Licensed Paralegal Practitioner for Jenna Camille Gray

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF UTAH
SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT, WEBER COUNTY

In the Matter of the Marriage of	DECREE OF DIVORCE
JENNA CAMILLE GRAY, Petitioner,	Case No. 254900295
and	Judge: Craig Hall
SAMUEL NICHOLAS LIPPOLD, Respondent.	Commissioner: Brandon Richards

This divorce action is before the Court on Jenna's Petition for Divorce. The Court having found and entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised, adjudges and decrees as follows:

- 1. DIVORCE: The parties shall be granted a divorce based upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences.
- 2. JURISDICTION: Jenna is a residence of Weber County and has resided in Weber County for at least three months immediately before filing this case.
- 3. CHILDREN: There has been one child born as a result of this marriage, to wit:
B.G.E.L. Born 10/16/2011
- 4. JURISDICTION OVER CUSTODY AND PARENT TIME ISSUES: Utah has jurisdiction over the custody and parent-time issues in this case because: Utah is the home state of the parties' minor children under Utah Code 81-11-101, or This case meets the criteria under Utah Code 81-11-201 and 81-11-208.

5. OTHER COURT PROCEEDINGS: Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 100; Utah Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, UCCJEA, Utah Code 78B-13-101 et seq.; Utah Uniform Interstate Family support Act, UIFSA, Utah Code 78B-14-101 et seq.): There are no custody, child support, or parent-time cases about the minor children in any court or government agency. This includes filed, pending, and completed cases.

6. CUSTODY: It is in the child's best interest that Jenna be awarded sole legal and physical custody of the minor child.

7. Samuel shall be awarded parent time as the parties may agree and to the comfort level of their minor child, Beauen. The parties shall build up Samuel's parent time to a minimum schedule pursuant to Utah Code Section 81-9-302. (See schedule attached herewith as Exhibit "A.")

8. Both parties shall inform the other within twenty-four hours of any change of address.

9. Exchanges of the minor child shall occur at Jenna's residence. The exchanges shall occur curbside.

10. The parties shall share holidays with the minor child as they can agree.

11. If the parties are unable to reach agreement regarding the division of holidays, the schedule outlined in Utah Code § 81-9-302 shall apply, attached herewith as Exhibit "A."

12. For the purposes of the holiday schedule, Samuel shall be designated as the "noncustodial parent."

13. PARENTING PLAN:

a. Decision-making:

i. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

ii. Jenna shall be responsible for making major decisions about the child related to education, religion, medical, etc.

b. Education plan: The school the child will attend shall be based on Jenna's current address. Both parties have the authority to check the child out of school. Both parties shall have the authority to have access to the child during school.

c. Communication with each other: The parties agree to maintain civil, respectful, and child-centered communication at all times. Each parent shall keep the other informed of significant events, extracurricular activities, educational issues, and family activities. Communication shall take place via email, Facebook messenger, or other parenting application. The parties shall only communicate regarding the minor child.

d. Communication with the child: The child may communicate freely with either parent by phone or electronic means during reasonable hours. The parents agree they will give the child privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the child and the other parent. Both parties shall have equal access to the child's cellular devices.

e. Clothing and Personal Belongings: Each parent shall maintain adequate clothing, shoes, and personal items for the child in their own home. If a child loses or damages a valuable personal item (excluding school or sports items) while under one parent's care, that parent shall assist in replacing or reimbursing the item.

f. Extracurricular activities: Both parties shall equally share the costs of any agreed-upon, extracurricular activities of the minor child (in writing or text messages).

Reimbursements for any agreed upon extracurricular activity shall be within 14 days upon receiving record of payment from the other party.

g. Education and Schooling Costs: Both parties shall equally share the costs of any schooling fees, school lunch, and/or registration costs on behalf of the minor child.

Reimbursements for any costs paid shall be submitted to the other party and paid within 14 days upon receiving record of payment.

h. Travel by the child: During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the child to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, or with others. If the child will be travelling for more than one day, the parent arranging travel will notify the other parent at least thirty days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations, and phone numbers at least thirty days in advance.

In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

i. Military service by a parent: Neither parent is a servicemember.

j. Relocation of a parent: The parties shall abide by the Utah Code 81-9-209 if either party relocates more than 150 miles away from the other party. The moving party shall notify the other party in writing 60 in advance of the move. Utah Code 81-9-209 is attached herewith as Exhibit "B."

