Attorney for Adam Fisch

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: ADAM MICHAEL FISCH, Petitioner, and MORGAN LEE FISCH, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 264900094 Judge: Laura Scott Commissioner: Joanna Sagers

The above-entitled matter came before the court on the Petitioner's Petition for Divorce, the parties' Stipulation, and Petitioner's Declaration of Jurisdiction and Grounds. The Court, having entered the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, now orders that the parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and their marriage is hereby dissolved. The Court ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The parties are residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have been for three months immediately prior to filing this petition.

2. The parties were married on September 6, 2014 in Salt Lake City, Utah and are presently married.

3. The above-entitled district court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to Utah Code 78A-5-102(2008).

4. The above-entitled court has personal jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-402(1), resulting from the parties being bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and have been for more than three months immediately prior to the commencement of this action.

5. Venue is properly laid in the above-entitled district court pursuant to 81-4-402(1) and 78B-3a-20 I.

GROUNDS

6. During the course of the marriage, the parties have experienced difficulties, having expressed by word and/or conduct that the original purposes of the marriage are no longer being pursued, preventing the parties from pursuing a viable marital relationship and rendering the continuation of their marriage undesirable and impossible, the same irreconcilable differences being sufficient grounds for divorce pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-405(l)(h).

MINOR CHILDREN

7. There are two minor children born or adopted between the parties, to wit: O.L.F. (born April 2018) and D.S.F. (born October 2021).

8. Pursuant to rule 100, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, upon information and belief, that there are currently no cases in the District or Juvenile Court of this state or any other state related to the custody or parent-time of the minor children.

9. Utah is the home State of the parties' minor children pursuant to 81-11-201.

a. The minor children have resided in Utah more than six months, or since the time of birth if under the age of six months, and/or, it is in the best interest of the minor children that a court of this state assume jurisdiction because the minor children, in addition to the parents or one of the contestants, have a significant connection with this state and there is available in this state substantial evidence concerning the minor children's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

10. It is in the best interest of the minor children that the parties be awarded joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall be governed by the Joint Custody Parenting Plan set forth herein.

11. It is in the best interest of the minor children that the parties be awarded joint physical custody of the minor children. Parent-time with the minor children shall be pursuant to a 50/50 timesharing arrangement as the parties may agree. If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule, then they shall follow a week-on/week-off schedule with exchanges to occur on Sunday at 7:00 PM. This schedule is represented visually as follows:

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Wk1	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom	Mom

12. Each parent is entitled to 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent-time during the summer months when the minor children are free from school. The parents will notify each other by April 15th of each year of the time period he/she will be exercising his/her uninterrupted parent-time. Adam will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an even number and Morgan will have first option of uninterrupted time period in calendar years ending in an odd number. The summer parent-time cannot interfere with the other parent's holiday. If the parent designated to first choose the 2-week period for the year fails to choose by April 15, the non-designated parent may designate when the 2-week period will occur.

13. In addition, holiday parent-time shall be as the parties agree. If unable to agree, then the parties shall follow the holiday parent-time schedule set forth in Utah Code 81-9-303 and as follows:

14. The minor children shall continue to attend their current school and feeder schools unless the parties mutually agree in writing to transfer schools. Both parties shall be listed in school records as a point of contact for school communications.

15. In the event either party moves more than 30 miles away from their current residence the parties will revisit the issue of parent time and custody.

CHILD SUPPORT

16. Child Support: Adam is employed full-time and earns a gross monthly income of $17,210 for purposes of calculating child support. Morgan is employed full-time and earns a gross monthly income of $6,583 for purposes of calculating child support.

17. The joint custody worksheet shall be used to calculate child support, awarding Morgan 183 overnights and Adam 182 overnights. In accordance with Utah Code 81-6-203 and the joint custody worksheet, Adam shall be ordered to pay child support to Morgan for the parties' children in the amount of $689 per month.

18. The support of the minor children shall continue until said children become 18 years of age or have graduated from high school during the children's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.

