Holiday	Mother	Father
Labor Day: From the Friday prior to Labor Day at 6:00 p.m. until Labor Day at 6:00 p.m.	Odd	Even

4. Other school holidays and in-service days, which fall on a Friday or a Monday, shall be awarded to the parent whose weekend is contiguous with said holiday or in-service day.

5. The parties shall be entitled to visitation with the minor children on the parents' respective birthdays from 5:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. which, if not in conjunction with the Father's other visitation, shall take place in the location of the minor children's residence.

6. Visitation during the minor children's summer vacation shall be as follows:

a. Summer of 2015: In addition to the Father's every other weekend visitation, he shall be entitled to three (3) non-consecutive weeks of visitation which, unless otherwise agreed, shall be from June 19, 2015 at 6:00 p.m. until June 26, 2015 at 6:00 p.m.; July 17, 2015 at 6:00 p.m. until July 24, 2015 at 6:00 p.m.; and August 14, 2015 at 6:00 p.m. until August 21, 2015 at 6:00 p.m.

b. Summer of 2016: For the first eight (8) weeks of the minor children's summer vacation, the parties shall alternate custody each Sunday at 6:00 p.m., with the Father beginning his summer access on the first Sunday following the minor children's release from school, resulting in the Father have four (4) non-consecutive weeks of visitation. Visitation for the remainder of the summer shall occur as set forth in paragraph 2, above.

c. Summer of 2017, and each summer thereafter: The parties shall alternate custody each Sunday at 6:00 p.m., with the Father beginning his summer access on the first

COPY

Sunday following the minor children's release from school, and with the alternating week schedule ending on the Sunday before school resumes.

7. The parties may vary the above-stated schedule by their joint, written, agreement; provided, however, that if the parties cannot agree, then the schedule set forth above shall control.

8. The minor children shall be exchanged as the parties can reasonably agree. If the parties cannot agree, the party receiving the children shall be responsible for transportation.

9. All major decisions concerning the minor children, for instance, decisions about non-emergency surgery, choosing doctors, choosing schools, choosing counselors, choosing child care providers, etc., shall be made by both parties' mutual agreement. In the event that the parties cannot reach an agreement, they shall attempt to resolve their dispute in mediation prior to the filing of an action in Court.

10. Neither party shall move the residence of the minor children further than the current distance between their respective residences without providing the other party sixty (60) days' notice prior to moving. Neither party shall move the residence of the minor children, without written agreement of the parties or prior court order, in such a way that the visitation schedule set forth herein is no longer reasonable.

11. Both parties shall provide the other party with a current mailing address, physical address, and phone number at all times.

12. There shall be no restrictions on any telephone or internet communication between the children and either parent. Both parents shall be allowed to contact the minor children by phone at reasonable times, i.e., prior to bedtime, when the child is with the other parent.

13. The non-custodial parent shall be permitted to visit the minor children at their schools for lunch, as well as attending all extra-curricular and other activities; provided, however, that the minor children will not be removed from school by the non-custodial parent except by written permission from the custodial parent.

14. Each parent shall encourage love and affection between each child and the other parent. Neither parent shall do anything, nor permit any other person residing in their household to do anything, which would alienate a child from the other parent or distort each child's opinion of the other parent or impair each child's love and respect for the other parent.

15. Both parties shall instruct the schools where the children are enrolled to list both parents in the school records, and to send copies of any information regarding the children to both of the parents at their current addresses. The parties shall contact the children's schools to remain informed of the children's school progress, grades, and functions. The parties shall share information about their children's education with each other. Major decisions about the children's education shall be made by both parties.

16. Both parties, pursuant to Idaho Code 32-717A, shall have full access to all school, dental, and medical records in reference to the minor children.

17. In the event that either parent leaves the State of Idaho with the minor children for a period of seventy-two (72) hours or more, they shall give to the other a general itinerary of where they are going, when they will return, and how the minor children may be contacted.

18. Child support prior to the date of March 1, 2015 shall be governed by this Court's January 12, 2015 Minute Entry and Order. All child support has been paid current through February 28, 2015 under this Court's January 12, 2015 Minute Entry and Order, and the Department of Health and Welfare shall amend their records to reflect the same. Beginning on March 1, 2015, and on the first day of each and every month thereafter, the Father shall pay child support to the Mother in the amount of $539.67 per month. Said child support shall continue until each minor child for whom support is owed reaches the age of 18 years, unless they continue with their full-time high school education, in which case, said child support shall continue until the minor child for whom support is owed graduates from high school, reaches the age of 19 years or is otherwise emancipated, whichever occurs first. In no event shall child support be paid for any child beyond the age of 19 years.

