Respondent's Attorney

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of NOMAN KHAN, Petitioner, & SAHAR SOOMRO, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 254902468 Judge Todd M. Shaughnessy Commissioner Russell Minas

Petitioner, Noman Khan, pro se, and Respondent, Sahar Soomro, through her attorney, Nathaniel Garrabrandt stipulated to a full and final resolution of all issues raised in this matter pursuant to an agreement reached during a Judicial Settlement Conference, on July 22, 2026. From the records, files, and papers in this matter, the Court being fully advised, and having previously made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now

ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES

1. The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing by and between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved and each Party is hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from the other, to become absolute and final upon entry by the Court.

2. Grounds. Since the marriage of the parties, there have arisen irreconcilable differences between the parties, making it impossible to continue the marital relationship.

3. Child: The parties are the parents of one minor child: N.K., born January 24, 2023.

4. Custody: Parties are awarded joint legal custody, and Sahar is awarded primary physical custody of N.K.

5. Parent-Time: Parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If they cannot agree, Noman shall be entitled to the following parent-time.

6. Until the Minor Child turns five years old (January 24, 2028), Sahar will have primary physical custody. During this time, Noman will have parent-time as follows:

a. On Tuesday, for his mid-week, Noman may pick N.K. up from daycare and then Sahar shall pick him up from Noman's house at 6:30 p.m.

b. On Wednesday and Thursday, Noman may pick N.K. up from daycare, and Sahar shall pick him up from Noman's house at 7:00 p.m.

c. Monday is Sahar's day, unless the parties agree otherwise.

d. Weekends until September 2026 shall be every other weekend. On Noman's weekend, he shall pick N.K. up from daycare on Friday, and Sahar shall pick him up from Noman's house at 7:30 pm. On that Saturday of Noman's weekend, Noman shall pick N.K. up after swim lessons, which is approximately 1:30 or 2:00, and then Sahar shall pick him up from Noman's house on 7:30 pm on Sundays.

e. Commencing September 2026, Noman shall be entitled to parent-time pursuant to Utah Code, Section 81-9-302. For Noman's alternating weekends, he shall pick N.K. up from daycare on Friday, and Sahar shall pick him up Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

7. Return to Mediation: The parties shall return to mediation no later than N.K.'s fifth birthday, January 24, 2028, to reassess custody and parent-time in light of the child's developmental needs. If mediation fails, either party may seek court review without prejudice and the Court shall consider whether the existing schedule continues to serve the child's best interest. The parties will use Natalie Malovich as mediator, so long as she is still mediating.

8. Notice: If a parent is not able to pick the child up from daycare, they shall give the other parent 48 hours' notice, if possible, so they can make appropriate arrangements. If Noman is traveling and it affects his parent-time, he shall provide Sahar three weeks' notice, if possible, so that she can make appropriate arrangements as well.

9. Exchanges: Exchanges at the parties' homes will be curbside.

10. Holidays: Holidays will be as follows:

a. Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Adh: In addition to the foregoing holiday schedule, the parties shall alternate Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Adh, with Sahar having Eid-ul-Fitr in even years from noon until 6:00 p.m. and Eid-ul-Adh in odd years from noon until 6:00 pm.

b. A parent exercising parent-time for a child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the minor child's birthday.

c. If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that day.

d. Extended: For extended parent-time with the minor child, each parent shall be entitled to two one-week blocks of extended parent-time, to be exercised non-consecutively. Neither party may schedule their extended parent-time blocks with less than seven days between blocks.

i. Notification: Parties shall alternate exercising priority for designation of extended parent-time, with Sahar having priority in even years and Noman having priority in odd years. The party with priority shall provide notice to the other parent of extended parent-time dates no later than April 15 of each year, and the other parent shall provide their designated holiday parent-time no later than May 1st. If a parent fails to timely notify under this provision, the other parent may determine the schedule for the summer break for both parents.

e. Conflict and Precedence: Changes shall not be made to the parent-time schedule, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

i. The holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day; and Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Adha

ii. The holiday schedule for the minor child's birthdays, unless a parent is exercising extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the extended parent-time;

iii. The holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or the child's birthday;

iv. Extended parent-time

v. The schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

11. Relocation: The parties acknowledge that Sahar is currently employed as a physician with Intermountain Health and maintains a stable, established professional practice in Utah with a regular patient population. Parties further acknowledge the minor child's best interests are served by stability and continued residence in Utah where both parents reside and exercise parent-time. At the time of the parties' stipulation, no relocation by Sahar outside the state is anticipated or contemplated. In the event Sahar seeks to relocate the minor child outside the state of Utah, such relocation shall constitute material change in circumstances and shall require court approval pursuant to Utah law. In any such proceeding, the Court shall consider whether continued primary physical custody with Sahar remains in the child's best interest, including whether custody or parent-time shall be modified to preserve the child's relationship with Noman.

12. Car seats: The parties shall be required to use age-appropriate car seats whenever they are transporting the minor child.

13. International Travel with Child: Regarding international travel (in particular to Pakistan), such travel shall not occur until N.K. is five years old. When Noman wants to take the child to Pakistan, he shall give Sahar three months' advanced notice. Such travel with the child shall be for no longer than ten days, and Sahar may accompany him. If Noman wants to stay longer than ten days, Sahar can bring the child home.

