11. Parent Time Exchange. After Stage 1, parent time exchanges shall be as follows:

a. Unless mutually agreed otherwise, the party who is to begin parent-time shall be responsible for picking up the children for parent-time. If school is in session, all parent-time exchanges shall be done at school, if possible. If school is not in session, the receiving parent shall pick up the children curbside from the other parent's residence, which means that each parent shall remain in their respective vehicle or residence during the exchange.

12. Order of Precedence. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-302(6), changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule under this section, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

- i. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day under Utah Code § 81-9-302(12);
- ii. the holiday schedule for the minor child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time under Utah Code § 81-9-302(3) and takes the minor children away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

- v. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

13. Reasonable Accommodations. The parties shall reasonably accommodate schedule changes in the event of unforeseen circumstances related to parent time.

14. Parenting Plan.

a. Day to Day Decisions. The party exercising parent-time shall have the authority to make all of the day-to-day decisions for the children.

b. Records. Both parties shall have access to the children's school, church, medical, and other records involving the children and shall include the other party as the parent on such records, unless otherwise stated herein.

c. Medical Decisions. The parties shall continue to use the children's current health care providers and specialists that their health care providers recommend. Either parent shall be allowed to enroll the children in therapy and/or counseling. Emergency and sick care shall be attended to by the parent who is exercising the parent time. In case of emergency, the parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes of scheduling the doctor's visit so that each party may be able to attend the appointment if possible. In case of non-emergency issues, the parent shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably practicable.

d. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communication with the children, in the form of mail privileges, text messages, phone calls and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration, which is defined as up to 30 minutes per day, unless both parties agree otherwise in writing or special circumstances exist. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

e. Travel. For emergency purposes, whenever the minor children travel with a parent, the parent shall provide the following information required by Utah Code § 81-9-202(19) as follows:

g. Child's Passport. If a child(ren) needs a passport, the parties shall cooperate in obtaining a valid passport. The children's passport shall be held by Lara, unless Seth needs them for foreign travel with the children.

h. Notification of Child's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other, if that information is not readily available to the other parent. However, each party has an affirmative duty to sign themselves up for the parent communication systems that may be available through the school or activity. Each parent is entitled to be at and participate in the children's events, regardless of who is exercising parent time.

i. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

j. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the residence of the other parent, the parties shall be bound by Utah Code §81-9-209.

k. Communication Between the Parties:

i. All communication between the parties shall be limited to issues pertaining to the minor children, and conducted through an App as set forth below.

ii. The parties may communicate via text message or telephone only in the event of an emergency involving the children or an urgent parent time exchange issue.

iii. All communication between the parties regarding the minor children shall be conducted via the “Our Family Wizard” app (hereinafter referred to as ‘The App’). In connection with this, the following shall apply:

1. Each party is solely responsible to obtain, pay for (if there is a fee) and set up their own subscription.

2. All events and activities concerning the minor children; including health-care (medical/dental/mental health), school/education, social and extracurricular activities shall be posted on the shared calendar in connection with The App. In connection with this, the party who becomes aware of or schedules the appointment, activity or event shall post it to the shared calendar within 48 hours of becoming aware of or scheduling the matter.

3. The parties shall subscribe to the plan that includes the tone meter feature.

iv. Neither party shall monitor, record or supervise the other party's communications with the minor children.

l. Mutual Restraining Orders:

i. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.

ii. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

iii. The parties shall not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents shall not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at the children's activities.

- iv. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking, or threatening the other party.
- v. Both parties are restrained from using the name, likeness, image, identification, or credit of the other party for any purpose.
- vi. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.
- m. Advisory Guidelines. The parties shall abide by the advisory guidelines set forth at Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-202. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the advisory guidelines and the specific terms and orders set forth in the Decree of Divorce, the terms of the Decree of Divorce shall control and govern.
- n. Extracurricular Activities. Each party is ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a children's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child(ren) in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

o. Education Plan: The children shall continue to attend their current schools and feeder schools absent mutual agreement otherwise. If there is a dispute as to school attendance, the parties shall attend mediation (costs shared equally) prior to making any changes. If mediation is not successful, the issue can then be brought before the court.

