IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF TOOELE, STATE OF UTAH
74 South 100 East, Tooele, UT 84074

In the matter of the marriage of: ANA SANCHEZ, Petitioner, and, ALECXIS OCEGUEDA ARIAS, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Civil No. 264300071 Judge: Hon. Todd Hilbig Commissioner: Hon. Renee Blocher Discovery Tier: 4

This matter came before the Court by way of Petitioner Ana Sanchez's ("Petitioner") Verified Petition for Divorce. Having reviewed the pleadings, the Petition for Divorce, and the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, the Court finds that the Court has jurisdiction to enter an Order. Having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and being otherwise fully advised, and for good cause appearing, the Court hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, AND DECREES as follows:

1. Ana Marie Sanchez and Alecxis Ocegueda Arias are residents of Tooele County, State of Utah, and have been for three months immediately prior to filing this action.

2. Ana Marie Sanchez and Alecxis Ocegueda Arias married on October 21, 2021, in Tooele, Utah, and are presently married.

3. The parties separated on or about January 2026 and no longer reside together.

4. Petitioner and Respondent are the parents of one minor child, E.G.O., born on September 7, 2023.

5. Divorce: The parties are hereby divorced from one another, and the bonds of matrimony are forever severed.

CHILD CUSTODY AND PARENT TIME

6. Legal Custody. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-204, it is in the best interest of the minor child that the parties share joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the child's school, medical, church, and other records, and will include the other party as the parent on such records. Both parties shall mutually agree on major decisions concerning the child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the child is in his or her care.

7. If the parties cannot agree on an issue, the parties shall first discuss the issue between themselves. Then, the parties shall seek advice from experts in the field with regard to the area of the dispute. If the parties cannot agree, then the parties will attend mediation as soon as possible to attempt to resolve the issue, and Petitioner shall have interim final say on the issue. If mediation yields no resolution, either party may then seek court intervention.

8. Physical Custody. In the best interest of the minor child, Petitioner is awarded sole physical custody under Utah Code §81-9-204 and is designated as the primary and residential parent. Parent time with the minor child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the Respondent's parent time schedule shall be pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-302.

9. Extended parent time for the parties shall be pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-302, including the notification of designation of extended parent time dates. If a party does not request their summer parent time weeks during their given year, they lose their priority time, and the other party may request their weeks, which would supersede their week in the case of conflicting schedules.

10. The parties' holiday parent time schedule shall be as the parties agree. In the event the parties do not agree, the parties shall maintain a holiday schedule described in Utah Code §81-9-302. Petitioner is designated as the custodial parent, and Respondent is designated as the noncustodial parent for purposes of the Holiday Parent Time schedule, as follows:

11. In the event either party relocates more than 150 miles from the other, parent time shall be adjusted pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-209. Either party may request a court hearing to make a determination on the parties' parent time. All obligations and intentions of Utah Code § 81-9-209 should apply to the parties at the time of the move. Additionally, if either party relocates or moves more than 150 miles, the parties shall exercise holiday parent time consistent with Utah Code § 81-9-209.

CHILD SUPPORT

12. In accordance with the Utah Child Support Act, set forth in Utah Code § 81-6-201 et seq., child support should be calculated based on the parties' gross monthly income and the parties' respective parenting time with the minor child.

13. Petitioner earns an average monthly income of $5,921, and Respondent earns an average monthly income of $3,813.

14. The support has been calculated according to the Sole Physical Custody Worksheet. The father's child support obligation shall be $398 per month. Child support shall commence on November 1, 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for the minor child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust when the minor child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated.

15. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each month and one-half on the 20th day of each month, and the parties shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding payable through the Utah Office of Recovery Services, as provided by Utah Code § 62A-11-401 et seq.

