e. Tie-Breaking Procedure. If the parties cannot reach a consensus regarding a major parenting decision, either parent can bring the issue before the court, only after attending good faith mediation.

g. Extracurricular Activities. The parties will share equally the cost of any extracurricular activities that have been agreed upon in writing.

h. Communications Regarding the Minor Children. The parties shall communicate directly with each other regarding the minor children and shall remain civil in all their future dealings. i. Respectful Co-Parenting. The parties shall avoid making harmful, insulting, or denigrating comments regarding the other party in the minor children's presence and shall use their best efforts to prevent others from doing so. Neither party shall unreasonably withhold consent for international travel with the minor children and each party shall cooperate fully to provide passports and other travel documents and/or permissions required for agreed international travel.

m. Relocation. If either party moves 150 miles or more from their residence contemplated at the time of entry of the divorce, the relocating party shall provide 60 days advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent and comply with all provisions outlined in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-212, the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a party; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a party to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the minor child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either party for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

15. Termination of Child Support. Unless the court orders otherwise, support for the minor children terminates at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the minor child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code § 78A-6-801 et seq.

Both parties shall share equally in all uninsured routine medical and dental expenses [including but not limited to one-half of expenses for surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, physical therapy, ophthalmology and optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma] as well as other reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses of the minor children, in accordance with Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-208.

19. Both parties shall ensure that in-network providers that are covered by the insurance coverage are used for the children. If a party uses an out-of-network provider, they shall get the permission of the other party first, or they shall be solely responsible for any costs.

20. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the minor children shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment.

21. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party that incurred the expense.

22. A party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses if that party fails to provide the above verification within the thirty-day (30) time period.

23. Notice to Medical/Dental Expense Creditors. Pursuant to Utah Code § 15-4-6.7, § 81-3-105, and § 81-4-501, when a court order has been entered providing for the payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-501, § 81-4-204, or §81-6-208, or an administrative order under § 62A-11-326, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a party who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that party under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under Utah Code § 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a party who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the party under the order.

25. Each party shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses.

26. The party who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other party, upon initial enrollment of the minor children, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year.
