IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of: SCOTT LLOYD STENSRUD, Petitioner, And JESSICA MARIE STENSRUD, Respondent.	FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 224901176 DA Judge Todd Shaughnessy Commissioner Russell Minas

On September 10, 2024, the Court entered a Bifurcated Decree of Divorce, dissolving the parties' marriage on the grounds of irreconcilable differences and reserving for future adjudication or agreement of the parties all remaining issues, including, but not limited to, custody, parent-time, child support, alimony, division of marital assets, allocation of debts, and all other matters arising from the parties' marital relationship.

Thereafter, the parties entered into a Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, which the parties, counsel, and the Guardian ad Litem executed at various times and ultimately filed with the Court on July 7, 2026. In the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, the parties expressed their desire to resolve all issues reserved by the *Bifurcated Decree of Divorc*e and agreed that the Court may incorporate the terms of their settlement into its Final Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and Final Decree of Divorce.

All supporting documents having been submitted and the court being fully apprised of the premises and the law, and the court having heretofore made and entered its Final Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does hereby ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE

1. ALIMONY

2. It is hereby ordered that neither party shall be awarded alimony in any amount, now or at any time in the future.

3. On December 6, 2022, the Court entered Temporary Orders in this matter, whereby the Petitioner was ordered to pay alimony to the Respondent in the amount of $212.22 per month, commencing September 1, 2022.

4. It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner remains obligated to the Respondent under said Temporary Orders through and including the date of entry of the Final Decree of Divorce, and any arrearages arising therefrom remain due and owing by the Petitioner to the Respondent until paid in full.

II. CHILD AND CUSTODY

4. Physical Custody: It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall be awarded the sole physical care, custody, and control of the parties' minor child.

5. Parent-Time: It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner shall have supervised parent-time with the parties' minor child consistent with the minimum schedule for a child aged five to eighteen years of age, as set forth in Utah Code Annotated §81-9-302, and subject to the supervised parent-time requirements as set forth in Utah Code Annotated §81-9-207.

6. It is hereby ordered that parent-time shall be supervised by a mutually agreed-upon professional supervision individual or private agency, recommended by the child's therapist, trained in child abuse reporting laws, the developmental needs of a child, and the dynamics of domestic violence, child abuse, sexual abuse, and substance abuse.

7. It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner shall pay all costs associated with any professional individual or private parent time supervision agency. It is hereby ordered that if a professional individual or private agency is not available, affordable, or practicable under the circumstances, the supervision may be by a mutually agreed-upon individual, recommended by the child's therapist, who is capable and willing to provide physical and psychological safety and security to the minor child, and to assist in the avoidance and prevention of domestic and family violence, and who is trained in child abuse reporting laws, the developmental needs of a child, and the dynamics of domestic violence, child abuse, sexual abuse, and substance abuse.

8. It is hereby ordered that the supervised parent-time shall be therapeutic in nature and approved on the recommendation of the child's therapist and the family system's therapist.

9. Reunification Plan: It is hereby ordered that, in accordance with the child's therapist's recommendation, a reunification plan may be developed, which may include virtual parent-time.

10. It is hereby ordered that the therapist shall establish specific therapy goals focused on reuniting or re-establishing the relationship between the minor child and the Petitioner. The therapist shall also determine the timing, duration, and necessity of supervision for parent-time.

11. Drug and Alcohol Testing: It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner shall submit to random alcohol and drug testing, including a 14-panel hair follicle test.

12. It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner shall pay for up to one test every 90 days, as well as any similar testing required by the Petitioner's drug treatment program.

13. It is hereby ordered that, on articulable suspicion, random tests may be conducted at the Respondent's request, with written notice provided to the Petitioner.

14. It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner must submit to testing within 24 hours of receiving the request.

15. It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall pay if the test is negative, "clean."

16. It is hereby ordered that the results of all tests, including those conducted as part of the Petitioner's drug treatment program, and shall be shared with the Respondent, her attorney, the guardian ad litem, and the Court.

17. It is hereby ordered that if any test is missed or returns a positive, "dirty" result, the parties shall attend mediation to address the Petitioner's relapse and discuss the next steps. It is hereby ordered that if parent time has commenced, the child's therapist shall provide recommendations in the best interest of the child.

18. Substance Abuse Restrictions: It is hereby ordered that both parties are prohibited from consuming any illicit drugs.

19. It is hereby ordered that the parties shall not consume alcohol to the point of intoxication while caring for the minor child.

20. It is hereby ordered that neither party shall consume alcohol for at least twelve (12) hours before driving with the child.

21. It is hereby ordered that both parties shall not to allow third parties to be intoxicated or use illicit drugs in the presence of the child, and they are required to remove the child from the presence of any such person immediately.

22. Protective Order Modification: It is hereby ordered that the current protective order shall be modified to allow for a parenting plan based on the recommendations of the child's therapist.

23. No Contact Agreement: It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner and Respondent shall have no personal contact with each other.

24. It is hereby ordered that the parties shall stay away from each other's homes, places of employment, and other locations where they believe the other party may be.

