Attorney and Licensed Paralegal Practitioner for Petitioner

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH
450 S. State Street, Salt Lake City, UT 84111

In the matter of the marriage of: RACHELE HANSEN, Petitioner, and JOSEPH ZACHARY HANSEN, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 254906569 Judge: Hon. Amanda Montague Commissioner: Hon. Russell Minas Discovery Tier: 4

This matter came before the Court by way of Petitioner Rachele Hansen's ("Petitioner") Verified Petition for Divorce. Having reviewed the pleadings, the Petition for Divorce, and the certificate of default, the Court finds that the Court has jurisdiction to enter an Order. Having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, and for good cause appearing, the Court hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES as follows:

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

1. The parties are bona fide residents of Salt Lake County, State of Utah, for at least three (3) months prior to the commencement of this action.

2. The parties were married in the State of Utah in Salt Lake County on or around September 16, 2004.

3. The parties are the natural parents of two minor children: P.G.H., born January 9, 2013, and H.H.H., born September 6, 2015.

4. Neither party is on active duty in the military, and the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 USC Appx. § 501 et seq., does not apply.

5. Divorce: The parties are hereby divorced from one another, and the bonds of matrimony are forever severed.

PARENT TIME AND CUSTODY

6. Legal Custody. It is in the best interest of the minor children that Petitioner be awarded sole legal custody under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-204, with Petitioner designated as the residential parent of the minor children.

7. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records, and shall include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties shall ensure that the school communicates equally with both parents regarding the minor children's grades, absences, or any other issues that may arise or relate to the minor children's schooling.

8. The major decisions concerning the children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be decided by Petitioner, and she shall maintain the ability to have the final say on major decision-making. Either party shall have the right to court intervention only following communication of the parties, the parties seeking a third-party expert's advice, and after mediation.

9. Physical Custody. It is in the children's best interests that Petitioner be awarded sole physical custody of the minor children and shall be designated as the primary custodial parent. Parent time shall be as the parties agree, but should a dispute arise regarding parent time, Respondent's reasonable right to parent time will be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-302.

10. The parties shall maintain the after-school schedule for the minor children, and shall continue to facilitate after-school activities, as they have been previously practicing. The minor children shall be returned to their residence after the after-school activities are concluded.

11. The parties shall plan parent time for holidays when planning monthly parent time, factoring in work schedules, children's activities, school schedules, and family traditions.

12. The children shall have meaningful holiday time with both parents and their extended families when possible. In the event the parties are unable to agree to a holiday schedule, holiday parent time shall be as outlined in Utah Code § 80-9-302 et seq, with Respondent designated as the non-custodial parent for the sole purpose of following the holiday guidelines.

13. Both parents shall be obligated to follow the policies, intent, definitions, and guidelines provided in Utah Code §§ 81-9-202, 81-9-302, and a parenting plan to that extent is ordered by the court.

PARENTING PLAN

14. The parties shall be entitled to contact the minor children by telephone, email, and/or other means of virtual communication as is reasonably available. Such contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

15. Special consideration shall be given by each party to make the minor children available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the lives of either parent, which may inadvertently conflict with the parent time schedule.

16. In the event of a change in parent time due to any special circumstances, the parties shall agree to plan “make-up” time for any missed parent time and shall do so prior to the agreement to change parent time. Given the infrequent nature of special events, neither party shall excessively invoke this per calendar year to cause a disruption in the lives of the minor children under the parenting schedule, except by prior written agreement of the parties.

17. The parties shall discuss and resolve any parent time issues among themselves, and such issues shall not be discussed with the minor children by any means.

18. All communications between the parties shall be civil in nature and shall be generally limited to emailing and text messaging, or any other application agreed upon by the parties. Voice telephone contact shall be utilized between the parties only in case of an emergency involving the minor children.

19. The parties shall refrain from speaking negatively about one another in the presence of the minor children, and the parties shall not discuss the custody and parent time schedule or any legal actions with, or in earshot of, the minor children.

20. The parties shall also require other third parties that come into contact with the children to refrain, and this restriction shall extend to all social media and networking websites and forums to which the children may have access. The parties shall notify each other before introducing the children to a significant other they are dating exclusively for more than six (6) months, and the parties shall meet in person before either moves in with the co-parent.

21. The parties shall each ensure that the children are appropriately supervised, clothed, cleaned, and fed during their respective parent time. Each parent shall provide for the necessities of the minor children while the children are in his or her care, without relying on the other parent or using the items in the possession of the other parent for the minor children. During parent time, the Respondent shall not bring individuals over who are not family.

22. Each party shall keep the other party informed of his/her current address and telephone number, and if possible, advise the other party no less than sixty (60) days in advance of any move.