- k. Mutual Restraining Orders: Both parties shall be mutually enjoined and restrained from discussing these proceedings and/or arguing while in the sight or hearing distance of the minor child.
- l. Both parties are mutually enjoined and restrained from exposing the minor child to discussions regarding custody, the court documents and/or questions about their desires regarding custody, including bringing the minor child into the middle of these discussions.
- m. Both parties shall be mutually restrained from discussing the case in the presence of the parties' child or allowing third parties to discuss the case in the presence of the parties' child.
- n. Both parties shall be restrained from making negative, disparaging, or derogatory comments about the other Party to or in the presence of the parties' child and shall use their best efforts to restrain third parties from making any such comments in the presence of the parties' child. This "non-negative, non-disparaging, non-derogatory" provision includes all communication between the parties or to third parties, whether by text message, email, direct phone calls, voice messages, live video or face-to face communication.
- o. Changing the plan: This plan remains in effect until changed. A change must be agreed to by both parents. Major or permanent changes must be in writing, but minor or temporary changes can be made orally.

14. CHILD SUPPORT: Jenna has a gross monthly income of $1,320. Samuel has a gross monthly income of $2,253.

15. Child support should be based upon the sole custody worksheet with Jenna being designated as the primary custodial parent.
16. Based upon the child support worksheet, Samuel shall pay to Jenna $346 per month in child support. Half shall be due by the 5th of every month and half shall be due by the 20th of every month.
17. ALIMONY: Neither party shall be awarded alimony from the other now or in the future.
18. DEPENDENT CHILD FOR TAX PURPOSES: Jenna shall claim the minor child every year for the purposes of tax deductions.
19. CHILD HEALTH CARE: The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent child. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101.
20. The minor child is currently covered through Medicaid for medical insurance, but through Jenna's dental insurance. Both parties shall pay half of the premiums incurred on behalf of the minor child.
21. Should insurance no longer be available through Jenna's employment at some point, the parties shall work together to decide on the most affordable and greatest coverage for the minor child. Both parties shall continue to pay half of the medical premiums incurred on behalf of the minor child.
22. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical, dental, or orthodontia expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent child.
23. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

24. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
25. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
26. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.
27. BUSINESSES: There are no businesses owned by either party requiring division by the Court.
28. VEHICLES: The parties do not own any joint vehicles.
29. PERSONAL PROPERTY: Each party shall be granted his or her personal effects and personal items of property. The parties' remaining personal property shall be divided as they agree. If there are remaining personal property disputes, the parties shall attend another session of mediation to decide upon those remaining items.
30. FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS: The parties shall be awarded their own separate bank accounts without any claim by the other party.
31. RETIREMENT: Neither party has retirement accounts requiring division by the Court.
32. REAL PROPERTY: The parties do not own any real property.
33. DEBTS: The parties do not have any joint debts. The parties have acquired separate debts during the marriage. Both parties shall be required to pay any and all debts incurred in their own names.
34. If either party incurs debts after the parties' separation, or in their own name without the other party's knowledge, each party shall be responsible for their own debt.
35. PUBLIC ASSISTANCE STATEMENT – OFFICE OF RECOVERY SERVICES (ORS): Neither party is receiving public assistance.

36. LEGAL FEES: Each party shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees and costs associated with this action. Samuel shall reimburse Jenna for half of the mediation cost.

37. DUTY TO SIGN DOCUMENTS: The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the Decree of Divorce within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the Court to appoint someone to sign the document.

38. Jenna and Samuel ask that they be granted a Decree of Divorce pursuant to the terms of this stipulation, and for such other relief as the court deems equitable and just.

Exhibit A – Utah Code 81-9-302

81-9-302 Minimum schedule for parent-time for a minor child five to 18 years old.

(1)The parent-time schedule in this section applies when establishing a parent-time schedule for a minor child who is five to 18 years old.

