Additional provisions

11. The parties will adhere to the following additional provisions:

Additional Provision: PROPOSED STIPULATED DIVORCE PROVISIONS Shannon Markakis ("Shannon") and Joseph Markakis ("Joseph") agree and stipulate to the following terms relating to their marriage, relationship, and shared child, Demetrius. For purposes of these provisions, the parties acknowledge and agree that their initial date of separation was July 30, 2026. The parties request that these agreed-upon provisions be incorporated into their final Decree of Divorce. 1. Individual Debts Joseph shall be solely responsible for all debts belonging to or incurred solely by Joseph, and Shannon shall be solely responsible for all debts belonging to or incurred solely by Shannon. This includes, without limitation, each party's individual credit cards, personal loans, individually opened accounts, and other obligations incurred solely by that party, whether presently known or later discovered. For purposes of these provisions, a "new debt" means a debt, liability, account, or financial obligation first incurred or created after execution of these provisions. A debt, bill, expense, liability, claim, charge, account balance, deficiency, collection, tax obligation, medical obligation, or other financial obligation arising from conduct, services, purchases, agreements, accounts, or circumstances occurring before execution of these provisions shall not be considered a new debt merely because it is presently unknown, later discovered, billed, assessed, asserted, becomes due, is sent to collection, or otherwise arises or becomes known after execution. Neither party shall incur any new debt, liability, account, or financial obligation in the other party's name without that party's express written agreement. A pre-existing debt or obligation that is clearly attributable solely to one party shall remain that party's sole responsibility, and the timing of discovery, billing, assessment, collection, or demand for payment shall not transfer responsibility to the other party. If a previously unknown pre-existing bill, expense, debt, or other obligation is later discovered and is claimed to be a shared or joint responsibility, neither party shall be required to pay or assume responsibility for any portion of that obligation unless the other party provides reasonable documentation sufficient to identify and explain the nature, source, date, amount, and basis for claiming that the obligation is shared. Each party shall have a reasonable opportunity to review, understand, question, verify, and dispute the obligation. Except for an obligation for which both parties are already legally liable to the creditor or third party, no previously unknown obligation shall be treated between the parties as a mutually shared expense unless both parties expressly agree in writing to the allocation or responsibility for that obligation. If the parties do not agree, neither party's refusal to agree shall by itself constitute acceptance of, or create responsibility for, the alleged shared obligation. For any debt assigned to one party under these provisions, that party shall timely pay the obligation and shall indemnify, defend, and hold the other party harmless from liability arising from nonpayment, including amounts the other party is required to pay and reasonable enforcement costs and attorney fees to the extent permitted by Utah law. Any debt incurred solely by one party and not disclosed before execution of these provisions shall remain the sole responsibility of the party who incurred it. Nothing in this section shall prevent either party from contesting the validity, amount, ownership, or legal responsibility for an alleged obligation or from seeking relief concerning an obligation intentionally or materially concealed or misrepresented. 2. Joint Checking Account and Shannon's Separate Checking Account The parties acknowledge that the checking account currently held in both parties' names (the "Existing Joint Account") is allocated to Joseph under this agreement. Joseph shall retain the funds in the Existing Joint Account as his sole property, subject only to the parties' continuing obligations for shared household expenses while Joseph remains in the shared residence under Section 12. While Joseph remains in the shared residence, Shannon shall deposit into the Existing Joint Account her 50% share of the agreed shared household expenses defined in Section 12.