23. If Respondent resides or relocates more than 150 miles from Petitioner, the provisions of Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209 shall immediately apply to Respondent. The parties shall meet and revisit the parenting plan to make necessary adjustments. Either party shall have the ability to request a court hearing for the determination of relocation and custody under Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209.

24. Should Respondent desire to travel out of state, or out of the county with the children, with the exception of the parties' existing residences under Utah Code § 81-9-209, the Respondent shall give the other party sixty (60) days' advance notice of travel to the other party. The parties must disclose an itinerary and contact information for a third party who will know the children's whereabouts when traveling with the children.

25. Travel with the children shall not take precedence over the other party's parent time. When either of the minor children travels with either parent out of their respective residential states, with the exception of the parties' existing residences under Rule Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209, if applicable, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least thirty (30) days prior to departure:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;

b. Destination;

c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and

d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

2. Any modifications and agreements made by the parties to the parenting plan shall be documented in writing and signed by both parties. If mediation is required to resolve any conflicts regarding the modifications and agreements, the cost shall be shared equally by the parties.

CHILD SUPPORT

27. It is reasonable and proper that the Respondent be ordered to pay child support to the Petitioner in accordance with Utah Code § 81-6-101 et seq. Petitioner earns a gross monthly wage of $3,560, and Respondent earns a gross monthly wage of $29,289. Accordingly, Respondent must pay Petitioner $3,636 per month in child support under Utah Code § 81-6-101 et seq.

28. Should the Respondent fall more than thirty (30) days behind in his child support obligation, Petitioner shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding payable through the Utah Office of Recovery Services as provided by Utah Code Title 26B, chapter 9, recovery services and administration of child support, and Title 81, chapter 6, child support, et seq.

29. Upon a minor child turning eighteen years old or graduating from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, the child support award shall automatically be adjusted until the final minor child meets the requirements. At that time, the child support shall automatically be terminated.

CHILD INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

30. The Respondent shall maintain the children's medical and dental insurance, unless the Petitioner is able to provide more cost-effective insurance coverage for the children through employment. The parties shall equally pay 50% of any sums not covered by insurance, including, but not limited to, physician care, copays, inpatient prescription medications, medically necessary medical supplies, eye examinations, corrective lenses, and dental and orthodontic care under the following guidelines:

a. As required by Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208, each party shall provide the other written notice and proof of medical, dental, and orthodontic expenses incurred and payments made thereon, by insurance or otherwise, within thirty (30) days of the date the expense is incurred. Each party shall provide the other with copies of statements or written notice received of payments made to a provider by insurance. The obligated party shall pay his or her portion, as specified above, of incurred medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, or mental health services within fifteen (15) days of receiving written notice from that party.

b. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other Party's share of the expenses if the concurring party fails to comply with Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

c. Any party ordered and/or providing insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter, on or before January 10th of each year. The insuring party shall notify the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within thirty (30) days of the date the insuring parent first knew or should have known of the change.

d. As required by Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208, the parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs for the medical, dental, and optical insurance premium paid for the minor children's portion of the insurance. The parent obligated to provide children support shall be entitled to an offset, either adding to or deducting from his or her monthly child support payments to facilitate the equal sharing of the out-of-pocket costs of a medical insurance premium. If both parties carry medical insurance for the minor children, then the parties shall each be responsible for their own respective insurance premiums on behalf of the minor children.

e. On an annual basis or at any time insurance coverage or premium changes, the Respondent shall provide the Petitioner with the updated information including new medical cards and the children's premium amounts in a timely manner.

31. Counseling and Therapy. Historically, Respondent has paid for Petitioner's routine medical care and bi-weekly counseling. The Respondent shall continue to pay for Petitioner's medical care and bi-weekly therapy counseling for a period of 3 years, or until the Petitioner can maintain payments on her own.

TRANSPORTATION

32. The parties shall plan the transportation of the children for parent time when planning monthly parent time. If the parties experience conflicts with transporting the children for parent time, the Respondent shall pick up the children for his parent time, and the Petitioner shall pick up the children for her parent time, meaning that either party shall pick up the children when they begin their respective parent time. Each parent shall manage transportation for the children during their scheduled parenting time unless an alternate arrangement is mutually agreed upon.

SCHOOL EXPENSES AND ACTIVITY COSTS

33. The children shall attend school based on the Residential parent's address.

34. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e., registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

35. Respondent shall take the initiative to be aware of the minor children's school schedule, class requirements, attendance, and homework completion, instead of requiring the Petitioner to provide him with this information.