16. Under a global support settlement, Respondent shall receive a $398 credit against his child support obligation. Petitioner shall provide Respondent a $398 credit each month for 60 months, beginning November 2026, pursuant to paragraph 49 below. During this 60-month period, child support shall not increase or decrease even if the parties' custody or incomes change. See

17. At the end of the 60-month period, the parties shall reconvene to adjust the child support obligation based on their incomes at that time and moving forward.

18. The Petitioner waives any child support arrears that are owed to her.

PARENTING PLAN

19. Special consideration should be given by each party to make the minor child available to attend family functions, including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the minor child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent time schedule.

20. The parties should be entitled to contact the minor child by telephone, email, and/or other means of virtual communication as is reasonably available. Such contact should be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

21. The parties should discuss and resolve any parent time and custody issues among themselves, and such issues should not be discussed with the minor child by any means.

22. All communications between the parties should be civil in nature, and telephone contact should be used in case of an emergency involving the minor child.

23. The parties should each ensure that the minor child is properly supervised, clothed, and fed during their respective parent time. Each parent should provide for the necessities of the minor child while the child is in his or her care without relying on the other parent or using the items in the possession of the other parent for the minor child.

24. Respondent shall show proof of the minor child’s separate sleeping arrangements or separate and secure room and shall update Petitioner on her safe sleeping conditions as reasonably necessary.

25. Until such a time as the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18), each party should keep the other party informed of his/her current address and telephone number and, if possible, advise the other party no less than sixty (60) days in advance of any move.

26. Should either party desire to travel out of the country with the minor child, that party should give the other party sixty (60) days' advance notice of travel and provide the following to the other parent:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;
b. Destination;
c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and
d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child’s location.

27. The parties shall equally participate in and share any costs of fees for obtaining a passport for the minor child. Petitioner shall hold any passport or identification for the minor child and share it with Respondent for travel purposes upon request, and Petitioner shall provide Respondent with the passport seven (7) days prior to the travel date. Respondent will return the child's passport to Petitioner immediately upon the child’s return from travel. Overnight travel is 14 days.

28. Should either party desire to travel overnight with the minor child, the parties should give the other party fourteen (14) days' advance notice of overnight travel and provide the following to the other parent:

a. An itinerary of travel dates;
b. Destination;
c. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and
d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

CHILD INSURANCE AND MEDICAL EXPENSES

29. Each party should maintain medical, dental, and optical insurance for the minor child's benefit so long as it is available to the respective parties through their employment at a reasonable cost. If the child is covered under both parties' insurance plans, Petitioner's insurance shall be the primary insurance, and Respondent's shall be secondary, and each party shall be responsible for their own separate insurance premium. The parties should equally pay any sums not covered by insurance, including but not limited to physician care, inpatient care, prescriptions, medically necessary medical supplies, eye examinations, corrective lenses, dental and orthodontic care, and mental health services under the following guidelines:

a. As required by Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, each party should provide the other written notice and proof of medical, dental, and orthodontic expenses incurred and payments made thereon, by insurance or otherwise within thirty (30) days of the date the expense is incurred. Each party should provide the other with copies of statements or written notice received of payments made to a provider by insurance. The obligated party should pay his or her portion, as specified above, of incurred medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, or mental health services within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice from that party.

b. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, a party incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other Party's share of the expenses if the concurring party fails to comply with Utah Code §81-6-210.

c. Any party ordered and/or providing insurance should provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the dependent child and thereafter, on or before January 10th of each year. The insuring party should notify the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of the date the insuring parent first knew or should have known of the change.

d. As required by Utah Code §81-6-208, if only one party has insurance for the minor child, the parties should share equally all out-of-pocket costs for the medical, dental, and optical premiums paid for the minor child's pro rata share of the portion of the insurance coverage. The parent obligated to provide child support should be entitled to an offset, either added to or deducted from his or her monthly child support payments, to facilitate equal sharing of the out-of-pocket costs of a medical insurance premium.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

31. Should it be necessary to incur a work-related childcare expense, pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209, each party should pay one-half (1/2) of all reasonable and necessary work-related childcare expenses incurred. The party incurring a childcare expense should notify the other party of all incurred childcare expenses, provide the name and contact information for any childcare provider, and make reimbursement and continued monthly payments pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209.

