10. Extended Summer Parent Time. The parties shall share summer parent time as they can agree. Should they not be able to agree, and due to the week on / week off rotation, neither party is awarded additional extended summer parent time.

LEGAL CUSTODY AND PARENTING PLAN

11. The Parties shall be awarded joint legal custody, subject to the following Parenting Plan:

Decisions Regarding Raising the Child

12. The Parties should discuss with each other major decisions involving the child's health and medical care, education, religious participation, and extracurricular activities, and attempt to come to an agreement. Both parties will have access to the child's school, church, health and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The parties should consult with and share information from any subject matter experts, professionals who are knowledgeable about the issue, or who have a substantial connection to the child. After having obtained and exchanged all the relevant information and received the opinion of any relevant subject matter experts, if the Parties are unable to agree, then the parties shall attend mediation with each party paying half of the cost. If the parties still do not agree after mediation, either party has the right to take the issue to court for a decision.

13. Day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control, and discipline of the child should be made by the parent with whom the child is residing at the time.

14. Each parent shall have the right to make emergency medical decisions without consultation with the other parent and shall immediately inform the other parent of said emergency. Emergency medical decisions are those that are life threatening to the child.

Education Plan

15. The child shall attend school in the district where Jennica resides, unless agreed to otherwise by the parties in writing.

16. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators. Both parties shall take the initiative to register for any online portal to access the child's information so neither parent will have to provide information that they can otherwise access themselves.

Parent-time Exchanges

17. If school is in session, the parent who is exercising their parent time period with the child is responsible to take the child to school in the morning at the conclusion of their last overnight parent time, and the parent who is commencing their parent time period with the child, is responsible to pick the child up from school in the afternoon of that same day in order to commence their parent time period.

18. Each party is responsible for transporting the child to and from school during their parent time and is responsible for the child's timely arrival to and pick-up from school.

19. If school is not in session, the parent time exchange will take place at 7:00 a.m., with the parent who is commencing their parent time with the child being responsible to pick the child up at 7:00 a.m. from the parent whose parent time period is ending.

20. All parent time exchanges shall take place at school whenever possible. Any parent time exchanges which do not take place at school shall take place at the parties' residences curbside. In connection with this, the parent who is in the vehicle (and any third party accompanying that parent) is to remain near the vehicle, and the parent who is in the residence (and any third party at the residence) is to remain near the residence. The child will walk independently and unaccompanied between the vehicle and residence.

21. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by the parent who is exercising parent time, may pick up the child for that parent's parent-time if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual and the parent who is exercising their parent time will be with the child by 7 p.m.

22. Both parents should be polite and cordial and behave maturely during exchanges of the child. There shall be no conflict or discussions that may lead to conflict during the exchange.

23. The parents should also prepare the child, both mentally and physically, for each parent-time exchange by having the child packed and ready to leave on time, and by encouraging the child to spend time with the other parent.

Virtual Parent-Time

24. Both parents should allow liberal telephone and other virtual communication (e.g. FaceTime, etc.) with the other parent and should encourage the child to call the other parent.

25. Each parent should allow the minor child to contact the other parent at any time the minor child desires to have telephone or virtual contact.

26. Each party should have the right to contact the child at reasonable times and for reasonable durations (based upon the child's age, maturity, interests, schedule, etc to participate).

27. These calls should not be unreasonably denied by the parent who has the child, as long they do not conflict with existing plans or scheduled events, or interfere with the child's customary routine, thereby causing emotional discomfort.

Communication Between Parties

28. Communication shall be in writing via text, phone, or email (or agreed upon co-parenting app) only and only concerning the child, unless there is an emergency or time necessitates. Communication shall be peaceful, civil, and non-abusive. The parties shall utilize a shared calendar for scheduling and notifying of child related events, schedules.

29. Neither party should ask or attempt in any way to have the child transfer messages between the Parties, whether verbal or written. The Parties should contact each other directly via text message or phone to discuss personal or child-related issues between themselves and should not involve the child.

30. Communication should be between the Parties and not through third parties unless both Parties mutually agree otherwise.

Child's Phone/Electronics and Communication with Parents

31. The child shall have access to a communication device (e.g., phone, watch, or tablet) in each home for this purpose.

32. Contact information for both parents shall remain on the device at all times.

33. Both parents should collaborate to establish consistent rules and expectations regarding cell phone use, including screen time limits, permitted apps, and internet access.
34. If parents cannot agree, the following rules shall be implemented:
- a. All phones shall be turned off by 9:00 p.m. the night before school is held.
  - b. Internet access shall have age-appropriate filters reducing the child's access to material harmful to minors.
  - c. Children under age 16 shall not have more than 5 hours of screen time in a 24-hour period.
35. Parents are encouraged to utilize built-in parental controls on the child's device to restrict access to inappropriate content, monitor usage, and set time limits. Both parties shall have access to these parental controls/apps and exchange login/password information to access these parental controls.
36. Regular review of the child's phone activity (e.g., app downloads, browsing history) should be conducted, with the child's awareness, to promote transparency and trust.
37. Parents should educate the child about safe and responsible use of cell phones, including privacy, online safety, and the risks of sharing personal information.
38. Open communication should be maintained so the child feels comfortable reporting any concerns or issues encountered online.
39. All phones shall be placed in a central location outside of each child's room by 9:00 p.m. on the night before school begins and by 12:00 a.m. on weekend nights.

