of marriage and after the date of separation. Each party shall be solely responsible and shall pay, indemnify, and hold the other party harmless.

31. Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other party such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

32. Petitioner shall be entitled to restore her maiden name to Moore, should she elect to do so.

33. The Respondent understands that he has the right to retain an attorney to consult with him about this Divorce, to review and advise him on all of the documents relating to this divorce, and to otherwise assist him and represent him in this Divorce. Respondent also affirmatively states that he understands that the Petitioner's attorney only represents the Petitioner and not the Respondent.

34. The Court shall grant such other and further relief as it may deem just and appropriate in this matter.
