ROBERTO CARLOS VARGAS,	Commissioner Michelle Blomquist
Respondent.

THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER comes before the Court for a final entry of the Decree of Divorce. The Court, having signed a Default Certificate on October 1, 2026 and reviewed further pleadings in this matter, having entered appropriate Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law consistent with Petitioner's Verified Petition for Nunc Pro Tunc Divorce finding said Petition fair, equitable and in the best interests of the parties, and otherwise being fully advised in the premises, for good cause appearing, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE as follows:

PROVISIONS RELATING TO JURISDICTION

1. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

2. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-402

PROVISIONS RELATING TO GOOD CAUSE FOR NUNC PRO TUNC ORDER

4. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 81-4-103 there is good cause to grant a nunc pro tunc Decree of Divorce based on the following:

c. The Venezuelan court had jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the divorce. Both parties voluntarily participated in the proceedings, and the decree entered on August 3, 2023 is final.

d. Recognition of the Venezuelan decree is consistent with principles of international comity and does not violate the public policy of the State of Utah.

e. Entry of a nunc pro tunc decree shall not prejudice either party because there are no minor children of the marriage and the parties have already resolved all issues relating to property, debts, and support.
