Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

33. It is in the best interest of the children that Faron Lashaun Creighton be ordered to pay child support to Shelissa L Trujillo as follows:

a.$2,052.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

34. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

35. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

Shelissa L Trujillo's base child support amount is $181 per month.

Faron Lashaun Creighton's base child support amount is $2052 per month.

- The parent owing support must pay the support amount to whomever has physical custody of the child.

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

37. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

38. The person ordered to receive child support can request mandatory income withholding (Utah Code 62A-11 parts 4 and 5). If support is past due, the State of Utah may take federal or state tax refunds or rebates and apply the amounts to the child support owed.

a. Withheld income will be sent to the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) until all past-due support is paid. Child support payments will be sent to:

450 South State Street Salt Lake City, Utah 84114

unless ORS gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

39. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and will be past due on the first day of the next month.

40. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

41. Faron Lashaun Creighton will pay any ORS fees. If Shelissa L Trujillo is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Shelissa L Trujillo, Faron Lashaun Creighton will reimburse Shelissa L Trujillo.

42. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

- there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines,

- the amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines.

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62A-11-306.2).

44. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

- custody;
- the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
- income of a parent of 30% or more;
- the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
- the medical needs of the child; or
- the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

(Utah Code 81-6-202 and 81-6-212)

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines. The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 81-6-202(8))
