Attorney for Holly A. Hall

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE DEPARTMENT, IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of HOLLY A HALL and JUSTIN S HALL	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 244901183 Judge Todd Shaughnessy Commissioner Russell Minas

The above-entitled matter came before the court on Holly Hall's Verified Petition for Divorce, her *Declaration of Jurisdiction and Ground*s, and the parties' signed Stipulation.

The parties have filed a Stipulation with the Court resolving all issues. The Court, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now orders:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. The parties are hereby awarded a Decree of Divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and their marriage is hereby dissolved.

2. Residency: Holly is a bona fide resident of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action.

3. Marriage: The parties married on September 8, 2000, in Salt Lake County, State of Utah. The parties are currently married.

4. Grounds: Irreconcilable differences have arisen between the parties, which differences have made the continuation of their marriage impossible.

5. Child: There is one (1) minor child of this marriage: A.E.H., born March 2012.

6. Custody and Parent Time: The parties are awarded joint physical and legal custody of their minor child. Parent time with the child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	MOM	MOM	MOM	MOM	DAD	DAD	DAD
Week 2	DAD	DAD	DAD	DAD	MOM	MOM	MOM

a. The child is 14 years old and is involved in many activities. Thus, she will be able to have input on her parent-time schedule and the parents will be supportive of her decision. Both parents will encourage her to spend time with both parents.

b. The child shall have her own room at each parent's home.

c. As a default parent-time schedule, the parties shall have 50/50 custody such that each parent receives one week with the exchange occurring on Fridays with drop off at school or 9 a.m. if school is not in session.

d. The parties acknowledge that the intended parent-time schedule is an equal 50/50 division of overnights. Any deviations from the equal schedule shall be temporary and shall not create a new status quo or basis for modifying parent time. The parties agree to remain flexible and to accommodate reasonable requests of the minor child; however, neither party shall unilaterally modify the parent-time schedule or retain the minor child outside of their scheduled parent time without the agreement of the other party. Neither party shall place the minor child in the position of choosing between parents or encourage the minor child to alter the parent-time schedule.

The parties shall support and encourage the minor child's relationship with the other parent. Any deviation from the parent-time schedule anticipated to exceed fourteen (14) consecutive days shall be mutually agreed upon in writing, unless due to emergency circumstances. Absent such written agreement, the original schedule shall control. If the actual exercise of parent time deviates from an equal division for more than thirty (30) consecutive days, either party may require a return to the ordered schedule. This provision shall not prevent either party from seeking relief where a material, ongoing, or bad faith imbalance in parent time exists.

e. Ten Days of Extended Summer-Time: Each party will, at their option, receive 10 continuous days in the summer which will consist of their one-week period of custody plus 3 additional consecutive days from the other parent's one week of custodial time. If the parties are not exercising the week on and week off in the summer, each party shall have two weeks of uninterrupted extended summer time.

7. Notification of Extended Time: Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent time or vacation weeks with the child by May 1 each year for the first option parent and May 15 for the second option parent.

The Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd-numbered years and the Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even-numbered years. If notification is not provided timely, the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent time for the non-complying parent.

8. Holidays: The holidays shall be as the parties agree. The parties shall work together in good faith to accommodate reasonable requests or adjustments to the holiday schedule, provided that the intended division of time is preserved. If the parties cannot agree, the holidays will be according to the following schedule:

9. Legal Custody: The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the child's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event the parties do not mutually agree regarding the child, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate before court intervention. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the child is in his or her care.

a. Medical:

i. The parties will continue to use their current pediatrician as the pediatrician for the child and specialists that their pediatrician recommends, when needed. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the child's medical care.

ii. If the parties cannot come to an agreement on a non-emergency medical decision, the parties shall first obtain a recommendation from the child's pediatrician. If a disagreement persists, the parties shall seek a second opinion from a mutually agreed in-network specialist before any treatment is undertaken. Each party shall act in good faith and in the best interests of the child.

iii. All medical, dental, and mental health care for the child shall be provided by providers who are in-network under the child's health insurance plan. If a parent chooses to take the child to an out-of-network provider without prior agreement from the other parent, that parent shall be responsible for the full cost of the visit, including any copays, deductibles, or out-of-pocket expenses.

iv. Both parents shall promptly share with the other parent records and receipts for any medical expenses incurred.

v. In the event of a medical, dental, or mental health emergency requiring immediate attention to protect the child's health or safety, the parent with the child may seek emergency care without prior notice.

