

RED LAW PLLC

1Trevor D. Osborn #14742
2666 North 400 East
North Ogden, Utah 84414
Telephone: (801) 477-0733
Email: trevor@redlawutah.com

PRIVATE RECORD

Attorney for Lane Ream

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:
MEGAN REAM,
Petitioner,

and

LANE REAM,
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 254901908

Judge: Jason Nelson
Commissioner: Christina Wilson

The above-captioned matter has come before this court on the parties' Petitions for Divorce. Both parties have stipulated to entry of this Decree of Divorce pursuant to Stipulation for Divorce filed with this court on March 13, 2026. The court, after having reviewed this stipulation and finding the same to be fair, just, and equitable, does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

JURISDICTION

1. Petitioner is a bona fide resident of Weber County, State of Utah, and has been for three (3) months immediately prior to the filing of this action in accordance with Utah Code §81-4-402(1).
2. Petitioner and Respondent are husband and wife, having been married on June 21, 2011, in Ogden, Utah.

GROUND

3. The parties shall be awarded a divorce from one another on the grounds of irreconcilable differences because the parties have been unable to resolve their marital problems, making continuation of the marriage impossible.

CHILDREN

4. The parties have one (1) minor child together. Namely:

a. B.W.R., born 07/06/2012

5. The parties' minor child has resided in the State of Utah for more than six (6) months prior to the commencement of this action and Utah is the home state of the minor child pursuant to Utah Code §78B-13-201(1)(a).

6. The parties do not have knowledge of any custody proceeding concerning the minor child, other than this divorce proceeding, in a court of Utah or any other state or jurisdiction.

7. The parties do not know of any other person not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the minor child or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the minor child.

CUSTODY

8. Legal Custody: Petitioner and Respondent shall each be awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor child with neither party being awarded final decision-making authority. Each parent may make routine day-to-day decisions during their time with the child. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues in raising the parties' child and in meeting their ongoing needs including, but not limited to, healthcare, education, and religious upbringing. If and when they arise, the parents shall address the issues. Each parent shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, the parties may further elect to seek input from treating physicians or educators. Both parents shall be provided with such input. If the parties cannot agree after good faith discussion and involvement of relevant experts or professionals, the parties shall attend mediation and divide the costs evenly. If they are unable to resolve the issue in mediation, either party may bring the matter before the court and the court shall have final decision-making authority.

a. Regarding religious decisions, ceremonies, and activities, each party may make decisions during their parent-time. However, each party will notify the other before any major religious event, ceremony, rites, etc. that will be taking place on their parent-time. If parents are invited to attend such event, both parties shall be permitted to attend.

b. Regarding educational decisions, the minor child shall remain in his current school and feeder school (Ben Lomond High School) unless otherwise agreed upon in writing.

c. Regarding medical decisions, the parties agree to maintain the same healthcare providers for the minor child as he has historically seen (Mitchell Cooney, MD).

d. Physical Custody and Parent-Time: The parties shall exercise parent-time as they may agree in writing, but if they cannot agree then Petitioner and Respondent shall exercise joint physical custody and equal parent-time on a 2-2-5 basis as shown in the table below.

e. Petitioner shall be awarded parent-time every Sunday and Monday overnight, beginning after church on Sunday (on Respondent's weekends) and ending on Tuesday upon delivering the child to school or at 2:00 p.m. when school is not in session.

f. Respondent shall be awarded parent-time every Tuesday and Wednesday overnight, beginning after school on Tuesday or at 2:00 p.m. when school is not in session and ending on Thursday upon delivering the child to school or at 2:00 p.m., when school is not in session.

g. The parties shall alternate Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights each week, beginning Thursday after school or 2:00 p.m. if school is not in session and ending on Sunday. On Respondent's weekend, his weekend parent-time shall end when the child is done with church activities for the day, but not later than 5:00 p.m. On Petitioner's weekend, she shall not have to return the child to Respondent on Sunday for any time.

h. Respondent shall be awarded the weekend of March 6-8 and the parties shall alternate thereafter.

