The Petitioner, Chloe Roberts, and the Respondent, Savanna Roberts, have entered into a written Stipulation resolving all outstanding divorce issues, which has been filed with the court. The Court has received and accepted the parties' Agreement, reviewed the file, and being otherwise duly advised, having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The bonds of matrimony existing between Petitioner and Respondent are hereby dissolved. In addition, all other remaining issues in this matter, outlined below, are to become final and absolute upon entry by the court.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT-TIME

1. There are two minor children born or adopted between the parties, to wit: C.R. (born January 2021) and C.R. (born August 2023).

2. The Respondent is awarded sole legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall be governed by the Parenting Plan set forth herein.

3. The Respondent is awarded sole physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time with the minor children shall be as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree upon a parent-time schedule, the following provisions shall apply:

a. Parties Residing Within 150 Miles. So long as the parties reside within one hundred fifty (150) miles of one another, Petitioner shall exercise parent-time as the noncustodial parent pursuant to the parent-time schedule set forth in Utah Code § 81-9-302.

b. Parties Residing More Than 150 Miles Apart. If the parties reside more than one hundred fifty (150) miles apart, parent-time shall be governed by the applicable long-distance and relocation provisions of Utah Code § 81-9-209, with Respondent designated as the custodial parent and Petitioner designated as the noncustodial parent.

4. The parties may mutually agree in writing to parent-time arrangements that differ from the statutory schedules when such arrangements are in the best interests of the minor children.

5. Respondent’s residence shall be identified as the primary residence for education purposes. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

6. Respondent shall be permitted to relocate outside the State of Utah with the minor children. Petitioner acknowledges and consents to Respondent's relocation with the minor children and agrees that Respondent shall not be required to obtain Petitioner's additional consent prior to the relocation, subject to any notice or other requirements imposed by applicable law or court order.

CHILD SUPPORT

7. Petitioner is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $12,500.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

8. Respondent is currently employed and has a gross monthly income of $2,773.00 for the purposes of calculating child support.

9. The sole custody worksheet shall be used with the Petitioner’s income set at $4,082.00 and the Respondent’s income set at $3,839.00.

10. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-101 et seq., a child support order shall be entered pursuant to the statutory guidelines as follows:

a. Petitioner shall be ordered to pay Respondent the sum of $1,781.00 per month beginning the first of the month following the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce. The sum is known as the base child support award, for the minor child of the parties, pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, until a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award is automatically adjusted based on the remaining children and the incomes from the most recent support order.

b. The base child support award should be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the noncustodial parent by order for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days. If the dependent child is a recipient of Public Assistance from the State of Utah (T.A.N.F.), any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

c. The mandatory income withholding relief provisions of the Utah Code Annotated may be instituted at this time. Said income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income should be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor no longer owes child support to the obliged.

d. There are currently no child support arrearages.

e. Each of the parties should be under mutual obligation to notify the other if there is a change in income of more than 30% and the change is not temporary in nature.

f. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

g. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-101 et seq, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

11. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Petitioner or Respondent should maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then it shall be determined by the preference of the custodial parent. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, the Petitioner's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and the Respondent's shall be considered secondary.

a. Petitioner shall be responsible for all out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the insurance. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

c. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

d. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

12. Respondent shall be solely responsible for one hundred percent (100%) of all reasonable work-related childcare expenses incurred for the minor children.

TAX EXEMPTION

13. The parties shall share in the child tax credit, exemption, or deduction for State and Federal income tax purposes as follows:

a. Petitioner shall claim both children for the 2026, 2027, and 2028 tax years.

b. Beginning the 2029 tax year, and as long as there are two minor children, Petitioner will claim C.R. (born January 2021) each year and Respondent will claim C.R. (born August 2023) each year.

c. When only one minor child remains, the parties will alternate years with Petitioner claiming C.R. (born August 2023) in odd years and Respondent claiming C.R. (born August 2023) in even years

14. For the Petitioner to claim a minor child, she must be current on all her child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

17. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.

VEHICLES

18. Each party shall be responsible for the debts and liabilities related to their separate vehicles and shall hold the other party harmless from any liability associated therewith. b. Alimony shall be paid by the first (1st) day of every month.

c. Alimony payments shall continue through March 2029, with the final payment made on March 1, 2029, or until Respondent cohabitates or remarries, whichever occurs sooner. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.
