PRIVATE RECORD

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT,

IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: JAMIE SHAWN BASSETT, Petitioner, and BROCK BASSETT, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 264901216 JUDGE AMANDA MONTAGUE COMMISSIONER JOANNA SAGERS

THIS MATTER has come before the Court on Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce and after the parties have entered into a Stipulation and Settlement Agreement resolving all issues in this case. The Court, having reviewed the file and being familiar with the pleadings and other documents therein, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised,

HEREBY ORDERS, ADJUDGES AND DECREES:

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

1. Jurisdiction. This Court's exercise of jurisdiction is proper under Utah Code Ann. § 78A-5-102 (general jurisdiction of district courts), § 81-4-402 (residency), § 81-4-405 (grounds for divorce), § 78B-3a-201 (venue), Title 81, Chapter 8 (Uniform Interstate Family Support Act), and Title 81, Chapter 11 (Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act).

2. Decree of Divorce. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce, final upon entry, severing the bonds of matrimony on the grounds of irreconcilable differences. Petitioner's Verified Petition for Divorce and Respondent's Counter-Petition for Divorce are hereby resolved in conformity with the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement.

CHILDREN

3. Custody. The parties are the natural parents of two (2) minor children: M.J.B., born July 31, 2021, and B.R.B., born July 3, 2023. The parties shall share joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the minor children. Neither party is designated as the sole or primary custodial parent. The parties shall exercise parent-time as set forth below.

4. Parenting Plan. The parties acknowledge that their co-parenting relationship will continue for many years and that the minor children's best interests are served by a meaningful, quality relationship with both parents. The parties stipulate to and shall abide by the Parenting Plan set forth herein.

5. Parent-Time Schedule. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-9-305, the parties shall exercise shared parent-time equally on a two-week rotating schedule. Respondent shall exercise every Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday overnight. Petitioner shall exercise every Tuesday, Thursday, and Sunday overnight. The parties shall alternate Monday overnights: Respondent in Week A and Petitioner in Week B. The rotation then repeats. Under this schedule, Respondent exercises one hundred eighty-three (183) overnights annually and Petitioner exercises one hundred eighty-two (182) overnights annually. Exchanges shall occur after school when school is in session (with the receiving party picking up the children from school) or at 9:00 a.m. if school is not in session. The parties recognize that exchange times for M.J.B. and B.R.B. will differ as B.R.B. is not currently in school and thus parent-time for B.R.B. begins at 9:00 a.m. The parties may modify the schedule only by mutual written agreement; an email or text message constitutes a writing.

Week	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Week A	Brock	Jamie	Brock	Jamie	Brock	Brock	Jamie
Week B	Jamie	Jamie	Brock	Jamie	Brock	Brock	Jamie

a. No later than 30 days before B.R.B. begins kindergarten, the parties shall discuss in good faith revisions to the above schedule. If the parties are unable to agree on a schedule, they shall return to mediation and otherwise follow the dispute-resolution provisions of this Decree of Divorce. If the parties are unable to agree on an updated 50/50 parent-time schedule, or relevant consideration, then neither party shall have to demonstrate a substantial and material change in circumstances in filing a petition to modify.

6. Holidays. Holiday parent-time shall be exercised pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302, with the parties alternating holidays on an even-year / odd-year basis with Petitioner designated as the non-custodial parent and the Respondent is designated as the custodial parent solely for purposes of holiday parent-time designations.

7. Summer Parent-Time. In accordance with U.C.A. § 81-9-305(5)(a), each party is entitled to up to two (2) weeks of uninterrupted parent time during the summer when school is not in session. Petitioner shall have priority in odd years and Respondent shall have priority in even years in designating extended parent-time.

8. Deviations and Unexpected Events. The parties may alter the parent-time schedule only by mutual written agreement. Any deviation is voluntary and shall not be presumed, expected, or required. The parties may agree to reasonable temporary modifications to accommodate significant or unexpected events such as family emergencies, deaths, funerals, accidents, or weddings. In coordinating schedules, the parties are guided by the objectives of allowing each parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the children, providing the children a stable environment, accommodating the children's schedules, and cooperating with both parties' employment schedules.

9. Right of First Refusal. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202, parental care is presumed better for the children than surrogate care. If a party is personally unavailable and requires surrogate care for more than five (5) consecutive hours during that party's scheduled parent-time, the other party shall have the right of first refusal before the unavailable party arranges third-party childcare. A party exercising the right of first refusal is responsible for all transportation during that time.

