Attorney for Lindsay Roberts – Petitioner

IN THE THIRD DISTRICT COURT, SALT LAKE DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: LINDSAY ROBERTS, Petitioner, and CHRISTOPHER CARY ROBERTS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No: 264903243 DA Judge: Matthew Bates Commissioner: Joanna B. Sagers

The parties, Lindsay Roberts ("Lindsay" or "Mom") and Christopher Cary Roberts ("Christopher" or "Dad"), by and through their respective counsel, Kacie A. Bitzenburg of JR Law Group, PLLC, representing Lindsay, and John Heath representing Christopher, entered into a Stipulation, Parenting Plan, and Settlement Agreement ("Stipulation") that was filed with the Court on October 1, 2026 (Dkt. 35). The Court, having reviewed and accepted the parties' Stipulation, reviewed the files herein, and being otherwise duly advised, and having previously signed and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is now:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. The parties' marital relationship is hereby dissolved, absolute and final upon entry of this Decree of Divorce.

2. Children. The parties' three (3) joint minor children are as follows: M.G.R. (DOB 07/2013), M.R.R. (DOB 10/2015), and C.C.R. (09/2021).

CUSTODY, PARENT TIME, & PARENTING PLAN

3. Legal Custody. Lindsay and Christopher shall be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children.

a. The parties shall both have access to medical records, school records, court records, and any other information or records concerning their minor children. The parties shall mutually ensure that both parents are listed as required and/or emergency contacts for the children.

b. The parties shall make major decisions regarding the children's education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious upbringing together by mutual agreement. The parties shall communicate with each other and discuss the minor children's well-being regarding all major legal decisions that need to be made on the children's behalf.

c. If the parties do not agree regarding such major legal educational, medical, and/or religious decisions, they shall seek the advice/recommendation of an expert in the field that pertains to the issue(s) in dispute. If, after seeking advice/recommendation from the expert, the parties cannot reach a decision regarding the issue(s) in dispute, Lindsay shall have final say.

d. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities and/or authority to make emergency decisions when the children are in his/her care.

Lindsay shall have the priority of selecting her two weeks of uninterrupted summer parent time on odd years, and Christopher shall have the selection priority for his uninterrupted summer parent time on even years. The parent who has selection priority shall provide the other party with the dates of their extended summertime by April 15th. The parties may facilitate one-on-one or two-on-one activities with either parent, which may include extra travel days; such arrangements shall be mutually agreed upon in writing and reasonable given the circumstances.

8. Transportation.

a. Unless mutually agreed upon (in writing) otherwise, the receiving parent (or immediate family member(s) or other designated, mutually agreed upon third-party individual(s)) shall be responsible for picking up the minor children to begin his/her parent time from the other parent's residence at curbside. The parties shall not interact with each other during exchanges.

b. Under no circumstances shall public transportation be used for the child(ren)'s transportation.

On school mornings, Christopher shall drop the children off at Lindsay's residence with any of the children's bags and personal items. The children may then walk to school from Lindsay's home.

9. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the children in the form of cell phone, mail privileges, and virtual parent time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The minor children shall be entitled to contact either parent at any time.

10. Parental Communication. The parties shall communicate via the co-parenting app Our Family Wizard (using Tone Meter), and only regarding the minor children.

a. The parties shall be responsible for their own subscription costs associated with Our Family Wizard; however, to the extent that Christopher's total annual subscription amount exceeds $100.00, Lindsay shall help Christopher out by annually covering the difference in cost that exceeds $100.00. (The parties shall obtain the Our Family Wizard subscription that includes the calendar and Tone Meter features, but Christopher shall not subscribe to a plan that is overly expensive to increase costs for Lindsay to cover.).

b. The parties shall utilize the Our Family Wizard calendar to denote their respective parent time, holidays, vacations, and children's school and extracurricular activities as applicable.

c. The parties shall call each other in emergency situations involving the child(ren) and shall notify each other immediately regarding such emergency situations that directly involve the children.

d. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages to the other parent.

11. Children's Events. Both parents shall individually obtain access to all school and activity information concerning their children and stay independently apprised of any school programs, extracurricular activities, and sporting events in which their children may be involved. Both parties are encouraged to attend events, regardless of who is exercising parent time, but the parties shall not harass or otherwise interfere with the other party while in attendance at such events.

12. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent that may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

13. Travel. During overnight travel with the minor child(ren), all the following information shall be provided to the other parent:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

b. Destination;

c. Places where the child and/or traveling parent can be reached; and

d. Name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

e. If a parent wants to travel with the child internationally, the traveling parent shall notify the nontraveling parent at least 90 days prior to the start of such travel, provide all the information above as soon as reasonably possible, and additionally, any and all transportation information (flight information, cruise ship, etc.). The parents shall work together to ensure the travel dates do not conflict with the non-traveling parent's existing plans during their parent time (if the international travel overlaps with the nontraveling party's parent time), coordinate makeup parent time if the nontraveling parent will miss some of their parent time due to the travel, and cooperate to ensure any missed schoolwork for the minor child is completed and impact to school and activities is mitigated.