p. Cell Phone: Cell phones for the minor children shall be handled as follows:

i. The parties agree that L.C. shall have a mobile phone to ensure direct communication with both parents. The initial cell phone shall be provided at Seth's expense. Neither parent shall unreasonably restrict access to the phone. If temporary removal is necessary for discipline, the other parent shall be notified promptly, and removal shall be brief. During any such period, an alternate contact number shall be provided, and any call request shall be honored within 24 hours, except for legitimate reasons like school, in which case the parent shall offer the next reasonable opportunity. These orders are subject to the phone/video call orders in the relevant parent-time stages herein. If either parent believes the other is failing to comply, they may petition the court for appropriate relief.

ii. The parties shall address the need for cell phones for the other children as the need arises.

q. Dispute Resolution. In the event that the parties are unable to agree to major issues related to the joint legal custody of their children and this parenting plan, the following shall apply: (1) the parties attempt to resolve the issue together; (2) if the parties cannot resolve the issue together, then the parties shall engage an expert relevant to the disputed issue; (3) if the parties still cannot agree, the parties are required to attend mediation and split evenly the cost associated with mediation; (4) If the parties are still unable to agree, then either party may pursue litigation on the disputed issue. Neither party shall have the final say on issues in dispute.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

15. Child Support through February 2026. Pursuant to the Order on Motion to Enforce and Motion for Temporary Orders Hearing, entered May 30, 2025, Seth was required to pay combined child support and alimony to Lara in the amount of $2,500 per month based on a sole custody worksheet (child support was $1,636 and alimony was $864) until the end of February 2026. This was calculated on Lara's imputed gross monthly income of $1,257 per month and Seth's gross monthly income of $7,500 from his disability payments. It was expected that Seth's income would be effective through February 2026 when his disability payments would end and his income was expected to change. However, Seth was incarcerated in or about November 2025 and, based on the terms of the disability plan, his disability payments ceased. Seth's support payments are current through December 31, 2025, but he owes Lara support arrears in the total amount of $5,000 for January and February 2026. To bring the arrears current, Seth agrees to pay $100 per month in addition to his regular child support, until the balance is paid in full. Once Seth is able to secure full-time employment, he shall notify Lara and the parties shall discuss the remaining balance at that time and Seth's ability to increase payments. If the parties cannot reach an agreement on an appropriate payment plan, Lara may bring the issue before the court.

16. Child Support beginning March 1, 2026. Child Support shall be calculated according to Utah Code §81-6-208 et seq.

a. Child support shall be calculated based on the current incomes of the parties.

Lara shall be imputed a gross monthly income of $3,467 per month. Seth shall be imputed a gross monthly income of $4,250 per month. Seth shall pay child support to Lara in the amount of $1,005 per month based on a sole custody worksheet.

b. Revised child support payments shall commence March 1, 2026.

c. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each and every month.

d. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to adjust the base child support order by motion after three years from entry of the Agreement if: (1) upon review there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah Child Support Guidelines, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, (2) the difference is not of a temporary nature, and (3) the amount previously ordered does not deviate from the child support guidelines.

e. Pursuant to U.C.A. §81-6-212(5), the parties have a right to modify the base child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of: (i) material changes in custody; (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties; (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent; (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn; (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others, and, the change in (i) through (vi) results in a 15% or more difference between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support, calculated using the appropriate child support worksheet, and the difference is not of a temporary nature.

f. Child support payments shall be paid through the Our Family Wizard app or Venmo.

17. School Costs for the Minor Children. Each party shall be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, school sports, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school for the minor children.

18. Health Insurance for the Minor Children shall be handled as follows:

a. The children shall continue to be covered by Medicaid so long as they are eligible.

b. Either party may provide the health insurance coverage on behalf of the minor children if coverage is available to them through employment at a reasonable cost. In accordance with UCA Section 81-6-208, the parties shall share equally the actual out of pocket costs for the children's portion of insurance premiums.

c. Pursuant to UCA Section 81-6-208, the parties shall share equally all out of pocket and non-covered medical, dental, optical, orthodontic and prescription expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child(ren); including deductibles and co-payments. In connection with this, the time frames within which to submit expenses shall be in accordance with UCA Section 81-6-208; together with the additional provision that the parent obligated to reimburse an expense shall do so within 30 days of receipt of verification of the expense.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Seth shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Lara shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a stepparent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the stepparent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

19. Child Care. Pursuant to UCA Section 81-6-209, the parties shall share equally all reasonable work-related daycare expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child(ren).