Joseph shall be responsible for the remaining 50%. Funds deposited by either party for agreed shared household expenses shall be applied toward those expenses. Neither party shall knowingly use, redirect, or withhold the other party's shared-expense contribution for an unrelated purpose before the applicable agreed shared household expenses are paid. Each party remains responsible for his or her required fifty-percent (50%) contribution. Shannon's deposits into the Existing Joint Account are solely for satisfaction of her shared-expense obligation. Those deposits shall not create or restore any ownership interest, claim, or right of access to the Existing Joint Account or to funds otherwise allocated to Joseph. Shannon shall not withdraw, transfer, spend, redirect, or otherwise use funds from the Existing Joint Account. Shannon's access to the Existing Joint Account shall be limited to making the deposits required by this agreement. Any withdrawal, transfer, or use by Shannon that is not expressly authorized in writing by Joseph shall be promptly reimbursed to the Existing Joint Account. Nothing in this section shall restrict Joseph's ownership, control, or access to the Existing Joint Account or the funds allocated to him under this agreement, provided Joseph continues to satisfy his obligations for shared household expenses under Section 12. The parties acknowledge that Shannon disclosed and specifically discussed with Joseph the individual checking account with Chase, ending in 3480, which Shannon opened on September 14, 2026 following the parties' separation. Shannon shall retain that account as her sole and separate property, together with all funds belonging or allocated to Shannon that have been or are subsequently deposited into that account, including all prior, current, and future deposits of Shannon's wages, bonuses, employment compensation, interest, subsequent earnings, and other funds belonging or allocated to Shannon. After disclosure and discussion of this specific account and the funds deposited or to be deposited into it, Joseph knowingly and expressly waives and relinquishes any present or future claim, right, title, marital interest, equitable interest, ownership interest, or other interest of any kind in the Chase account ending in 3480 or in any funds held in, deposited into, transferred to, or traceable to that account, except as expressly provided elsewhere in these provisions. Shannon shall also retain as her sole property any future bank, checking, savings, or similar financial account opened solely in her name, together with funds belonging or allocated to her and deposited into such account. Joseph expressly waives and relinquishes any present or future claim, right, title, marital interest, equitable interest, ownership interest, or other interest in those accounts or funds. Joseph shall likewise retain as his sole property any present or future bank, checking, savings, or similar financial account held or opened solely in his name, together with funds belonging or allocated to him and deposited into such account. Shannon expressly waives and relinquishes any present or future claim, right, title, marital interest, or other interest in those accounts or funds. This waiver also applies to the funds allocated to Joseph in the Existing Joint Account under this agreement. Neither party shall access, withdraw from, transfer from, use, direct, or exercise control over an account that is the sole property of the other party without that party's express written authorization. Payment or deposit of a shared expense obligation into an account belonging to the other party shall not create an ownership interest or any continuing right of access to that account. Documentation regarding shared household expenses shall be provided upon reasonable request. Each party's share shall be deposited or paid no later than three business days before the applicable bill is due when practicable. After Joseph vacates and all then-due shared household expenses are satisfied, the parties shall cooperate to remove Shannon from or close the Existing Joint Account. Joseph shall thereafter retain any remaining funds allocated to him. 3. Shannon's 401(k) and Employer-Sponsored Retirement Account Shannon shall retain 100% of her disclosed 401(k) or other employer-sponsored retirement account as her sole and separate property, including the entire account balance as of entry of the Decree and all contributions, employer contributions or matches, earnings, gains, appreciation, and other amounts before, during, and after the marriage. Joseph knowingly and expressly waives and relinquishes any present or future claim, right, title, marital interest, equitable interest, or other interest in Shannon's disclosed 401(k) or other employer-sponsored retirement account. No Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) or other retirement division order shall be entered dividing Shannon's account in favor of Joseph. This waiver does not apply to an account or material asset intentionally or materially concealed or omitted from required financial disclosure. The parties acknowledge that this reciprocal retirement-account waiver is a negotiated and material term of their overall property settlement. 4. Joseph's 401(k) and Employer-Sponsored Retirement Account Joseph shall retain 100% of his disclosed 401(k) or other employer-sponsored retirement account as his sole and separate property, including the entire account balance as of entry of the Decree and all contributions, employer contributions or matches, earnings, gains, appreciation, and other amounts before, during, and after the marriage. Shannon knowingly and expressly waives and relinquishes any present or future claim, right, title, marital interest, equitable interest, or other interest in Joseph's disclosed 401(k) or other employer-sponsored retirement account. No Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) or other retirement division order shall be entered dividing Joseph's account in favor of Shannon. This waiver does not apply to an account or material asset intentionally or materially concealed or omitted from required financial disclosure. The parties acknowledge that this reciprocal retirement-account waiver is a negotiated and material term of their overall property settlement. 5. Company Stock and Employment-Related Equity Shannon shall retain 100% of all company stock, employer stock, stock-plan interests, and other employment-related equity held in Shannon's name or awarded through her employment, including associated appreciation, dividends, distributions, and proceeds, as her sole and separate property. Joseph expressly waives any present or future marital or other claim to such property. 6. Mutual Waiver of Alimony Shannon and Joseph mutually agree that neither party shall seek, request, or receive alimony or spousal support from the other. Each knowingly waives any claim for alimony from the other. The parties acknowledge that this mutual waiver and the property allocations in these provisions are negotiated and material components of the overall settlement. The parties request that the waiver be incorporated into the final Decree to the fullest extent permitted by Utah law. 7. 2024 Kia Seltos Shannon shall retain the 2024 Kia Seltos as her sole and separate property and shall be solely responsible for any loan, insurance, registration, maintenance, taxes, and other expenses associated with it. Joseph shall have no ownership interest in the vehicle. 