The parent shall automatically begin paying this base support amount without the need to modify this child support order.

d. The sole physical custody worksheet was used in calculating the base child support award. The base child support award shall be reduced by 50% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement signed by the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days.

The base child support award shall be reduced by 25% for each minor child for time periods during which such minor child is with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement signed by the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days. Normal parent-time and holiday parent-time with the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement for the non-custodial parent. If the dependent child is a recipient of cash assistance from the state of Utah through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

e. The person entitled to receive child support shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to U.C.A. § 62A-11 parts 4 and 5 (1953 as amended), and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the non-custodial parent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages. This income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income shall be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the non-custodial parent no longer owes child support to the person entitled to receive child support. All child support payments shall be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145-011, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere. Should mandatory income withholding be implemented by the Office of Recovery Services, child support shall be due on the first day of each month and delinquent on the first day of the following month. All administrative fees and costs of income withholding assessed by the Office of Recovery Services shall be paid by Respondent.

f. The issue of child support arrearages may be determined by further judicial or administrative process.

g. Each of the parties is under mutual obligation to notify the other within ten (10) days of any change in monthly income.

h. Under Utah Code §§ 78B-12-210(8), the parties have a right to adjust this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code § 62A-11-306.2, if the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

i. Under Utah Code §§ 78B-12-210(7) and (9), the parties have a right to modify this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

10. Petitioner is entitled to claim the parties' minor child Eline Solwor Eklund Larios born on January 2025 as dependent for tax purposes.

11. Pursuant to Utah Code § 78B-12-212 it is reasonable and proper that:

a. Respondent is required to maintain medical, hospital and dental care insurance for the dependent child(ren) where available at reasonable cost and the insurance coverage is accessible to the child(ren).

b. Respondent is solely responsible to pay out-of-pocket costs of the premium for the child(ren)'s portion of the insurance.

13. Neither the Petitioner nor the Respondent has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

14. Both parties should be ordered to sign and fully execute whatever documents are necessary for the implementation of the provisions of this divorce decree. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring an Order to Show Cause at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

15. Prior to any Petition being filed to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.
