Attorneys for Christina Hansen

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH,

WEBER COUNTY, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

In the matter of the marriage of:

CHRISTINA HANSEN,

and

TYLER HANSEN.

AMENDED DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264900128

Judge CRAIG HALL

Commissioner BRANDON RICHARDS

The matter before the Court is the Petition for Divorce in the above-captioned case. The parties met in mediation and reached a full settlement agreement. Having received the agreement of the parties and having entered Findings and Conclusions, the Court now decrees as follows:

JURISDICTION & GROUNDS

1. RESIDENCE. Christina is and has been a resident of Weber County, Utah for more than three months immediately prior to the commencement of this action. Tyler Hansen resides in Seward, Alaska.
2. MARRIAGE. The parties married June 13, 2005, and are still married to each other.
3. SEPARATION. The parties physically separated in or around June 2025.
4. GROUNDS. The parties are divorcing on grounds of irreconcilable differences.
5. MILITARY STATUS. Neither party is on active duty in the military.
6. PUBLIC ASSISTANCE. Christina and the children are receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.
7. NO OTHER PROCEEDINGS. There are no other pending proceedings regarding the minor children or the other party in Utah Court.
8. NO OTHER PARTIES. There are no third parties asserting custody, parent time, or support of the minor child.
9. CUSTODY JURISDICTION. The children have resided in the state of Utah for more than the past six months. Utah is the homes state for UCCJEA jurisdiction.

CUSTODY AND PARENT TIME

10. MINOR CHILDREN. The parties are the legal parents to the following children together:
 - a. Rachael Hansen (Born June 2009)

- b. Natalie Hansen (Born May 2011)
- c. Eryn Hansen (Born February 2014)
- d. Torsten Hansen (Born October 2016)
- e. Rygh Hansen (Born July 2018)
- f. No other children are expected from this marriage.
- g. Reference to children below may be in the singular or plural.

11. JOINT LEGAL. The parties will share joint legal custody of the children subject to the parenting plan provisions below.

12. PHYSICAL CUSTODY. Christina will have sole physical custody of the minor children subject to the parent-time provision below.

13. PARENT TIME. Each party parent time as the parties agree or consistent with the “Relocation Parent Time” provisions of Utah Code § 81-9-209, with Tyler receiving the time designated for the “noncustodial parent.” The three oldest children, Rachael, Natalie, and Eryn may choose whether to elect parent time with Tyler in Alaska. Christina will notify Tyler if one or more of these children decline parent time. Tyler will not force or compel Rachael, Natalie, or Eryn to go to parent time with Tyler.

- a. The parties will cooperate in good faith to coordinate travel and visitation arrangements to minimize disruption to the children’s school schedules.
- b. The parties agree that if one or more of the three oldest children, Rachael, Natalie, or Eryn, is working over the summer, that child will not be required to spend half the summer with their non-residential parent.

c. Tyler will be responsible for the parent-time related travel costs for himself and the children, including when the children travel to visit him.

14. SCHOOL. For school purposes, each child's residence will be Christina's home address. Notwithstanding, the address and contact information for both parents will be listed for school registration.

15. VIRTUAL PARENT TIME. Each party should be entitled to contact the child by phone or video chat at reasonable times and for reasonable durations when the child is with the other parent. Calls will occur at least two days a week, on Sundays at noon and at least one other day during the week as the parties can agree, or on Wednesdays. In addition, the parties will allow the children to contact either parent through text, phone, or video upon the child's request at reasonable times and for reasonable duration.

a. Neither party will unreasonably restrict or interfere with a child's use of their communication device with the other parent. If a child is grounded from a device or for any other reason cannot use their preferred device, the parent restricting the device will provide a reasonable alternative means for the child to communicate with the other parent.

b. Each parent is entitled to have the children's contact information, including the child's cell phone number (if they have a cell phone) and any Facetime, Skype or other contact handle for the child. If a child's contact information changes, the parent residing with the child will be responsible to update the child's information to the other parent within 24 hours of the change.

c. Neither parent will interfere with or restrict communications between the child or children with their non-residential parent without reasonable cause. In addition, the children may freely communicate with both sides of the family, including each parties' family members (e.g. grandparents, aunts, uncles) shall be permitted to call, video chat, or visit the child with reasonable notice to the parent.