	Sun	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thur	Fri	Sat
Week 1	Megan	Megan	Lane	Lane	Lane	Lane	Lane
Week 2	Megan	Megan	Lane	Lane	Megan	Megan	Megan

PARENTING PLAN

9. Holidays: The parties shall exercise holiday parent-time as they may agree, but in the event that they do not agree, holiday parent-time shall be in accordance with Utah Code §81-9-303, with Lane being designated as the custodial parent for holiday purposes only and Petitioner being designated as the non-custodial parent for holiday purposes only.

10. Summer Parent-time: The parties shall not follow the Utah Code for extended and summer parent-time. Instead, each be awarded 10 consecutive days of parent-time each summer. Respondent shall have first choice of their 10-day period in even-numbered years and Petitioner shall have first choice in odd-numbered years. The party with first choice shall make their selection by the May 1 preceding the summer; if they do not, the other party may make their selection. The party with second choice shall make their selection by May 15. Neither party shall interfere with the others holiday parent-time without permission. The parties may not exercise their 10-day period directly before or after any existing parent-time; accordingly, neither parent shall go more than 10 days each summer without seeing the child.

11. School: Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing, the child shall continue to attend Mound Fort Jr. High and then Ben Lomond High School.

12. GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

a. Court Orders Govern: The parties recognize they must follow this Decree and other applicable court orders in this case and that neither party gets to make their own rules at any point.

b. Flexibility in Co-Parenting: The parties understand that flexible co-parenting reduces conflict and creates a healthy environment for the child. Therefore, the parties agree to be reasonably flexible in co-parenting the child.

c. Speaking Positively about the Other Parent: The parties acknowledge that speaking negatively of the other parent only harms and confuses the child. The child views themselves as half of each parent. Therefore, the parties will speak well of the other parent in front of the child. The parties will not malign or speak negatively of the other parent to the child, nor will they speak negatively of the other parent to any third party where there is any risk of the child hearing what is being said. Children do not need to hear about character flaws of the other parent.

d. The Child is Not a Tool for Discovery: The Parents shall not question the child about each other's personal relationships, financial spending, or otherwise use the child as a tool for discovery.

e. The Child is Not a Counselor: The Parents shall not use the child as a confidante to counsel with about their own personal problems, especially if the problem is related to the other parent.

f. The Child is Not a Messenger: The parties shall not use the child as a messenger. Any issues that need to be discussed must be discussed between the parties outside the presence of the child.

g. Increased Flexibility as the Child Grows: As the child grows up and matures, their needs and interests will change. The parties will use their best efforts to coordinate with the other parent to ensure the child can engage in those appropriate activities they find most fulfilling. The parties understand that as the child gets older they may require more freedom and the parties may need to be more flexible, avoiding placing the child in the middle of a tug-of-war between parents. Nevertheless, absent an agreement between the parties, the parties must follow this Decree and other applicable court orders, if any.

h. Maintaining Similar Schedules: The parties should try to maintain similar schedules for the child in order to create continuity for them, including mealtimes, homework schedules, bedtimes, curfews, and other routines. Similarly, the parties shall ensure that they provide as much or more emotional support, time, and affection to the child as they were used to prior to the commencement of this case.

i. Maintaining Similar Methods of Discipline: The parties should try to maintain similar styles of discipline for the child so as to allow the child predictability.

j. Exposure to Media: Neither party shall expose the child to media that is inappropriate for them.

k. Advisory Guidelines: The Advisory Guidelines of Utah Code §81-9-202 shall be binding upon the parties unless otherwise conflicting with terms herein.

13. COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION.

a. Communication with the Child: Both parties shall be entitled to reasonable, uninterrupted and unmonitored telephone, virtual, text, or other reasonable contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations (which shall be based upon the child's abilities, interests, schedules, and willingness to participate) while the other party is exercising parent-time with the child. Similarly, each party shall enjoy unmonitored mail and email contact with the child. Neither party shall use communication with the children to unreasonably disrupt the other parent's exercise of parent-time.

b. Communication Between Parents: Communication about adult issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties remarries or finds a significant other, the parties will continue to communicate with one another and not communicate instead through their new spouse, a significant other, or any other third party. Similarly, the parties shall not include their spouse, significant other, or a third party in the discussions between the parties about the child. Communication between co-parents shall be peaceful, civil, and nonabusive.

