IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH-OGDEN DEPARTMENT

In the matter of marriage of: SEANA MICHELLE ARBON, Petitioner/wife, vs. DILLAN SANDALL ARBON, Respondent/husband.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 254901726 Judge: Catherine Conklin Commissioner: Brandon Richards
---	---

COMES NOW, Petitioner, SEANA MICHELLE ARBON, by and through counsel, Ron K. Nichols of the law firm KAUFMAN, NICHOLS & KAUFMAN and Respondent, Dillan Sandall Arbon, representing himself pro-se, the parties participated in Mediation with Todd Wetsel on March 9th 2026, the parties having come to a full settlement agreement with the Memorandum of Understanding having been signed by all parties and submitted to the above-entitled court, the court being fully advised on the pleadings and having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law: NOW THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Petitioner is Seana Michelle Arbon, a bona fide resident of WEBER County, State of Utah.
2. The Respondent is Dillan Sandall Arbon and is a resident of Washington County, Utah.
3. The parties divorce shall be granted on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because the parties have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of the marriage impossible
4. The parties have one (1) minor child born as issue of the marriage, to wit D.A. date of birth 03.2015 and none are expected.
5. Petitioner, Seana is awarded the sole legal and sole physical custody of the parties' minor child.
6. Respondent lives over 150 miles away in Kanab, Utah. The Parties shall exercise parent time as they can agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties shall participate in mediation to attempt to resolve the issues before seeking court intervention.
7. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement regarding parent-time or over the terms or implementation of the Memorandum of Understanding, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action.
8. Pursuant to Utah Code 78B-12-202 et seq., Petitioner has a gross monthly income of $6,750 and Respondent has a gross imputed monthly income in the amount of $2,944.00 per month. Child support shall be in the monthly amount of $307.00 beginning March 1, 2026 with Respondent paying to Petitioner each and every month.

9. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child should terminate at the time (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code§ 80-7-102 and seq.

10. The person entitled to receive child support should be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code 26B-9 parts 3 and 4, and any Federal and State tax refunds or rebates due the non-custodial parent may be intercepted by the State of Utah and applied to existing child support arrearages.

11. This income withholding procedure should apply to existing and future payers.

12. All withheld income should be submitted to the Office of Recovery Services until such time as the non-custodial parent no longer owes child support to the person entitled to receive child support. All child support payments should be made to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, UT 84145-011, unless the Office of Recovery Services gives notice that payments are to be sent elsewhere.

13. Each of the parties is under mutual obligation to notify the other within 14 days of any change in monthly income that would impact the calculation of child support.

14. Respondent's child support obligation shall remain the same or decrease under the Uniform Child Support Guidelines, Seana Arbon shall be permitted to submit corrected income information and child support calculations to the Court without notice to, or approval of, the Respondent. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support in this matter.

15. Child support services, such as enforcement or other services under Part IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C., Section 601 et seq., have been or are being provided on behalf of a child who is a subject of this action.

16. Child Support Arrears: Respondent shall pay for his past child support arrears in the amount of $3,684.00. Petitioner is granted a Judgment for the arrears in the amount of $3684.00 as for child support owed through February 28, 2026.

17. Waiver of additional Child-Related Financial Claims; all other financial claims relating to the minor child shall be deemed satisfied, waived, and fully resolved through February 2026.

Healthcare Expenses

18. Insurance Coverage. The parties shall provide health care coverage, as defined by Utah Code Section 78B-12-102, for the medical expense of the Child.

19. Premiums. Both parties shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a party for the Child's portion of insurance. The Child's portion of the premium shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor child of the parties in this case. The party who provides insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other party's share of the Child's portion of the premium.

20. Out-of-Pocket Expenses. Both parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary medical, dental, orthodontic, and optical expenses, including deductibles and co-payments, incurred for the Children.

21. Verification of Coverage. The party providing insurance should provide verification of coverage to the other party upon initial enrollment of the Child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year. The party providing insurance should notify the other party of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date that party first knew or should have known of the change.

22. Reimbursement of Expenses. A party who incurs medical, dental, orthodontic, or optical expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other party within 30 days of payment. The party to whom written verification is provided should reimburse the party who incurred the expenses one-half of the amount within 30 days of receipt of written verification. If a party fails to provide timely written verification, then that party may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses.

23. Double Coverage. In the event that the Child are covered under both parties' healthcare policies, then the healthcare policy of the Respondent should be the primary coverage for the Child and the healthcare policy of the Petitioner should be the secondary coverage for the Child.

24. Extracurricular Expenses. The parties shall equally share all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred for the Child's extracurricular activities, provided the parties have agreed in writing and prior to enrollment in the activity. A party who incurs an expense without receiving prior written consent from the other party should be solely responsible for that expense. A party who incurs expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of those expenses within 30 days of payment. The party not incurring expenses should provide reimbursement of their share of those expenses within 30 days of receiving written verification of the cost and payment of those expenses from the other party. Both parties should not unreasonably schedule extracurricular activities over the others parent time.

25. Health-Related Expenses. “[A] provider who receives a copy of [the parties’ Decree of Divorce] at or before the time the provider renders [health-related] services to the Children shall, upon request from either parent, separately bill each parent for the share of the [health-related] expenses that the parent is required to pay under the [Decree of Divorce]. Utah Code § 15-4-6.7(1). Further, “within 30 days after the day on which the provider renders the [health-related] service, may not: (i) make a claim for unpaid medical and dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full the share of the [health-related] expenses that the [party] is required to pay under the [Decree of Divorce]; or (ii) make a negative credit report . . . , or report of the debtor’s repayment practices or credit history . . . regarding a [party] who has paid in full the share of the [health-related] expenses that the parent is required to pay under the [Decree of Divorce]”. Id.

26. Taxes. The parties shall alternate claiming the minor child as a dependent, with Petitioner having each even-numbered year beginning with the year 2026. Respondent will claim the minor child each odd-numbered year beginning with the 2027 year. Respondent must be fully current on his child support obligation by the end of the year (December) to be eligible to claim the child in any year allocated to him.

27. Real Property. All property and financial accounts have already been divided to the party’s mutual satisfaction. Each party is awarded all property, accounts, and personal belongs currently is his or her possession, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

28. Debts: There are no joint marital debt and both parties shall be solely responsible for any debt that has been incurred in his or her name and will indemnify and hold the other party harmless from those obligations.

29. Retirement Accounts: The parties are awarded their individual retirement accounts in their respective names with no claim by the other party.

30. Alimony. The parties are individually and separately capable of supporting themselves without financial assistance from the other. Accordingly, no alimony will be awarded to either party now or at any point in the future.

31. Finality of Financial Issues. All financial issues between the parties are resolved, including claims for reimbursement, equalization, or other financial relief.

32. Name: Respondent will have the option of restoring her name to her maiden name if she so desires.

33. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