vi. The parent seeking emergency care shall notify the other parent immediately regarding the emergency, the care provided, and any recommended follow-up.

vii. Emergency care shall be provided by in-network providers whenever reasonably available. If an out-of-network provider is used without agreement, the parent who arranged the care shall pay the full cost.

viii. Any non-emergency follow-up care resulting from the emergency shall follow the standard medical decision-making procedures.

ix. The parties will use their current dentist as the dentist for the child and specialists that their dentist recommends, when needed. All dental care shall be provided by in-network providers under the child's dental insurance plan whenever reasonably available.

x. The parents shall make decisions mutually regarding the child's dental care. If the parties cannot reach an agreement on non-emergency care, they shall first follow the recommendation of the child's dentist. If disagreement persists, the parties shall obtain a second opinion from a mutually agreed in-network dental specialist before any treatment is undertaken.

b. Separate Accounts: According to Utah Code §15-4-6.7, each party will elect for dental, medical, and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan: The child shall continue to attend her current and matriculating schools, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

d. Therapy: The parties agree that the child shall attend therapy with her current therapist until the parties mutually agree otherwise. The parties may mutually agree to consider a more qualified or specialized in-network therapist. All therapy shall be provided by in-network providers under the child's health insurance plan whenever reasonably available.

e. The parties shall make all decisions regarding the child's therapy mutually and in the best interests of the child. The parties are not bound by the recommendations of the therapist. If the parties cannot agree on therapy decisions, they shall consider obtaining a second opinion from a mutually agreed in-network mental health professional before making any changes to the child's therapy treatment plan.

f. Therapy sessions each month may be scheduled as half online and half in-person appointments, or as otherwise mutually agreed by the parties.

g. Each party shall pay one-half of the therapy bill directly to the therapist. If payment to the provider is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses.

10. Relocation: If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

11. Communication: The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text or email at any time needed and will not use their child to deliver messages. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange.

12. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child: Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

13. Travel: When the child travels with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure, or 21 days prior to departure for international travel:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

b. Destination;

c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and

d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

e. Passports: Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out-of-country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties, and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

14. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

15. Notification of Child's Events: The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities, and sporting events their child may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

16. Special Events: Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

17. Mutual Restraining Orders:

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes her best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child or at any of the child's activities.

d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing, or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking, or threatening the other party.

e. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image, or credit of the other party for any purpose.

f. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

18. First Right of Refusal: Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. The parties specifically agree not to leave A.H. alone overnight, or alone with another teen.

19. Dispute Resolution: If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

20. Activity Costs: The minor child may participate in extracurricular activities of her choice, subject to the approval of both parties. The parties agree to the child's participation in her current activities, and any future activities may be selected by the child with the parents' mutual agreement. Each parent shall be responsible for contributing $150 per month toward the child's chosen activities for a combined total of $300 per month. The parties must mutually agree in writing to spend more than $300 per month combined on the child's activities ($300 per month is the current cost for the child's activities). If the child's activities change, the $150 per month contribution from each party shall remain in effect for any new activities in which the child may enroll, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. When the child enters high school, if she wishes to participate in dance, theater, or any other extracurricular activity, the activity shall be discussed by the parents. If the parties mutually agree to an activity, they shall divide the costs equally. The $150 minimum per parent shall still apply for any such high school activity unless the parties agree in writing to a different arrangement.

21. School Fees: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e., registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty

(30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

22. School Dances and Trips: The parties agree to also equally divide the cost of school dances, dance attire (including dresses, shoes, and accessories), and school-sponsored trips. The parent incurring the expense shall provide advance notice to the other parent, when reasonably possible, along with the estimated cost. The parties shall consult in good faith regarding significant expenses prior to incurring them. Reimbursement of each party's fifty percent (50%) share shall be made within ten (10) days of receiving proof of payment. Proof of expense shall include receipts, invoices, or school documentation showing the cost. All expenses shall be reasonable and customary. If one party elects to incur expenses significantly above a reasonable amount without agreement, that party shall be responsible for any excess cost.

23. Car Insurance for Minor Child: Justin will maintain the child's car insurance and phone bills.

24. Transportation for the Child: The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school-to-school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If a parent is exercising a mid-week with a return the same day, the parent exercising parent time will provide all of the transportation.