8. 2018 Kia Rio Joseph shall retain the 2018 Kia Rio as his sole and separate property and shall be responsible for all expenses associated with it. Shannon shall have no ownership interest or claim to the vehicle and shall cooperate in signing any documents necessary to transfer title and remove her name. Joseph shall complete the title transfer within 30 days after entry of the final Decree, provided Shannon timely provides any required signature or documentation. 9. 2015 Kia Rio - Sole Use by Demetrius The 2015 Kia Rio shall remain in Shannon's possession and control for the sole use of Demetrius. Neither Shannon nor Joseph shall use it as a personal vehicle except as reasonably necessary for maintenance, repair, registration, insurance, emergencies, or matters directly related to Demetrius's use. Shannon intends to transfer title and ownership to Demetrius when Demetrius assumes full responsibility for his personal bills and vehicle-related obligations, including applicable insurance, registration, maintenance, and operating expenses. 10. Demetrius's Automobile Insurance Joseph shall pay 50% of the automobile insurance expense attributable to Demetrius and/or the vehicle used by Demetrius until Demetrius assumes responsibility for his own automobile insurance. Shannon shall pay the remaining 50%. The parties shall reasonably communicate regarding material premium or coverage changes. 11. Demetrius's College Expenses Shannon and Joseph voluntarily agree to share equally mutually recognized college expenses incurred for Demetrius. Ordinary covered expenses include tuition, mandatory institutional fees, and required course materials. Any unusual, discretionary, or substantial expense outside those categories shall require advance written agreement by both parties before either party is obligated to contribute, except where advance agreement is not reasonably practicable. The requesting party shall provide an invoice, billing statement, receipt, or similar documentation. Neither party shall be required to pay an undocumented expense. This obligation shall continue through Demetrius's completion of his first bachelor's degree unless the parties otherwise agree in writing or the Court orders otherwise. 12. Shared Residence and Joseph's Move-Out The parties currently share the residence located at 1085 E. Range Road, Millcreek, Utah 84117. Joseph shall have ninety (90) days beginning September 27, 2026 to acquire alternative housing and vacate the shared residence. If Joseph has not secured suitable alternative housing by the expiration of the initial ninety (90) day period despite reasonable good-faith efforts to do so, Joseph shall be granted continued occupancy of the shared residence beyond the initial ninety (90) days, without the need for further consent or approval from Shannon, until Joseph secures suitable alternative housing or March 27, 2027, whichever occurs first. Joseph shall communicate to Shannon before expiration of the initial ninety (90) day period that he has been unable to secure suitable alternative housing and is exercising this continued-occupancy provision. Joseph's right to continued occupancy under this paragraph is guaranteed upon satisfaction of these conditions and shall not be withheld, denied, or made subject to Shannon's discretion. During Joseph's occupancy, including any continued occupancy beyond the initial ninety (90) days, each party shall pay fifty percent (50%) of the regular housing payment or rent and ordinary recurring household utilities and services used by both parties. Personal expenses and services primarily used by one party are excluded unless otherwise agreed. Any new service, subscription, upgrade, extraordinary repair, or other non-routine household expense shall not be treated as a shared household expense unless mutually agreed upon in writing before the expense is incurred, except in the case of a reasonably necessary emergency expense. Joseph's fifty percent (50%) payment obligation shall continue without interruption for the entire period he remains in the residence. Upon Joseph securing suitable alternative housing, or in all circumstances no later than March 27, 2027, Joseph shall vacate the residence and remove his personal belongings. His right to occupy under these provisions shall terminate at that time, and Shannon may thereafter seek enforcement of the Decree and remedies available under Utah law. 13. Living Room Television Joseph shall retain the television currently located in the living room as his sole and separate personal property. 14. Living Room Recliner Joseph shall retain the recliner chair currently located in the living room as his sole and separate personal property. 15. Gaming Systems and Electronics Joseph shall retain the gaming systems belonging to him, including the applicable Wii and Nintendo Switch system(s), the old PlayStation, and the Wii currently located in the game room. Demetrius shall retain the old Xbox gaming system together with all gaming systems currently located in Demetrius's bedroom. 16. Shannon's Father's White Toshiba Laptop Shannon shall retain the white Toshiba laptop belonging to or provided by her father. Joseph may copy to a USB storage device only data belonging solely to Joseph. Joseph shall not copy, retain, transfer, disclose, or access data belonging to Shannon or Shannon's father and shall delete any such copies within his possession or control after copying his own data. This provision does not authorize deletion or alteration of data on the laptop itself. 17. Clothing and Personal Property Each party shall retain all of his or her own clothing, personal effects, and personal property clearly identifiable as belonging to that party, except for an item specifically allocated elsewhere in these provisions. 18. Family Dishes and Kitchenware Joseph shall retain dishes, serving pieces, kitchenware, or similar household items gifted or provided by Joseph's family. Items gifted or provided by Shannon's family shall remain with Shannon. 19. Pets Retained by Joseph Joseph shall retain Marshmallow (cat), Bartholomew (cat), and Joseph's axolotl and shall assume responsibility for their care and expenses. 20. Pets Retained by Shannon Shannon shall retain Bella (cat), Jenkins (cat), Beetlejuice (bird), and Freya (ferret) and shall assume responsibility for their care and expenses. Neither party shall dispute the ownership allocations in Sections 19 and 20. 21. Temporary Care of Retained Pets The parties may voluntarily assist one another with temporary care of either party's retained cats, bird, or ferret for travel, medical needs, emergencies, or other mutually agreed circumstances. Temporary possession, feeding, boarding, transportation, veterinary assistance, or care shall not create or transfer ownership or permanent responsibility. Unless otherwise agreed for a specific situation, the owner remains responsible for veterinary and extraordinary expenses. 22. Family Photographs The parties shall reasonably cooperate to divide, duplicate, scan, or copy family photographs depicting Demetrius so both may retain meaningful copies. Photographs primarily depicting or originating from Shannon's family shall remain with Shannon; those primarily depicting or originating from Joseph's family shall remain with Joseph. The parties shall cooperate in good faith regarding photographs containing both families or of particular sentimental significance. 23. Separate Family Property, Inheritances,