c. Method of Communication: The parties shall communicate as they both feel comfortable; however, either parent may limit communication to email or text message and the other parent must comply.

d. Response Time and Frequency of Communication: When a parent receives communication from the other, they shall make every effort to respond in a timely manner. Generally, a response shall occur within 24 hours. However, the parties shall not be overbearing or excessive in the length or frequency of their messages. They shall only communicate with each other when necessary, communications shall be focused on the child, and they shall avoid pettiness and disputes, understanding that sometimes messages can be read in a negative tone or manner that was not intended by the other parent.

e. Relationships with the Child's Support Personnel: Each parent is responsible for creating their own relationships with the child's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends, and shall not rely on the other parent's relationship with these individuals. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities, and other contact information that allows the other parent to fulfill this provision. However, the parties shall freely exchange information pertinent to the child consistent with this Parenting Plan, or when asked by the other parent.

f. Child's Illnesses: The parties shall notify the other parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency or when the child is ill. The parties shall not use the child's illnesses as an excuse to interfere with parent-time. Both parents are competent to care for the child during illness. Nevertheless, the child's comfort shall be placed ahead of the parties own desires. The parties will give details on medication for the child and any dosages necessary. Each party shall administer medicine as instructed by the child's medical or other professional.

g. Access to Information: Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all educational and medical records of the child. Each party shall be listed as a parent on the child's school, medical, extracurricular, religious, and all other records.

14. ACTIVITIES & RELIGION

a. Attending the Child's Activities: Both parties have the right to know about and attend all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of the child, regardless of whether such activities occur during their parent-time schedule.

b. Calendaring Activities: The parties shall use a shared calendar (i.e. the calendar in the coparenting app if the parties are using such an app, Google Calendar, etc.) to track the child's school, religious, extra-curricular, or any other activity parents typically attend, as well as the child's doctor, dental, or other similar appointments. These events shall be calendared by the parent within 24 hours of receiving notice. If the parties share a calendar with the child, they shall not put anything on the child's calendar or tell the child about any event that would interrupt the other party's parent-time without agreement of the affected party.

c. Child's Attendance at Special Events: The parties shall make reasonable efforts for the child to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies). The party requesting an accommodation shall provide options for make-up parent-time with their request so the other parent does not lose parent-time.

d. Listening to the Child's Interests Regarding Activities: It is both parents' responsibility to ensure that the child has the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. Where either parent withholds exposure because they don't want to lose their child to such activities, it is ultimately the child who loses. Therefore, it is encouraged that both parents cooperate and listen to the child's wishes and desires regarding the activities the child would like to participate in. Both parties recognize that the activities the child is involved in must be comfortable for the child and that the parent's preferences, interests, and needs are inferior.

e. Parents' Discussion about Potential Activities: Where a conflict in parent-time is likely to arise because of the child's enrollment in an activity, the parents shall discuss any proposed changes to the parent-time schedule with the other parent prior to talking with the child about such activity that they want them to be involved in.

f. Unilateral Enrollment of the Child in Activities: Either parent can enroll the child in activities that do not require involvement of the other parent. By doing so, the parties recognize the other parent will not be sharing the cost and the activity shall not interfere with their parent-time. However, the parent who has enrolled the child shall notify the other parent of important events related to the activity (games, recitals, ceremonies) or instruct the other parent on how to obtain this information themselves, so that the other parent may support the child and attend events.

g. Homework: Both parties shall help the child complete any homework the child has received during their parent-time.

h. Religion: Each parent may take the minor child to religious services, ceremonies, and activities consistent with that parent's faith during his or her respective parent-time. Neither parent shall disparage, criticize, or attempt to undermine the other parent's religious beliefs or practices in the presence of the child, nor shall either parent pressure the child to reject the other parent's faith. Given the child's age and maturity, the child shall be allowed reasonable discretion in forming and expressing his or her own religious beliefs and in deciding whether to participate in religious activities during each parent's time.