19. The parties shall each be required to provide information to the other relative to changes in their employment including, but not limited to, their place of employment, hours worked, hourly wages, salary and, at the end of each tax year, W-2s, 1099s, or other information necessary to determine the parent's annual income. Upon any of the changes in income or employment identified above, the parties shall seek to modify child support by stipulation, pursuant to the Idaho Child Support Guidelines, and without the need of filing a petition to modify. Further, said change shall be retroactive to the date employment or income changed.

20. All child support shall be paid through the State of Idaho, Department of Health and Welfare, State Disbursement Unit, P.O. Box 70008, Boise, Idaho, 83707, and further an automatic wage withholding order shall be issued. The following notices shall apply:

COPY

NOTICE OF AUTOMATIC AND IMMEDIATE INCOME WITHHOLDING

This support order is enforceable by automatic and immediate income withholding as of the effective date of this order under Chapter 12, Title 32, Idaho Code. This automatic and immediate income withholding order shall be issued by the Department of Health and Welfare or other obligee to your employer or other person who pays your income, without notice to you.

NOTICE OF MEDICAL ENFORCEMENT

This order is enforceable by allowing the State of Idaho, Department of Health and Welfare or other obligee to enforce medical coverage. That whenever an obligor parent who has been ordered to provide health insurance coverage for a dependent child fails to provide such coverage or lets it lapse, the Department of Health and Welfare or other obligee may seek enforcement of the coverage order as of the effective date of this order under chapter 12, Title 32, Idaho Code.

TAX REFUNDS

In the event any party is in arrears in the payment of child support, IDHW shall be entitled to offset his or her federal and state income tax refunds until the amount owing is paid in full, pursuant to Idaho Code Section 7-1203.

NOTICE OF LIEN

That if a delinquency occurs under any child support order entered in this matter and the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare provides child support enforcement services, a lien shall automatically arise upon and attach to the real and personal property of the obligor parent pursuant to Idaho Code Section 7-1203. When the amount of the lien is equal to or greater than the total support owing for at least ninety (90) days, or Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), whichever is less, the lien may be perfected by a filing with the office of the Secretary of State. A perfected lien shall include all subsequently arising delinquencies. When the underlying delinquency reaches a zero balance or is otherwise satisfied, the lien shall be automatically released.

CURRENT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Both parties shall file with the department, if the department is providing child support services, identifying information including social security number, residential and mailing address, telephone number, driver's license number, and name, address, and telephone number of their employer. Both parties shall provide written notification to the department of any changes within thirty (30) days after such change.

21. The Father shall be entitled to claim all of the minor children for purposes of federal and state tax dependency exemptions and child tax credit every tax year. Both parties shall sign any and all waivers necessary to effectuate this provision on a yearly basis including, but not limited to, what is currently referred to as IRS Form 8332.

22. Any claimed health care expense for the children (whether denominated as psychiatric, psychological, special education, addiction treatment or counseling in any form, and including regular medical or dental care), whether or not covered by insurance, which would result in an actual out of pocket expense of over $500.00 to the party who did not incur or consent to the expense, must be approved in advance, in writing, by both parties or by prior court order. Relief may be granted by the Court for failure to comply under extraordinary circumstances, and the Court may in its discretion apportion the incurred expense in some percentage other than that in the existing support order, and in so doing, may consider whether consent was unreasonably requested or withheld.

23. The parties shall equally share work related child care costs in proportion to their child support guidelines incomes. Said costs are to be paid directly to the child care provider unless already paid in which case the costs shall be reimbursed to the paying parent. Each party shall pay his or her cost within thirty (30) days of receiving the itemized bill and a work schedule. The parties shall agree on any third party work or school related daycare provider to be used for the minor children. Both parties, prior to the time that work or school related care is provided, shall be provided with the name, address, and telephone number of any such caregiver. Pro rata sharing of work related child care costs shall be modified consistent with the provisions for child support set forth in paragraph 19 above.

COPY

24. Liability for premium costs and medical costs, including, but not limited to, dental, orthodontic, optical, prescription medications, psychiatric, psychological, special education, addiction treatment or counseling in any form and including any other regular medical expense, as well as deductible and/or co-payments, shall be divided equally between the parties. Pro rata sharing of medical care costs shall be modified consistent with the provisions for child support set forth in paragraph 19 above.

25. Each year, the parent with insurance coverage shall provide the other parent with copies of health coverage and subscriber information. Both parties shall provide the other with copies of health care invoices within fourteen (14) days of receipt. Both parties with insurance shall provide the other parent with copies of health insurance explanation of benefits (EOB) forms within fourteen (14) days of receipt. Uncovered medical expenses are to be paid directly to the health care provider unless already paid, in which case the costs shall be reimbursed to the paying parent. Each party shall pay his or her cost within thirty (30) days of receiving the itemized bill, or a statement identifying the amounts not covered or paid in full by insurance.
