IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH, WEST JORDAN DEPARTMENT

cHRISTOPHER HANSEN, Petitioner, vs. AMY STRATTON HANSEN, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No.: 254903384 Commissioner: SAGERS Judge: MANN

BASED UPON the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law filed herewith, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Bonds of Matrimony. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Petitioner and Respondent be and the same are hereby dissolved.

2. Minor Children. There are no minor children born as issue of the marriage.

3. Real Property. The parties own no home or real property. However, Petitioner shall maintain the lease located at 3948 Pine Tree Drive E, SLC, Utah 84124 (the "Residence"). Petitioner shall have sole possession of the Residence.

4. Personal Property. The parties should be awarded the personal property they brought into the marriage free and clear from any claim by the other party. That the parties should be awarded all the remaining property in their current possession and it has been equitably divided by the parties by stipulation. Respondent's Pogo sticks have been awarded to her and have already been returned to the respondent.

5. Other Personal Property. Petitioner stipulates to compensate Respondent for a used trampoline for $750. Thus, Respondent is to be awarded $750 from the marital estate.

6. Businesses. The parties own no businesses.

7. Vehicles. The parties should be awarded the vehicles they brought into the marriage and any debt associated with them, free and clear from any claim by the other party.

8. Retirement Accounts. Respondent is awarded $14,496 of Petitioner's retirement funds from the date of the marriage to the date of Separation.

9. Marital Checking Account. The Respondent is awarded $3,768.86 cents from the marital checking account.

10. Savings Accounts and Checking Accounts. Any other financial accounts of the parties shall be awarded to the parties in their own individual names, free and clear from any claim by the other party.

11. Taxes and Tax Amendment. That the parties should file separate taxes for 2026. The Parties filed an amended tax return for 2025. The Parties agreed to split the extra return money. The Parties agree that Respondent is still owed $900. Respondent is awarded $900 from Respondent's amended tax return.

12. Total Awarded to Respondent: The Court finds that Respondent is entitled to $19,914.86. This sum comes from the following figures: $14,496 from the Petitioner's retirement accounts, $3,768.86 from marital checking account, $900 from the Amended Tax Return, and $750 for the damaged trampoline.

13. Credits to Respondent. Respondent previously received a total of $24,232.19 from the Petitioner and the marital estate around the time of separation. Thus, no additional financial compensation will be awarded to Respondent as she has already received more than she would have been awarded. Petitioner does not request that the excess be returned to him.

14. Debts and Obligations. During the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have incurred various debts and obligations. The Parties have no joint debts together. Petitioner and Respondent should assume and pay any debts remaining in his and her individual name. Petitioner and Respondent should each assume and pay all debts and obligations incurred by them subsequent to the date of separation. Petitioner should indemnify and hold Respondent harmless on all debts and obligations Petitioner is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15). That Respondent should indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless on all debts and obligations Respondent is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15). That if either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not made in a timely manner, the secured asset should be placed for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payments on a delinquent asset, which the other party is ordered to pay, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney fees from the other party who failed to timely pay the debt. That the allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other party. As a result, the parties should not discharge the debts in bankruptcy if it causes the non-bankrupt party to be liable for the debt. The parties understand that this provision may not be binding on the bankruptcy court.

15. Alimony. That neither party should be awarded any past, present, or future alimony.

16. Attorney Fees. That each party should be responsible for their own attorney fees, if any.

17. Mutual Restraining Order. The parties should not make disparaging remarks to one another either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties should be mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party.

18. Health Insurance. Upon entry of the Decree of Divorce, Petitioner shall have no further obligation to provide, maintain, or pay for health, dental, vision, or other medical insurance coverage for Respondent.

19. Maiden Name. Respondent shall have the option of restoring her maiden name.

20. Deeds and Other Documents. Each party should execute and deliver to the other party such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce.