Respect and Cooperation

40. Both Parties recognize that the best interests of the child require the Parties to cooperate and treat each other with dignity and respect, especially in the presence of the child. Both parents should use their best efforts to foster the development and maintenance of positive relationships with the child by encouraging affection and promoting respect and good feelings toward the other parent.

- a. Neither parent should attempt to harm or alienate the relationship the other parent has with the child in any form. Neither parent should make or allow another person or agent within their control or influence to make any disparaging comments about the other person or the other person's spouse or significant other in the presence of or within earshot of the child, including making posts on social media.
- b. The parents should cooperate and include each other as to their child's day care, health care, schooling, religious activities, organized sports, and other special activities and should notify each other of their child's regular activities so that they may participate; and
- c. The parents should not involve the child in disputes or disagreements that may arise between each other, but they may jointly discuss issues with their child to obtain their input.

41. Both parents should be concerned for the best interest and well-being of the child; therefore, both parents should be governed by the following principles:

- a. The Parties should have a co-parenting relationship that is built on trust and respect;
- b. The Parties should establish and maintain parental communication with each other to ensure that the other parent is informed about the child's needs;

- c. The Parties should support each other in their respective parenting roles and should use positive words about the other parent and the other parent's partner or spouse to the child, and should be restrained from saying anything negative about the other parent, for the purpose of the child developing good self-esteem;
- d. The Parties should listen to each other and do their best to understand the other's point of view;
- e. The Parties should make all attempts to resolve all conflict between them and should utilize experts to assist them in this endeavor, if they are unsuccessful personally;
- f. The Parties should solve problems and make joint decisions by working through their decision-making procedure which is described herein;
- g. If tension arises in a telephone call, the Parties should take a break from the telephone call or leave their conversations to email;
- h. The Parties should work together to improve their parenting skills and to share their ideas;
- i. The Parties should live by the golden rule that they should treat each other as they would like to be treated;
- j. Clothing, toys, and other items of the child's personal effects should be exchanged by the Parties, and returned in clean condition, in order to facilitate the child's visits;
- k. The Parties should start over and recommit to this Parenting Plan when one or both of them steps outside of this plan and forgets about a commitment made in this plan; and

l. The Parties should see the other parent as a resource, consultant, and ally. The Parties should effectively work together as co-parents to promote the best interest of the child.

Contact Information

42. Each party should keep the other informed as to changes in residential addresses; home, work, and cell phone numbers; email addresses, and any other important contact information, including how to be reached in the event of an emergency, within 24 hours of any change.

Extended Overnight Trips

43. Pursuant to Utah Code §81-9-203(19), for emergency purposes, whenever a child travels overnight or out of state with either parent, all of the following should be provided to the other parent prior to travel: (1) an itinerary of travel dates, flights, etc.; (2) destinations; (3) places where the child or traveling parent can be reached; (4) the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.

Activities, Events, and Information

44. Both Parties should be entitled to participate in all social and school functions their child attends. Each party should be entitled to know about all important events in child's lives, including the right to have relationships with and access to third parties and information having to do with the child. This shall include health care providers and educators as well as medical and school records.

45. Access to Information and Shared Responsibility

- a. Both parents shall be listed as contacts on all school, medical, dental, and extracurricular activity forms.
- b. The first parent completing any such form is responsible for ensuring the other parent's full name and contact information are included.
- c. Each parent is individually responsible for enrolling in and monitoring all school and extracurricular communication systems (e.g., online portals, email lists, team apps).
- d. Neither parent has responsibility to forward information to the other.
- e. Neither parent shall obstruct, remove, or otherwise interfere with the other parent's access to these systems or to direct communication with teachers, coaches, or other professionals involved with the child.

Surrogate Care

46. Direct care by either parent as opposed to surrogate care should be presumed to be in the child's best interest. As such each party is awarded the right of first refusal such that if one party cannot be present with the child during their respective parent time an overnight period or more, then that parent must offer that time to other parent prior to seeking surrogate care. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

Special Functions

47. Each party shall make reasonable efforts for the minor child to attend special family functions. Neither party shall abuse this privilege by making excessive requests or unreasonably withholding permission. This typically includes functions unalterable by a parent (i.e. weddings, extended family reunions, or important ceremonies).