32. As required by Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209, each party should provide the other written notice and proof of any childcare expenses incurred, and payments made thereon, within thirty (30) days of the date the expense is incurred. Each party should provide the other with copies of statements or written notice received of payments made to a childcare provider. The obligated party should pay his or her one-half (1/2) portion, as specified above, of the childcare services within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice from that party.

33. If either party has made his or her half payment on any childcare-related expense, that party should notify the provider to ensure that no collection efforts are made against the paying party.

SCHOOL AND EXTRACURRICULAR EXPENSES

34. School: The minor child shall attend school based on the residential parent's address. Both parties shall have equal access to the child's school records, and both parents' names shall be listed as parents on the children's school records. The parties shall ensure that the school communicates equally with both parents regarding the minor children's grades, absences, or any other issues that may arise or relate to the minor children's schooling.

35. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e., registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

36. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extracurricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend the child's activities or practices, regardless of which parent pays for the activity.

TAX EXEMPTIONS

37. The parties should alternate claiming the minor child for dependency exemptions for both state and federal tax purposes, with Petitioner claiming the child in even-numbered years and Respondent claiming the child in odd-numbered years.

38. Either party should only have the ability to claim the minor child for tax purposes if they are current on their child support obligation by December 31 of the given year. Otherwise, Petitioner shall claim the minor child for federal and state income tax exemptions.

ALIMONY

39. Neither party shall be awarded alimony, and each party's claim to alimony shall be waived now and forever in the future.

PREMARITAL PROPERTY

40. Any premarital property, separate property, inheritance, or gifts intended to go to either party exclusively shall remain the sole and exclusive property of that party and is not subject to division by the Court.

43. All other items of personal property shall be divided as the parties agree or as designated by the Court if the parties cannot agree.

INVESTMENT, RETIREMENT, AND BANK ACCOUNTS AND SECURITIES

46. During the course of the parties' marriage, the parties established retirement, savings, investments, bank accounts, and/or other securities. Each party will keep the established accounts that are currently in their name and will own and maintain such accounts free and clear from any claim or interest from the other party.

47. The parties agree to sign all documents consenting to remove their names from any joint accounts, give authorizations for their names to be removed from said accounts, or authorize any joint accounts to be closed.

48. 401(k) Retirement Accounts: Petitioner is awarded the 401(k) in her name free and clear of any claim by Respondent.

49. In lieu of a settlement distribution of Petitioner's 401(k) account, the Respondent shall receive a credit against his child support obligation to offset his portion of Petitioner’s 401(k). Petitioner shall provide Respondent a $398 credit each month for 60 months, beginning November 2026.

DEBTS

50. During the course of the parties’ marriage, the parties have incurred various debts. The parties shall be responsible for any and all debts in their name, and that party is required to indemnify the other and hold the other harmless from any loss, damage, demand, or claim of any kind arising from his or her failure or neglect to do so.

51. For the credit cards in either party’s name, Petitioner and Respondent shall be obligated for any repayment of the debts in their name and shall hold the other harmless from the same.

52. The parties shall also be ordered to notify creditors or obligees of the Court’s division of debts or obligations and to give creditors the parties’ separate, current addresses. The parties shall keep any and all joint-related debts current and in good standing with the creditors.

55. Absent an agreement by the parties, any and all debts incurred by either party from the date of separation on January 25, 2026, and thereafter shall be the sole responsibility of the party incurring the debt, with the other party being indemnified and held harmless from the same. See supra.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

56. Both parties should be restrained from saying or doing anything that would tend to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent, including but not limited to demeaning or disparaging the other parent, speaking derogatorily or in a belittling manner about the other parent, or a significant other of either parent, speaking to the child about the issues in this matter, or attempting to influence the child's preference regarding custody or visitation.
