

RED LAW PLLC

1Trevor D. Osborn #14742
2666 North 400 East
North Ogden, Utah 84414
Telephone: (801) 477-0733
Email: trevor@redlawutah.com

PRIVATE RECORD

Attorney for Randi Kezior

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Parentage of the Children of:
RANDI KEZIOR,
Petitioner,

and

BRIAN JONES,
Respondent.

DECREE OF CUSTODY, PARENT-TIME, AND SUPPORT

Case No. 234901830

Judge: Catherine Conklin
Commissioner: Christina Wilson

COMES NOW the parties to the above entitled action, have stipulated to entry of this Decree of Custody, Parent-time, and Support pursuant to the Stipulation reached by the parties, entered on the record with the court, and the Stipulated Parenting Plan filed with this court on February 25, 2026. The court, after having reviewed these stipulations and finding the same to be fair, just, and equitable, does HEREBY ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE AS FOLLOWS:

RESIDENCY AND JURISDICTION

1. Randi is a resident of Weber County, Utah.
2. The parties are the legal mother and legal father of the child/children listed herein pursuant to Utah's Uniform Parentage Act, Utah Code §78B-15-101 et seq.
3. The parties' minor children have been residents of the State of Utah for more than six (6) months prior to the commencement of this action and Utah is the home state of the minor children pursuant to Utah Code §78B-13-201(1)(a).

4. Randi has no information of any custody proceeding concerning the minor children, other than this custody proceeding, in a court of Utah or any other state or jurisdiction.

5. Randi does not know of any other person not a party to these proceedings who has physical custody of the minor children or who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the minor children.

CHILDREN

6. The parties have two (2) minor children together. Namely:

a. D.R.J., (born 05/28/2012)

b. K.D.J., (born 09/16/2014)

CUSTODY

7. Legal Custody: Randi and Brian shall each be awarded joint legal custody of the parties' minor children with neither party being awarded final decision-making authority. Each parent may make routine day-to-day decisions during their time with the children. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues in raising the parties' children and in meeting their ongoing needs including, but not limited to, healthcare, education, and religious upbringing. If and when they arise, the parents shall address the issues. Each parent shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, the parties may further elect to seek input from treating physicians or educators. Both parents shall be provided with such input. If the parties cannot agree upon an appropriate course of action then they shall participate in mediation. If the parties are unable to reach a resolution at mediation, the parties may bring the matter before the court and the court shall have final decision-making authority. The court may waive mediation in the event of an emergency.

8. Physical Custody: It is in the best interests of the parties' minor children that Randi and Brian be awarded joint physical custody, with Brian receiving parent-time consistent with Utah Code §81-9-303, with the following amendments:

a. When Daysin turns 15 years old, the parties shall meet together to discuss a whether it's in the children's best interests to graduate to a 50/50 custody schedule. Bryce Froerer shall remain on the case as a GAL and the parties stipulate that Bryce shall make the ultimate decision regarding whether the children shall graduate to a 50/50 schedule. The GAL shall consider the following:

- i. Brian must be current on all back support and expenses as listed herein.
- ii. Brian must be current on all ongoing support and expenses.
- iii. Both children must confirm that they wish to move to a 50/50 schedule. If one of the children state they do not wish to move to a 50/50 schedule, then neither child shall move to a 50/50 schedule in order to keep the children together.
- iv. Brian must have consistently exercised his parent-time under the 9/5 schedule and holiday schedule.
- v. The parties shall refrain from discussing these issues with the kids and shall not be permitted to tell the children they get to decide parent-time in the future or that parent-time or custody will be re-evaluated when Daysin turns 15.

vi. If either party disagrees with Bryce's decision, they may take the issue before the court and the court may consider the issues under the same procedural rules, evidentiary rules, and principles as a Rule 101 objection to the commissioner's recommendation where the court will set a hearing to determine whether Bryce's decision shall be affirmed or overturned.

vii. Under no circumstances shall these provisions result in a petition to modify, but neither party is waiving their right to file a petition to modify based on other circumstances not considered herein. The parties specifically intend this process to avoid the financial and emotional stress to themselves and the children of litigation.

PARENTING PLAN

9. The parties have two (2) minor children together. Namely: D.R.J, born 5/28/2012 (13 yrs), and K.D.J., born 9/16/2014 (11 yrs).

10. Holidays: The parties shall exercise holiday parent-time as they may agree, but in the event that they do not agree, holiday parent-time shall be in accordance with Utah Code §81-9-303, with Randi being designated as the custodial parent and Brian being designated as the non-custodial parent for the sole purpose of applying the holiday rotation.

