

K. BRADLEY CARR (14428)
CARR | WOODALL, LLC
Attorney for Doc Prep
1309 W. South Jordan Pkwy,
Suite 200 South Jordan, Utah 84095
Telephone: (801) 254-9450
email: brad@carrwoodall.com

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF WEBER COUNTY, UTAH

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: BRADY OBORN, Petitioner, And, TANIEKA OBORN, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No. 26-4900794 DA Judge Reuben J. Renstrom Commissioner Christina Wilson
--	---

This matter came before the Court on Petitioner's Request to Submit. Good cause appearing, and having previously entered its Findings of Fact, the Court enters the following
DECREE OF DIVORCE:

1. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce on grounds of irreconcilable differences.

Custody and Parent Time

2. The parents will share joint legal custody and joint physical custody of their three minor children.

3. The parties will share parent time as they can agree, if they cannot agree they will have parent time as outlined below:

The parties agree this schedule has Brady at 157 overnights and Tanieka at 208 overnights.

- a. The parties will share holiday time as they can agree, if they cannot agree they will follow the state holiday schedule as outlined in UCA 81-9-302 with Brady receiving the schedule of the non-custodial parent (this distinction is for the holiday schedule only).
- b. Each parent will receive a 2-week period of uninterrupted parent time each summer school break. The parties will share their dates for the uninterrupted 2-weeks with the other parent by May 1st of each year. If there is a conflict on the dates, Brady receives the preference of dates in even numbered years and Tanieka receives the preference of dates in odd numbered years.

Medical Costs

4. Tanieka will provide and pay for medical insurance for the children. If, at any point in time, minor children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Tanieka should be primary coverage for minor children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Brady should be secondary coverage for minor children. If the minor children are not covered by a parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by another member of the parent's household, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the member of the household should be treated as if it is the plan of the parent and should retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of minor children.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Brady	Brady	Tanieka	Tanieka	Tanieka	Brady	Brady
Brady	Brady	Tanieka	Tanieka	Tanieka	Tanieka	Tanieka

5. The parties are each responsible for one-half of the out-of-pocket medical/dental/vision costs for the children, except that Tanieka will be responsible for the health insurance premiums.

Child Care

6. Brady will pay for 100% of the child care costs for the children.

Education Costs

7. The parties will share equally the public school costs for the children.

Extracurricular Activities

8. The parties will not sign the children up for any extracurricular activity without talking about the activity with the other parent first. If the parties agree on an activity in writing, they will each pay 1/2 the costs for the activity and ensure the children attend the activity during their parent time.

9. If one parent signs the children up for any activity without agreement of the other, the parent signing the children up bears 100% of the cost for that activity and the other parent is not required to make the children available for the activity during their parent time.

Child Support

10. Child support in this case is calculated on the joint custody calculator with Brady earning $3,100.00 gross monthly and 157 overnights and Tanieka earning $3,150.00 gross monthly and 208 overnights per year. Brady will pay Tanieka $326.00 each month in child support starting the first month after the marital home is sold. Child support is due 1/2 on the 5th and 1/2 on the 20th of each month.

Parenting Plan Provisions

Communication

11. Communication between the parties shall be by phone, via text or email (or agreed upon co-parenting app) and only concerning the children, unless there is an emergency or time necessitates. Communication shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive.

12. Neither party should ask or attempt in any way to have the children transfer messages between the Parties, whether verbal or written. The Parties should contact each other directly via text message or phone to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and should not involve the children.

13. Communication should be between the Parties and not through third parties unless both Parties mutually agree otherwise.

Respect and Cooperation

14. Both Parties recognize that the best interests of the children require the Parties to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the children. Both parents should use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships with the children by encouraging affection and promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent. In addition:

- a. Neither parent should attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the children in any form. Neither parent should make or allow another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other person or the other person's spouse or significant other in the presence of or within earshot of the children, including making posts on social media.
- b. The parents should cooperate and include each other as to their children's health care, schooling, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and should notify each other of their children's regular activities so that they may participate; and
- c. The parents should not involve the children in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other.

15. The Parties should have a co-parenting relationship that is built on trust and respect;

- a. The Parties should establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the children's needs;
- b. The Parties should listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view.
- c. The Parties should make all attempts to resolve all conflict between them and should utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they are unsuccessful personally;
- d. The Parties should support each other in their respective parenting roles and should use positive words about the other parent and the other parent's partner or spouse to the children, and should be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent, for the purpose of the children developing good self-esteem;
- e. The Parties should solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;
- f. If tension arises in a communication, the Parties should take a break from the communication or move the communication to email or through a co-parent app;
- g. The Parties should work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas.