19. When a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the base child support award shall be automatically adjusted to reflect the base combined child support obligation pursuant to the uniform child support guidelines for the remaining number of children due child support, unless otherwise provided in the order. The income used for the purpose of adjusting child support shall be the income of the parties at the time of the entry of the original order.

20. All non-garnished monthly payments of child support, maintenance or alimony provided in the final Decree shall be due on the first day of each month.

21. On or before the first (1st) of each calendar month, the paying parent shall pay the monthly child support amount directly to the other parent in a manner designated by Adam.

22. The base child support award shall be reduced by (a) 50% for the child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent time; or (b) 25% for the child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent time. However, normal parent time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

INSURANCE, DAYCARE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

23. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-208 (2024) as amended:

a. Either Adam or Morgan shall maintain insurance for medical expenses for the benefit of the minor children where available at a reasonable cost. In determining which parent shall maintain insurance for medical expenses, the parties shall consider the reasonableness of the cost, the availability of a group policy and the coverage of the policy. If the parties cannot agree on who shall carry the insurance, then they shall attend mediation. If insurance is being provided by a plan by both parents, then Adam's insurance shall be considered primary coverage and Morgan’s shall be considered secondary.

b. Adam shall be responsible to pay the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid for medical and dental insurance on his policy as he does presently. Morgan shall be responsible to pay the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid for vision and dental insurance on her policy as she does presently. The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children. The differential between what Adam pays in premiums and what Morgan pays in premiums shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

c. Both parties shall share equally all medical expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parties. Medical expenses shall include, but not be limited to, the following: medical, dental, orthodontia, ophthalmological, psychological, or therapeutic, etc.

d. The parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of the medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

e. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.

24. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-6-209 both parties shall share equally the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

a. The parent who does not incur childcare expenses shall begin paying his or her share of childcare expenses to the parent who does incur childcare expenses, on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. The parent can either pay the provider directly or shall be required to reimburse the paying parent after being provided proof of payment.

b. The parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of the childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of a childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within 30 calendar days of the date of the change. A parent incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with these provisions.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, AND MISCELLANEOUS COSTS

25. The parties shall equally share the costs associated with the following expenses related to the minor children:

a. Cell phones

b. Car insurance

c. School fees and costs

d. Agreed upon extra-curricular activities. All current and extensions of the current extracurricular activities where the children participate are approved.

e. Agreements for all expenses shall be made in writing. When possible, both parties shall pay their one-half share directly to the provider, school or program for and on behalf of the children. If one parent pays the entire cost, that parent shall email the other parent proof of cost and payment within 30 days and the reimbursing parent shall pay their share within 30 days of receiving the email.

TAX EXEMPTION

26. Adam shall be allowed to claim O.L.F. and Morgan shall be allowed to claim D.S.F. each and every year as dependents for state and federal taxes.

27. For Adam to claim a minor child, he must be current on all his child support expenses prior to the end of the tax year.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

28. Prior to the marriage, the parties each had individually acquired certain separate property. Each party shall be awarded any property identified as premarital or separate property, including all gifts and inheritance.

29. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired certain items of personal property.

30. The parties shall share joint ownership of the dogs. The dogs shall follow the same schedule as the minor child and rotate between the parties accordingly. Each party shall be responsible for their own food costs for the dogs during their respective possession periods. All other costs associated with the dogs including but not limited to veterinary care, grooming, licensing, and other routine expenses, shall be divided equally (50/50) between the parties.

31. Said personal property shall be divided among the parties in a fair and equitable fashion as agreed upon by the parties.

32. All property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded solely to the party from whose family it came.

VEHICLES

Vehicle	Awarded to Adam	Awarded to Morgan	Other
2016 Ford Explorer		X	There is no loan against this vehicle.
2018 RAM 2500	X		Adam shall be responsible for the loan against this vehicle.
Motorhome/RV	100%

33. The parties shall take all necessary steps to transfer the vehicles into their own names within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce.

REAL PROPERTY

34. During the marriage, the parties acquired a marital home located at 14367 S. Palo Alto Drive, Herriman, Utah 84096 (the "Herriman house").