11. GENERAL PRINCIPLES.

a. Court Orders Govern: The parties recognize they must follow the Decree and other applicable court orders in this case and that neither party gets to make their own rules at any point.

b. Speaking Positively about the Other Parent: The parties acknowledge that speaking negatively of the other parent only harms and confuses the children. The children view themselves as half of each parent. Therefore, the parties will speak well of the other parent in front of the children. The parties will not malign or speak negatively of the other parent to the children, nor will they speak negatively of the other parent to any third party where there is any risk of the children hearing what is being said. Children do not need to hear about character flaws of the other parent.

c. The Children are Not Tools for Discovery: The Parents shall not question the children about each other's personal relationships, financial spending, or otherwise use the children as tools for discovery.

d. The Children are Not Counselors: The Parents shall not use the children as confidantes to counsel with about their own personal problems, especially if the problem is related to the other parent.

e. The Children are Not Messengers: The parties shall not use the children as messengers. Any issues that need to be discussed must be discussed between the parties outside the presence of the children.

f. Maintaining Similar Schedules: The parties should try to maintain similar schedules for the children in order to create continuity for them, including mealtimes, homework schedules, bedtimes, curfews, and other routines. Similarly, the parties shall ensure that they provide as much or more emotional support, time, and affection to the children as they were used to prior to the commencement of this case.

g. Maintaining Similar Methods of Discipline: The parties should try to maintain similar styles of discipline for the children so as to allow the children predictability.

h. Exposure to Media: Neither party shall expose the children to media that is inappropriate for them.

i. Advisory Guidelines: The Advisory Guidelines of Utah Code §81-9-202 shall be binding upon the parties.

12. COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION.

j. Communication with the Children: Both parties shall be entitled to reasonable, uninterrupted and unmonitored telephone, virtual, text, or other reasonable contact with the minor children at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations (which shall be based upon the children's abilities, interests, schedules, and willingness to participate) while the other party is exercising parent-time with the children. Similarly, each party shall enjoy unmonitored mail and email contact with the children. The children are permitted to freely reach out to either parent at reasonable times whenever they choose. If either parent takes the children's phones for disciplinary reasons, they shall inform the children of another accessible method they can use to contact the other parent. Similarly, they shall inform the other parent of the reason for taking away the phone(s) and the alternate method of communication.

k. Communication Between Parents: Communication about adult issues shall occur between the parties only. This means that in the event that one or both of the parties marries or finds a significant other, the parties will continue to communicate and make decisions with one another and not communicate or conduct decision-making instead through their spouse, a significant other, or any other third party. Similarly, the parties shall not include their spouse, significant other, or a third party in the discussions or decisions between the parties about the children. Communication between co-parents shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive.

l. Using a Co-Parenting App: The parties shall communicate through an agreed-to co-parenting application. Presently, the parties agree to try App Close. If they cannot agree on a co-parenting app or encounter a disagreement regarding the ongoing use of a co-parenting application, then Randi shall send Brian three co-parenting apps to choose from, and Brian shall choose one of those three. The parties shall use the features of the co-parenting app whenever possible, including calendaring events, making requests, documenting payments and receipts, and communicating with each other about the children.

m. Response Time and Frequency of Communication: When a parent receives communication from the other, they shall make every effort to respond in a timely manner. Generally, a response should occur within 24 hours. However, the parties shall not be overbearing in the length or frequency of their messages. They shall only communicate with each other, when necessary, communications shall be focused on the children, and they shall avoid pettiness and disputes, understanding that sometimes messages can be read in a negative tone or manner that was not intended by the other parent.

n. Relationships with the Children's Support Personnel: Each parent is responsible for creating their own relationships with the children's teachers, doctors, coaches and friends, and shall not rely on the other parent's relationship with these individuals. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools or other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches or leaders of extra-curricular activities, and other contact information that allows the other parent to fulfill this provision. However, the parties shall freely exchange information pertinent to the children consistent with this Parenting Plan, or when asked by the other parent.

o. Children's Illnesses or Injury: The parties shall notify the other parent immediately in the event of a medical emergency, injury to a child, or when the children are ill. The parties shall not use the children's illnesses or injury as excuses to interfere with parent-time. Both parents are competent to care for the children during illness or injury. The parties will give details on medication for the children and any dosages necessary. Each party shall administer routine medications and medications commonly used for typical illnesses (such as colds, flu, or other typical illnesses) in accordance with medical or professional instructions. For non-routine medications (including, but not limited to things like initiating ADHD medication), if a dispute arises regarding such administration, the parties shall consult with the child's medical provider, and if there is still disagreement it shall be addressed through the dispute resolution process outlined above.