25. Third Party Transportation: The child may be picked up by a grandparent, sibling, or either party, or by the parties. Step-parents and significant others are not authorized to pick up the child. If the designated individual is a sibling of Holly or Justin, the pickup must be approved in advance by the other parent. The other parent must be notified in advance of the identity of any designated individual. For any overnight period, the receiving parent shall remain with the child, and the child shall not be left in the sole care of any other individual unless otherwise agreed upon in writing or text. This provision is intended to ensure the child's safety and maintain both parents' awareness of who is responsible for the child at all times. For school check-in and check-out, only individuals listed on the child's school account may pick up or drop off the child. Permitted individuals include: the child's parents, the child's siblings, grandparents, and siblings and neighbors of Holly and Justin if agreed upon in writing by both parties. Any change to the authorized pick-up list must be mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing prior to the change taking effect. Only Holly, Justin, Will, or Ethan Hall are authorized to attend school meetings on the child's behalf, or take the child to medical or extracurricular appointments, unless otherwise agreed to in writing or by text message.

26. Child's Social Media: Justin and Holly shall each have full access to A.H.'s social media accounts and Apple ID until she is 18. Neither party may allow A.H. to create new social media accounts without the written agreement of both parties.

27. Romantic Partners: Neither party shall introduce A.H. to a romantic partner or significant other until the relationship has been established for six (6) months after the divorce is finalized. Parents will exercise discretion and prioritize A.H.'s emotional stability when introducing new individuals into her life.

28. Child Support: The Father has an imputed average income of $16,000 per month and the Mother has an income of $3,500 per month. Each parent will encourage A.H. to spend time with the other parent. Justin will begin paying Holly $500 per month in child support the month following the sale of the marital home, and child support will continue until the child is 18, graduates from high school during her normal and expected year of graduation, or is emancipated.

29. Medical and Dental Expenses: The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid: dividing the total premium by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in this case. The parent who incurs the premium payment shall submit the amount owed to the other parent and the other parent shall reimburse the paying parent directly via Venmo, cash, or other mutually agreed method within thirty (30) days of receiving the calculation, and shall continue paying that reimbursement monthly thereafter.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents. The parent who pays an expense shall provide the other parent with verification of the expense (such as a receipt, invoice, or statement) within thirty (30) days of receiving verification. Expenses shall be pre-approved by both parties when reasonably possible. If an expense is disputed as unreasonable or unnecessary, the parties shall attempt to resolve the matter in good faith, and if necessary, may seek resolution through mediation or the court.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment via Venmo, cash, or another mutually agreed method within 30 days of receiving verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent’s health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent’s plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child. Both parents shall have equal access to the child's medical and dental insurance coverage, including the ability to call the insurance company, obtain information about coverage and claims, and to make decisions regarding coverage, claims, or treatment approvals.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in the event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen (15) calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

g. The parties shall pre-approve medical and dental expenses whenever reasonably possible. If an expense is disputed as unreasonable or unnecessary, the parties shall attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. The parties shall mediate any disputes prior to bringing the matter to the court for resolution.

h. Childcare Expenses: Childcare expenses are not anticipated due to the age of the child.

30. Dependency Exemption: The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child as follows:

a. The parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. The Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

b. The Father is entitled to claim the dependency exemption/tax credits indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of the applicable tax year.

31. Real Property: The parties agree to sell their marital home at a reasonable market value. If there is a dispute regarding the listing price, the parties shall obtain a professional appraisal by a licensed appraiser.

a. Listing: The home shall be listed for sale as soon as the decree is signed by the judge with Caleb Wertz, who has agreed to a commission of 1.5%. Both parties shall follow the advice of the real estate agent if it is advantageous for the sale of the home. Both parties retain the right to select a different real estate agent if the current agent is not performing satisfactorily; any such decision must be made in writing and agreed upon by both parties.

b. Disputes Regarding Sale: In the event of a dispute regarding any major decision related to the sale of the home, including but not limited to accepting an offer or selecting a realtor, the parties shall attempt to resolve the matter in good faith. If the parties cannot reach an agreement within seven (7) days, they shall submit the dispute to a mutually agreed upon neutral third party or mediator, whose decision shall be binding.

c. Property Occupancy and Maintenance: The parties shall continue to reside in the home until it is sold. If Justin's brother remains on the property during the sale process, the landscaping and yard must be maintained weekly, including mowing, edging the lawn, aeration, trimming trees and bushes, controlling weeds, controlling hornet nests in the backyard, and maintaining mulched areas. The area directly behind the apartment must be cleaned and organized, with no more than three (3) vehicles parked on the property. Company or employee vehicles shall not be parked on the street or outside the fenced area. The vinyl fence gate must be replaced. While the home is being shown to prospective buyers, no workers are allowed on the property. Upon the sale of the home, Justin's brother's landscaping business must be relocated immediately and no later than two (2) weeks from the date an offer is accepted. Any repairs that need to be done to the area where the equipment was stored must be repaired by Hallmark Landscaping before the sale of the home.

