| In the matter of the marriage ofELI CRANDALL,andAMANDA CRANDALL. | DIVORCE DECREECase No. 264902208Judge: Coral SanchezCommissioner: Renee Blocher |

This matter came before the Court on the Verified Petition for Divorce filed by Petitioner ELI CRANDALL ("Eli") against Respondent AMANDA CRANDALL ("Amanda*").* The parties have reached an agreement regarding all issues in this matter. The Court, having reviewed the pleadings and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for good cause appearing, ORDERS, JUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

The parties are hereby granted a divorce, and their marriage is hereby dissolved upon the entry of this Decree, on the ground that the parties have experienced irreconcilable differences in the marriage, rendering the continuation of the marriage impossible.

MINOR CHILDREN

1. The parties have two minor children as issue of this marriage, who are collectively referred to herein as the "Minor Children" or individually as "Minor Child."

   a. R.L.C. born 1-11-2019

   b. A.L.C. born 3-17-2020

2. No other children are expected as issue of this marriage.

3. The Minor Children have been a residents of the state of Utah for at least six consecutive months prior to the filing of this action, and as such, Utah is the home state of the Minor Child pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 78B-13-102(7) and § 78B-13-201(a).

4. There are none of the following:

   a. a case in which a party or the party's child is a party to or the subject of a petition or order involving child support, parent time, or child custody, including minor guardianship, adoption, or any similar child custody case;

   b. a pending criminal or delinquency case in which a party or the party's child is a defendant or respondent;

   c. a protective order case involving a party regardless whether a child of the party is involved.

CUSTODY, PARENT TIME, AND PARENTING PLAN

5. The parties will share joint legal custody of the Minor Children.

6. The parties will have direct access to all of the children's school, medical, religious, and extracurricular records and providers.

7. The parties will discuss all important non-emergency medical, education, and religious issues involving the Minor Children and attempt to agree. If they cannot agree, they will discuss the issue with professionals in that area. If they still cannot agree, either party may seek mediation (equally sharing the cost) or a Court decision if he or she believes the decision is not in the Minor Children's best interest.

8. The Minor Children will continue at the same school and feeder schools.

9. If either party is unavailable to care for the Minor Children overnight, the other parent will be given first option to care for the Minor Children before the Minor Children are left with third parties. The party exercising the option will provide all transportation for the exchanges.

10. Except as set forth above, the receiving parent will be responsible for the transportation for the exchanges, and all exchanges shall occur curbside. The parties may use third parties for transportation during parent-time exchanges.

11. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor child travels with a parent, the parent shall provide the following information to the other parent:

a. an itinerary of travel dates;

b. destinations;

c. places where the minor child or traveling parent can be reached; and

d. the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the minor child's location.

12. If one party moves more than 150 miles from the other party, the parties shall adhere to the relocation provisions contained in Utah Code 81-9-209.

13. The parties will share joint physical custody of the minor children. They will have a 50/50 parent time schedule pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305. Unless the parties agree otherwise, Eli will have overnights with the children on Monday and Tuesday; Amanda will have overnights with the children on Wednesday and Thursday; and the parties will alternate Friday through Monday morning. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, they shall have parent-time on holidays and extended time during the summer pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-305. Amanda is designated as the custodial parent for the purposes of holiday time only.

14. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

15. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available.

16. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.

17. Neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

18. Both parties shall have full access to the Minor Children during school hours, and shall have access to school records and school personnel related to the Minor Children. Both parties have authority to check the Minor Children out of school during his or her parent-time.

19. The party with physical custody of the Minor Children shall have the authority to make emergency decisions affecting health or safety of the Minor Children. A parent will notify the other parent of any emergency decision made as soon as possible.

20. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of the final Decree, the other parent’s obligations will not be affected.

21. Each party is permanently restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, and/or harming the other at any time or in any place, including electronic communications via social media, text message, e-mail, and other similar methods.

22. The parties are mutually restrained from a) saying or doing anything demeaning or derogatory about the other party that impugns the other’s character in the presence of the minor children or on social media or to third parties and will remove the children from third parties engaged in such conduct; b) discussing adult issues, including the divorce action and parent time issues, with the children and will remove the children from third parties engaged in such conduct; or c) using the children as messengers or couriers between them. The parties will prohibit third parties from engaging in the conduct they cannot engage in.

23. Any temporary changes to this parenting plan must be agreed upon by both parties, confirmed in writing. Any permanent changes to this parenting plan must be stipulated or ordered by the Court pursuant to Utah law.

CHILD SUPPORT

24. Eli is employed and makes approximately $11,075 in gross monthly income.

25. Amanda is currently underemployed and capable of earning $5,500 in gross monthly income and is imputed to that amount.

26. Pursuant to the Utah Child Support Guidelines based on a joint physical custody worksheet, Eli shall pay Amanda $402/month in child support.

27. Child support payments shall commence either: a) in June of 2027 when Amanda relocates from 1456 East 7335 South, Cottonwood Heights, Utah 84121 as ordered herein, or b) if Amanda chooses to permanently relocate from 1456 East 7335 South, Cottonwood Heights, Utah 84121 before June of 2027, the month following the relocation.