p. Access to Information: Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all educational and medical records of the children. Each party shall be listed as a parent and the primary emergency contacts on the children's school, medical, extracurricular, religious, and all other records. Each party shall provide the other with the name and phone number of any adult providing surrogate care or transporting the children. If the children have an overnight with a friend or family member, the other party must be provided with the name and contact information of the known adults in the household. The parent being informed shall not make contact with the adults residing in the home unless they have a reasonable belief that the children are in danger and contact is immediately necessary.

13. ACTIVITIES & APPOINTMENTS

q. Attending the Child's Activities: Both parties have the right to know about all school, religious, and extra-curricular activities of the children, as well as medical or dental appointments of any kind, regardless of whether such activities or appointments occur during their parent-time schedule. Each party has an obligation to ensure the other parent is aware of any such activity or appointment. Both parties shall have the right to attend all events for the children, regardless of whether or not it is during their own parent-time. For doctor appointments, if it is a routine appointment, only the party exercising their parent-time shall attend, unless the parties agree otherwise. If there is a non-routine appointment, both parents shall be notified and permitted to attend.

r. Calendering Activities & Appointments: The parties shall use a shared calendar (i.e. the calendar in the coparenting app if it has one, Google Calendar, etc.) to track the children's school, religious, extra-curricular, or any other activity parents typically attend, as well as the children's doctor, dental, or other similar appointments. These events shall be calendared by the parent within 24 hours of receiving notice. The parties shall agree on which shared calendar to use. If they cannot agree on a shared calendar or encounter a disagreement regarding the ongoing use of a shared calendar, then Randi shall send Brian three calendaring options to choose from, and Brian shall choose one of those three.

s. Children's Attendance at Special Events: The parties shall make reasonable efforts for the children to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies). The party requesting an accommodation shall provide options for make-up parent-time with their request so the other parent does not lose parent-time.

t. Listening to the Children's Interests Regarding Activities: It is both parents' responsibility to ensure that the children have the opportunity to be exposed to many good activities. Where either parent withholds exposure because they don't want to lose their children to such activities, it is ultimately the children who lose. Therefore, both parents will cooperate and strongly consider the children's wishes and desires regarding the activities the children would like to participate in. Both parties recognize that the activities the children are involved in must be comfortable for the children and that the parent's preferences, interests, and needs are inferior. The children shall each be able to participate in at least one extracurricular activity per season.

u. Unilateral Enrollment of the Children in Activities: Either parent can enroll the children in activities that do not require involvement of the other parent. By doing so, the parties recognize the other parent will not be sharing the cost and the activity shall not interfere with their parent-time.

v. Homework: Both parties shall help the children complete any homework the children have received during their parent-time.

14. TRANSPORTATION, TRAVEL, AND LOCAL RELOCATION.

w. Pick Up and Drop Off: Exchanges shall take place at school whenever possible. When school exchanges are not possible, or when school is not in session, the parties shall exchange the children at a mutually agreeable location that is equidistant between their two residences—currently, that is Country Corner Gas Station, 4678 W. 1150 S. St., Ogden, Utah 84404. The parties shall make every effort to be on time for parent-time exchanges; on the rare occasions they are going to be late, they shall let the other party know in advance.

x. Importance of Being On Time: The parties recognize and understand that the other parent has plans, schedules, and other constraints on their time. Each party shall be considerate of this by demonstrating routine timeliness. If a party is more than thirty (30) minutes late to a scheduled parent-time exchange, that party shall forfeit the parent-time for that day. The forfeiture shall apply only to that day. The next exchange shall occur the following day after school or at 9:00 a.m. if the parent-time involves multiple consecutive overnights. If a party is more than thirty (30) minutes late on two (2) consecutive scheduled exchanges, then beginning with the next scheduled exchange, that party shall be deemed late if more than fifteen (15) minutes late to any parent-time exchange. The fifteen (15) minute standard shall remain in effect thereafter.

y. Behavior During Parent-Time Exchanges: Parents shall keep communications positive during parent-time exchanges. The parents recognize that it is healthy for the children to see their parents have positive interactions with each other. Parent-time exchanges should be brief and without fanfare or drama. Parent-time exchanges are not the place to resolve disputes or discuss substantive issues regarding the children, regardless of whether the children can hear the conversation.

z. Traveling with the Children: The parties shall follow §81-9-202(19) of the Utah Code in regards to travel and vacations with the children. Namely, whenever the children travel with either parent, all of the following will be provided to the other parent: (a) an itinerary of travel dates; (b) destinations; (c) places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location. When travelling, the parent will make reasonable efforts to facilitate communication with the other parent. If the children require passports for travel, both parties will assist in obtaining such passports.

aa. Change of Contact Information: The parties shall provide one another with current contact information within 24 hours of any local change of address, a new telephone number, or new email address.

15. MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

bb. Communication: Both parties shall be prohibited from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party. This includes, but is not limited to, (a) insulting the other parent, pointing out the other parent's weaknesses or flaws, or speaking derogatorily about the other parent in the presence of the children or anywhere near the children's presence; (b) speaking to the children about the issues in this case; (c) attempting to influence the children's preferences regarding custody or visitation; (d) or attempting to diminish the love and affection of the children for the other parent or the other parent's family members.

cc. Harassment: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party, or from committing any domestic violence or abuse against the other party.

dd. Drugs and Alcohol: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from using illicit drugs, prescription drugs except as prescribed, or drinking alcohol to the point of intoxication during the exercise of parent-time. Furthermore, neither party may expose the children to meetings, hangouts, parties, etc. where third parties are consuming drugs or alcohol to the point of intoxication.

ee. Physical Presence: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from driving by one another's residences except for a purpose outlined under this Decree, entering one another's residences, or coming onto the property of one another's residences without express permission.

ff. Third Parties: Both parties shall be mutually restrained from inducing or allowing a third party to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing under this Parenting Plan and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from committing such violations, or shall remove the children from such circumstances. Each party shall control their own extended family and ensure that their conduct and behavior around the children are consistent with these terms.

16. SIGNIFICANT OTHERS

gg. The parties understand that it can be detrimental to the children to introduce them to multiple significant others. The parties shall not introduce the children to their significant others until appropriate, and until they have established a committed relationship with such significant other. Significant others are not parents and shall not assume any role in the parenting of or the discussing of the children with the other parent.

RELOCATION

17. If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent they must follow all provisions outlined in Utah Code §81-9-209.

CHILD SUPPORT

18. The parties should be ordered to pay child support as calculated and determined pursuant to the Uniform Child Support Guidelines and the laws of the State of Utah.

19. At present, Randi is employed earning $28.19 per hour, working 40 hours per week, and has a gross monthly income of $4,886.00.

20. At present, Brian is employed earning $30.00 per hour, working 40 hours per week, and has a gross monthly income of $5,200.00.

21. Brian's child support obligation shall be $569.00 per month, based on a joint custody calculator with Randi having 220 overnights each year and Brian having 145 overnights each year.

22. Child support shall commence December 1, 2025.

23. When support terminates for one child, the child support for any remaining child shall be recalculated pursuant to the child support guidelines and shall automatically adjust without further order of this court.

24. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-211, there shall be an automatic reduction for extended parent-time.

25. The parties shall have the right to adjust child support depending on substantial changes in circumstances, including increases or decreases in either party's incomes, as is set forth in Utah Code §81-6-202.

26. Unless the court orders otherwise, support for a child shall terminate at the time: (1) the child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code §78A-6-801.

27. Collection by ORS: Income withholding procedures shall be implemented and all child support, along with Brian's portion of the monthly health care premium for the minor children, should be collected by the Office of Recovery Services pursuant to Utah Code §62A-11-401 et seq.

28. Back Child Support: Pursuant to the Temporary Order, Brian was obligated to pay $166 per month in child support from February 1, 2024 to present (22 months). For 9 months, Brian's child support obligation was $166 per month ($$166 * 9 \text{ months} = $1,494$). For 13 months, Brian's child support obligation was $874 ($$874 * 13 \text{ months} = $11,362$). Accordingly, Brian owes Randi $12,856 in in back child. He shall pay this within 18 months.

MEDICAL EXPENSES & INSURANCE COVERAGE

29. Randi currently carries health insurance for the minor children. Randi will continue to provide health insurance for the benefit of the minor children so long as it is available at a reasonable cost through their employer.

30. Each party shall pay one-half of the out-of-pocket cost of the medical, dental and orthodontic insurance premium or costs actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of the medical and dental insurance as provided in Utah Code §81-6-208. If the parties each cover the children with insurance coverage and incur an actual cost for such insurance, they shall each pay their own insurance premiums and contribute nothing to the other.

31. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208(9), at any time when the parties are sharing the cost of a health insurance premium, the children's portion of the premium is a per capita share calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in coverage.