d. Required Repairs Before Listing: Repairs shall be completed as recommended by the realtor.

e. Distribution of Sale Proceeds: Upon sale of the home at a reasonable market value, the net proceeds shall be applied in the following order: payment of all costs of sale, including real estate commissions and closing costs; Justin shall be responsible for keeping the mortgage paid and up to date until the sale of the home. The remaining mortgage balance shall be paid in full at the time of sale; Justin shall pay the Sage Forensic Accountant bill (Daniel Rondeau) in full from his share of the equity; the parties acknowledge that Justin paid off the Cabela's credit card and the Jordan Credit Union credit card held in both parties' names in full in approximately June 2026, and no further payment toward those accounts is required from the sale proceeds; and any remaining proceeds shall be divided equally between the parties.

32. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
Elliptical	Mother
Pulley System	Mother
Exercise Bike	Father
Cold Plunge	Father
Free Weights	Father
Lifting Rack	Father
Other gym equipment	Sold and divided equally
Truck	Father
Toyota	Mother
Coins from Family	Father
All separate, inherited, and premarital property	Each own

a. William Hall shall be awarded both 4-wheelers. The parties shall sell the riding lawnmower and snow plow, and shall equally divide the proceeds. Other items not listed herein shall be divided equitably between the parties as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall return to mediation.

33. Debts: The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Except as otherwise designated herein, debts in Father's name	Father. Justin will pay $2,000 towards the Macy's card. Justin paid off the Cabela's credit card and the Jordan Credit Union credit card held in both parties' names in full in approximately June 2026. Justin will also pay the Sage Forensic Accountant bill (Daniel Rondeau) in full.
Except as otherwise designated herein, debts in Mother's name	Mother. Holly will pay the Kohl's card, the remaining balance on the Macy's credit card, and Holly's student loan.

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed herein and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

d. Dave Hall Car Loan: Justin or Ethan Hall (E.H.) shall pay the car payment to Dave Hall for his car loan each month.

34. Checking and Savings Accounts: Each party will be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts. The parties shall cooperate to close the joint checking account, and shall transfer the balance of that account to Holly's personal account to be applied to any final marital bills.

35. Financial Accounts: Justin will keep the Allianz life insurance policy in his name and all of the cryptocurrency accounts in his name, with a current total cash value of roughly $65,000, and will provide updated verification to Holly of the account balances.

36. Retirement Accounts: The parties shall equally divide the marital portion of all retirement, 401k, and IRA accounts, with each receiving one-half (½) of the marital portion, with the division date as the entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties shall equally split the cost associated with splitting the accounts or QDRO, if any.

37. Business Interest: Father shall be awarded 100% of the business interest in Wasatch Professional Networks and all associated income, assets, intellectual property, debts, liability, and tax consequences. Holly will not be held liable for any back taxes, legal issues from Justin, his businesses, or any debts owed from his business.

38. Former Name: Holly shall be restored the use of her former name, “Holly Ann Gehrke” or “Holly Ann Stoddard,” if and when she so desires.

39. Alimony: Alimony will be $5,000 per month starting once the house has been sold and will conclude in 14 years or upon Holly remarrying or cohabitating, or the death of either party. Equal payments will be made on the 5th and the 20th of each month. Alimony will commence the month after the home is sold. Father shall continue to pay the income as ordered in the temporary order until the home sells.

40. Life Insurance: The parties' existing life insurance policies shall be transferred to individual policies. There are two policies; one will be transferred to Holly.

41. E.H.'s Accident Settlement: E.H.'s anticipated settlement check shall be paid to him directly, and not to Justin. Justin affirmatively agrees that E.H. shall retain and control 100% of the settlement proceeds.

42. Taxes: Justin shall indemnify and hold Holly harmless for any taxes owed by Justin now or in the future, including, but not limited to, personal, business, or back taxes. Justin shall provide verification that all past, current, and future taxes are filed and paid. Any future tax liability from prior periods or undisclosed income is solely Justin's responsibility.

43. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

44. Divorce Education: The parties will take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

45. Full Disclosure: The parties each indicate that there has been a complete, accurate, and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. The property referred to herein represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

46. Attorney Fees: Each party shall be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