(2)If the parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule for a minor child who is five to 18 years old, the following schedule is considered the minimum parent-time to which the noncustodial parent is entitled to the minor child:

(i)one weekday evening to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court or Wednesday evening if not specified, beginning at 5:30 p.m. and ending at 8:30 p.m.; or

(ii)at the election of the noncustodial parent, one weekday to be specified by the noncustodial parent or the court:

(A)beginning at the time that the minor child's school is regularly dismissed and ending at 8:30 p.m.; or

(B)if school is not in session, the noncustodial parent is available to be with the minor child, and in accommodation with the custodial parent's work schedule, beginning at 8 a.m. and ending at 8:30 p.m.;

(b)

(i)beginning on the first weekend after entry of the decree, alternating weekends beginning at 5:30 p.m. on Friday and ending on Sunday at 8:30 p.m.; or

(ii)at the election of the noncustodial parent and beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the decree, alternating weekends:

(A)beginning at the time that the minor child's school is regularly dismissed on Friday and ending on Sunday at 8:30 p.m.; or

(B)if school is not in session, the noncustodial parent is available to be with the minor child, and in accommodation with the custodial parent's work schedule, beginning on Friday at 8 a.m. and ending on Sunday at 8:30 p.m.;

(c)each holiday granted to the noncustodial parent in accordance with the holiday schedule described in Subsection (12); and

(d)extended parent-time with the minor child when school is not in session for summer break in accordance with Subsection (3).

(a)For extended parent-time with the minor child described in Subsection (2)(d) and at the election of the noncustodial parent, the noncustodial parent is entitled up to four weeks of parent-time with the minor child when school is not in session for summer break, beginning at 8 a.m. on the first day and ending at 8:30 p.m. on the last day.

(b)For the four weeks of extended parent-time for a noncustodial parent under Subsection (3)(a):

(i)two weeks shall be uninterrupted parent-time for the noncustodial parent; and

(ii)two weeks may be interrupted by the custodial parent for a weekday visit on the same day on which the noncustodial parent is granted weekday day parent-time.

(c)A custodial parent is entitled to uninterrupted parent-time with the minor child for two weeks when school is not in session for summer break, beginning at 8 a.m. on the first day and ending at 8:30 p.m. on the last day.

(d) Extended parent-time described in this Subsection (3) shall be consecutive, except that the four weeks of extended parent-time for the noncustodial parent may be divided into two separate 14-day periods that are not consecutive.

(4)

(a) Each parent shall provide notification to the other parent of the parent's plans for the exercise of extended parent-time for summer break under Subsection (3).

(b) For the notification requirement described in Subsection (4)(a):

(i) in odd-numbered years:

(A) the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 1; and

(B) the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 15; and

(ii) in even-numbered years:

(A) the custodial parent shall provide notice to the noncustodial parent by May 1; and

(B) the noncustodial parent shall provide notice to the custodial parent by May 15.

(c)

(i) If a parent fails to provide a notification within the time periods described in Subsection (4)(b), the complying parent may determine the schedule for summer break for the noncomplying parent.

(ii) If both parents fail to provide notice within the time periods described in Subsection (4)(b), the first parent to provide notice may determine the schedule for summer break for that parent and the other parent.

(d) If a custodial parent intends to interrupt a noncustodial parent's parent-time under Subsection (3)(b)(ii), the custodial parent shall provide notification to the noncustodial parent of the intent to interrupt parent-time within 10 days after the day on which the custodial parent receives notification of the noncustodial parent's plans for the exercise of interrupted extended parent-time.

(a) An election should be made by the noncustodial parent at the time of entry of the divorce decree or court order, except that the election may be changed by mutual agreement, court order, or by the noncustodial parent in the event of a change in the minor child's schedule.

(b) An election by either parent concerning parent-time shall be made a part of the decree and made a part of the parent-time order.

(a) Changes may not be made to the parent-time schedule under this section, except that if a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

(i) the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day under Subsection (12);

(ii) the holiday schedule for the minor child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time under Subsection (3) and takes the minor child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;

(iii) the holiday schedule for any holiday under Subsection (12) that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or the minor child's birthday;

(iv) extended parent-time under Subsection (3); and

(v) the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

(b) A parent exercising parent-time for the minor child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the minor child's birthday.

(7) A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible adult designated by a parent, may pick up the minor child for parent-time if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual and the parent will be with the minor child by 7 p.m.

(8) If a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the parent exercising parent-time shall be responsible for the minor child's attendance at school for that school day.

(9) If there is more than one minor child and the minor children's school schedules vary for purpose of a holiday, at the option of the parent exercising the holiday or the parent's half of the holiday, the minor children may remain together for the holiday period beginning the first evening that all minor children's schools are dismissed for the holiday and ending the evening before any minor child returns to school.

(a) Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration.

(b)

(i) Virtual parent-time, if the equipment is reasonably available and the parents reside at least 100 miles apart, shall be at reasonable hours and for reasonable duration.

