

The Order of the Court is stated below:

Dated: June 22, 2026
08:31:29 PM

/s/ H. CRAIG HALL
District Court Judge

1BRYCE M. FROERER (#6876)
FROERER & MILES, P.C.
Attorney for Petitioner
2661 Washington Blvd, Suite 201
Ogden, UT 84401
Telephone: (801) 621-2690
Facsimile: (801) 621-2693
bmfroerer@froererandmiles.com

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE:
--	--

BRANDON MORRISON,
---------------------------------	--

Petitioner,
---------------------------	--

and
-------------------	--

JESSICA MORRISON,
---------------------------------	--

Respondent.
---------------------------	--

DECREE OF DIVORCE
--

CASE NO.: 264700750

JUDGE: Craig Hall

COMMISSIONER: Brandon Richards
--

IN THE ABOVE-ENTITLED MATTER, the parties signed a Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement resolving all divorce related issues.

The Court being fully advised in the premises, by virtue of the law and premises and in accordance with the Facts found and Conclusions of Law aforesaid, on motion for Bryce M. Froerer, Esq. and in accordance with the Stipulation of the parties on file herein, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

DIVORCE

That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between Petitioner and Respondent be, and they are hereby, dissolved and the parties be, and they are hereby, restored to the status of unmarried persons, the same to become final upon entry.

CUSTODY, PARENT TIME, AND CHILD SUPPORT

That it is in the best interests of the children that the parties are hereby awarded joint legal custody.

That the parties are hereby awarded joint physical custody of their minor children.

The townhome, and obligations under the lease are Petitioner's to take care of. Where both parties are currently residing in the home, the Respondent is ordered to pay $300 per month toward the lease and utilities. The Respondent may remain in the town home subject to Petitioner's agreement and approval. If Petitioner chooses to have Respondent vacate the property, he may do so.

It is hereby ordered that Petitioner's residence shall be designated as the children's primary residence.

It is hereby ordered that the parties' parent-time shall occur as the parties may mutually agree. However, if the parties are unable to agree, Respondent's parent-time shall follow Utah Code § 81-9-302 during the school year, including every other weekend and one midweek visit. A copy of that schedule/Statute is attached hereto and incorporated herein by Reference as Attachment 1.

The Parent time during the summer shall be on a week on/week off parent time during the summer, starting the first week after school ends.

That the parties are ordered to follow U.C.A 81-9-303 for the holiday parent time with Petitioner designated as the custodial parent for holiday purposes only. A copy of that schedule/statute is attached hereto and incorporated herein by Reference as Attachment 2.

That the parties are ordered to equally share any school lunches, school fees, and extracurricular activities as are agreed to in writing.

Neither party is ordered to pay child support to the other.

The parties anticipate that they will continue to reside in the same residence following entry of the Decree of Divorce. The parties earn similar incomes, and share custody of the minor children.

It is hereby ordered that the minor children shall not leave the State of Utah without the written consent of both parties.

If either parent agrees to allow the children to travel outside the state of Utah, the traveling parent is hereby ordered to provide the other parent with an itinerary of the children's travel plans, including but not limited to, the addresses where the children will be staying, contact information for responsible third parties who are aware of the children's location, flight information, hotel information, and contact information for any individuals with whom the children will be staying.

PARENTING PLAN

That the parties are ordered to adopt the following Parenting Plan:

It is important that the children have a meaningful, loving, caring, nurturing and positive relationship with each parent.

Each party will treat the other with respect, and use his or her best efforts to encourage and foster a mutually-loving and bonded relationship between the parent and the children.

The parties will respect the children's right to have a meaningful bond with each parent, grandparents and other relatives.

As the children's self-esteem is affected by having a positive perception of both parents, the parties will say only positive things about the other parent in the children's presence, emphasizing parental strengths as much as possible, and both parties will refrain from the following and will prevent others from doing so as well: making any disparaging, derogatory, unkind, or demeaning remarks regarding the other in the presence of the children; from vilifying the other parent or saying anything that would cast the other parent in a negative light in the presence of the children; and from doing anything that might impair the parent-children relationship.

Both parties are restrained from discussing with the children issues about court, visitation or parent-time, legal issues stemming from the divorce, or from allowing the children to read any documents pertaining to those issues.

The parties will establish and maintain good communication and a cooperative relationship regarding the children and promptly return telephone calls regarding the children.

The parties will share information and complaints in a factual and respectful manner.

The parties will conduct their communications in a business-like manner without assuming intent, placing blame, or disputing an event that occurred in the past, and should keep their communications productive. If the meetings or communications become heated or overly emotional, the parties will end the discussion and reschedule it for a different time.

The parties will not use the children as messengers between them for any purpose whatsoever.

The parties will use their best efforts to communicate and share information regarding the children and keep the other apprised of the events of the children's life.

Each party will timely inform the other, within not more than 24 hours of receiving notice, of all community, school, athletic, church activities, or other community functions in which the children are or may be participating, or will be honored, so as to allow both parents the opportunity to attend and participate fully.

Both parents are entitled to reasonably participate as a parent in the lives of the children.

The parties will advise and exchange information with each other concerning social, religious training, education, health, welfare and medical treatment of the children and, where possible, consult with and consider the other parent's input.

Both parties will advise and reasonably consult with each other about non-emergency medical decisions, major or significant decisions that affect the welfare, social, religious training, and education of the children and reasonably consider the other parent's input.

Either parent may make emergency medical decisions regarding the safety of the children.

Each party will notify the other party immediately of any health care emergency regarding the children.

Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the children will be made by the parent with whom the children are with at the time.

Both parents will have direct access to the children's school records, including pre-school, day care and medical records.