14. Mutual Restraining. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to each other or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing, or otherwise. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing and threatening each other.

15. Alternative Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or over the terms or implementation of the Decree, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon mediator before either party initiates legal action.

CHILD SUPPORT AND CHILD-RELATED EXPENSES

16. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket expenses incurred for any mutually agreed upon (in writing) extracurricular activities in which the minor child is involved. The parties shall pay the extracurricular organization/school directly if possible. If direct payment is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular out-of-pocket expense shall submit verification of the incurred expense to the other party, such as a receipt or invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within 30 days of receiving verification. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extracurricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's time, and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

17. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall share the cost of professional childcare. The parties shall pay the childcare provider directly if possible. If direct payment is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular out-of-pocket expense shall submit verification of the incurred expense to the other party, such as a receipt or invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within 30 days of receiving verification.

18. Phone and Car Insurance Expenses. The parties shall share any cost associated with providing cell phones and car insurance for their minor children. The parties shall pay the childcare provider directly if possible. If direct payment is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular out-of-pocket expense shall submit verification of the incurred expense to the other party, such as a receipt or invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within 30 days of receiving verification.

19. School Fees. Each party shall assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.). The parties shall pay the school directly, if possible, but if direct payment is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within 30 days of receiving verification.

20. Child Support. Christopher shall pay child support to Lindsay as set forth below:

a. Using Christopher's gross monthly income of $9,729.00 and Lindsay's gross monthly income of $7,976.00, Christopher shall pay child support to Lindsay in the amount of $562.00 per month (for a total of $750.00 combined child support and property settlement as provided herein).

b. Child support shall terminate at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

c. The parties may may agree to utilize recurring, automatic direct deposits from Christopher's bank account to Lindsay's bank account for payment of child support. However, if either party finds that this method of payment is unsustainable, the parties shall use the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) for child support payments and the parties shall work together to initiate those payments through ORS, including sharing information/documents and providing authorization as needed.

21. Medical/Dental Expenses. Lindsay shall continue to provide the children's medical insurance, and both parents shall continue to provide the children's dental insurance.

a. The parents shall equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the premium paid by a parent for a child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of people covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children covered under the policy at that time. This amount shall be automatically deducted from/added to the child support paid/owed.

b. Each parent shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical and dental expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other (reimbursing) parent shall remit payment within 30 days of receiving verification.

d. If neither party can secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child(ren) as indicated.

22. Dependency Exemption. The parties shall share the tax dependency exemptions for the minor children as follows (starting with Tax Year 2026):

a. The parties shall take turns claiming M.G.R. while she remains a minor, with Lindsay claiming her for odd tax years, and Christopher claiming her for even tax years;

b. Lindsay shall claim M.R.R. each and every year while she is a minor;

c. Christopher shall claim C.C.R. each and every tax year until he is the remaining minor child, at which time the parties shall alternate claiming him, with Lindsay claiming him for even tax years and Christopher claiming him for odd tax years until he reaches the age of majority or graduates from high school, whichever occurs later.

PROPERTY SETTLEMENT

23. Starting November 2026, Christopher shall pay Lindsay $750.00 monthly for a period of nine (9) years, that consists of a combined child support and monthly property settlement, which shall remitted from Christopher's bank account to Lindsay's bank account by direct, automatic transfer (via Zelle, wire transfer, or the like). This payment shall remain at the $750.00 amount for the entire 9-year period, regardless of the foreseeable child support decreases during that time due to minor children reaching the age of majority (or occurrence of other child support termination event). In other words, regardless of the amount of child support owed, the monthly property settlement shall increase to ensure that the overall combined monthly amount stays at $750.00 for the full 9-year term.

c. Until October 31, 2026, the parties shall continue to equally share all mortgage payments, bills, utilities, HOA, property taxes, insurance, and upkeep associated with the marital home.

d. As of November 1, 2026, Lindsay shall be responsible for all mortgage payments, bills, utilities, HOA, property taxes, insurance, and upkeep associated with the marital home.

e. Lindsay shall assume or refinance the mortgage on the marital home within twelve (12) months, on or by November 1, 2027, and shall thereby assume all liability and costs associated with the marital home.

f. Within 14 days of Lindsay's completion of such assumption/refinance of the marital home, Christopher shall sign a quit claim deed transferring his entire interest in the home to Lindsay, unless the loan underwriter determines that it is necessary sooner to remove his name from the loan obligation or to effectuate the terms of this agreement.

g. If Lindsay is unable to assume or refinance the mortgage on or by October 21, 2027, she shall be responsible for selling the marital home within a reasonable time and paying off the mortgage with the sale proceeds, thereby removing any and all liability for Christopher associated with the marital home.
