Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: GLEN MANROSS, Petitioner, And, DEIRDRE IRENE MANROSS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264902373 Judge: Chelsea Koch Commissioner: Michelle Blomquist

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER came before the Court pursuant to the parties' Stipulation ("stipulation" or "agreement") and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

Jurisdiction of the Court and Grounds were established by the declaration and stipulation filed with the Court. The Court has reviewed the parties' agreement and approves of the same. The Court, now being fully advised in the premises, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and for good cause showing, makes its order as follows:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. The parties are granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because the parties have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making the continuance of the marriage impossible.

REAL PROPERTY

2. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired real property located at 9071 South Winter Wren Drive, Sandy, Utah 84093. Deirdre shall have possession of the real property until it is sold as discussed herein. The real property shall be placed on the market to be sold within three (3) years of the Decree of Divorce being signed with an agreed upon realtor. If the parties cannot agree upon a realtor, Deirdre shall propose three (3) realtors from which Glen shall choose. The parties shall follow the realtor's advice about listing amounts, drops or increases in price, responding to and making offers, repairs, etc. There is no debt on the real property. Once the real property is sold, the parties shall pay off the costs of sale (including any agreed-upon realtor recommended repairs to prepare for sale) and then divide the remaining equity equally. Deirdre shall reimburse Glen, from her half of the equity, $11,400 per year until the home is sold, which represents half of his rent each year, from the time the Decree of Divorce is signed until the home equity is divided.

3. Deirdre shall be responsible for all day-to-day expenses associated with the real property until it is sold. To the extent any major repairs are needed, the parties must first discuss and agree upon the repair and thereafter shall equally share the cost thereof. Neither party may encumber the home with any additional debt unless agreed upon in writing by the other party.

4. As an equalization of the entire case including, but not limited to, real property, personal property, assets, debts, all accounts, all payments, and alimony, once the real property is sold, Glen shall pay to Deirdre $124,000 from his half of the equity in the house. Glen's reimbursement of up to $11,400 per year as referenced in paragraph 9 above shall be deducted from this amount upon sale of the home.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

5. During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired certain items of personal property. Each party shall be awarded their own clothing, jewelry, watches, shoes, bags, gifts, and other personal items.

6. The other items of personal property shall be awarded as follows:

9. Glen has one federal and one state pension account. The parties shall work together to ensure that Glen's pensions are divided pursuant to the Woodward formula with Deirdre receiving half of the portion that was earned during the marriage. The cost for the current selection of survivor benefits shall be divided equally between the parties out of their portion of the pension. If the parties cannot agree on whom to divide the pensions, they shall use and pay equally for Rori Hendrix.

DEBT AND OBLIGATIONS

10. Each party shall be awarded all debts and obligations in their own name. There is no known marital debt between the parties. Any undisclosed debt shall be awarded to the person who incurred the debt free and clear of any liability to the other party.

ALIMONY

11. Both parties are capable of supporting themselves financially and neither has extra left over for the other. No alimony shall be awarded now or in the future.

TAXES

12. The parties shall be responsible for their own taxes beginning with tax year 2026. Deirdre may claim the remaining eligible child on her taxes for tax year 2026. Glen may claim the child for tax year 2027 if possible.

STATE ASSISTANCE

13. Neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

Physical Custody

14. The parties shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor child. Dierdre's residence shall be deemed N.O.M.'s primary residence. Parent-time shall be as the parents agree taking into consideration N.O.M.'s preferences. If they cannot agree, then Glen shall be allowed to exercise up to half the time with N.O.M.. if he is able to manage the schedule around N.O.M.'s schedule.

15. Deirdre shall have parent-time Thanksgiving of 2026.

16. Glen shall have parent-time the first half of the child's Christmas break for 2027. Deirdre shall have the second half of Christmas break for 2027.

Legal Custody

17. The parents shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child pursuant to the parenting plan herein.

PARENTING PLAN

Virtual Parent-Time

18. Both parents shall encourage liberal phone visitations. The child's request to call a parent shall be reasonably accommodated.

19. Phone calls shall not be unreasonably denied by the residing parent.

Decisions Regarding the Child

20. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the child shall be made by the parent with whom the child resides at the time. Either parent may make emergency decisions regarding the health and safety of the child. However, if there is an emergency, the knowledgeable parent shall immediately notify the other parent and keep them informed until they can be incorporated into the situation fully.

