IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT COUNTY OF WEBER, STATE OF UTAH
IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: KEVIN SLATER, PETITIONER,  and NATASHA MARIE SLATER RESPONDENT.	DECREE OF DIVORCE  Case No.: 264900556 Judge: Camille Neider Commissioner: Brandon Richards

The Petitioner having commenced a divorce action seeking a Decree of Divorce from the Respondent and, the parties having reached a final resolution by filing a “Stipulation” resolving all issues; and the Court having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED

- DIVORCE: That the parties should be granted a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences the same to become final upon entry.
- NAMES: Because the parties share the same last name, they are referred to by their first names to avoid confusion, meaning no disrespect by the apparent informality to-wit: Petitioner (“Kevin”) and Respondent (“Natasha”). Janson v. Janson, 2019 UT App 106.

- MARRIAGE: The parties are husband and wife, having been married on the 5th day of May 2006, in Clinton, Utah.
- CHILDREN: During the course of the marriage there were four (4) children born to the parties. Three (3) children are still minors and are subject to this divorce proceeding, to-wit: Paisley Slater born August 18, 2009; Skylar Slater born December 10, 2015; and Blakely Slater born September 15, 2018.
- LEGAL CUSTODY: The parties shall share joint legal custody of their minor children.
- PARENTING PLAN: The parties shall abide by the terms of the following Parenting Plan:
  - To the extent that they do not otherwise conflict with any of the provisions of this Agreement, the parties shall abide by the advisory guidelines set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the above guidelines, the terms of this Agreement shall govern and take precedence.
  - The parties shall handle decision making regarding the minor children as follows:
    - Day to day and emergency decisions shall be made by the parent who the children are with at the time. In the event of an emergency involving any child, the other parent shall be notified as soon as reasonably possible.
    - The parties shall attempt to reach shared decisions on behalf of the children in connection with all major decisions according to the following procedure:
      - The parent who becomes aware of a major decision concerning a child's health, education, and welfare shall notify the other parent upon becoming aware of the issue.

- The parties shall then discuss the issue to reach an agreement regarding the decision and in conjunction with this, consult with a professional or professionals (if applicable) qualified in the area of the decision.
- In the event the parties are unable to reach an agreement regarding the decision after discussion of the issue and after receiving input from professionals, they will participate in mediation to address the decision. The mediator shall be mutually agreed upon, with the parties to share equally the cost of the mediator.
- If the parties are unable to reach an agreement regarding the decision in mediation, then neither party shall have final decision-making authority. If after following the dispute resolution process the parties are unable to reach a mutually agreeable decision then the parties shall seek a review hearing with the court to resolve the dispute. The prevailing party at such a review hearing shall be entitled to their reasonable attorney's fees and legal costs.
- Extracurricular Activities shall be handled as follows:
  - The parties shall discuss the minor children's involvement in an extracurricular activity prior to enrolling a child in the activity. If the parties mutually agree upon an activity in writing, including the costs associated with the activity, then they shall share equally the expenses associated with the activity, transport the child to the activity during their parent time, and allow the child to attend the activity during their parent time.
  - If a parent does not agree to an activity in writing, the other parent may still enroll the child in the activity, however the parent who does not agree with the activity is

- PHYSICAL CUSTODY: The parties are awarded joint physical custody of the minor children.
- PARENT-TIME: Parent-time shall be as the parties may agree and if they cannot agree then the parties shall have equal parent-time on a 50-50 parent-time basis. The parties shall alternative their parent-time on a week-on- week off basis with exchanges occurring Sunday evenings at 7:00 p.m.
- Transportation. The parties shall equally divide transportation [Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202]. Each shall retrieve the children directly from school if in session. If school is not in session, then the receiving parent shall pick up the minor children from the other parent's residence to commence their parent-time. All parent-time exchanges shall be civil and respectful.
- Relocation. A party moving more than 150 miles from the child's current primary residence shall comply with Utah's Relocation Statute in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-209. Additionally, if at any time the distance between the parties residences is such that equal parent-time is no longer feasible then this shall constitute a substantial and material change in circumstances. It shall be presumptively unfeasible for equal parent-time if the parties reside more than thirty (30) miles from one another.
- Absent an agreement of the parties, the parties shall keep the minor children in their current schools and feeder schools.