28. Child support shall be payable in two equal monthly installments payable on the 1st and 15th day of each month.

29. When Eli's alimony obligation terminates under the provisions contained herein, his child support obligation shall increase to $709/month for two Minor Children. When child support terminates for the oldest Minor Child, child support shall automatically recalculate for only one remaining Minor Child according to the statutory Utah Child Support Guidelines.

30. Child support for each Minor Child terminates at the time: (1) a child becomes 18 years old or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

OTHER CHILD-RELATED EXPENSES

31. The parties shall share the cost of mandatory school fees and agreed-upon extracurricular activities as follows:

a. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties agree that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

b. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

32. The parties shall each bear their own daycare expenses incurred on his or her parent-time.

INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

33. The parties' Minor Children are in need of health insurance, and Eli shall continue to maintain insurance coverage on behalf of the Minor Children.

34. If the Minor Children are covered by the medical insurance plans of both parents, the insurance plan of Eli will be primary coverage for the Minor Children and the insurance plan for Amanda will be the secondary coverage for the Minor Children. If a parent remarries and the Minor Children are not covered by that parent's medical insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the insurance plan of the step-parent will be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and will retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the Minor Children. Parties will provide verification of coverage upon initial enrollment of the dependent Minor Child, and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. Parties will be required to provide notice of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty calendar days of the change.

35. Each parent will give the other parent a duplicate insurance card to present to medical providers for care.

36. The parties shall equally share the Minor Children's portion of actual out-of-pocket costs of the medical, dental, or optical insurance premiums for the Minor Children. The Minor Children's portion of the premium is the per capita share of the premium actually paid, calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of Minor Children in this case.

37. When both parties are maintaining health insurance coverage for the Minor Children, one-half of the difference between the monthly premiums will be owed by the party whose coverage is less expensive.

38. When the payor of child support is also owed a monthly health insurance reimbursement from the payee of child support, the monthly health insurance reimbursement shall be deducted from the payor's monthly child support obligation.

39. Each party is responsible for one-half of all reasonable medical, health, dental, and optical expenses not covered by health insurance and incurred for the parties' Minor Children, including, but not limited to, deductibles and copays, and other expenses not otherwise coverage by insurance.

40. The parent who incurs medical, dental, or optical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expense to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The non-paying parent is required to remit payment of their one-half share within 30 days of receipt of the verification.

FEDERAL AND STATE INCOME TAXES

41. The parties will each claim one minor child for the purposes of tax exemption on state and federal taxes while two are available to claim. Then the oldest ages out, the parties will alternate the youngest child.

42. A parent must be current on his or her child support obligation in order to claim an exemption. If a parent is not current on his or her child support obligation, that exemption will be awarded to the other parent.

43. An exemption may not be awarded to a parent unless the award will result in a tax benefit to that parent.

ALIMONY

44. Eli will pay Amanda alimony in the sum of $1,700 per month, commencing a) in June of 2027 when Amanda relocates from 1456 East 7335 South, Cottonwood Heights, Utah 84121 as ordered herein, or b) if Amanda chooses to permanently relocate from 1456 East 7335 South, Cottonwood Heights, Utah 84121 before June of 2027, the month following the relocation.

45. The alimony will terminate upon the first of the following conditions to occur: a) Amanda's remarriage or cohabitation under Utah law, b) the death of either party, or c) 48 monthly payments following Amanda's move from the residence. At the time alimony terminates, child support will increase to $709 per month until the oldest child emancipates and only one child will be included in child support.

REAL PROPERTY

46. Eli is awarded all right, title, and interest in the residence located at 1456 East 7335 South, Cottonwood Heights, Utah 84121. He is obligated to pay all mortgages and expenses on the residence. Amanda will execute a Quit Claim Deed to waive any claim to the residence and deliver the deed for Eli for recording no later than 14 days from the entry of the divorce decree. The parties will continue to live in the residence and pay the bills as they have done until Amanda relocates from this residence, but Amanda shall relocate from this residence no later than June of 2027. If Amanda relocates from this residence before June of 2027, she will give Eli at least 30 days' advance written notice.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

47. The parties are entitled to their own separate property acquired before the marriage or through gift or inheritance acquired at any time.

48. Eli is awarded the 2018 Toyota Rav 4 and is responsible for any future or outstanding debt or obligations thereon.

49. Amanda is awarded the 2014 Nissan Pathfinder and is responsible for any future or outstanding debt, expenses, or obligations thereon.

50. All remaining items of personal property shall be awarded as the parties agree. If the parties do not agree, they shall return to mediation with a mutually agreed mediator, each party bearing half of the mediator's costs.

BUSINESS INTERESTS

51. The parties have no business interests to divide.

DEBTS

52. The parties have no joint debts.

53. Each party is responsible for any other debt held in their own respective names.

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

54. The parties have no joint financial accounts.

55. Amanda is awarded all the funds in Eli's Health Savings Account.

56. Unless otherwise stated herein, each party is awarded any other financial account in his or her own name.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

57. As a global settlement for the residence and other assets, Amanda will be awarded her 401(k) and Eli's Fidelity 401(k) and all funds therein. The cost of drafting and filing a Qualified Domestic Relations Order shall be split equally between the parties.

58. The parties are awarded any other retirement accounts held in their own name.

COSTS AND ATTORNEY FEES

59. Each party shall bear their own attorney's fees.

MISCELLANEOUS

60. Each party is ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provision of the decree of divorce entered in this case by the Court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of entry of a divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.
