Legal Custody and Parenting Plan

12. It is in the best interest of the Parties' minor children that the Parties be awarded joint legal custody, subject to the following Parenting Plan:

Decisions Regarding Raising the Children

13. The Parties shall discuss with each other major decisions involving the children's health and medical care, education, religious participation, and extracurricular activities, and attempt to come to an agreement. The parties shall consult with and share information from any subject matter experts, professionals who are knowledgeable about the issue, or who have a substantial connection to the children. After having obtained and exchanged all of the relevant information and received the opinion of any relevant subject matter experts, if the Parties are unable to agree, the Parties shall attend mediation with each party paying an equal share of the mediator's fee, prior to court intervention.

14. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the child shall be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

15. Each parent shall have the right to make emergency medical decisions without consultation with the other parent and shall immediately inform the other parent of said emergency. Emergency medical decisions are those that are life threatening to the child.

16. The minor children shall not be subjected to hypnotherapy, or anything similar to it, by either parent.

17. Religion. The children shall be raised in the LDS faith with their records kept in Respondent's ward.

Education Plan

18. The children shall continue to attend the same schools they are currently attending (i.e. Shadow Value Elementary and Ogden High School) and shall attend the schools that their current schools feed into, unless agreed to otherwise by the parties.

Transportation

19. All exchanges shall occur at the school whenever possible, with the parent ending parent time dropping the children off to school and the parent starting parent time picking the children up from school. Otherwise, exchanges shall be curbside at the parties' residence with the parents remaining in the vehicle and home respectively and the children walking between the home and the vehicle. Neither party shall record the minor children during exchanges or otherwise with the exception of fixed home security systems.

Advisory Guidelines

20. The "Advisory Guidelines" as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-9-202 shall be binding upon the Parties. To the extent the Advisory Guidelines conflict with this Parent Plan, this Parent Plan shall control.

Communication Between Parties

21. Communication shall be in writing via co-parenting app (AppClose) only and only concerning the children, unless there is an emergency or time necessitates. The parties shall endeavor to each check the co-parenting app for messages no less than twice per day, and shall timely respond to those messages received that require a response within reason given their respective schedules and obligations. Communication shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive. The parties shall utilize a shared calendar for scheduling and notifying of child related events, schedules, appointments, coordinating parent time, etc.

Surrogate Care

22. Direct care by either parent as opposed to surrogate care shall be presumed to be in the child's best interest. As such, each party is awarded the right of first refusal such that if one party cannot be present with the children during their respective parent time an overnight period or more, then that parent must offer that time to the other parent prior to seeking surrogate care. Sleepovers for the child or children when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

23. Neither party shall leave the minor children unsupervised with Respondent's father.

Relocation of a Parent

24. As the parties are exercising joint physical custody, if a party intends to seek a relocation outside of 60 miles from their current residence, the party seeking relocation shall abide by the notice requirements of Utah Cod Ann. §81-9-209 and file a Petition to Modify if there is no agreement.

Adjustments or Modifications

25. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan shall be made in writing, signed by both Parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes may be made whenever the Parties agree.

Failure to Comply

26. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set forth above under this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under said section shall not be affected.

[End Parenting Plan.]

Child Support

27. For child support purposes, Mark's gross monthly income is $12,917.
28. For child support purposes, Jennica's gross monthly income is $4,167.00.
29. Based on a joint custody worksheet with Mark being awarded 145 overnights and Jennica awarded 220 overnights and pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-101 et seq, child support shall be awarded from Mark to Jennica in the amount of $1,326.00
30. The child support obligation shall continue through the end of the month a child becomes 18 years of age, or through the end of the month of the child's normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-213, there shall be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.
31. In order to collect child support, the obligee parent shall be entitled to mandatory income withholding relief pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§81-6-106 and 81-6-107. Said income withholding procedure shall apply to existing and future payors of the non-custodial parent. All withheld income shall be payable to the Office of Recovery Services, P.O. Box 45011, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84145-0011 until such time as the obligor party no longer owes child support to the obligee party. Should the obligee parent elect this income withholding procedure any administrative fees shall be assessed according to statute.
32. Any child support payable by the obligor parent shall be paid on the first day of each month or at the election of the obligor parent by paying one-half of the amount due not later than the 5th day of each month and the remaining half not later than the 20th day of each month.
33. Under Utah Code Ann. §81-6-215(5), the Parties have a right to adjust the child support order by motion after three (3) years from the date of its entry if (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet; (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines. Under Utah Code Ann. §62A-11-306.2, if a child receives TANF benefits at the time an adjustment is sought, the Office of Recovery Services shall review the order, and if appropriate, move the court to adjust the amount.