10. Telephone, Mail, and Electronic Contact. Each party shall have regular reasonable, uninterrupted, and unmonitored telephone and video contact with the minor children at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations, based on the children's ages, abilities, interests, schedules, and willingness to participate, while the other party exercises parent-time. Each party shall likewise have unmonitored mail and email contact with the children.

11. Transportation. The receiving parent shall provide transportation for the exercise of parent-time. A competent adult known to the children may transport them. The parties acknowledge that timeliness and consistency are essential and shall ensure both at all exchanges.

12. Travel with the Minor Children. A party traveling out of state with the minor children shall comply with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202(19) and shall provide the other parent reasonable advance notice, including an itinerary, destinations, contact information, and the name and telephone number of a third party knowledgeable of the children's location.

13. Relocation. A party intending to move from the State of Utah, or one hundred fifty (150) miles or more from the other party's residence, shall provide advance written notice pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

14. Extracurricular Activities. The parties shall confer in good faith regarding the minor children's participation in extracurricular activities. No activity shall be scheduled during the other parent's parent-time, and no child shall be enrolled in any ongoing activity that materially affects the other parent's parent-time or finances, without that parent's prior written agreement. An email or text message is a writing. Agreed activities shall be supported by both parents, who shall share the associated costs equally. Absent agreement, the enrolling party shall schedule no activity on the other parent's time and shall bear that activity's costs alone. Each party shall respond to a request within twenty-four (24) hours and shall notify the other in advance if he or she does not intend, or is unable, to attend an event. The parties acknowledge that M.J.B.'s participation in gymnastics has been agreed upon.

15. Child Support. Petitioner's gross monthly income for child-support purposes is $10,000.00. Respondent's gross monthly income for child-support purposes is $6,413.00.

16. Pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-6-206(7), the parties exercise equal parent-time, with Respondent exercising one hundred eighty-three (183) overnights and Petitioner exercising one hundred eighty-two (182) overnights annually.

17. Based upon those figures and the joint-physical-custody worksheet, Petitioner shall pay Respondent child support of $267.00 per month, commencing September 1, 2026, and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter until each child is emancipated as provided by Utah law.

18. A completed child-support worksheet reflecting these terms is attached to the Decree of Divorce. Neither party owes the other any child support, credit, or adjustment for any period preceding the commencement date, and all such claims are waived.

19. Health and Dental Insurance. The parties shall maintain appropriate medical and dental insurance for the minor children if coverage is or becomes available to either party at a reasonable cost, and shall together evaluate available policies and select the best and most affordable coverage. The parent who obtains coverage shall provide verification to the other and shall give notice of any change in carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of learning of the change. The parties shall each pay one-half of the children's portion of the premium actually paid, calculated per capita by dividing the premium by the number of persons covered and multiplying by the number of the parties' minor children covered. If a child may be covered under both parties' plans, then Petitioner's policy shall be the primary policy and Respondent's policy shall be the secondary policy. If a party remarries and a child is covered by a step-parent's plan rather than that party's plan, the step-parent's plan shall be treated as that party's plan for purposes of this paragraph.

20. Out-of-Pocket Medical Expenses. Out-of-pocket costs shall be governed by Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208. The parties shall each pay one-half of all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, and psychological expenses incurred for the minor children and actually paid by either parent, including deductibles and co-payments. A parent who incurs such an expense shall provide written verification of the cost and payment within thirty (30) days of payment, and the other parent shall reimburse his or her share within thirty (30) days of receiving notice. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208, a parent who fails to provide timely notice may be denied reimbursement or credit.

21. Work-Related Childcare. Each party will cover the daycare costs while the children are in their care. The parties agree that they will prioritize family care over professional childcare. Accordingly, the parties shall work together to arrange familial care including either parties mother(s).

22. School Fees. The parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary school fees for the minor children, including registration fees, class fees, field trip fees, dances, and driver's education fees.

23. Automobile Insurance for the Minor Children. When a minor child obtains a driver's license, the parties shall share equally the automobile insurance attributable to that child.

24. Communication and Conduct. Neither party shall disparage the other to or in the presence of the minor children, and each shall instruct third parties to do likewise.

25. Neither party shall discuss this action or other adult matters with or in the presence of the children. The parties shall communicate civilly and respectfully at all times and shall prioritize the children's best interests.

26. The parties acknowledge that the children benefit from relationships with grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins, but that each parent's right to parent-time is paramount. Neither party shall publish or share details regarding the parties' marriage or divorce online, in print, or through any medium accessible to third parties.

27. Tax Exemptions and Credits. Petitioner shall claim M.J.B. for the dependency exemption and associated tax credits each year, and Respondent shall claim B.R.B. each year. When only one child remains eligible, Petitioner shall claim that child in even-numbered years and Respondent in odd-numbered years. To claim a child, the claiming party must be current in his or her child support obligation pursuant to U.C.A. § 81-6-210.

