4. I say the following:

- a. There are no custody, child support or parent-time cases about Kaylee Rae Smellie and Carson David Smellie's minor children in any court or government agency. This includes filed, pending, and completed cases.
- b. Kaylee Rae Smellie does not know of any criminal, delinquency, or protective order cases involving Kaylee Rae Smellie, Carson David Smellie, or their children.
- c. Kaylee Rae Smellie and Carson David Smellie have physical custody of Calvin Erich David Smellie, our child. We are the only people who have custody, child support, and parent-time rights to Calvin Erich David Smellie.

Children – custody

It is in the children's best interest that Petitioner be awarded sole legal and sole physical custody. Respondent will have parent-time at reasonable times and places.

Decision-making

Petitioner will make decisions about the following: education, health care and religious upbringing.

Records and information sharing

Petitioner will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care and health care.

Children – parent time

Kaylee Rae Smellie and Carson David Smellie have agreed to the following parent-time schedule: My husband whom I have separated from has decided to give all right to my son, Calvin's biological father. Therefore he will have no custody over Calvin..

Kaylee Rae Smellie and Carson David Smellie have agreed to the following schedule for special occasions and holidays: None.

Changing the plan

5. This plan remains in effect until changed. A change must be agreed to by both parents and must be in writing.

Resolving disputes

6. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will try to resolve them with a professional or specialist before bringing the issue to court.

Income (Utah Code 78B-12-203)

7. Petitioner's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $ 2000.00. Petitioner is employed at Kids Zone Childcare and Preschool 6351 w 4425 s , hooper, UT 84315.
8. Respondent's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $ 0.00.

Child support (Utah Code 78B-12-202 et seq.)

9. Child support will be paid as follows:
0.00 per month base support.
10. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.
11. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.
 - a. The parties can ask to change this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if:
 - i. There's a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines,
 - ii. The difference is not temporary, and
 - iii. The amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines (Utah Code 78-B-12-210(8)).

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62-A-11-306.2).

12. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:
 - a. Custody;
 - b. The relative wealth or assets of the parties;
 - c. Income of a parent of 30% or more;
 - d. The employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
 - e. The medical needs of the child; or
 - f. The legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others. (Utah Code 78-B-12-210(7) and (9)).

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines. The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 78B-12-210(7)).

Dependent children for tax purposes

Petitioner should be entitled to claim the minor child Calvin Erich David Smellie as a dependent on tax returns.

 - a. Petitioner will pay out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
 - b. Petitioner will pay all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
 - c. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
 - d. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
 - e. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
 - f. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 78B-12-214)

14. Petitioner will pay for all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.
 - a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identify of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.
 - b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.
 - c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
15. Each party should attend and complete the course entitled Divorce Education for Parents, as required by law. Information and court schedules may be obtained through the Clerk of the District Court.

Public assistance statement - Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 78B-12-113)

16. Petitioner has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah. ORS may join the case as a party. Petitioner has given ORS the right to collect child support accrued during the time [he/she] was receiving public assistance.

Personal Property (Utah Code 30-3-5)

17. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Debts

The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt will be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Real Property

The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

Alimony

Neither party will pay alimony.

Retirement money

18. The parties have no interest in any retirement money which is marital property, and do not need a court order about retirement money.

Duty to sign documents

19. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from the entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