Relocation of a Parent

48. If a party intends to relocate 150 miles or more from the other party, then the Parties must comply with the notice provisions of U.C.A. §81-9-209.

Adjustments or Modifications

49. All permanent adjustments or modifications to this Parenting Plan should be made in writing, signed by both Parties, notarized, and filed with the Court. Temporary or minor changes may be made whenever the Parties agree.

Failure to Comply

50. If a parent fails to comply with any of the provisions set forth above under this Parenting Plan, the other parent's obligations under said section should not be affected.

[End Parenting Plan.]

CHILD SUPPORT

51. That for child support purposes Jennica's gross monthly income is $6,271.

52. That for child support purposes Travis's gross monthly income is $6,603.

53. The Jennica is awarded 183 overnights for child support purposes only and Travis is awarded 182 overnights for child support purposes only.

54. That based on a Joint Custody Child Support Obligation Worksheet, Travis's child support is $27.00 per month, however, based on the time sharing arrangement, the health insurance premium offset, the sharing of other child related expenses equally, the de minimus amount and the other mutual considerations contained herein, child support is stayed such that neither party pays the other. This provision may be reviewed upon a substantial change in circumstances.

55. The child support obligation should continue through the end of the month a child becomes 18 years of age, or through the end of the month of the child's normal and expected date of graduation from high school, whichever occurs later. Pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §81-6-213, there should be an automatic adjustment to child support if and when a child becomes emancipated.

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITY AND SCHOOL FEES

56. In addition to child support, the Parties shall share equally any expenses related to the child's extracurricular activities that they both agree to in writing, and mandatory school fees. In the event that a party desires to have a child participate in an extracurricular activity that the other party refuses to agree to, that party may still enroll the child in the activity, as long as that party pays for the activity and the activity does not interfere with the other party's parent-time.

57. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity or school out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses.

CHILD CARE EXPENSES

58. Each party shall be solely responsible to make their own daycare/childcare arrangements for the minor child during their parent time, and shall be solely responsible for their own daycare/childcare costs incurred during their parent time, without any contribution, reimbursement or offset from the other parent.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND MEDICAL/DENTAL EXPENSES

59. In the event either party currently has now, or has in the future, health insurance available to them through their place of employment or through some other source at a reasonable rate, whichever party is able to obtain health insurance at a reasonable cost for the child should be required to obtain such insurance for the benefit of the minor child. If only one party maintains insurance for the child, the party who is able to obtain the best coverage at the lowest cost should be required to obtain the insurance, with contributions from the other party as set forth below. Health insurance should include an obligation to carry dental insurance if it is available on the same basis.

60. Presently, Jennica has the health insurance policy through her current employer and she will be 100% responsible for the health insurance premium payment on behalf of the minor child. Should this change, this can be revisited in conjunction with modification of child support.

a. The child's portion of the health/dental insurance premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of minor children in this case who are covered by such a policy.

61. If, at any point in time, the dependent child covered by the health or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be primary coverage for the dependent child, and the health or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health or dental insurance plan but are by a step-parent's plan, the health or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and should retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

62. In the event of double coverage, each party shall be responsible for their sole costs of the child's portion of premium.

63. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, neither party should be required to maintain health or dental insurance for the child if it is not available to them at a reasonably affordable rate.

64. Both parents should provide cash medical support by equally sharing all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, orthodontic, optical and mental health expenses incurred for the dependent child, including deductibles and copayments.

65. The parent who incurs necessary medical expenses should provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208. The other parent should then reimburse the parent incurring the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification.

66. The parent who incurs medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses, or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses, if that parent fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses within thirty (30) days of payment, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

67. The Parties should cooperate in exchanging all claim forms and statements in order to coordinate the payment of all medical and dental expenses, as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

68. The requirement for either parent to maintain health and dental insurance, and/or to pay any non-covered medical and dental expenses should remain in effect for a child only as long as the child is of the age that he or she would be entitled to receive child support.

69. The parent who maintains health insurance should provide verification of coverage to the other parent, upon initial enrollment of the dependent child, and thereafter, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year as set forth in Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

Commencing with the 2025 calendar tax year and each year thereafter, the parties shall file separate state and federal tax returns, with each party to be entitled to retain any refunds issued in relation to their individual returns free and clear of any claim or interest of the other party and solely responsible for any and all state and federal liabilities relating to their respective individual returns. Each party shall be solely liable and responsible for any tax liability, penalties, fees, etc. for any and all tax years 2025 and prior and hold the other harmless therefrom.

71. All state and federal tax returns for 2025 and prior filings are concluded and resolved without any outstanding issues, and all tax liability, refunds and stimulus funds have been allocated to the mutual satisfaction and agreement of the parties.