15. TRANSPORTATION, TRAVEL, AND LOCAL RELOCATION.

a. Pick Up and Drop Off: The parent receiving the child shall be responsible for picking the child up at the other parent's residence for parent-time. The parties shall make every effort to be on time for parent-time exchanges; on the rare occasions they are going to be late, they shall let the other party know in advance via phone call or text message. The parties shall use their best efforts to have exchanges take place at school whenever possible.

b. Behavior During Parent-Time Exchanges: Parents shall keep communications positive during parent-time exchanges. The parents recognize that it is healthy for the child to see their parents have positive interactions with each other. Parent-time exchanges should be brief and without fanfare or drama. Parent-time exchanges are not the place to resolve disputes or discuss substantive issues regarding the child, regardless of whether the child can hear the conversation.

c. Traveling with the Child: The parties shall follow §81-9-202(19) of the Utah Code in regards to travel and vacations with the child. Namely, whenever the child travels with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location. When travelling, the parent will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with the other parent. If the child requires a passport for travel, both parties will assist in obtaining such passports.

d. Change of Contact Information: The parties shall provide one another with current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address, a new telephone number, or new email address.

16. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

a. Communication: Both parties shall be prohibited from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party. This includes, but is not limited to, (a) insulting the other parent, pointing out the other parent's weaknesses or flaws, or speaking derogatorily about the other parent in the presence of the child or anywhere near the child's presence; (b) speaking to the child about the issues in this case; (c) attempting to influence the child's preferences regarding custody or visitation; (d) or attempting to diminish the love and affection of the child for the other parent or the other parent's family members.

b. Harassment: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing, annoying, or otherwise bothering the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

c. Drugs and Alcohol: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from using illicit drugs, prescription drugs except as prescribed, or drinking alcohol to the point of intoxication during the exercise of parent-time.

d. Physical Presence: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from driving by one another's residences except for a purpose outlined under this Decree, entering one another's residences, or coming onto the property of one another's residences without express permission.

e. Third Parties: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this Parenting Plan and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations, or shall remove the child from such circumstances. Each party shall control their own extended family and ensure that their conduct and behavior around the child are consistent with these terms.

17. SIGNIFICANT OTHERS

a. The parties understand that it can be detrimental to the child to introduce them to multiple significant others. The parties shall not introduce the child to their significant others until appropriate, and until they have established a committed relationship with such significant other. Significant others are not parents and shall not assume any role in the parenting of or the discussing of the child with the other parent.

18. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

a. The child should not be left home alone overnight.

b. There is no obligation for one party to notify the other when they are going to be away from the child overnight. However, given the age of the child, he is free to go to the other party's house if the party exercising parent-time will be away from the child overnight. If a parent is going to be away from the child overnight, and the child does not elect to go to the other parent's house, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for ensuring that a responsible adult is home with the child and shall notify the other parent of the identity of such person if it is not an immediate family member.

RELOCATION

19. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent they must follow all provisions outlined in Utah Code §81-9-209.

CHILD SUPPORT

20. The parties shall be ordered to pay child support as calculated and determined pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines and the laws of the State of Utah.

21. At present, Petitioner is employed and earns a gross monthly income of $6,205.

22. At present, Respondent is employed and earns a gross monthly income of $6,066.

23. Petitioner's child support obligation shall be $18, based on a joint custody calculator with both parties exercising equal parent-time.

24. Petitioner shall be permitted to offset this amount with the child's health insurance premiums.

25. Child support shall commence April 1, 2026.

26. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-211, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

27. The parties shall have the right to adjust child support depending on substantial changes in circumstances, including increases or decreases in either party's incomes, as is set forth in Utah Code §81-6-202.

28. Unless the court orders otherwise, support for a child shall terminate at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code §78A-6-801.

MEDICAL EXPENSES & INSURANCE COVERAGE

29. Petitioner currently carries health insurance for the minor child. Petitioner will continue to provide health insurance for the benefit of the minor child so long as it is available at a reasonable cost through their employer. In the event health insurance is or becomes available to either party through employment as a benefit or at reduced cost, that party shall be ordered to purchase and maintain medical insurance for the benefit of the parties' minor child.

30. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical, dental and orthodontic insurance premium or costs actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of the medical and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code §81-6-208. If the parties each cover the children with insurance coverage and incur an actual cost for such insurance, they shall each pay their own insurance premiums and contribute nothing to the other.

31. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208(9), at any time when the parties are sharing the cost of a health insurance premium, the child's portion of the premium is a per capita share calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in coverage.

32. Both parents shall share equally in all routine medical and dental expenses actually paid, whether covered or only partially covered by insurance (including but not limited to one-half of expenses for copays, prescriptions, surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, therapy, physical therapy, ophthalmology, optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma, etc.) as well as other reasonably necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses of the minor child, in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

33. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the parties' minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email.

34. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

35. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide the above verification within the thirty day time period.

36. The parties shall provide a copy of the Decree to all healthcare providers and shall set up separate billing accounts whenever possible.

37. Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.7 and §81-4-406, when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Therefore, the parties shall cooperate in providing a copy of this Decree to any creditors, notify the creditors of their current address, and inform the creditor that they cannot make a claim for unpaid medical expenses or make a negative report against a party who has paid their one-half share of the child's medical expenses.

38. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses.

39. The party who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the child, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year.

40. The party who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

CHILDCARE

41. The child is old enough that he does not need childcare.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, SCHOOL, AND OTHER EXPENSES

42. School and Extracurricular Activities: The parties shall pay one-half of any and all school expenses (registration fees, testing fees, field trips, school supplies, class fees, school activity or sports fees, school clothes, etc.) and reasonable extracurricular activities. The child shall continue to participate in the same extracurricular activities they've been historically involved in. For a new extracurricular activity, both parties must agree in writing to the activity for it to be subject to reimbursement, but neither parent shall unreasonably withhold permission for the child to participate in such activities. Written verification may be sent by text message or email. It is anticipated that the child will participate in at least one extracurricular activity per season that each parent will be financially obligated for, and that there may be some overlap in extracurricular activities from one season to the next. The parties are obligated to take the child to all practices, games, or events associated with the extracurricular activity they are participating in, so long as their participation is consistent with this paragraph. The party incurring a school or extracurricular expense on behalf of the parties' minor child shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

43. Vehicle and Insurance: The parties agree that when the minor child becomes licensed and obtains a vehicle, they shall equally share the reasonable costs associated with the child's vehicle and automobile insurance, including insurance premiums, registration fees, and routine maintenance. Prior to the purchase or acquisition of any vehicle for the child, the parties shall confer in good faith and mutually agree upon the type of vehicle, purchase price, title ownership, and anticipated expenses. Neither party shall unilaterally purchase a vehicle for the child and seek reimbursement from the other without prior agreement. The parties shall also cooperate in selecting appropriate automobile insurance coverage at a reasonable cost. Both parties shall have access to insurance information and proof of coverage. Extraordinary expenses, including but not limited to major repairs resulting from accident or mechanical failure, shall be addressed by mutual agreement. If the parties cannot agree, they shall attempt to resolve the dispute through the dispute resolution process outlined above under the legal custody section. The parties shall send proof of expense and payment within 30 days of incurring such expense and the other party shall have 30 days to reimburse.

44. Phone: The parties agree to equally share the reasonable cost of the minor child's current cellular telephone and the current monthly service plan. The parties shall send proof of expense and payment within thirty (30) days of incurring such expense and the other party shall have thirty (30) days to reimburse. The child's phone shall have a parental control app installed and both parties shall have full access to the parental control app. Neither parent shall take any action to lock the other parent out of the app or deprive the other parent of access.

ASSETS AND DEBTS

45. Real Property: During the parties' marriage, the parties acquired interest in certain real property located at 1122 S. 865 E. Ogden, Utah 84404. As part of a global settlement in this matter, resolving issues of equity in the real property, retirement, debt, personal property, and division of financial accounts, the parties agree that Respondent shall pay Petitioner $85,000 within 120 days. Respondent shall also have 120 days to refinance, assume the loan, or otherwise remove Petitioner's name from the mortgage.

a. If Respondent fails to refinance the home within 120 days, it shall be immediately listed for sale. If it is not listed for sale within thirty (30) days of Respondent's failure to refinance, Petitioner shall be permitted to choose a realtor and list the home.

b. Upon the sale of the property, the proceeds shall first be used to pay any costs related to the sale, such as realtor fees and closing costs. Next, the proceeds shall be used to pay off the parties' mortgage with Servbank. Next, Petitioner shall receive $85,000.00. Respondent shall receive the remaining profit.

c. Until the home is sold, Respondent shall be responsible for all costs related to the home including the mortgage payments, utility payments, maintenance and upkeep. Respondent shall be prohibited from doing anything that may lessen or deteriorate the value of the home.