21. The parties shall discuss the significant decisions regarding the child, including, but not limited to, the child's education, health care, and religious upbringing. If the parties cannot reach a mutual decision, both parents shall consult with the relevant professionals and attempt to find a resolution in good faith. If they cannot make a decision, they shall attend mediation, splitting the costs equally. If they still cannot make a decision, either may file a motion with the court.

Communication Between Parties

22. Neither party may attempt to have the child transfer verbal or written messages between the parties.

23. The parties may communicate regarding parenting by phone, email, and text.

Respect and Cooperation

24. The parents shall be absolutely restrained from harassing, stalking, surveilling, abusing, or demeaning the other parent.

25. Neither parent may attempt to harm the relationship between a parent and the child. This includes making disparaging comments about the other parent or their family or allowing the child to be in the presence of anyone who does.

26. The parents shall be absolutely restrained from discussing this case, support, the other parent's life/relationships, or any other adult topics within range of the child.

Discipline

27. Neither party nor any third party may use corporal punishment on the child. The parties shall not yell at, swear at, or demean the child in a manner that is not calculated to educate the child. Any discipline shall be reasonably aimed at helping the child learn and grow from the experience.

Travel

28. For emergency purposes, whenever the child travels away from their residence overnight, the parent shall provide the other parent with notice and itinerary of the travel along with contact information to reach the child while he is away.

CHILD SUPPORT

29. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-202 et seq., child support shall be paid as follows:

a. Glen's income for child support purposes is $6,933 per month and Deirdre's income is $11,916 per month. The custody is based on an allowance of 50/50 time. However, due to the distance between the parties, it is not likely that Glen can exercise all of that parent-time. Therefore, in order to ensure the child has proper support, the parties agree that Glen shall pay support based on the sole calculator, with Glen having 110 overnights per year and Deirdre having 265 overnights per year. Therefore, Glen shall pay child support to Deirdre each month in the amount of $571 per month.

b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for a child terminates at the time (1) the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

c. The monthly child support shall be paid one half on or before the 5th day of each month, and the other half on or before the 20th day of each month.

d. If the physical living arrangements of a child changes from what is ordered (not including temporary changes for parent-time or visitation), then a parent whom the child is not residing with shall be required to pay to whoever the child is residing with the amount of support set out above for that parent. The parent shall automatically begin paying this base support amount without the need to modify this child support order.

30. The parties shall equally share the costs of the child’s extracurriculars that they agree upon in writing.

31. Glen shall pay Deirdre $207 per month beginning October 1, 2026 (to be paid by the 5th of each month) to go toward his private school tuition until the child graduates in May of 2027.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL CARE

32. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-208, it is reasonable and proper that:

a. Currently, Glen provides health insurance for the child and shall continue to do so as long as it is reasonably available to him.

b. Both parties shall share equally all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the insurance. The calculation shall be a per capita share of the policy.

c. The parties shall share equally all medical, dental, therapeutic, orthodontic, and other medical needs for the minor child. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses for the minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The reimbursement shall be made within thirty (30) days of receiving notice.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses shall be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the Subparagraph "d" above.

f. If the child is double covered by comparable insurance, then the parties shall each pay their own premiums.

g. As an equitable agreement of the issues in this case, if Glen chooses to continue to cover both of the children into their adulthood, the parties shall equally divide the premiums for their health insurance.

MEDIATION

33. If there is a non-emergent dispute between the parties, the parties shall attend mediation prior to bringing the issue to the Court. Each party shall attend the mediation and participate in good faith; and mediation may be conducted virtually.

EXECUTING DOCUMENTS

34. The parties shall sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this document. If a party fails to execute a document within sixty (60) days of the signing of the Stipulation, the other party may bring a motion to enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 shall have the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party. The Court shall order attorney fees and costs for the compliant party.

COOPERATION

35. The parties shall cooperate with the other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect changes in titles to property to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure the Court's orders are carried out in every detail.

Failure to cooperate may constitute contempt and the Court may order a non-cooperating party to pay attorney fees, pay a fine, pay damages, pay interest, and serve jail time, among other remedies.

36. Each party is awarded all debt, liability, and equity in anything they are awarded in this document. Each party shall hold the other harmless from any award they receive in this document.

ATTORNEY FEES

37. Each party shall pay their own attorney fees through the signing of the Stipulation and reasonable paperwork to finalize the case.

FINALIZATION OF THE CASE

38. The parties shall work together cooperatively via email to finalize the divorce case. Ms. Hawkes will prepare the paperwork for the case substantively based on the parties' Stipulation. The parties will follow the timelines in UTAH R. CIV. P. 7(j) in presenting proposed drafts and approving them and filing them with the Court for ratification if no response is received.