Gifts, and Personal Effects Except as specifically addressed elsewhere, each party shall retain property clearly identifiable as that party's separate or individual property, including personal effects and property received from that party's family, such as inherited property, family heirlooms, decor, dishes, photographs, keepsakes, gifts, and similar family-origin property. Nothing in this provision is intended to reclassify property contrary to applicable law. 24. Remaining Minor Household Assets If any additional minor household asset or item not specifically addressed in these provisions comes up for division, Shannon and Joseph shall discuss the item and mutually agree upon its division or disposition. Neither party shall unilaterally claim, sell, transfer, conceal, destroy, or dispose of an item that the other party identifies as requiring discussion until the parties have had a reasonable opportunity to discuss its division. The parties shall first make a good-faith effort to resolve any disagreement regarding such additional minor household assets before seeking court intervention. 25. Restoration of Shannon's Prior Surname Upon entry of the final Decree, Shannon's legal surname shall be restored from Markakis to her surname immediately prior to the marriage, Amati. 26. Full Financial Disclosure; Omitted Assets and Debts Each party acknowledges an obligation to make full and fair disclosure of all known material assets, debts, retirement accounts, bank accounts, investments, vehicles, and other material financial interests and that each has had an opportunity to request additional information before signing. No general waiver or property allocation in these provisions shall waive a claim concerning an asset intentionally or materially concealed or omitted from required financial disclosure. Any undisclosed debt incurred solely by one party shall remain the sole responsibility of the party who incurred it. 27. Full and Final Property Settlement The parties intend these provisions to constitute their full and final agreed allocation of the assets, debts, bank funds, vehicles, retirement accounts, company stock, pets, household property, and personal property specifically addressed herein. Upon incorporation into the final Decree, each party shall retain the property allocated to that party free from claims by the other except as expressly provided in the Decree. Nothing in this Section shall waive, release, transfer, or determine either party's rights or obligations concerning any material asset, debt, account, liability, or financial interest that was not disclosed, was materially misrepresented, or was not specifically addressed or allocated by these provisions. Any such matter may be addressed by written agreement of the parties or submitted to the Court for determination as permitted by law. Except for matters described above, the property division expressly set forth in these provisions is intended to be final and nonmodifiable except by a subsequent written agreement signed by both parties or as otherwise required or permitted by law. 28. Enforcement and Attorney Fees If either party materially fails to comply with the final Decree and the other party is required to seek enforcement, the enforcing party may request reasonable attorney fees, costs, and other available remedies to the extent permitted by Utah law. Except in the case of an emergency, intentional violation, or circumstance requiring immediate relief, the party alleging noncompliance shall first provide written notice of the alleged violation and a reasonable opportunity to cure before seeking attorney fees or costs for enforcement. Nothing herein limits either party's right to seek enforcement of the final Decree. 29. Mutual Agreement and Voluntary Acceptance Shannon and Joseph acknowledge that they have reviewed these provisions, understand their material terms, have had an opportunity to seek independent legal advice and additional financial information, and intend the provisions to reflect their voluntary agreement. The parties agree and stipulate that these provisions shall be incorporated into the final Decree. Nothing herein prevents either party from seeking enforcement of the final Decree or exercising rights that cannot lawfully be waived. DATED this 27th day of September 2026

Duty to sign documents

12. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)

Name after divorce

13. Shannon Renee Markakis changed her name when the parties married. Shannon Renee Markakis's name will be Shannon Renee Amati after the divorce.
