IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
In the Matter of the Marriage of: MADISON LEVY, Petitioner, and, JEAN YVENS LEVY, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264902554 Judge Patrick Corum Commissioner Kim Luhn

The Court, having reviewed the record, the parties' Settlement Agreement, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law entered herein, and good cause appearing, hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. 1. At the time the Petition for Divorce was filed, the residency requirements of Utah law were satisfied.

2. 2. Jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter is proper in the State of Utah.

3. 3. Venue is proper in Salt Lake County, Utah.

MARRIAGE STATISTICS

1. 4. Petitioner and Respondent were married on November 28, 2020.

2. 5. Petitioner, Madison Levy shall be granted a divorce from Respondent Jean Levy on the grounds of infidelity, making continuation of the marriage impossible, with such divorce to become final upon the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

CHILDREN

1. 6. One minor child was born to the parties during the marriage, A.N.L., born 2024.

CUSTODY

1. 7. The parties agree, and the Court orders, that it is in the best interest of the minor child that Petitioner be awarded sole physical custody.

2. 8. The parties shall share joint legal custody.

3. 9. Petitioner shall be the primary residential parent.

4. 10. The parties have established decision-making procedures concerning legal custody matters.

5. 11. In the event of an impasse after consultation, professional input, and mediation, Petitioner shall have presumptive final decision-making authority subject to Respondent's right to seek judicial review.

6. 12. The parenting provisions set forth in the parties' Agreement are reasonable and serve the best interests of the child.

PARENT-TIME

1. 13. Respondent shall exercise parent-time pursuant to the schedule set forth in the Agreement.

2. 14. When the parties reside within 150 miles of one another, Respondent shall exercise parent-time according to the graduated schedule contained in the Agreement.

3. 15. Beginning January 2027, parent-time shall transition to the statutory schedule identified by the parties.

4. 16. Should the parties reside more than 150 miles apart, long-distance parent-time shall be exercised pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

5. 17. The long-distance provisions include summer parent-time, holiday parent-time, virtual contact, notice requirements regarding relocation, and eventual transition to the statutory long-distance schedule when the child reaches the specified age.

6. 18. The parent-time provisions are in the child's best interests and promote a continuing relationship between the child and both parents.

CHILD SUPPORT

1. 19. For child support purposes, income of $5,547.00 per month is attributed to Petitioner.

2. 20. For child support purposes, income of $5,547.00 per month is attributed to Respondent.

3. 21. Respondent shall pay child support to Petitioner in the amount of $548.00 per month beginning September 2026.

4. 22. Respondent shall pay the agreed arrearage amount of $200.00, as stated in the Agreement.

5. 23. Child support is consistent with the parties' stipulation and applicable Utah law.

6. 24. Child support shall terminate, modify, and abate as provided by Utah law.

CHILD-RELATED EXPENSES

1. 25. The parties shall equally share public school fees, registration fees, and other agreed educational expenses.

2. 26. The parties shall equally share agreed extracurricular expenses.

3. 27. Respondent shall contribute toward dance-class expenses as provided in the Agreement.

4. 28. The parties shall equally share work-related childcare expenses.

5. 29. Reimbursement procedures established in the Agreement are reasonable and enforceable.

MEDICAL INSURANCE AND EXPENSES

1. 30. The parties shall maintain health, dental, and vision insurance for the minor child when available at a reasonable cost through employment.

2. 31. The parties shall equally share the statutory per-capita premium cost attributable to the minor child.

3. 32. The parties shall equally share uninsured and unreimbursed medical expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child.

4. 33. The notification and reimbursement procedures contained in the Agreement are reasonable and, in the child's, best interests.

LIFE INSURANCE

1. 34. So long as Respondent has a financial obligation under the Decree, Respondent shall maintain life insurance in the face amount of $100,000.00.

2. 35. Petitioner shall be designated as beneficiary as required by the Agreement.

3. 36. Annual proof of coverage shall be provided pursuant to the Agreement.

ALIMONY

1. 37. Neither party seeks alimony from the other.

2. 38. The Court finds that no alimony should be awarded.

PROPERTY DIVISION

1. 39. The parties have satisfactorily divided all personal property.

2. 40. Each party shall retain the personal property and vehicles currently in his or her possession.

3. 41. Petitioner shall refinance the vehicle loan referenced in the Agreement and remove Respondent's obligation thereon.

4. 42. The parties acquired no marital real property requiring division.

5. 43. Each party shall retain his or her respective bank accounts.

6. 44. Each party shall retain his or her respective retirement accounts.

7. 45. The division of property is fair and equitable.

DEBTS

1. 46. The parties represent they have no joint debts requiring allocation.

2. 47. Each party shall be solely responsible for debts incurred in his or her own name.

3. 48. The allocation of debt is equitable.

TAXES

1. 49. The parties have resolved all issues concerning prior tax returns.

2. 50. Beginning with tax year 2026, the parties shall file separate returns.

3. 51. Petitioner shall claim the minor child in even-numbered years.

4. 52. Respondent shall claim the minor child in odd-numbered years, provided he is current on child support obligations as required by the Agreement.

5. 53. The tax allocation is fair and equitable.

ATTORNEY FEES

1. 54. Each party shall be responsible for his or her own attorney fees and costs incurred through execution of the Agreement.

2. 55. The Court finds such allocation equitable under the circumstances.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. 56. The parties shall execute all documents reasonably necessary to implement the terms of the Decree.

2. 57. Petitioner shall have the right, but not the obligation, to restore her maiden name.

3. 58. The Court finds that all provisions of the Settlement Agreement are fair, reasonable, voluntarily entered, and not unconscionable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Court therefore enters the following CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

1. 1. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties in the above-entitled matter. The parties are entitled to a Decree of Divorce.

2. 2. A Decree of Divorce should be entered to become final upon entry pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-406(5)-(6).

3. 3. A Decree of Divorce should be entered in conformance with the foregoing Findings of Fact.