16. TRAVEL WITH THE CHILDREN. Consistent with Utah Code § 81-9-202(19), for emergency purposes, whenever a minor child travels with either parent, the following should be provided to the other parent: (1) an itinerary of travel dates; (2) destinations; (3) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; and (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

17. COMMUNICATION. Communication between the parties should be civil and limited to issues concerning the minor children.

a. Neither parent may block the other from communicating, whether through blocking phone numbers, text messages, or emails.

b. Each parent shall provide accurate and current contact information to the other and shall notify the other in writing within 24 hours of any change in their (or the children's) telephone number, email, mailing address, or other contact information. Notwithstanding, neither party will share the other parent's contact information with a third party without express written permission, and neither party will use the other party's contact information to harass or annoy the other party.

c. Each parent shall communicate directly to the other regarding parenting and support issues, not through the child or through any third parties.

CHLD SUPPORT

18. CONTROLLING CHILD SUPPORT ORDER. The State of Alaska took an administrative order of support dated December 31, 2025. That order is the controlling order until replaced by the terms of this Decree. Thereafter, this Utah order shall be the controlling order.

19. FATHER'S INCOME. Tyler is currently self-employed and his income varies from year to year. The parties stipulate to imputing his gross income to $5000 per month.

20. MOTHER'S INCOME. Christina is currently employed and earns $17.85 per hour. The parties stipulate to imputing her income to $2,130 per month.

21. CHILD SUPPORT. Based on the parties having five minor children, the incomes stated above, and the Utah sole custody child support worksheet, with Tyler having less than 111 overnights per year, the child support obligation is $1,391 per month.

22. MODIFICATION AFTER 3 YEARS. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212, either parent may motion the court for a modification of child support if three years have passed since the most recent controlling child support order and a recalculation would make a difference of 10% or more in child support (if that difference is not temporary in nature).

23. ADJUSTMENT FOR SUBSTANTIAL CHANGE. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-212, either parent may motion the court for an adjustment of child support if there has been a substantial change in circumstances (e.g., change in custody, more than 30% change in income of either party, a parent loses the ability to work, changes in the medical needs of a child, etc).

24. MEDICAL INSURANCE. Both parties are responsible to ensure the children are enrolled in medical insurance so long as a plan is available through either parent at a reasonable cost. The children are covered through Medicaid and should continue under Medicaid coverage as long as it remains available to the parties. If the insuring parent loses the ability to insure the children, or if another more reasonable plan becomes available, the parents should jointly determine the best way to provide continuing insurance for the children. If both parties carry insurance for the children, Christina's insurance will be deemed the primary insurance. In the event both parties insure the children, each party will be responsible for their own insurance premiums.

25. MEDICAL COSTS. Each parent shall be responsible for one-half out of the out-of-pocket costs of any medical or dental insurance premiums actually paid by a parent on behalf of the child as provided in Utah Code §81-6-208.

a. Both parties shall be jointly responsible for the child's medical and dental expenses. The parties shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the minor child, including deductibles and copayments.

b. Each of the parties shall pay one-half of all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses incurred on behalf of the parties' minor child and actually paid by either parent. This includes, but is not limited to, one-half of expenses for surgery, orthodontic care, psychological or psychiatric care, hospitalization, physical therapy, ophthalmology and optometry, broken limbs, and continuing illnesses or allergies such as diabetes, asthma, as well as other reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses, in accordance with Utah Code §81-6-208.

c. A parent who incurs medical or dental expenses on behalf of the parties' minor child should provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment for such expense. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-6-208, the parent who fails to comply with this paragraph may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of those expenses.

d. The parent who receives verification of a medical or dental expense paid out of pocket for the parties' minor child should reimburse the other parent for their share of the costs within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification or should make reasonable payment arrangements if unable to pay their share in full within thirty days.