Each parent will provide the other with their current address, telephone number, e-mail address, and any other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

Each parent will permit and encourage the children to have liberal and uncensored communication with the other parent during reasonable hours and for reasonable durations in the form of telephone, mail, and e-mail.

The parties will cooperate regarding special family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays and activities and other significant events in the children's lives or the life of the parent.

The parties will have the children ready for parent time exchanges and will be on time. If a party is going to be late either to pick up or deliver the children, he or she will make contact with the other party to advise of the same.

Both parties will protect the children from exposure to inappropriate sexual material, illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco as such influences are not in the children's best interests.

The parents will discuss discipline problems and reach a consensus whenever possible on parenting strategies as consistent patterns of discipline and reward will allow the children to feel more secure with both parents.

The parties will be courteous and respectful during parent-time exchanges; the parties will not discuss any financial issue or other significant issue during parent-time exchanges.

The parties will each have the responsibility during their own parenting times to ensure the children's hygiene and cleanliness, including going to and from exchanges in clean clothing.

For emergency purposes, whenever the children travel with either party, all of the following will be provided to the other party: an itinerary of travel dates; destinations; places where the children can be reached; and the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

In the event of a dispute concerning the children or any matter addressed in this Parenting Plan, the parties shall first confer in good faith to attempt to resolve the issue between themselves. If the parties are unable to reach a mutual agreement, they shall seek guidance from a qualified professional with expertise relevant to the dispute. If the matter remains unresolved, the parties shall participate in mediation. In the event mediation is unsuccessful, either party shall have the right to seek court intervention, wherein the court shall decide the outcome of the dispute and may award costs and attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

If either party fails to comply with a provision of this parenting plan, the other parent's obligations hereunder are not affected.

MEDICAL EXPENSES

The Respondent has health insurance available through her employment at a reasonable cost; therefore, she is hereby ordered to maintain medical insurance coverage for the minor children. The Respondent is ordered to be solely responsible for the health insurance premiums paid on behalf of the minor children.

The parties are ordered to equally all out-of-pocket costs, including deductibles, co-pays, and medical and dental expenses not covered by insurance, and shall comply with the provisions outlined in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-208.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

That the parties do not anticipate any work related child care expenses on behalf of their children.

TAXES

That the parties are ordered to alternate claiming their three minor children as dependents. Petitioner is awarded to claim all three children for tax year 2026 to cover his credit card charges he has used for the household incidentals and utilities.

Beginning with tax year 2027, Respondent is awarded to claim two of the minor children as dependents, and Petitioner shall claim one child as a dependent. In tax year 2028, Petitioner is awarded claim two of the minor children as dependents, and Respondent is awarded to claim one child as a dependent.

The parties are ordered to continue this pattern each tax year until only one child remains eligible to be claimed as a dependent. At that time, Petitioner is awarded to claim the remaining child in even-numbered tax years, and Respondent is awarded to claim the child in odd-numbered tax years.

The parties are ordered execute any and all documents necessary to facilitate this provision, including IRS Form 8332, no later than January 31 of the applicable tax year.

REAL PROPERTY

That the parties have not purchased a home or real property during the course of their marriage; however, they are leasing a townhome.

LEASED TOWNHOME

The parties are hereby ordered to be equally responsible for any damages, repair costs, cleaning costs, or other charges associated with the townhome upon termination of the lease in April 2027.

In the event the lease is terminated early, each party is ordered be responsible for one-half (1/2) of any early termination fees or other amounts due under the lease.

Respondent may stay in the townhome subject to Petitioner's agreement. The Petitioner may agree to extend or reduce the period of time the Respondent remains in the Townhome.

If living together becomes harmful to the children or too difficult to continue, Petitioner is awarded the right ask Respondent to move out sooner.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

That the parties did not acquire any joint personal property during the marriage. Accordingly, each party is awarded the personal property he or she brought into the marriage without claim by the other party.

That each party is awarded the sole ownership of any vehicle he or she owned prior to the marriage, free and clear of any claim by the other party.

RETIREMENT

Any retirement benefits accrued by either party during the marriage is hereby awarded to that party free and clear of any claim by the other.

DEBTS

That the parties did not acquired marital debts and obligations during their marriage.

That Petitioner has a credit card and is ordered to be solely responsible to pay that debt.

That Respondent is ordered to be solely responsible for any debt she may have acquired in her name during the course of the parties' marriage.

That the debt either party may have incurred in his/her name after the date of April 1, 2026, is hereby ordered to be their sole and separate debt.

ALIMONY

Neither party is hereby awarded alimony past, present, or future.

MAIDEN NAME

That Respondent is hereby awarded to be restored to her maiden name, GIOVANELLI, if she so desires.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

The parties are hereby ordered to be restrained from committing, trying to commit or threatening to commit any form of violence against the other which shall include stalking, harassing, threatening, physically hurting or causing any other form of abuse.

The parties are ordered not to disparage the other parent in the presence of the children, nor permit any third party to do so.

ATTORNEY FEES

That each party is ordered to pay their own attorney fees incurred in these proceedings.

ENTERED BY THE COURT AS INDICATED ON TOP OF THE FIRST PAGE

RULE 7 (j) (4) NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to Rule 7 (j)(4) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the foregoing, DECREE OF DIVORCE, will be submitted to the Court for signature upon the expiration of seven (7) days from the date of this Notice unless a written objection is filed prior to that time.

/s/ Bryce M. Froerer
BRYCE M. FROERER
Attorney for Petitioner

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I hereby certify that on this 8th day of June 2026, I emailed a true and correct copy of the foregoing, DECREE OF DIVORCE, to the following:

Jessica Morrison
Email: jesigio1881@gmail.com

Shauna Jorgensen
LEGAL ASSISTANT

M/morrison.dod