25. It is hereby ordered that, in the event that the parties inadvertently run into each other, they shall not engage in conversation or communication, and shall leave the area promptly to maintain compliance with this agreement.

26. Communication: It is hereby ordered that all communication regarding the minor child must go through a third party approved by the minor child's therapist and must be in writing, ensuring clarity while always maintaining a civil and professional tone. This written communication shall document interactions and facilitate smooth coordination.

27. Parent-Time Exchanges: It is hereby ordered that, if approved by the therapist, a mutually agreed-upon third party shall facilitate all parent-time exchanges related to the minor child.

28. It is hereby ordered that the third party shall coordinate and supervise these exchanges to ensure compliance with the no-contact order between the parties, and the delivering parent shall bear any associated costs.

29. Substance Abuse Relapse: It is hereby ordered that, in the event that the Petitioner experiences a relapse involving substance abuse, the following measures shall be taken:

5. The Petitioner must immediately inform the Respondent, the child's therapist, the family system's therapist, the guardian ad litem (if applicable), and any other relevant parties.
6. Within 48 hours of the relapse, the Petitioner shall undergo a substance abuse assessment by a licensed professional, and the results shall be shared with the Respondent, legal representation, the guardian ad litem, and the court.
7. Based on the assessment, the Petitioner must enroll in a recommended therapeutic or treatment program, which may include outpatient or inpatient treatment. The therapist shall monitor compliance with the treatment program and, if necessary, report to the Court.

30. Suspension of Parent Time: It is hereby ordered that, in the event of a relapse, the Petitioner's parent-time with the minor child shall be immediately suspended, pending the family systems therapist's recommendation.

31. It is hereby ordered that parent time may resume only if the therapist determines it is safe and in the minor child's best interest, subject to necessary conditions.

32. Emergency Mediation: It is hereby ordered that if there is a dispute regarding the substance abuse relapse, treatment requirements, or the reinstatement of parent-time, both parties agree to attend emergency mediation before seeking Court intervention unless the safety of the child is at risk.

33. Release of Guardian ad Litem: It is hereby ordered that the parties and the Guardian ad Litem have agreed that the Private Guardian ad Litem shall be released upon entry of the Final Decree of Divorce, on the condition that the parties have retained the services of all necessary therapists and counselors, including a family systems therapist and therapist for the minor child.

34. Legal Custody: It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall be awarded the sole legal custody of the minor child and shall be responsible for making all major decisions related to the minor child's medical care, education, and religious upbringing.

35. Further, it is hereby ordered that the Respondent's residence shall be designated as the minor child's primary place of residence for the purposes of the minor child's registration and attendance at school.

36. Relocation: It is hereby ordered that if either party intends to move one hundred fifty (150) miles or more from the home of the other parent, he/she shall provide sixty (60) days' advance written notice of the intended relocation, in compliance with Utah Code §81-9-209. The notice shall contain statements affirming the relocating party's willingness and intention to create a new parent-time schedule if the distance between the parents' residences shall make the pre-existing parent-time schedule impracticable and/or unworkable and further affirming that the relocating parent shall not interfere with the other's parental rights in maintaining regular and meaningful contact with the Minor Child.

37. Child Support: It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner is employed full-time and earns a countable gross monthly income for child support purposes of $3,077.00.

38. It is hereby ordered that the Respondent is employed and earns a countable gross monthly income for child support purposes of $1,232.00.

39. It is hereby ordered that based upon the Utah Child Support Act and utilizing the Sole Physical Custody Child Support Obligation Worksheet, the Petitioner shall pay child support to the Respondent in the amount of $440.00 commencing August 1, 2025, which amount is consistent with the Uniform Child Support Guidelines.

40. It is hereby ordered that child support shall be paid on the 1st day of each month.

41. Child Support Arrears: On December 6, 2022, the Court entered Temporary Orders in this matter, whereby the Petitioner was ordered to pay child support to the Respondent in the amount of $443.00 per month, commencing September 1, 2022.

42. It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner remains obligated to the Respondent under said Temporary Orders, and any arrearages arising therefrom remain due and owing by the Petitioner to the Respondent until paid in full.

43. It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall be entitled to a judgment against the Petitioner in the amount of $15,505.00 for child support arrears for the period from September 1, 2022 through and including July 31, 2025.

44. It is hereby ordered that child support for the minor child terminates at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated.

a) Child Support Modification. It is hereby ordered that any modifications of child support shall be pursuant to the provisions of the Utah Child Support Act.

b) Income Withholding. It is hereby ordered that the obligee parent shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §62A-11-401, et. seq., and §62A-11-501, et. seq., 1953, as amended. Said income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors. All withheld income shall be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor parent no longer owes child support to the obligee parent.

45. Medical Insurance: It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner shall provide and maintain a policy of health and accident insurance for the benefit of the parties' minor child, so long as available to him through his employment at a reasonable cost.

46. It is hereby ordered that if, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance of the Petitioner shall be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the Respondent shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child.

47. It is hereby ordered that if a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

48. It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner and Respondent shall equally share any and all out-of-pocket costs of health and dental insurance premiums paid for the benefit of the parties' minor child.