46. Personal Property: Division of personal property has already been completed, with each party currently having in their possession that which they will take with them after this divorce is finalized.

47. The parties shall be awarded their respective personal effects and inherited items.

48. Specifically, the parties shall be awarded the following:

a. Petitioner shall be awarded the following assets, and shall be hereafter responsible for any debts, ongoing payments, and costs associated with such assets, holding Respondent harmless for any and all liability thereon:

i. 2016 Mazda 3

b. Respondent shall be awarded the following assets, and shall be hereafter responsible for any debts, ongoing payments, and costs associated with such assets, holding Petitioner harmless for any and all liability thereon:

ii. 2005 Honda Pilot

49. The parties shall refinance vehicles and sign titles or other appropriate documentation within 60 days to ensure vehicles are awarded to the proper party and the other party's name has been removed from any ownership or responsibility associated with the vehicle.

50. The parties shall each be awarded the financial accounts and all funds contained therein that are in their own name.

51. Time Share: Respondent shall be awarded the parties' interest in their time share with Global Connections, Inc. He shall be solely responsible for all dues, membership fees, and costs, associated with this timeshare now and forever. If at any point Respondent is able to sell the timeshare, Petitioner shall cooperate and Respondent shall receive the proceeds from the sale.

52. Debts: The parties will each assume and hold the other harmless from liability on debts in their respective names.

53. Each party shall be responsible for any debt individually incurred after the date of separation.

54. The parties shall be ordered to notify their respective creditors in a reasonable and timely manner regarding their respective assumption and liability of their separate debts and obligations.

RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS AND LIFE INSURNACE

55. The parties shall be awarded the retirement held in their respective names.

56. The parties shall be awarded the life insurance accounts in their respective names as well as any cash value within these accounts.

57. So long as Respondent maintains his Transamerica Life Insurance policy (2337), he shall do so for the benefit of his three children. He shall not add or replace any of the three children as beneficiaries on this account.

ALIMONY

58. Neither party shall be awarded alimony, past, present or future.

TAXES

59. The parties shall rotate claiming the minor child for tax purposes each year, with Respondent claiming for odd numbered years starting in 2025 and Petitioner claiming for even numbered years starting in 2026. The parties shall cooperate and ensure that any stimulus payments, advance child tax credits, or other payments associated with the child they are claiming for tax purposes in a given year is given to the intended parent, regardless of which address the money is sent to or what bank account it is deposited in.

60. If either party is not current on their child support or other obligations, they shall not be entitled to claim the exemption.

61. The parties will file their taxes for the 2025 tax year separately, with each party being solely awarded any refund or obligation associated with their own tax return.

MISCELLANEOUS

62. Cooperation: Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.

63. Last Name: Petitioner may be restored to her maiden name, if she so desires.

64. Attorney Fees and Costs: The parties shall each be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.

65. Mediation: The parties understand that future modifications to the Decree of Divorce may become necessary and that prior to filing any petition to modify the parties are required to first attempt in good faith to reach an agreement concerning their issues through a court approved mediator.

END OF ORDER**

ORDER BECOMES EFFECTIVE ON THE DATE OF THE ELECTRONICALLY ADDED SIGNATURE AND SEAL AT THE TOP RIGHT-HAND CORNER OF PAGE ONE.

Approved as to Form and Content:

/s/ Ally Jamerson (signed electronically with permission via email dated 04/02/2026)
Ally Jamerson
Attorney for Megan Ream

CERTIFICATE OF DELIVERY

I hereby certify that on this 2nd day of April, 2026, I served a true and correct copy of the foregoing to the following via e-mail:

Ally Jamerson
ally@utahlawpro.com

/s/ Lizette Rodriguez