- h. The Parties should live by the golden rule that they should treat each other as they would like to be treated;
- i. The Parties should start over and recommit to this Parenting Plan when one or both of them steps outside of this plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and
- j. The Parties should see the other parent as a resource, consultant, and ally. The Parties should effectively work together as co-parents to promote the best interest of the children.

Contact Information

16. Each party will keep the other informed as to changes in residential addresses; home, and cell phone numbers; email addresses, and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency. Notification should be given within 24 hours of any change.

Extended Overnight Trips

17. Both Parties will notify the other whenever either party intends to take the children on any overnight trip that exceeds 2 nights away from their residence, and provide the other party with a travel itinerary.

Activities, Events, and Information

18. Both Parties should be entitled to participate in all social and school functions their children attend. Each party should be entitled to know about all important events in a child's life, including the right to have relationships with and access to third parties and information having to do with the children. This shall include health care providers and educators as well as medical and school records.

Non-Interference with Parent-Time

19. The Parties should never schedule or promote to a child any special events or activities occurring during the other party's parent-time without first obtaining permission from that party. The requesting party should notify the other party of the event or activity and discuss with them the benefits of a child's attendance prior to discussing it with the child. If the other party has something scheduled or decides that the child cannot participate in the event or activity for any reason, the requesting party should abide by that decision and not attempt to influence the other parent through the child.

20. Neither parent should attempt to restrain or control the activities of a child during the other parent's parent-time.

Relatives

21. Each party shall make reasonable efforts for the minor children to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies).

Transportation

22. The parties will share the responsibility for the transportation of the children for parent time. If the parties cannot agree, the parent who is starting their parent time is responsible to pick up the children as their time begins.

Virtual Parent-Time

23. Both parents should allow liberal telephone and other virtual communication (e.g. FaceTime, etc.) with the other parent and should encourage the children to call the other parent.

24. Each parent should allow the minor children to contact the other parent at any time the minor children desires to have telephone or virtual contact.

25. Each party should have the right to contact the children at reasonable times and for reasonable durations (based upon the child's age, maturity, interests, schedule, etc to participate).

26. These calls should not be unreasonably denied by the parent who has the children, as long they do not conflict with existing plans or scheduled events, or interfere with the children's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

Relocation of a Parent

27. The parties shall follow the notification provisions of Utah Code Ann §81-9-209, if a party intends to seek a relocation more than 25 miles from their current residence. Neither party may relocate outside the state of Utah with the children until the children have graduated from high school, the parties mutually agree in writing, or pursuant to a court order.

Procedure for Joint Decision-Making

28. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues in raising the children and in meeting their ongoing needs in the areas of education, medical care, mental health care, religious upbringing, and any significant modifications to the children's appearance. If and when they arise, the parents shall address the issues. Each parent shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other and respond to one another within 24 hours of any message being sent. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, the parties may further elect to seek input from treating physicians or educators. Both parents shall be provided with such input. If the parties are unable to agree after meeting with an expert in the field, the parties will attend mediation, with each party paying 1/2 the cost. If the parents cannot agree after attending mediation either parent may seek intervention by the court.

29. The parents agree they will not speak disparagingly about the other parent to or in the presence of the children and will further remove the children from the presence of any third party doing the same.

Taxes

30. The parties will file their 2025 taxes jointly and equally share any refund.

31. Beginning with the 2026 tax year and continuing thereafter, Brady will claim R.O. on his taxes each year and Tanieka will claim the other two children on her tax return each year.

Real Property

32. The parties will list their marital home for sale and when sold they will each receive 1/2 of the proceeds from the sale.

Debt

33. Tanieka is responsible for the credit card debt of approximately $4,200.00.

- a. Each party will be responsible for any debt in their own name except as outlined herein.

Personal Property

34. The parties will divide their personal property as they can agree, if they cannot agree they will return to mediation.

- a. Brady is awarded the Ford F-150 and Jeep Liberty subject to any loan on the vehicles.
- b. Tanieka is awarded the Dodge Caravan subject to any debt on the vehicle.

Financial & Retirement Accounts

35. The parties are each awarded any bank accounts in their own name.

36. The parties are each awarded any retirement based financial accounts in their own name.

Alimony

37. The parties are each capable of providing for themselves, there will be no alimony ordered in this case.

Name Change

38. Tanieka may be restored to her maiden name of "Goodrum" if she so chooses.

---END OF ORDER. SIGNATURE APPEARS AT TOP OF FIRST PAGE---

Approved to Form:

/s/ Tanieka Oborn

By Brad Carr with permission from Tanieka Oborn via email

/s/ Brady Oborn

By Brad Carr with permission from Brady Oborn via email