36. Extracurricular Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extracurricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time, and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

37. Non-Elective Expenses. The parties shall equally share (50/50) all customary non-elective expenses for the children. These expenses include, but are not limited to, cell phone service and equipment, driver's education, car insurance, vehicle registration and maintenance for vehicles used by the children, school registration fees, and fees for testing or tutoring. Reimbursement for any expenses paid by either parent shall be made within fourteen (14) days of receiving proof of payment.

38. Extraordinary expenses. The parties shall equally share any expenses that fall outside of the ordinary monthly obligations. Reimbursement for any such expenses paid by either parent shall be made within fourteen (14) days of receiving proof of payment.

REAL PROPERTY

39. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired property located at 5468 W. Pemberton Lane, Herriman, Utah, hereinafter known as the Marital Property ("Marital Property"). Petitioner is awarded all title, right, interest, and ownership of the Marital Property, free and clear of any claim by Respondent. Respondent shall immediately move out of the Petitioner's residence and shall leave not later than fourteen (14) days from the entry of the Decree of Divorce. Respondent shall have no more than thirty (30) days after the entry of the Decree of Divorce to file a Quit Claim Deed with the county recorder's office removing his name from the title of the home. Petitioner shall assume the mortgage of her Marital Property not later than thirty (30) days after the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

40. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired various items of personal property, including vehicles. The parties will keep their respective vehicles and maintain any costs associated with them, free and clear of any claim from the other party.

41. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired a dog named Shiloh. It is reasonable and proper that the Petitioner maintain sole possession of Shiloh. The Respondent shall have time with Shiloh during the minor children's parent time when they are at his house, assuming he will be living in a place that allows dogs. In the event the Respondent resides in a place that does not allow dogs, his visitation shall be as the parties agree.

42. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties acquired various items of personal property that require equitable division. The parties shall mutually agree on the division of all other property no more than 14 days from the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT, AND BANK ACCOUNTS, AND SECURITIES

43. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties established, either jointly or separately, certain retirement, checking, savings, investments, bank accounts, 401(k) retirement accounts, and/or other securities. The parties shall divide these retirement, checking, savings, investment, and bank accounts equally.

44. The parties shall cooperate to divide and close any existing joint financial accounts, if any such exist, as provided herein, and any amounts in each account or the asset(s) in the accounts shall be equitably divided between the parties.

45. Petitioner is aware of at least one account through Jordan Credit Union that the Respondent opened as a separate account without informing her, but does not have access to said account. Respondent shall provide all required financial documentation for all bank accounts, retirement accounts, and financials with Petitioner to equally divide all financial and retirement accounts with Petitioner.

46. The parties shall cooperate to close all existing joint credit accounts and remove each other from said accounts.

BUSINESSES

47. During the course of the parties' marriage, the Petitioner acquired an interest in her own studio salon, hereinafter House of Posh ("House of Posh"). This business was opened 15 years ago and is solely operated and maintained by the Petitioner. Petitioner shall retain all rights, title, and interest in House of Posh, free and clear of any claim from the Respondent.

DEBTS

48. During the parties' marriage, the parties established marital debt. Respondent shall be responsible for any and all marital debt and shall indemnify and hold Petitioner harmless therefrom. Any and all debts and obligations acquired by a party after the date of the parties' separation, on October 5, 2025, shall be assigned and paid for by the party that acquired the debt and in whose name such debts appear.

49. The parties shall also be ordered to notify creditors or obligees of the Court's division of all debts or obligations, known or unknown, and to give creditors the parties' separate, current addresses. The parties shall keep any and all jointly related debts current and in good standing with the creditors, if any such accounts exist.

a. In addition to a creditors' duties as a secured party under Utah Code Ann. § 81-7-102 and the creditor's duties as a trustee or beneficiary of a trust deed under Utah Code title 57, Chapter 1, conveyances a creditor who has been notified by service of a copy of a court order under Utah Code Ann. § 81-7-103 that the debtors are divorced or living separately under an order for separate maintenance, and who has been expressly advised of the separate, current addresses of the debtors either by the court order or by other written notice, must provide the debtors individually all statements, notices and other similar correspondence required by law or by the contact.

b. With respect to a debtor who is not ordered by the court under Utah code Ann. § 81-7-103 to make payment on a joint obligation, no negative credit report under Utah Code Ann. § 70C-7107, and no report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Utah Code Ann., Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, may be made regarding the joint obligation after the creditor is served notice of the court's order unless the creditor has made a demand on the debtor for payment because of the failure to make payments by the debtor, who is ordered by the court to make the payments.

c. Absent an agreement by the parties, any and all debts incurred by either party from the date of separation on October 5, 2025, and thereafter shall be the sole responsibility of the party incurring the debt, with the other party being indemnified and held harmless from the same.

d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a jointly secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not made in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

ALIMONY

50. Petitioner shall be entitled to reasonable alimony according to the standard of living of the parties during the marriage to equalize the parties' living circumstances. Petitioner shall be awarded alimony during the course of this action based on Respondent’s ability to pay and the Petitioner's need for alimony. The amount of alimony Respondent shall pay Petitioner is $7,200 each month for a duration of 21 years, equal to the duration of the marriage. The parties shall abide by the standards of alimony pursuant to Utah State Code § 81-4-501 et seq..

