BASED UPON the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement on file herein, the Affidavit of Jurisdiction and Grounds, and the court being fully advised in the matter; WHEREFORE, the Court has reviewed the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, as well as the Stipulation entered into by the parties, as well as good cause appearing. It is hereby Ordered, Adjudged, and Decreed as follows:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The parties are granted a decree of divorce final upon entry, severing the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties upon the grounds of irreconcilable difference.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. 5. Children. The parties are the legal parents of the following children under Utah's Uniform Parentage Act, Utah Code 78B-15-101 et seq. 6. Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. Pursuant to Utah Code 78B-13-101 et seq., Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this case, pursuant to Utah's Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) because Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children or Utah was the home state of the minor children six (6) months prior to the commencement of the proceeding, and/or this case meets the criteria under Utah Code 78B-13-201(1), 207, and 208.

7. Children - Rule 100. - b. The parties are unaware of any criminal, delinquency, or protective order cases involving a party or the parties' children.

Joint Legal Custody

a. With respect to minor day-to-day decisions, the parent in charge of the children during his or her designated parent-time shall have the right to make all such day-to-day decisions regarding the care of the child without consulting with the other parent. As pertaining to the day-to-day decisions, the parties recognize that each parent may have their own parenting style, their own rules, and their own style of discipline. As long as such decisions do not threaten the health and safety of the children, each parent will respect the decisions of the other parent and give each other the due deference that they equally deserve.

b. With respect to major decisions, such as those matters pertaining to the health, education, and religion of the child, the parties shall confer and work together in good faith to reach joint decisions regarding these matters. Should a dispute arise relating to these matters (i.e. the health, education, or religion of the children, the parties shall adhere to the following dispute resolution procedure:

- v. Mediation: If a decision still cannot be reached, the parties shall promptly retain the assistance of a mediator, with the parties splitting the costs of such mediation 50/50.
- vi. Presumptive Decision Making: If the parties are still unable to come to an agreement, Mother shall have presumptive final decision-making authority.
- vii. Court Review: Father shall have the right to challenge any such decision by way of court review to determine whether the decision is contrary to the best interests of the minor children.
- viii. No Undue Delay: Neither party shall cause any undue delay in utilizing this decision-making process and shall pursue the speedy resolution of all disputes.
- ix. Right to Other Relief: In addition, this process shall not be interpreted to deny either party the right to seek urgent or emergency relief from the Court.

14. Day to Day Decisions. The party with the parent-time shall make the day to day decisions for the child.

Communication

15. Our Family Wizard. The parties will utilize Our Family Wizard to communicate and calendar. The parties will each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. Each party shall set up and pay for their portion of Our Family Wizard by June 1, 2026. The parties will exchange receipts, calendar, and communicate through Family Wizard.

16. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children, in the form of virtual parent-time. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration. The children shall be able to contact the parents at any time.

Miscellaneous Parenting Provisions

17. Relocation. If either party moves more than 150 miles, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code §81-9-209.

- c. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached; and,
- d. The name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

19. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis if they have reason to believe that the other party does not have information about the activity or information, and the parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in.

20. Special Events. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the children available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the children or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

21. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both of the parties are permanently enjoined from saying or doing anything in the presence of the minor children of the parties (or in such a manner that the children may become aware of the party's comments or actions, including but not limited to any and all social media posts, blog posts, or other electronic format) to convey any negative information, beliefs, feelings, etc. regarding the other parent, or doing or saying anything that would, in any way, harm the relationship between the children and the other parent; both parents are ordered to encourage the creation and maintenance of a strong and healthy relationship between the other parent and the children.

b. The parties are further enjoined from discussing custody or this divorce action with the children in any way or in such a manner that the children may become aware of the party's comments or actions, including but not limited to any and all social media posts, blog posts, or other electronic format

c. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing or threatening the other party.

d. The parties shall not allow third parties to act in any way that they themselves are prohibited from acting, and shall remove the children from any situation in which the other parent is being disparaged in any way.

22. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight or if a child care cost would be incurred during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

23. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.

24. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost.

25. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. The Court orders that this does not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

26. Curbside Transportation for the Children. The parties will utilize school-to school or childcare exchanges when possible. If school to school exchanges are not possible, the receiving parent will provide the transportation unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. If the exchange happens at the residence, the parties shall have a curbside exchange. Until the minor children can walk and get their selves to and from the car and house the parties shall assist in the exchanges.

The parties will only communicate about the children during exchanges.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

27. Child Support. Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-107 et seq. The Mother's gross monthly income is $1,257.00 per month. The Father's gross monthly income is $1,625.00 per month. The Mother has 220 overnights and the Father has 145 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet. The Father's child support obligation shall be $296.00 per month. Child support shall begin March 2026. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child terminates at the time and shall automatically adjust: (1) a child becomes 18 years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected date of graduation, whichever occurs later; or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated. The child support is payable one-half on the 5th day of each and every month, and one-half on the 20th day of each month.

28. Medical/Dental Expenses. The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the

a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the 16 premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.

b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent children and actually paid by the parents.

c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.

e. If the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium.

f. A parent who provides health insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

29. Childcare Expenses. The parties shall adopt Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor children.

30. Dependency Exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption for the minor children as follows:

a. While there are two minor children, the parties will each receive one child as a dependency exemption. Mother will claim the oldest child and Father will claim the youngest child.

b. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption for the minor child. The Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for odd-numbered tax years, and the Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption for even-numbered tax years.

c. Father is entitled to claim the dependency exemptions indicated herein as long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of any tax year.

31. Taxes. The parties will file separate tax returns for 2026.

32. Real Property. The marital property located at 5100 South 1050 West Trailer B80 will be awarded to Father with all debts and liabilities commencing on May 11, 2026. Father shall hold Mother harmless on all debts and liabilities associated with the home.

33. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Chase (3752)	Father
Chase (7190)	Father
Chase (6730)	Mother
Consolidation Loan	Father

a. Accumulation of Debt. Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts. The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments. If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

35. Checking and Saving Accounts. Each party will be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts. The joint accounts shall be closed within fourteen (14) days of the stipulation.

36. Retirement Accounts. Each party will be awarded the retirement accounts in their own respective name and will waive all claim to the other party's retirement.

The parties acknowledge that neither is entitled to rely on the attorney of the other or the mediator to inform them of their legal rights.

41. Divorce Education. The parties will take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within thirty (30) days of the date the Stipulation is signed.

42. Drafting. Both parties attended mediation with their respective counsel and have participated actively in the drafting and revising of the stipulation. Both parties and their counsel have had an opportunity to read the stipulation and to make suggested changes to the draft and this is a complete understanding of all of issues negotiated and agreed to by the parties within the mediation session. Each of the parties understands, acknowledges, and agrees that each of the parties hereto has contributed to the drafting of the stipulation, and no provision shall be construed against any party as being the draftsman thereof. The stipulation shall therefore be construed without regard to any presumption or other rule requiring construction against the party causing the Stipulation to be drafted. The parties specifically, intentionally, and knowingly waive any right to allege, assert, or claim the benefit of any rule requiring construction against the drafting party.

43. Full Disclosure. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property referred to in this agreement represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly.

44. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