49. It is hereby ordered that, pursuant to the provisions of Utah Code Annotated §81-6-208, each parent agrees to share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, and copayments, incurred for the minor child and actually paid by the parents.

50. It is hereby ordered that the parent who incurs medical and dental expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. It is hereby ordered that the other parent shall then remit payment of reimbursement within thirty (30) days of receipt of verification. It is hereby ordered that, in addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a parent incurring medical and dental expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply.

51. It is hereby ordered that the parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and after initial enrollment of the dependent child on or before January 2 of each calendar year. It is hereby ordered that the parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or shall have known of the change.

52. It is hereby ordered that the parties may elect that medical/dental and school expenses be created in separate accounts for payment by each parent as long as the provider receives a copy of the Decree of Divorce at or before the day on which the provider first renders medical/dental services or issues a bill for school fees pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7.

III. TAXES

53. It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall be entitled to claim the parties' minor child as a dependent for both federal and state income tax purposes.

54. It is hereby ordered that the parties shall file separate federal and state personal income tax returns for the 2024 tax year.

55. It is hereby ordered that any refund to which either party is entitled as a result of their separate filing shall be awarded to that party, free and clear of any claim by the other, and any tax liability or obligation incurred by either party shall be the responsibility of that party, holding the other party harmless therefrom.

IV. PROPERTY AND DEBTS

56. Real Property: It is hereby ordered that the parties own no real property nor have they acquired an interest in any real property during the course of the marriage.

57. Personal Property: It is hereby ordered that, during the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired certain items of household goods, furnishings, fixtures, appliances, and other items of personal property which have been divided between the parties to their mutual agreement as satisfaction.

58. It is hereby ordered that the parties shall each be awarded all items of personal property in their respective possession as they have divided it, free and clear of any claim by the other.

59. It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall be awarded the 2016 Jeep Compass, free and clear of any claim by the Petitioner.

60. It is hereby ordered that all property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar sources shall be awarded to the party from whose family it came. It is hereby ordered that all property acquired prior to the marriage shall be awarded to the respective party who acquired said property.

61. Bank Accounts/Cash: It is hereby ordered that the parties shall each be awarded their individual bank accounts and the funds contained therein, free and clear of any claim by the other.

62. Debts and Obligations: It is hereby ordered that the parties shall each assume, pay, discharge, and hold the other party harmless from any debts and obligations in their individual names.

63. It is hereby ordered that the Respondent shall indemnify and hold the Petitioner harmless on all debts and obligations the Respondent is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless requirement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15).

64. It is hereby ordered that the Petitioner shall indemnify and hold the Respondent harmless on all debts and obligations the Petitioner is ordered to pay. Such hold-harmless requirement is a debt to a spouse within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15).

65. It is hereby ordered that each party shall pay, discharge, and hold the other party harmless from those debts and obligations which they may have incurred individually since the date of the parties' separation on or about January 6, 2022.

66. It is hereby ordered that, pursuant to Utah Code Annotated §81-4-406(3), 1953, as amended, the parties shall notify each of their creditors and such notice shall inform each creditor which party is primarily liable for the debt with that creditor following the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce in this matter, and each party shall be required to give the creditor the name and address of both parties.

67. It is hereby ordered that the allocation of joint debts is an integral part of the financial settlement and support payments in this proceeding and shall be considered in the nature of support to the other party. As a result, it is hereby ordered that the parties shall not discharge the debts in bankruptcy if it causes the non-bankrupt party to be liable for the debt. The parties shall understand that this provision may not be binding on the Bankruptcy Court.

68. It is hereby ordered that the parties shall each be required to make their best efforts to remove each other from any joint debts, obligations, loans, etc., by refinancing the debt, obligation, loan, etc., into their sole name.

V. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

69. It is hereby ordered that, during the course of the marriage, the parties did not acquire an interest in any 401(k) retirement accounts or an interest in any other retirement benefits through their respective places of employment.

70. It is hereby ordered that the parties shall divide any accounts equally between them that were not disclosed. More particularly, it is hereby ordered that in the event either party is found to have concealed or hidden from or refrained from disclosing or revealing to the other any asset or liability of the parties, then the other party shall be entitled to (i) such asset free of any claim of the other party and/or (ii) complete indemnification from such party with respect to such concealed liability.

71. It is hereby ordered that the parties shall be mutually restrained and enjoined from bothering, harassing, annoying, threatening, or harming each other at either place of residence, employment, or any other place. It is hereby ordered that both parties shall be civil and respectful in their communications with one another. It is hereby ordered that both parties shall be restrained from making false allegations regarding the other party to professional licensing agencies, to DCFS, to police, Facebook or other social networking sites, or otherwise in any public forum.

72. It is hereby ordered that each of the parties shall execute and deliver to the other any documents necessary to implement the provisions of the Final Decree of Divorce entered by the Court. It is hereby ordered that, shall a party fail to execute a document within sixty (60) days of the entry of the Final Decree of Divorce, the other party may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party, and ask that the Court appoint some other person to execute the document pursuant to Rule 70, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. It is hereby ordered that any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same force and effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

73. It is hereby ordered that each party shall assume their own costs and attorney's fees incurred in prosecuting this action.