51. Alimony shall be awarded to Petitioner unless one of the following conditions occurs: the death of either party, Petitioner remarries, or Petitioner cohabitates with another person through a determination by the court, whichever occurs first.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

52. Both parties are mutually restrained from disparaging, harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party or the minor children, or committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party or the minor children, or in the presence of the minor children. Furthermore, the parties shall not attempt to alienate the love and affection of the children from either parent. The parties shall be mutually restrained from alienating or otherwise interfering with the other’s relationship with the children or allowing any third party to do so.

53. The parties shall refrain from speaking negatively about one another in the presence of the minor children, and the parties shall not discuss disputes about parent time or any legal actions with, or in earshot of, the minor children. The parties shall not discuss any changes to the parent-time schedule with the minor children unless the parties have previously agreed to such changes in writing. The parties shall also require other third parties that come into contact with the children to so refrain, and this restriction shall extend to all social media and networking websites and forums to which the children may have access.

54. The parties shall not harass, malign, or defame the other. The parties shall not interfere with the lives or relationships of the other party or with family members of the other party. All communication between the parties shall be civil, at reasonable times, and of reasonable frequency and duration.

55. The parties shall not involve the minor children in the legal disputes of the parties, financial matters, parent time, and/or custody. The parties shall not attempt to influence the children or the children's preferences with respect to issues of custody and/or parent time, either by reward, punishment, or guilt.

56. Neither party shall use alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or abuse prescription drugs during parent time with the children.

57. Neither party shall expose the minor children to or allow the viewing of any adult content, adult themes, adult media, or media including sexual adult content, while under their care and perspective parent time, whether it be through any media, internet media, social media, entertainment, movie content, or video game content.

58. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under the mutual restraining order and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the children from such circumstances.

59. Both parties shall be restrained from engaging in any retaliatory or revenge-based actions that interfere with the other party's access to essential resources or communication. This includes turning off or disabling phone services used by the other party, freezing, locking, or otherwise restricting access to joint or individual bank accounts or credit cards without prior agreement or court order, canceling or interfering with utility services, insurance policies, or other essential accounts relied upon by the other party, and taking any action intended to disrupt the other party's financial stability, personal security, or ability to communicate effectively. Both parties shall act in good faith to maintain the status quo and ensure fair treatment during the pendency of this action.

TAXES AND TAX EXEMPTIONS

60. The parties shall file as married filing jointly for the 2025 tax year, and shall file each year separately thereafter. Any tax obligations or tax refunds obtained by the parties for the 2025 tax year shall be equally divided between the parties. Beginning with the 2026 tax year, the parties shall file separately.

61. It is reasonable and proper that, pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-210, Petitioner and Respondent shall each claim one child each year for dependency exemptions for both state and federal tax purposes. When the parties have one minor child eligible to be claimed for tax purposes, Petitioner shall be entitled to claim the minor child for dependency exemptions for both state and federal tax purposes in odd-numbered years, and Respondent shall be entitled to claim the minor child for tax exemptions in even-numbered years. A party shall only be able to claim a child for tax purposes if all support and child support are paid current for that given year, and if support obligations are not current by December 31, then the other parent shall claim both children.

MISCELLANEOUS

62. Identity: Neither party shall use the other party's likeness, picture, name, identification, or credit of the other party to obtain credit, open an account for any service, or obtain any other service.

63. Execution of Documents/ Deeds/ Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer the titles or any other documents necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

64. Name Change of Petitioner: If she so desires, Petitioner shall be allowed to restore her maiden name of Rachele Hardle, keep her married name, or change her name to any name or combination she so chooses.

65. Waiver of Interlocutory Period: Petitioner believes there is no chance of reconciliation of the parties' marriage and that waiting and interlocutory periods provided by law would serve no useful purpose.

66. Attorney's Fees: Petitioner shall be entitled to an award of her reasonable and actual attorney fees incurred in pursuing this action if Respondent contests this matter.

67. Notice to Creditors: The parties shall provide a certified copy of the final Decree of Divorce, and any modifications thereto, to all creditors as outlined in Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-204(1)(e) and Utah Code Ann. § 15-4-6.5 and to effectuate compliance with these statutes
