IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: SETH VAN DUZOR, Petitioner, and AMANDA VAN DUZOR, Respondent.	JUDGMENT FOR ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS Case No: 234902743 Judge: Hon. Stephen Nelson Commissioner: Renee Blocher

On September 15, 2026, the Court entered its Order on Respondent's Objection to the Commissioner's Recommendation (the "September 15 Order"). The Court sustained Respondent Amanda Van Duzor's objection and ordered Petitioner Seth Van Duzor to pay one hundred percent (100%) of the attorney fees Amanda accrued in connection with the Motion to Enforce, together with the additional attorney fees she incurred in bringing her objection and defending against Seth's duplicative and/or improper filings concerning the Commissioner's Recommendation.

The September 15 Order directed Amanda to file an updated affidavit of attorney fees within fourteen (14) days, allowed Seth seven (7) days after the affidavit was filed to object to the requested fees, and required Seth to pay the awarded fees within thirty (30) days after the affidavit was filed.

On September 25, 2026, Amanda timely filed her Respondent's Supplemental Affidavit of Attorney Fees (the "Supplemental Affidavit"), requesting $25,125.50 in attorney fees, costs, and expenses. The Supplemental Affidavit was served on Seth on September 25, 2026. Seth did not file an objection within the time allowed by the September 15 Order.

Having reviewed the September 15 Order, the Supplemental Affidavit, the record, and the applicable law, and good cause appearing, the Court finds that the requested attorney fees, costs, and expenses are reasonable, necessary, and within the scope of the September 15 Order.
