IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

KAYELYNN SEDERHOLM
Petitioner,

Judge HALL

Commissioner RICHARDS

JASON SEDERHOLM
Respondent.

WHEREFORE the Court has reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law,

Stipulation on Divorce and Custody, and previous pleadings submitted to the Court. Based thereon, it is hereby ordered, adjudged, and decreed as follows:

- 1) JURISDICTION: That Kayelynn was for more than three (3) months prior to filing this action an actual and bona fide resident of Weber County, State of Utah.
- 2) Kayelynn and Jason were married on the 14th day of September, 2002, in Riverdale, Utah.
- 3) GROUND: During the course of the marriage, the parties have experienced differences which cannot be reconciled that make continuation of the marriage impossible. The parties shall be granted a divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences to become absolute and final upon entry of divorce.

4) The parties were separated in October 2025.

5) CUSTODY & SUPPORT: There were three (3) children born as issue of this marriage and currently one child under the age of 18 to wit; A.R.S. dob 07/06/2009.

6) Kayelynn and Jason are fit and proper to be awarded joint legal custody of the minor child. The parties shall discuss all major issues regarding the child with one another. If there is no agreement after discussion, the parties shall look to a professional in the field (i.e. child's doctor on medical issue) and discuss again strongly favoring the professional's opinion. If there is still no agreement, the parties may elect to mediate. If no agreement at mediation, Kayelynn shall then have presumptive decision-making authority with Jason having the right to object to the Court.

7) Kayelynn and Jason shall be awarded joint physical custody of the minor daughter with Kayelynn's residence designated as the child's primary residence. The parties will work together to determine the best parent-time schedule that works for the parties and the minor child. The parties will allow the minor child to have say in her parent-time schedule and both parents will be flexible with time and overnights given the age and maturity of the child.

8) The parties shall exercise holidays as they can agree upon in writing and considering the minor daughter's preference, but if there is no agreement the parties shall follow U.C.A. §81-9-302 with Jason designated as the non-custodial parent for holiday purposes.

9) The parties shall each be awarded two weeks of uninterrupted summer parent-time each year with Jason receiving preference on weeks in odd numbered years and Kayelynn preference in even numbered years. The preference shall apply if the weeks are designated by May 1 of each year. The other party shall designate by May 15 of each year. This designation shall be consistent with U.C.A.§81-9-302.

10) The parties shall incorporate the following parenting plan:

PARENTING PLAN

1. The parties realize that both of them are important to the child; that the child need their active support, and the parents agree to respect each other's role as a parent and their decisions with regards to the child.
2. The parties agree that to have a successful parenting relationship they will need to be flexible with the other parent. The parties shall incorporate U.C.A.§81-9-202 in giving special consideration to make the child available for funerals, weddings, or significant events.
3. The parents understand that the communication between them shall be civil and shall be regarding the health, welfare, education and all other interests of the child.
4. Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child while the child is in the physical custody of that parent.
5. If either parent is going out of state with the child, that parent shall provide to the other the address and telephone number of where the child will be prior to travel taking place.
6. The child shall be allowed reasonable telephone contact as initiated by the child.
7. The parents will use their best efforts to communicate and share information with each other on a frequent basis regarding the child's development, school work, medical and dental treatment, therapy, and regarding other information appropriate to share with the other parent.

8. The parents agree not to place the child in the middle of their communications or conflicts that may arise, if any. They will not probe or question the child regarding the other parent, send messages to the other parent through the child disparage or degrade the other parent in the presence of the child or allow third parties to do so.

9. The parties shall provide 30 days' notice prior to any move out of state or more than 30 miles from the child's current school and 10 days' notice of any relocation within 30 miles of the child's current school.

End of Parenting Plan.

11) CHILD SUPPORT: Jason is currently employed and earns $5,358/month from his full-time position.

12) Kayelynn is currently employed and earns $5,800/month from her full-time position.

13) Child support shall be paid in the amount of $529 per month from Jason to Kayelynn. Child support shall begin as of May 2026 and continue until the last payment of child support is paid in July 2027. At that time the child will be 18 and will have graduated from high school.

14) For back owed child support and insurance regarding the child through April 6, 2026, Jason will pay to Kayelynn the sum of $3,894 to offset all claims. This will be paid at the time of refinance or sale of the property.

15) CHILDCARE: The child is in high school and no child care is needed.

16) MEDICAL: The minor child is currently covered on Kayelynn's insurance. The parties shall equally split the cost of the child's portion of medical, dental, and vision insurance. Currently, that amount is $120.50 for Jason's one-half share of the minor's medical, dental, and vision premium. In the event both parties have medical coverage for the child, the child shall be double covered and the parties shall each pay their own medical premiums costs for the child and Kayelynn's insurance shall be primary.