35. The Herriman house shall be awarded to Morgan, along with the mortgage and home equity loan and solar panel loan thereon, free and clear of any claim by Adam once he is paid his equity therein. Morgan shall have 3 months from the entry of the Decree of Divorce to start the process of assuming the existing mortgage and shall complete such process within 45 days of commencement. Morgan shall have 12 months from the date of the submission of her loan assumption package to either fully assume the loan or complete a refinance of the loans on the property into her name and thereby retire or satisfy the first and second mortgages on which Adam is a borrower, and also pay off the solar loan secured by the house and pay Adam for his equity interest in the house as set forth below. Morgan shall hold Adam harmless on all loans secured by the Herriman house and shall indemnify him against any loss or liability that could result from a missed payment or default. Adam shall promptly cooperate with the loan assumption and/or refinance effort and shall sign all necessary paperwork to carry this into effect.

36. To offset the difference between the equity in the Herriman house received by Morgan from the martial assets received by Adam, Morgan shall pay Adam $127,541 as an equalization payment at the time the Herriman house is refinanced or loan assumed by Morgan within 12 months of the submission of her loan package, but by no later than 16 ½ months from the entry of the Decree of Divorce, consistent with the division of assets table below.

37. Should Morgan fail to make any payment owing on the mortgage, the home equity loan or the solar panel loan, in an effort to protect his credit, should Adam make any such payment on her behalf, an adjustment to the alimony payments owing to Morgan will be made commensurate with the payments made on her behalf until such payments are repaid in full.

38. Should Morgan fail to refinance or assume the loans on the Herriman house within 16 ½ months, the house will immediately be put up for sale using a realtor agreed upon by the parties. The process of identifying the realtor will commence once the 11-month mark after Morgan's mortgage assumption package submission is made. At that point the parties will confer about realtors and if possible, agree to one. If one cannot be agreed upon within 10 days of conferring, Adam will provide the name of three realtors to Morgan, and she will select one of them. If she fails to select one within 10 days of having their names, Adam will be able to select one from those names provided. The parties will both cooperate with the effort to promptly list and sell the house. If the house is sold, Adam shall receive his $127,541 equalization at that time after the costs of the sale are paid (including any additional expenses incurred necessary to make the house marketable), then any resulting increase or decrease in the home's equity from the date the stipulation was signed until the closing of the sale shall be divided between the parties. Both parties will cooperate with the Realtor regarding the listing and asking price for the house, and any offer of purchase within 5% of asking price shall be accepted.

BANK ACCOUNTS, PROFIT SHARING. STOCK OPTIONS, BONUSES, INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT/PENSION ACCOUNTS AND OR/BUSINESS INTERESTS

39. The parties have acquired and continue to acquire bank, profit sharing, stock options, bonuses, investment, retirement and/or pension accounts and business interests during the course of the parties' marriage.

40. All of these accounts or assets shall be divided as follows as of the date of entry of the Decree of Divorce unless specified otherwise:

the division of assets table below. The parties verify their understanding and agreement to the values therein.

41. The parties are jointly awarded the Hilton Vacation Club and shall share ownership thereof. The parties shall be equally responsible for all fees, costs, and expenses associated with the Hilton Vacation Club. The parties shall equally share the use and vacation time associated with the Hilton Vacation Club. The parties shall cooperate in good faith in scheduling and reserving such time. In the event the parties are unable to agree regarding the use, scheduling, or reservation of vacation club time, Adam shall have priority in odd-numbered years, and Morgan shall have priority in even-numbered years.

43. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-204(l)(e), the parties shall notify respective creditors regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties separate, current addresses.

LIFE INSURANCE

44. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-406 (3)(d), to the extent either party owns a life insurance policy or annuity contract, such party has reviewed and, where appropriate, updated the list of beneficiaries associated with said policy or contract. Each party affirms that the individuals currently designated as beneficiaries are, in fact, the intended beneficiaries following the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Each party further acknowledges and understands that if no changes are made to the beneficiary designations, the individuals currently listed shall remain the beneficiaries and shall receive any funds disbursed by the insurance company or annuity provider pursuant to the terms of the respective policy or contract.