28. Major Decisions. The parties shall confer in writing in advance regarding all major decisions concerning the minor children's medical, dental, orthodontic, and psychological care, education, religious upbringing, and general welfare. If the parties are unable to agree on any major decisions regarding the minor children's health, education, religion, or general welfare then the parties shall attend one session of good faith mediation prior to either party initiating legal action.

29. Each parent shall make the day-to-day decisions concerning the minor children while he/she is in the care of such parent. All other decisions concerning the minor children shall be discussed and agreed upon by both parents.

30. The parties agree that they shall cooperate and work together for the best interests of the children in making joint decisions regarding the children. The parties agree to inform each other when issues arise regarding the children and will do so within a reasonable period of time, prior to making significant legal-custody decisions. Both parties shall be afforded the opportunity to gather and exchange information that would be helpful in making a decision and present that information to the other party. The parties agree to then work together to make a decision within a reasonably short period of time, relative to the timeline presented by the urgency of the issue.

31. Each party agrees that they have the right to treat the children for emergency medical needs. Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all educational and medical records of the children. The parties agree that each party shall be listed as a parent for the purposes of school contact or medical care provider contact. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities and other contact information that allows the other parent to participate in the children's lives. Both parents agree to provide notice to the other parent of issues relating to any illness, accident or other circumstance that affects the children's health and welfare, as soon as reasonably possible. Both parties shall have open access to contact the necessary persons or entities so that the party will be notified of significant activities of the children, whether related to education, sports, arts, extra-curricular activities, church or other activities or events in which the children participate, so that both parents may attend or participate.

32. The parties shall communicate in writing via text message or email. The parties shall create a shared calendar and each party shall have the affirmative obligation to calendar any activities/events relating to the minor children that he, or she, is exclusively aware of, which does not include activities/events published by the children's school or extracurricular activities.

MUTUAL RESTRAINTS

33. Both parties are prohibited from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party. This includes, but is not limited to, speaking derogatorily about the other parent in the presence of any children; speaking to any children about the issues in this case; attempting to influence any child's preference regarding custody or visitation; or attempting to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent.

34. Both parties shall also be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

35. Both parties shall communicate with each other in a civil manner at all times. The parties shall communicate in writing as described above, with exception to medical, or other, emergencies which shall be communicated via telephone.

36. Both parties are mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this paragraph and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations, or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

37. Neither party shall drink to the level of intoxication, use any illicit substance, or otherwise abuse a mind-altering drug at all the times the minor children are in their custody, control, and care.

38. Neither party shall introduce the minor children to a prospective romantic partner until he, or she, has been in a committed and exclusive relationship for six months.

39. Each party shall secure any firearms in his, or her, possession, custody, or control in a manner that they are secured in a locked area that is inaccessible to the minor children.

DIVISION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

40. Marital Residence - Sale. The parties own the marital residence located at 9480 South Indian Ridge Drive, Sandy, Utah (the "marital residence"), subject to a mortgage held by Chase. The marital residence shall be sold. The parties shall engage Joe Gordon, within fourteen (14) days of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, to list the marital home for sale.

41. The parties shall follow the recommendations of Joe Gordon regarding preparation of the property for sale, listing price, staging, repairs, inspections, showings, price reductions, and seller concessions, and neither party shall unreasonably withhold agreement to any recommendation of the agent. Neither party shall accept or reject an offer without the other's written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

42. The parties shall share equally all costs associated with preparing, listing, maintaining, and selling the marital residence, including agreed repairs, inspections, commissions, closing costs, and concessions. Respondent may reside in the marital residence until closing. Respondent shall be solely responsible for, and timely pay, the mortgage, property taxes, insurance, and utilities, maintain the property in show-ready condition, and permit reasonable access for showing until it is sold. Upon closing, the mortgage and all costs and fees of sale shall be paid from the proceeds, and the parties shall share equally all remaining equity or, if applicable, any deficiency.

43. Petitioner's Separate Real Property. Prior to the marriage, Petitioner acquired the real property located at 1333 East Hidden Creek Court, Holladay, Utah 84117 (the "Townhouse"). The Townhouse is awarded to Petitioner as her sole and separate property. This payment, together with the other terms of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, fully resolves all claims between the parties for reimbursement, credit, offset, or equalization, including Respondent's claim for post-separation payment of the mortgage and carrying costs of the marital residence and any claim of either party arising from the Townhouse.

Further, the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement contains the entire understanding between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof.