17) Each parent is to pay for one-half (½) of any deductible or non-covered amounts for such essential medical or dental services or prescriptions related thereto that are not paid by the insurance provider. The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child and thereafter on or before January 2nd of each calendar year, or 30 days after the annual enrollment period. The parent shall notify the other parent or Office of Recovery Services of any change of insurance carrier, premium or benefits within 30 days of the date of the change.

18) A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. The other parent is ordered to make their portion of those payments or make arrangement to do so within thirty (30) days of receipt of the documentation supporting required participation.

19) TAXES: For purpose of taxes the parties will file separate for 2025. Kayelynn shall claim the child for tax year 2025 and year 2026.

20) The parties owe tax debt for tax year 2024. That debt shall be equally split. Kayelynn has paid her full share of the tax debt. Jason is currently making payments with the IRS. As of April 2, 2026, $2,453.93 is still due and owing. Jason is responsible to pay that full amount and will reach out to IRS within 30 days and change the automatic payment account to his account and hold Kayelynn harmless. If the IRS takes any amount of Kayelynn's 2025 taxes for that debt, Jason shall reimburse Kayelynn that amount.

21) REAL PROPERTY: The parties have real property located at 4586 W. 3850 S., in West Haven, Utah. The home shall be listed for sale with an agreed upon realtor within five business days from the time of signing this stipulation. The parties will follow the realtor's advice for listing price, repairs, reductions, counter offers, and acceptance of offers. If there is no agreement to realtor, Kayelynn will choose three and Jason will choose from that list.

22) The parties shall both continue to split the mortgage payment through May 2026. In the event the home hasn't sold and neither party is residing in the home as of June 2026, both parties will continue to split the mortgage payment equally until the home is sold. If Jason is residing in the home, he will pay the full mortgage cost beginning June 2026.

23) Neither party will hinder or delay the sale of the home and the home will be kept in show ready condition.

24) Upon the home selling, the parties shall equally split the net equity. This is the sale proceeds less the mortgage balance, realtor fees/closing costs, reimbursement for necessary repairs that were directed by the realtor, and the remaining is the net equity which is to be equally split.

25) RETIREMENT: The parties shall each be awarded their marital share of retirement. This is one-half of the retirement accrued from date of marriage to the date of divorce. The parties will each provide a current statement, a statement from time of marriage, and a fall 2025 statement within 30 days of entry of divorce. The parties will work together to complete a single QDRO to transfer the amount of retirement needed to equalize the parties marital share sharing the expense of the division. The parties will complete the fewest number of QDRO's possible to divide the retirement.

26) PERSONAL PROPERTY: The parties have acquired personal property during the course of the marriage which shall be equally divided. Kayelynn shall be awarded the Honda Accord. Jason shall be awarded the 2005 GMC Envoy, 2001 F350, and Coachman trailer. The Kia Forte shall be awarded the parties minor daughter Addison and the parties will work to transfer the title to the minor child.

27) All remaining household items shall be equitably divided. The parties will work through the adult child Kimber to divide the property, list it for sale, or determine if it shall be discarded.

28) Each party shall take the accounts in their own names free and clear of claims of the other party.

29) All further property and all property rights which may be vested in either party as a result of family inheritance, trusts, or similar source should be awarded to the party from whose family it came.

30) DEBTS: During the course of the marriage the parties incurred no joint marital debt other than the mortgage which shall be paid at the time of sale. The parties shall take the debts in their own name and hold the other harmless.

31) All other debt shall be paid by the party in whom the debt is listed.

32) Any debts incurred after the date of separation shall be the responsibility of the party incurring the debt.

33) ALIMONY: No alimony shall be awarded past, present, or future.

34) OTHER: Kayelynn shall have her maiden name of Crandall restored should she choose.

35) There is a protective order, Case #264900223. This protective order will be continued until the real property is sold or refinanced, but no later than October 15, 2026 at will be summarily dismissed at that time. The temporary protective order will have the following modifications: parties may communicate through their adult daughter for purpose of dividing personal property and Jason may attend events of the minor child so long as he stays 15 feet from Kayelynn.

36) The following mutual restraining orders shall enter:

a. The parties shall be civil in all communications.

b. The parties shall not threaten, harass, abuse, cause alarm, or harm the other party in any manner. Neither party shall go to the other's place of employment or the other's home unless there is express written permission. Neither will go to places the other is known to frequent. Neither will allow a third party to do what they themselves are restrained from doing.

- c. For the child's events and activities both parties may attend with Jason staying at least 15 feet from Kayelynn at such events.
- d. The parties shall not disparage the other party in the presence of the minor child or allow a third party to do the same.
- e. The parties will only discuss divorce issues in writing or through a third party.
- f. In the event Jason violates the restraints, Kayelynn may reapply for a Protective Order.

37) Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the Court.

38) The parties shall each pay their own attorney fees.