26. NOTICE TO MEDICAL/DENTAL CREDITORS. Pursuant to Utah Code §§ 15-4-6.7, 30-3-2, and 30-3-5(1)(c), a medical or dental creditor who has been provided a copy of this order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full their share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under this order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under § 70C-7-107, or report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding the parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under this order.

a. Each party should provide a copy of this order to the creditor of the claimed medical or dental expense for the minor child.

b. Each parent should notify the creditor of their own current address.

c. Each parent has an individual duty to inform the medical or dental creditor of this provision regarding their own actual, alleged or potential medical or dental debts for minor children and to provide their own individual information. Neither parent shall be obligated to inform such providers on behalf of the other parent.

27. CHILDCARE. Each party shall be solely responsible for their own childcare costs.

28. SCHOOL AND EXTRACURRICULAR COSTS. Each parent will be solely responsible for the school and extracurricular costs of the child or children residing with that parent, unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parents Christina should not enroll the children in extracurricular activities that conflict with Tyler's parent time without express agreement of the other party. If she does, Tyler will not be obligated to support the activity, nor take the child to the activity.

29. CHILD TAX CREDITS. The parties will split claiming the children for tax purposes as follows: The parties shall each claim two children each year on their taxes. On even numbered years, Christina may claim the remaining odd numbered child on her taxes. On odd numbered years, Tyler may claim the remaining odd numbered child on his taxes. To claim the children on his taxes, Tyler must be current with all child support obligations. If he fails to meet his support obligations, then he will not be entitled to claim any children on his taxes that year and Christina may claim all of the children on her taxes.

PARENTING PLAN

30. CO-PARENTING ADVISORY GUIDELINES. Each parent should consider and comport with the following advisory guidelines based in Utah Code § 81-9-202:

- a. Parent-time schedules mutually agreed upon by both parents are preferable to a court-imposed solution.
- b. The parent-time schedule shall be utilized to maximize the continuity and stability of the child's life.
- c. Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule.
- d. Regular school hours may not be interrupted for a school-age child for the exercise of parent-time by either parent except as otherwise indicated in this agreement.
- e. Neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.
- f. Each parent shall be entitled to attend and participate fully in the child's significant school, community, family, or other activities whether or not it is that parent's week with the child.
- g. Both parents shall have access directly to all school reports including preschool and daycare reports and medical records and shall be notified immediately by the custodial parent in the event of a medical emergency.

31. DAY TO DAY DECISIONS. The parent who has the child should make day-to-day decisions (e.g., what to wear, what to eat, entertainment choices, who to spend time with, etc.) for the children without interference from the other parent.

32. EMERGENCY DECISIONS. The parent who has the child should make emergency decisions when needed, should promptly inform the other parent of the emergency, and should discuss the emergency with the other party as soon as practicable.

33. MAJOR LIFE DECISIONS. The parties shall consult and jointly make decisions regarding the children's education, medical care, and all other major life matters as the parties can agree. Neither parent should act on a major life decision or make promises to a minor child regarding a major decision prior to discussing the matter with the other parent.

34. DISPUTE RESOLUTION. In the event the parties disagree on a major life decision concerning a minor child, the parties may consult a professional (doctor, counselor, etc.). At either party's request, the parties will bring the issue to mediation through a court-rostered domestic or similarly qualified mediator. The parties shall attend mediation in good faith to resolve the issue before bringing the issue for decision with the court. Christina shall have presumptive decision-making authority, subject to Tyler's right to seek judicial review of the issue. If either party is found to have frustrated the dispute resolution process, the court should award resulting costs and fees, including for mediation, to the non-frustrating party.

35. MUTUAL PARENTING RESTRAINT. Both parents shall exercise the following restraint around the minor children:

- a. No discussing the custody case or custody issues with or around the minor children nor allowing third parties to do the same.

- b. No use of defamatory, derogatory, or otherwise offensive comments about the other parent in the presence of the minor children, to include on social media platforms where the children may likely have access to see such comments, whether now or in the future. This includes allowing third parties to disparage the other parent to or around the child.
- c. No using the children as messengers between parents.
- d. Neither party will post about the case, co-parenting issues between the parties, nor about the other party on social media or any other platform the children may have access to, now or in the future.

