LEGAL CUSTODY

The parties are awarded joint legal custody of E.R. pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-9-205. Both parties shall have equal rights and responsibilities regarding major decisions affecting the health, education, and welfare of the minor child.

DECISION MAKING

1. Day-to-day decisions regarding the minor child shall be made by the parent who has physical care of the child at that time.
2. Emergency decisions shall be made by the parent who has physical care of the child at that time. The deciding parent shall notify the other parent of the emergency right away, as soon as reasonably possible.
3. Major decisions shall be resolved through the following sequential process:
 - a. The parties shall first confer and make a good-faith effort to reach a mutual decision.
 - b. If agreement cannot be reached, the parties shall jointly consult with a qualified expert in the relevant field to obtain professional guidance.
 - c. If the parties still cannot agree after expert consultation, the matter shall be submitted to a session of mediation.
 - d. If mediation does not resolve the dispute, either party can then submit the issue to the court for final decision.
 - e. Neither party shall have unilateral final decision-making authority over major decisions affecting the minor child.

INCOME

1. Petitioner's gross monthly income is established at $9,223.00.
2. Respondent's gross monthly income is established at $3,969.00.

CHILD SUPPORT

1. For purposes of the Utah Child Support Guidelines, Utah Code Ann. §81-6-202 et seq., Petitioner is allocated one hundred eighty-two (182) overnights per year and Respondent is allocated one hundred eighty-three (183) overnights per year.
2. Petitioner shall pay to Respondent child support in the amount of $258.00 per month, as calculated under the Utah Child Support Guidelines.
3. Child support shall be retroactive to November 2024, the month following the filing of the divorce petition.
4. Petitioner shall receive a dollar-for-dollar credit against the retroactive child support obligation for any amounts previously paid for the period from November 2024 through the date of this Decree.

ALIMONY

1. Having considered the factors set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-4-502, including but not limited to Respondent's demonstrated financial need ($625.00/month deficit), Petitioner's ability to pay ($852.00/month surplus after expenses), the standard of living established during the marriage, and the length of the marriage, the court finds that alimony is appropriate.
2. Petitioner shall pay to Respondent alimony in the amount of $625.00 per month.

- a. Alimony shall be retroactive to June 2025, the month in which the marital home was sold and independent living expenses began to accrue.
- b. Alimony shall continue for a period equal to the length of the marriage. Alimony shall terminate upon the earliest of: (i) expiration of the alimony period; (ii) Respondent's cohabitation, as provided in Utah Code Ann. §81-4-505 and defined in §81-4-501; or (iii) the death of either party.

TAXES

1. No orders are entered regarding past-due tax debt.
2. Tax Year 2025: The parties may elect to file a joint federal and state income tax return. If they file jointly, any refund shall be split equally and any tax due shall be shared equally. If the parties do not agree to file jointly, each party shall file separately, with Respondent claiming E.R. as a dependent for tax year 2025.
3. Tax Years 2026 and Forward: Respondent shall claim E.R. as a dependent in all odd-numbered tax years. Petitioner shall claim E.R. as a dependent in all even-numbered tax years, provided that Petitioner is current in all child support payments for the applicable tax year. If Petitioner is not current in child support for a given year, Respondent shall be entitled to claim E.R. for that year.

DEBT

1. The court declines to further divide the parties' marital debt.
2. Petitioner's Exhibit 8, the signed debt allocation agreement prepared by Respondent, is hereby accepted and adopted by the court as a complete and enforceable agreement between the parties covering all marital debt through June 2025. The court finds no basis to set aside that agreement.

3. The retroactive awards of child support (from November 2024) and alimony (from June 2025) are intended in part to address any additional debt incurred by Respondent after June 2025. Going forward, each party shall be solely responsible for their own debts, and neither party shall incur debt in the name of the other.

AFCU ACCOUNT

1. The joint America First Credit Union account that was brought up during trial (“the joint AFCU account”)—where there were allegations that Respondent had placed charges against that account, or that recurring subscription charges were being deducted from the account—is addressed herein.
2. The court finds that Petitioner has paid off any overdraft amount, or amounts related to any overdraft amounts, on that account.
3. Respondent is ordered to make sure no more charges go against that account, and not to link any subscriptions to that account or anything else.
4. If something else moving forward is charged against that account by Respondent, she would owe that money to Petitioner.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

1. The family dog shall remain with and is awarded to Respondent.
2. All cryptocurrency accounts and holdings of the parties shall be divided equally.

3. Funds set aside for a headstone for the parties' deceased child, Alek, shall be used solely for that purpose.
 - a. The parties need to come to an agreement, agreeing on the headstone, within ninety (90) days of the date this order was entered in court.
 - b. Any funds remaining after the purchase of the headstone shall be divided equally between the parties.
4. No further orders are entered regarding personal property. All other personal property issues are to be resolved by the parties' own agreement.

PAYMENT OF RETROACTIVE CHILD SUPPORT AND ALIMONY

1. Petitioner maintained a designated account containing funds set aside for the express purpose of satisfying the retroactive child support and alimony obligations ordered in this Decree.
2. The retroactive child support and alimony obligations have been satisfied. The parties represent that all retroactive amounts were paid within one (1) week following trial, and that Petitioner is current on all child support and alimony obligations.

RETIREMENT

1. Pursuant to the parties' stipulation entered in open court, which the court hereby accepts and adopts, Respondent is awarded one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the retirement benefits earned by Petitioner during the period of the marriage.
2. Respondent shall be solely responsible for preparing and submitting a Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") or equivalent order required to effectuate this division, and for all costs associated therewith. Petitioner shall provide Respondent with the information necessary to prepare the QDRO. The QDRO shall comply with the applicable retirement plan's requirements and applicable federal and state law. The parties shall cooperate in executing any documents required by the plan administrator.

HEALTH INSURANCE

1. Health insurance for the minor child shall be governed by Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208. It shall be obtained when reasonably available, and the premium and out-of-pocket costs shall be equally divided as provided therein.
 - a. Each party shall be responsible for one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the monthly premium attributable to E.R.'s portion of the health insurance coverage.
2. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208, each party shall be responsible for one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of all reasonable, uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, vision, and mental health expenses incurred on behalf of E.R.

DAYCARE

Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-209, if work-related daycare or childcare is required for the minor child, E.R., the cost shall be equally divided between the parties.

LIFE INSURANCE

1. The issue of life insurance was not certified to the court. No orders are entered regarding life insurance at this time.

MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDERS

1. Neither party shall make disparaging, derogatory, or negative comments about the other parent in the presence of the minor child.
2. Neither party shall permit any third party to make disparaging or derogatory comments about the other parent in the presence of or within hearing of the minor child.
3. The minor child shall not be used as a messenger, intermediary, or conduit for any communications between the parties.
4. Neither party shall discuss the details of these divorce proceedings, financial disputes, custody matters, or related adult issues with or in the presence of the minor child.
5. Neither party shall permit any third party to discuss such matters with or in the presence of the minor child.

ATTORNEY'S FEES

Each party shall be solely responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs. No award of attorney's fees is made to either party.

DIVORCE

The bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are hereby dissolved. The parties are granted a divorce and each is restored to the status of a single person.

MISCELLANEOUS

Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-4-311, Respondent is authorized, if she so chooses, to have her former/maiden name restored. Respondent may apply to the court for the appropriate documentation to effectuate the name change.
