DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH
THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT
SALT LAKE COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: JEREMY WEBB, and KIMBERLY SEAVEY.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264903154 Honorable Heather Brereton Commissioner Russell Minas

THIS MATTER having come before the Court based upon the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement executed by the parties; the Court having heretofore made and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law; and upon motion of Matthew N. Olsen, Attorney for Petitioner and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. Bonds of Matrimony. That the bonds of matrimony between Petitioner, JEREMY WEBB, and Respondent, KIMBERLY SEAVEY, are hereby dissolved.

2. Residency. That Petitioner is a resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for more than three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of the Verified Complaint for Divorce in this matter.

3. Marriage Information. That Petitioner and Respondent were married on the 28th day of May 2005, in Salt Lake City, County of Salt Lake, State of Utah.

4. Separation. That Petitioner and Respondent separated on the 1st day of May 2019.

5. Grounds. That Petitioner and Respondent have experienced irreconcilable differences which cannot be resolved, and such has made it impossible for the marital relationship to continue (See Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-405(1)(h)).

6. Children, Custody, and Parent Time. That Petitioner and Respondent have no children born as issue of their marriage, and none are expected.

7. Alimony. That neither Petitioner nor Respondent shall be awarded alimony, and their claims for alimony shall be forever waived.

8. Real Property. That during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent did not acquire a home or real property subject to a division by this Court.

9. That since the parties' separation, Petitioner acquired an ownership interest in a recreational property located in Ephraim which shall be awarded to him free and clear of any claim by Respondent.

10. Personal Property. That prior to and during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have acquired certain items of personal property.

11. That Petitioner shall be awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Respondent:

    a. 2014 Toyota Tundra;

    b. The furniture, furnishings and fixtures in Petitioner's possession; and

    c. Petitioner's personal belongings.

12. That Respondent shall be awarded the following items of personal property, free and clear of any claim by Petitioner:

    a. Respondent's vehicle, subject to any indebtedness thereon;

b. The furniture, furnishings and fixtures in Petitioner's possession; and

c. Respondent's personal belongings.

13. Debts and Obligations. That Petitioner shall assume and pay the following indebtedness:

a. Petitioner's individual debts and obligations; and

b. Mountain Land Debt.

14. That Petitioner shall indemnify and hold Respondent harmless on all debts and obligations Petitioner is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15).

15. That Respondent shall assume and pay the following indebtedness:

a. Restitution owed by Respondent (approximately $22,000.00); and

b. Respondent's individual debts and obligations.

16. That Respondent shall indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless on all debts and obligations Respondent is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless agreement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15).

17. That if either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not made in a timely manner, the secured asset shall be placed for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payments on a delinquent asset, which the other party is ordered to pay, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney fees from the other party who failed to timely pay the debt.

18. That the allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and is considered in the nature of support to the other party. As a result, the parties shall not discharge the debts in bankruptcy if it causes the non-bankrupt party to be liable for the debt. The parties understand that this provision may not be binding on the bankruptcy court.

19. That each party shall make their best efforts to remove each other from any joint debts, obligations, loans, etc., by refinancing the debt, obligation, loan, etc., into their sole name.

20. That Petitioner and Respondent shall each assume and pay all debts and obligations incurred by them subsequent to the date of separation.

21. Savings Accounts, Checking Accounts and Investment Accounts. That during the course of the marriage, Petitioner and Respondent have acquired certain savings accounts, checking accounts, and/or investment accounts.

22. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be awarded their individual savings accounts, checking accounts, and/or investment accounts, free and clear of any claim by the other party. If applicable, the parties shall be ordered to work together to remove each other's names from their respective accounts within ten days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

23. Retirement. That Petitioner shall be awarded his pension and other retirement benefits, with the exception of his 401(k) which shall be awarded to Respondent.

24. That Respondent shall be awarded her individual retirement, pension plans, 401(k) accounts, savings plans, and/or profit sharing plans, etc., free and clear of any claim by Petitioner.

25. Lump Sum Payment. That Petitioner shall pay to Respondent as a lump sum payment, the sum of $85,000.00 in exchange for Petitioner being awarded his retirement account and any other real or personal property awarded to him as set forth herein.

26. Monthly Payments. That commencing with the first month following the entry of theDecree of Divorce, Petitioner shall pay to Respondent the sum of $300.00 per week for a period of three (3) months thereafter. These payments shall not be construed as alimony, are non-modifiable. These limited voluntary payments are being made to assist Respondent in transitioning to a new residence. Petitioner shall make the payments on or before the 15th of each month commencing with the first month following the entry of the Decree of Divorce and said payments shall automatically end following the three (3) month period outlined herein.

27. Restraining Orders.

a. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be mutually restrained from making demeaning or degrading remarks about the other party to any third party, on social media platforms, etc.

28. Attorney Fees. That Petitioner and Respondent shall be ordered to assume and pay their individual attorney fees and costs incurred herein.

29. Deeds and Other Documents. That each party shall execute and deliver to the other party such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court, including but not limited to titles and deeds.

30. Default. That in the event either party fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the parties shall nevertheless be responsible for their individual attorney fees and costs.

31. Notice to Creditors.

a. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§15-4-6.5, 30-2-5 and 30-3-5(1)(c), as amended, the parties are required to provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce.

b. Therefore, the party not obligated to pay a joint obligation shall:

i. Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each joint creditor he/she is not required to pay as soon as possible.

ii. Notify that joint creditor of the current address for each party.

iii. Inform that joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract, and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who was not required to pay the debt.

In accordance with the Utah State District Court's Efiling Standard No. 4, and URCP Rule 10(e), this Order does not bear the handwritten signature of the Judge, but instead displays an electronic signature at the upper right-hand corner of the first page of this Order.