DIVISION OF MARITAL PROPERTY

- 36. REAL PROPERTY. The parties stipulate that sole possession and ownership of the marital home and property at 32175 Bear Chase Circle, in Seward, Alaska will be awarded to Tyler.
- 37. FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS. The parties have divided their financial accounts. Each party is awarded the accounts and funds in their own name.
- 38. PERSONAL VEHICLES. The parties have separated the marital vehicles to their satisfaction, and each party should be awarded the vehicle in their possession and the debt and obligations associated with that vehicle.
- 39. PERSONAL PROPERTY. Personal property is mostly divided. Each party is awarded the personal property currently in their possession. Each party is entitled to any gifts or inheritances from their family. The parties shall divide their remaining personal property as follows:

a. Tyler should ship Christina's photo books, and two totes with sentimental items as soon as practically possible in a manner designed to protect the condition of these items.

b. Christina should be responsible for the costs and arrangements to ship her personal firearms from Alaska to Utah. Tyler should facilitate the process by locating the firearms, which Christina will identify, and make them available to whatever third party/s Christina contracts to ship the firearms.

c. Personal property (other than the aforementioned memorabilia and excluding any tools or equipment used for the business) is largely divided. Any remaining disputed property to be divided should be equitably divided between the parties.

40. DEBTS. Each party will be responsible for the debts in their individual names. The parties are unaware of any joint debts to be divided. Neither party shall take on any further community debt or debt in the other party's name.

41. NOTICE TO CREDITORS. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN §§15-4-6.5, 81-3-105, the parties are required to provide a copy of their final Decree of Divorce to all joint creditors for any outstanding obligations that are included in their Decree of Divorce. Therefore, each party shall:

a. Send a copy of the Decree of Divorce to each creditor he/she is not required to pay as soon as possible;

b. Notify the joint creditor of the current address for each party;

c. Inform the joint creditor that each party is entitled to receive individual statements, notices and correspondence required by law or by the terms of the contract and also inform the creditor that no negative credit report or other exchange of credit history or repayment practices may be made regarding the joint obligation because of non-payment by the party required to pay the debt unless the creditor has first made a demand for payment on the party who is not required to pay the debt.

42. BUSINESS INTERESTS. The parties stipulate that sole ownership and business interest in Hansen Welding is awarded to Tyler.

43. RETIREMENT. The parties stipulate that Christina will be awarded the entire value of Tyler's IRA, $24,876.58, with Edward Jones Investments 232 4th Avenue, Seward, Alaska 99664, Account No. 238-89426-1-3, at the time the divorce decree is entered. Christina will be responsible for the administrative work required to facilitate transfer or receipt of those funds to her own IRA with Edward Jones, Account No. 23363581-1-0. Tyler shall, within 14 days, promptly cooperate to complete the necessary paperwork and steps to transfer the funds following entry of the divorce decree. If transfer of the funds requires additional costs beyond entry of the decree, the parties shall split those costs equally.

44. ALIMONY. Neither party shall owe alimony to the other, now nor in the future.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

45. MAIDEN NAME. Christina may return to her maiden name following the divorce if she so chooses.

46. NON-DISCHARGED OBLIGATION. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of this parenting plan or Decree, the other parent's obligations hereunder are not affected.

47. MUTUAL RESTRAINT. Each party shall be permanently restrained from doing or saying anything to the detriment, harm, or injury of the other party in front of the minor children. The parties shall be mutually restrained from involving any third party to injure or harm, harass, abuse, stalk, or bother the other party.

48. ATTORNEY FEES. Each party is responsible for their own attorney fees and costs.

49. MEDIATION REQUIRED. Prior to bringing any enforcement or modification action in this case for hearing before the court, the parties shall attend mediation and attempt in good faith to mutually resolve the issue. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the court, the parties shall equally split the mediation fee.

50. DUTY TO SIGN. The parties will execute and deliver to the other such documents as are required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce within 30 days of the Decree being entered.