ALIMONY

45. Alimony: Morgan has the need for alimony and Adam has the ability to pay. As such, Adam shall pay Morgan alimony in the amount of $1,500 per month for 4 years starting June 1, 2026. Pursuant to Utah Code 81-4-505, alimony shall immediately terminate earlier upon the remarriage or death of that former spouse, or upon Morgan cohabitating with another person.

46. In the event Adam's income increases in the future, it shall not be considered a change of circumstances for the purpose of modifying alimony. Both Morgan and Adam contemplate that their respective incomes will increase hereafter.

TAX RETURN

47. The parties shall file taxes for the 2026 tax year separately.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

48. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the litigation of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS

49. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, disparaging, or harming the other party at the other party's place of residence, employment or any other place.

50. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.

51. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party separately or by the parties jointly.

52. Each party shall execute and cooperate in delivering to the other and to the court such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the divorce decree hereafter to be entered by the court. Should a party fail to execute a document within 60 days of the entry of this divorce decree, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the noncompliant party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the noncompliant party.

53. Before the filing of any motion or Petition with the court to change any provision of the final Decree of Divorce, the parties must first attempt to resolve the issue through mediation.

54. Morgan may be restored to her maiden name of Romero if she so desires.

JOINT CUSTODY PARENTING PLAN

Each parent has a loving and valuable relationship with the children and shall work together cooperatively regarding the children's physical care and financial and emotional support. The parents shall adhere to the following parenting plan provisions:

1. Co-Parenting Principles

a. The Parties shall co-parent cooperatively, focusing on the physical, emotional, and financial well-being of the children.

b. Each parent shall support and encourage the children's meaningful relationship with the other parent.

c. Civil communication is required at all times. Name-calling or hostile communication is prohibited.

2. Communication Between Parents

a. Primary communication shall occur via text or email, except in emergencies or time-sensitive situations.

b. Parents shall timely share important information regarding the children's schooling, health, social activities, and other relevant matters.

c. If information is available through public sources (e.g., school portals), each parent shall access it directly.

3. Joint Legal Decision-Making: The Parties shall jointly decide major decisions affecting the children, including, but not limited to:

a. Education and daycare

b. Medical, dental, counseling, and orthodontic care

c. Religious upbringing

d. Extracurricular activities

4. Decision-making process:

a. Identify the issue

b. Develop possible solutions; and

c. Select the most reasonable solution in the children's best interests

5. Dispute Resolution for Major Decisions - If the parties cannot reach agreement:

a. They may defer to the recommendations of an expert.

b. If they still do not agree, they shall attend mediation with a mutually agreed mediator (each party pays their own fees).

c. Agreements reached in mediation shall be reduced to writing and signed by both.

d. Only after a good-faith attempt to mediate may a party seek Court involvement.

e. A party who frustrates this process may be ordered to pay the other's attorney's fees, court costs, and mediation costs.

6. Day-to-Day Responsibility

a. The parent exercising parent-time shall make routine daily decisions.

b. Either parent may make necessary emergency decisions regarding the children's health or safety and shall inform the other immediately.

7. Information Access

a. Both parents shall have direct access to all school, medical, dental, and mental health records.

b. Each parent shall notify the other of medical appointments and emergencies.

c. Both parties shall provide written authorization enabling the other to access information from all providers.

8. School Access

a. Both parents may visit the children at school, receive school communications, and check the children out when necessary.

b. Disputes regarding education shall first go to mediation.

9. Medical Treatment Restrictions

a. Non-emergency, uninsured, elective and medical/dental/orthodontic or alternative treatments require prior written consent from both parties.

b. Costs must be agreed in writing before scheduling.

c. Violating parent may be denied reimbursement.

10. Travel Notice Requirements

a. Either parent may travel domestically with the minor children during their own parent-time without needing advance permission, provided they give standard notice.

b. Any international travel, or any travel that would interfere with the other parent's scheduled parent-time, shall be mutually agreed to in advance and in writing.

c. When traveling with the children, the traveling parent shall provide the following, as required by Utah Code 81-9-202(19): Itinerary with travel elates, Destination(s); Contact information; and Name/phone of a third party aware of the children's location.