20. Tax Deductions for the Minor Children. The tax deductions for the minor children shall be handled as follows:

a. For the 2025 tax year, Lara shall be awarded the state and federal tax deductions for all of the minor children. The parties further agree that the additional net tax benefit received by Lara as a result of claiming more than two (2) children for tax year 2025 (the “Excess Tax Benefit”) shall be applied as a dollar-for-dollar credit toward Seth’s support arrears identified in Paragraph 15. The Excess Tax Benefit shall be calculated as the difference between (a) Lara’s actual net tax refund or reduction in tax liability for tax year 2025, and (b) the net tax refund or reduction in tax liability Lara would have received had she claimed only two (2) children. Within fourteen (14) days of filing the 2025 tax returns, the parties shall exchange complete copies of the filed federal and state tax returns, including all schedules and supporting documentation reasonably necessary to verify the calculation of the Excess Tax Benefit. The calculated Excess Tax Benefit shall be credited against Seth’s arrears balance, and the remaining arrears, if any, shall continue to be paid pursuant to Paragraph 15 until paid in full. If the parties are unable to agree on the calculation of the Excess Tax Benefit, either party may seek determination by the Court.

b. Commencing in 2026, Seth is awarded the state and federal tax deductions for Lily and Sawyer, and Lara is awarded the state and federal tax deductions for Jabin and Beverly. When Lily turns 18, Seth shall continue to claim Sawyer, Lara shall continue to claim Beverly, and the parties shall alternate the state and federal tax deductions for Jabin with Seth claiming him the first year, and the parties alternating the deductions for him yearly thereafter until he turns 18. When Jabin turns 18, Seth shall continue to claim Sawyer and Lara shall continue to claim Beverly until Sawyer turns 18. When Sawyer turns 18, the parties shall alternate the state and federal tax deductions for Beverly with Lara being awarded the deductions for her for the first year and the parties alternating the deductions for her yearly thereafter until she turns 18.

c. Both parties shall cooperate in assisting one another in claiming the tax deductions awarded to them by executing IRS Form 8332 and any other forms required by the IRS in order to release the tax exemption to the other party for the year(s) which they are entitled to claim. Any such form(s) shall be completed by the parties and exchanged on or before February 15th of each year.

21. Taxes. Taxes shall be handled as follows:

a. All state and federal tax returns for 2024 and prior joint filings are concluded and resolved without any outstanding issues, and all tax liability, refunds and stimulus funds have been allocated to the mutual satisfaction and agreement of the parties.

b. If any stimulus funds are issued in the future, which are based upon any joint tax filing, the parties shall share equally any such funds that are received. Whichever party receives the funds, that party shall promptly notify the other party and tender to the other party that party's one-half share of the funds within one week of receipt.

c. Commencing with the 2025 tax year and each year thereafter, the parties shall file separate state and federal tax returns.

22. Real Property. The real property located at 1218 Maple Drive, Huntsville, Utah 84317 was sold and the proceeds equitably divided as set forth in the Order on Motion to Enforce and Motion for Temporary Orders Hearing entered May 30, 2025.

23. Personal Property. With the exception of the property identified at subparagraphs a and b below, the parties have heretofore divided the personal property among themselves by agreement and each party shall keep the personal property in his or her possession as of the date of this Stipulation as a full and complete division of personal property.

a. The 1999 Mercury Villager has been sold, with the net sales proceeds having been retained by Lara, with this allocation being to the mutual agreement and satisfaction of the parties.

b. Seth is awarded the 2006 Jeep Liberty as his sole and separate property free and clear of any claim or interest of Lara. Within 30 days of the date of the Agreement, the parties shall cooperate in order to exchange and sign off on title(s) as necessary.

33. Child Protective Order. The parties agree that the ex parte child protective order in case no. 254901180 shall be dismissed when Stage 2 parent time begins. A review hearing has been scheduled for April 20, 2026 at which time it is anticipated that Stage 1 parent time will have been completed, and the court shall dismiss the ex parte order and Lara’s petition for child protective order, unless the parties agree in writing to dismiss it sooner.
34. Attorney Fees. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.
35. Miscellaneous Provisions. Each party shall cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to ensure that the Decree of Divorce is carried out in every detail.