34. Under Utah Code Ann. §§81-6-212 (3) and (4), the Parties have a right to modify the child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others; and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature. In a proceeding to modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children other than those in common to both Parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the child support award, but may not be applied to justify a decrease in the award.

Extracurricular Activity and School Fees

35. In addition to child support, the Parties shall share equally any expenses related to the children's extracurricular activities that they both agree to in writing, and mandatory school fees. In the event that a party desires to have a child participate in an extracurricular activity that the other party refuses to agree to, that party may still enroll the child in the activity, as long as that party pays for the activity and the activity does not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

36. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity or school out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses.

Child Care Expenses

37. Based on the children's ages and Respondent's primary caregiving, this issue is moot.

Health Insurance and Medical/Dental Expenses

38. In the event either party currently has now, or has in the future, health insurance available to them through their place of employment or through some other source at a reasonable rate, whichever party is able to obtain health insurance at a reasonable cost for the children shall be required to obtain such insurance for the benefit of the minor children. If only one party maintains insurance for the children, the party who is able to obtain the best coverage at the lowest cost shall be required to obtain the insurance, with contributions from the other party as set forth below. Health insurance shall include an obligation to carry dental insurance if it is available on the same basis.

39. The Parties shall share equally the child's portion of the out-of-pocket costs of the health/dental insurance premium, if any, actually paid by a party.

40. The child's portion of the health/dental insurance premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in this case who are covered by such a policy.

41. If, at any point in time, the dependent children covered by the health or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health or dental insurance plan but are by a step-parent's plan, the health or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

42. In the event of double coverage, each party shall be responsible for their sole costs of the children's portion of premium.

43. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, neither party shall be required to maintain health or dental insurance for the children if it is not available to them at a reasonably affordable rate.

44. Both parents shall provide cash medical support by equally sharing all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, optical and mental health expenses incurred for the dependent child, including deductibles and copayments. The parties shall use in-network providers as much as possible. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither party shall be entitled to reimbursement for homeopathic treatment/care.

45. The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208. The other parent shall then reimburse the parent incurring the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification.

46. The parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

47. The Parties shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

48. The requirement for either parent to maintain health and dental insurance, and/or to pay any non-covered medical and dental expenses shall remain in effect for a child only as long as the child is of the age that he or she would be entitled to receive child support.

49. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

Other Child Related Expenses

50. The parties shall equally share the cost of the minor children's cell phone plan and vehicle insurance. A party paying for such shall provide verification of cost to the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt, and the other party shall begin to reimburse the paying party their share on a monthly basis. Presently, Mark has A.R. on his phone plan and is in a 3-year contract which the phone is free should he finish out the contract and A.R.'s line is $20.00 such that each shall pay $10.00. When the time comes to choose other cell phone plans and vehicle insurance for the minor children, the parties shall each submit their proposed plan/policy and cost thereof and select the plan/policy that is the lowest cost with similar coverage.

51. The parties shall split equally the cost of the children serving a mission out of high school.

52. Any necessary repairs to the children's vehicle shall be discussed and agreed upon by the parties, with the parties equally sharing the cost. In the event the parties cannot agree on repairs, they shall attend mediation on the issue, equally splitting the cost of mediation.

53. The children's vehicle shall only be sold upon agreement by the parties, with the proceeds from the sale being equally shared by the parties.

Family Systems Therapy

54. The parties shall continue in family systems therapy with Sara Jogler and participate as directed by Ms. Jogler until their initial retainer is exhausted. Thereafter, if either party chooses to continue they may do so at their own cost.

Taxes

55. Commencing with the 2026 tax year, the Parties shall claim the children for income tax purposes as follows:

56. For as long as there are 2 minor children, Petitioner shall claim the oldest child every year and Respondent shall claim the youngest child every year.

57. When there is 1 minor child remaining, the Parties shall rotate claiming the child with Petitioner claiming the minor child for the first tax year that this occurs, Respondent claiming the children in the second tax year, and then Petitioner claiming the remaining years until majority.

58. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-210, a party's right to claim a child on taxes shall be based on the obligor parent being current in the payment of all child support and child-related expense obligations by December 31st of the tax year in question.