32. Both parents shall share equally in all routine medical and dental expenses actually paid, whether covered or only partially covered by insurance (including but not limited to one-half of expenses for copays, prescriptions, surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, therapy, physical therapy, ophthalmology, optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes or asthma, etc.) as well as other reasonably necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses of the minor children, in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

33. The party incurring a healthcare expense on behalf of the parties' minor children shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email.

34. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

35. A parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to provide the above verification within the thirty day time period.

36. Pursuant to Utah Code § 15-4-6.7 and §81-4-406, when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child, a creditor who has been provided with a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Therefore, the parties shall cooperate in providing a copy of this Decree to any creditors, notify the creditors of their current address, and inform the creditor that they cannot make a claim for unpaid medical expenses or make a negative report against a party who has paid their one-half share of the children's medical expenses.

37. Randi and Brian shall cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses.

38. The parent who maintains health insurance shall provide verification of the coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the children, and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year.

39. The parent who maintains insurance shall provide written notice to the other parent of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) days of any change.

CHILDCARE

40. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209, the parties shall share equally the actually-incurred, reasonable work-related childcare expenses performed by a childcare provider.

41. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-209(2)(a), if a party incurs a childcare expense for the parties' minor children, they shall provide written verification of the childcare provider and the cost and payment of the childcare expense to the other parent within thirty (30) days of incurring such expense. If written verification of the cost and identity of the provider are not provided within 30 calendar days, the party incurring childcare expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other party's share of the expenses. Written verification may be sent by text message or email.

42. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving notice to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES AND SCHOOL EXPENSES

43. The parties shall pay one-half of any and all school expenses and reasonable extracurricular activities. Both parties must agree in writing to the extracurricular activities for it to be subject to reimbursement. Written verification may be sent by text message or email. The party incurring a school or extracurricular expense on behalf of the parties' minor children shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of the payment. Written verification may be sent via text message or email. The other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving written verification to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

ARREARS

44. Brian shall pay Randi a sum of $2,144.00 to resolve back medical expenses, insurance premiums, and attorney fees entered by the court at the parties' Statement of Discovery Issues hearing.

TAXES

45. Randi shall claim the oldest child and the Brian shall claim the youngest child each year for tax purposes. When the oldest child can no longer be claimed for tax purposes, the parties shall rotate claiming the youngest child with Randi claiming on even numbered years and Brian claiming on odd numbered years. The parties shall cooperate and ensure that any stimulus payments, advance child tax credits, or other payments associated with the child they are claiming for tax purposes in a given year is given to the intended parent, regardless of which address the money is sent to or what bank account it is deposited in.

46. If either party is not current on their children support or other obligations, they shall not be entitled to claim the exemption.

MISCELLANEOUS

47. Cooperation: Randi and Brian should cooperate with each other, through counsel or otherwise, to effect change in titles to property agreed to be divided herein, to change the names and responsibilities for payment upon the charge accounts and other debts divided herein, and to cooperate in each and every other way necessary or proper to insure that the Decree of Custody, Parent-time, and Support is carried out in every detail.

48. Documents: Each party should be ordered to sign all necessary documents, deeds, or conveyances as are needed to transfer property, vehicles or other assets as divided by the Decree of Custody, Parent-time, and Support. Each party should execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Custody, Parent-time, and Support entered by this court.

49. Attorney Fees and Costs: The parties shall each be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.

50. Mediation: The parties understand that future modifications to this agreement may become necessary in the future and that prior to filing any petition to modify the parties are required to first attempt in good faith to reach an agreement concerning their issues through a court approved mediator.

END OF ORDER**

ORDER BECOMES EFFECTIVE ON THE DATE OF THE ELECTRONICALLY ADDED SIGNATURE AND SEAL AT THE TOP RIGHT-HAND CORNER OF PAGE ONE.

Approved as to Form and Content:

/s/ Jacob Cowdin (signed electronically with permission via email dated 04/28/2026)
Jacob Cowdin
Attorney for Brian Jones

Approved as to Form and Content:

/s/ Bryce Froerer (signed electronically with permission via email dated 03/27/2026)
Bryce Froerer
Guardian ad Litem

CERTIFICATE OF DELIVERY

I hereby certify that on this 28th day of April, 2026, I served a true and correct copy of the foregoing to the following via e-file:

Jacob Cowdin
jake@cowdingatewood.com

Bryce Froerer
bmfroerer@froererandmiles.com

/s/ Lizette Rodriguez