14. Parenting Plan/Joint Decision-Making: The parties shall engage in good-faith discussions to reach agreement on major decisions affecting their child. If they are unable to reach an agreement, they will consult with an authority in the area of the dispute. if the parties are then unable to reach an agreement, they shall attend mediation before they may bring the matter before the court. Sahar, who is a physician, will have presumptive authority to make routine medical decisions for the minor child. Nonroutine, invasive, elective, long-term medical decisions, including but not limited to surgery, long-term medication, mental health treatment, or change in primary care providers shall require advance notice and good-faith consultation with Noman when reasonably practical.

a. In non-emergency circumstances, Sahar shall provide notice of proposed treatment and supporting information sufficiently in advance to allow meaningful input. In emergency situations, Sahar may act unilaterally, but she shall provide Noman with notice and relevant records as soon as reasonably practical thereafter.

b. Nothing herein limits either party's right to seek court review where appropriate.

15. Co-Parenting App: The parties will share information, and they will use an app such as OurFamilyWizard (or a similar app), with cost shared between the parties.

16. Mutual Restraining Orders:

b. Impairing Substances. The parties are restrained from consuming illegal drugs or non-prescribed controlled substances. The parties are restrained from consuming alcohol to intoxication when the minor child is in their care or within 24 hours prior to caring for the minor child and from allowing the minor child to be in the presence of any other person who the parties suspect or have reason to suspect may be under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or non-prescribed drugs.

c. Disparagement. Both parties are restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the child's love and affection for the other parent, including, but not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in front of the child or speaking to the child about the issues in this case, or from attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or visitation. This includes any comments about the other parent's actions that may be construed as having a negative impact on the other parent's relationship with the child. Both parties are restrained from discussing divorce issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

d. Supportiveness. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent.

e. Harassment. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party. This includes unreasonable contact between parent and child during the other parent's parenting time.

f. Physical Discipline. The parties will not use or threaten to use corporal punishment or physical discipline on the minor child

g. Belittling. The parties shall not disparage, belittle or demean the minor child. Healthy correction and appropriate discipline will not be considered demeaning or disparaging to the child.

h. Both parties shall have an affirmative duty to prevent third parties from engaging in the conduct they hare herein prohibited from engaging under this section, and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations, removing the child from the presence of third-party violators, if necessary.

17. Supervision with Third Parties: Each parent shall ensure appropriate supervision of the minor child when third parties are present, consistent with the child's safety and best interests. The child shall not be picked up from or dropped off at either parent's residence or the child's daycare by third parties absent mutual written agreement of the parents or exigent circumstances. Any knowing or repeated violation of this provision may be considered by the court in determining parent-time.

18. Child Support: Noman's income for child support purposes is $4,900 per month, and Sahar's is $21,909.18 per month. Noman's monthly child support obligation is therefore $409 per month.

a. As part of the parties' compromise to reach a global resolution, \there are no arrears for daycare or child support.

19. Tax Credits: Parties shall alternate claiming the minor child for tax purposes, with Sahar claiming for even years and Noman claiming for odd years. Noman must be fully current on his child support obligation by December 31 of each year in order to claim the minor child for tax purposes.

20. Childcare Expenses: Pursuant to Utah Code, Section 81-6-209, the parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related child-care expenses actually paid by a parent.

a. A parent shall begin paying his or her share of child-care expenses on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of a child-care expense.

b. The parent who incurs child-care expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child-care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider; and, thereafter, on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of child-care provider or the monthly expense of child-care within thirty calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring child-care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

c. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the child-care expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within thirty days of receipt of the written verification.

21. Medical Expenses: Pursuant to Utah Code, Section 81-6-208, if health, dental, and optical insurances for the benefit of the minor child is available to either party, it is reasonable and proper that the party shall be required to maintain such insurance:

a. Both Parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for Minor Children's portion of insurance. Minor Children's portion of the premium shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children of Parties in this case.

b. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses, including deductibles and co-payments incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.

c. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of Minor Children and, thereafter, on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services, of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that parent first knew or should have known of the change.

d. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with subparagraphs C and D above.

f. The parent to whom written verification is provided shall reimburse the parent who incurred the medical expenses one-half of the amount of the out-of-pocket costs within 30 days of receipt of the written verification.

g. If, at any point in time, Minor Children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Sahar shall be primary coverage for Minor Children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Noman shall be secondary coverage for Minor Children. If Minor Children are not covered by a parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by another member of the parent's household, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the member of the household shall be treated as if it is the plan of the parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of Minor Children.

22. Alimony: Both parties are capable of supporting themselves. Neither party is awarded alimony.

23. Real Property: The parties have acquired three real properties during the course of the marriage, which shall be awarded as follows:

a. 832 W. Swinley Dr., Murray, UT 84123

i. This property is awarded to Noman, free and clear of any obligation to Sahar. Both parties represent that Sahar is neither on the mortgage or the title.

b. 6646 S. Wynwood Park Dr., Murray 84123.

i. This property is awarded to Sahar, free and clear of any obligation to Noman. Both parties represent that Noman is neither on the mortgage nor the title.

c. Raw Land: The parcel of land located in Duchesne County is awarded to Noman free and clear of any obligation to Sahar.

24. Personal Property: The parties' personal property is be awarded as the parties have already divided it.

25. Vehicles: The parties are awarded the vehicles in their possession, subject to any debt thereon.

26. Business Interests: Noman is awarded the following entities along with their bank accounts, debts, and liabilities without claim by Sahar: PinPark, free and clear of any obligation to Sahar. Noman shall hold Sahar harmless from any and all liabilities associated with the business.

27. Financial Accounts: There exist no joint accounts. Parties are awarded the financial accounts in their own names.

28. Debts: There exist no joint debts. The parties are responsible for all debts in their own names.

a. Each party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless for any liability associated with any debts assumed by that party.

b. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own debts acquired since the date of separation.

29. Retirement: The parties are awarded their own retirement and pension accounts.

30. Attorney Fees: Each party shall pay his or her own attorney's fees and costs incurred in this divorce action.

31. Execution of Documents: Each party shall execute and deliver to the other such documents as are necessary to implement the provisions of this agreement.
