IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: JULIE CHAN BOON, Petitioner, and ~~WANG~~ WENG CHAN BOON, Jr., Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264902586 Judge: Charles Stormont Commissioner: Russell Minas

Petitioner, Julie Chan Boon, by and through counsel, David J Friel, has represented to the Court that the parties previously attended mediation with Lisa Jones on October 9, 2026. At mediation the parties signed a Stipulation and Agreement settling all claims to their divorce. The Court acknowledges that the specific Stipulation and Agreement was e-filed with the Court on October 12, 2026.

The Court previously entered Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Therefore, the Court hereby enters the following:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. Both parties were residents of Salt Lake County, Utah when this divorce case was filed. Both parties have been residents of Utah for at least 90 days before the filing of this divorce.

2. The parties were married on June 14, 2019 in Bluffdale, Salt Lake County, Utah.

3. Petitioner has sought a divorce from the Respondent based on reconcilable differences. Therefore, the Court dissolves the marital contract previously entered, and Petitioner is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent.

4. The parties are the legal parents of one minor child: T.S.C.B., born in February, 2020.

5. It is ordered that the parties will exercise parent time consistent with Utah Code Annotated section 81-9-303~~2~~, but as specified more specifically herein. It is ordered that Petitioner will be the primary residential parent.

6. It is ordered that the parties will share joint legal custody of the minor child and that the following Parenting Plan will be implemented:

a. Decision Making: The parties will share joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties will have direct access to all of the child's school, medical, religious, and extracurricular records and providers. The parties will discuss all important non-emergency medical, education, and religious issues involving the child and attempt to agree. If they cannot agree, they will discuss the issue with professionals in that area. If they still cannot agree, the parties will follow the recommendations of the professional unless a party believes the decision is not in the child's best interest. Either party may seek a Court decision if he/she believes the recommendation is not in the child's best interest. Neither party will have decision-making authority. Petitioner will be the primary residential parent for the purposes of school attendance.

b. Parent-Time Exchanges: The parties will exchange the child as they can agree, but if they cannot agree, the receiving parent will pick up the child at school, or at the other parent's residence curbside.

c. Travel with the Child: The statutory itinerary language will be included in the Decree and will be given to the other parent at least seven (7) days in advance of the travel.

d. Communication with Child: Parents and the child may contact each other at reasonable times and places. The child's conversations with the parents will be unmonitored with the exception of age-appropriate assistance with technology only. The parents will actively encourage the relationship between the child and the other parent and will not interfere with the other parent's time with the child.

e. Relocation of a Parent: Neither parent should move out of state with child, unless permission from the other parent is given. The parent that moves will be responsible for travel costs. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 50 miles from the other parent's current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

f. Children's Travel Expenses: The parents will share the cost of travel back and forth between normal parent time schedule. Each parent will be responsible for any travel expenses that they acquire when child is in their care. Parents will split the cost of travel if child travels for agreed-upon sports or other school activities.

g. Education Plan: Both parents will have the authority to check the child from school.

h. Communication with the Other Parent: Each parent can contact the other parent by any means they choose as long as the communication is respectful.

i. Extracurricular Activities: The parties will equally share the cost of, agreed-upon in writing, activities and sports.

j. Modification of the Parenting Plan: This plan remains in effect until changed. A change will need to be made through an agreed-upon mediator or Court order.

k. Mutual Restraints: The parties will be mutually restrained from a) saying or doing anything demeaning or derogatory about the other party that impugns the other's character in the presence of the minor children or on social media or to third parties and will remove the children from third parties engaged in such conduct; b) discussing adult issues, including the divorce action and parent time issues, with the children and will remove the children from third parties engaged in such conduct; or c) using the children as messengers or couriers between them. The parties will prohibit third parties from engaging in the conduct they cannot engage in.

l. Medical Expenses: The statutory language involving payment of medical expenses will be included in the Decree. If a party uses an out-of-network provider when it is not an emergency, that party will pay the full cost.

m. Daycare Expenses: The statutory language involving payment of daycare expenses will be included in the Decree.

n. Taxes: Commencing for the 2026 tax year, Petitioner will claim the child for tax credits-dependency purposes. Petitioner will continue to do so while Respondent has no taxable income. If Respondent has taxable income and would benefit from the tax credit-dependency, the parties would alternate the child.

o. Right of First Refusal: If either party is unavailable to care for the child overnight, that party will offer the other parent to option to care for the child. The parent exercising the option will provide all of the transportation to pick up and return the child.

p. Physical Custody: Petitioner will be awarded primary physical custody of the minor child. Respondent will have parent time with the minor child each Wednesday starting after school at 3:10 pm to 8:00 pm and every other weekend starting Friday at 1:00 pm from Friday to Sunday at 8:00 pm. The statutory holiday schedule ~~will be included~~is incorporated into this ~~the~~ Decree.

7. Child Support: It is ordered that Respondent will pay child support of $200 per month commencing November, 2026. Respondent has contacted SSDI regarding the child's stipend and has an appointment in November, 2026 to apply for it. It is ordered that he will provide to Julie proof of the steps taken and SSDI's response. It is ordered that the parties cooperate in that application. It is ordered that when the stipend is received, Petitioner will receive 70% of child's portion of the SS benefit and Respondent will receive 30%. Depending upon who receives the stipend, it is ordered that that person will forward to appropriate percentage to the other parent and the $200 child support amount directly from Respondent will terminate.

8. Real Estate: It is ordered that Respondent be awarded the West Jordan residence with Julie having no interest therein.

9. Bank Accounts: It is ordered that the parties will each be awarded the bank accounts in their own names. If Respondent wants to keep a MACU marital account ending in 0092, it is ordered that he will remove Petitioner's name from that account within seven (7) days.

10. Retirement: It is ordered that the parties have no retirement/pension accounts to divide.

11. Alimony: It is ordered that neither party be awarded alimony from the other, either now or in the future.

12. Business: It is ordered that Petitioner be awarded all assets and liabilities in First Choice Counseling and Consulting Services.

13. Personal Property: It is ordered that Petitioner be awarded the Armada and the debt thereon. It is ordered that she will provide a copy of the Decree to the lender. It is ordered that Respondent be awarded the Nissan Titan truck.

14. It is ordered that the parties be awarded the personal property in their respective possessions.

15. Attorney Fees: It is ordered that the parties will pay their own costs and attorney fees.

16. Maiden Name: It is ordered that Petitioner may be returned to her maiden name of “Dumas,” should she so desire.

17. Documents: It is ordered that the parties will execute any documents necessary to effectuate this agreement. It is ordered that the parties will remove the name of the other from all assets awarded herein.