(ii) If the parties cannot agree on whether the equipment is reasonably available, the court shall decide whether the equipment for virtual parent-time is reasonably available, taking into consideration:

(A) the best interests of the minor child;

(B) each parent's ability to handle any additional expenses for virtual parent-time; and

(C) any other factors the court considers material.

(c) Virtual parent-time supplements, but does not replace, in-person parent-time.

(11) If there is a minor child five to 18 years old and a minor child under five years old and both minor children are the children of the parties, the parents and the court should consider an upward deviation for parent-time with all the minor children so that parent-time is uniform based on a schedule under this section.

(12) The following table is the holiday schedule for parent-time under this section.

Exhibit B – 81-9-209

81-9-209. Notice of relocation -- Effect of relocation on parent-time schedule.

- (1) As used in this section, "relocation" means moving 150 miles or more from the residence of the other parent.
- (2) The relocating parent shall provide written notice to the other parent at least 60 days before the day on which the relocating parent intends to relocate.
- (3) The written notice of relocation under Subsection (2) shall contain statements affirming :
 - (a) the parent-time provisions in Subsection (9) or a parent-time schedule approved by both parties will be followed; and
 - (b) that a parent will not interfere with the other's parental rights pursuant to court ordered parent-time arrangements or the parent-time schedule approved by both parties.
- (4) The court shall, upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, schedule a hearing with notice to:
 - (a) review the notice of relocation and the relevant parent-time schedule under Section 81-8-302 or 81-8-304; and

- (b) make appropriate orders regarding the parent-time schedule and costs for parent-time transportation.
- (5) In a hearing to review the notice of relocation, the court shall, in determining if the relocation of a custodial parent is in the best interest of the minor child, consider any other factors that the court considers relevant to the determination.
- (6) If the court determines that relocation is not in the best interest of the minor child, and the custodial parent relocates, the court may order a change of custody.
- (7) (a) If the court finds that the relocation is in the best interest of the minor child, the court shall determine the parent-time schedule and allocate the transportation costs that will be incurred for the minor child to visit the noncustodial parent.
- (b) In making a determination under Subsection (7)(a), the court shall consider:
- (i) the reason for the parent's relocation;
 - (ii) the additional costs or difficulty to both parents in exercising parent-time;
 - (iii) the economic resources of both parents; and
 - (iv) other factors the court considers necessary and relevant.
- (8) If a parent relocates because of an act of domestic violence or family violence by the other parent, the court shall make specific findings and orders with regard to the application of this section.
- (9) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, upon the relocation of one of the parties, the following schedule is the minimum parent-time the noncustodial parent is entitled to a minor child who is five to 18 years old:
- (a) in years ending in an odd number, the minor child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:
- (i) Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and
 - (ii) Spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;
- (b) in years ending in an even number, the minor child shall spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:
- (i) the entire winter school break period; and
 - (ii) the Fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;

- (c) extended parent-time equal to 1/2 of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks; and
 - (d) one weekend per month, at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent.
- (10) For extended parent-time under Subsection (9)(c), the minor child should be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins, except that this week is counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period.
- (11) (a) The court may also set a parent-time schedule for a minor child who is younger than five years old.
- (b) The schedule shall take into consideration the following:
 - (i) the age of the minor child;
 - (ii) the developmental needs of the minor child;
 - (iii) the distance between the parents' homes;
 - (iv) the travel arrangements and cost;
 - (v) the level of attachment between the minor child and the noncustodial parent; and
 - (vi) any other factors relevant to the best interest of the minor child.
- (12) The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.
- (a) (i) If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent shall receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend.
 - (ii) If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent is entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.
 - (b) If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend shall be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.
 - (c) If a minor child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the minor child begins the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (9) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days shall be included in the weekend parent-time.
- (13) The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

- (14) In the event finances and distance preclude the exercise of minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent during the school year, the court should consider awarding more time for the noncustodial parent during the summer time if it is in the best interests of the the minor child.
- (15) (a) Upon the motion of any party, the court may order uninterrupted parent-time with the noncustodial parent for a minimum of 30 days during extended parent-time, unless the court finds it is not in the best interest of the minor child.
- (b) If the court orders uninterrupted parent-time during a period not covered by this section, the court shall specify in its order which parent is responsible for the minor child's travel expenses.
- (16) (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court the relocating party shall be responsible for all the minor child's travel expenses relating to Subsections (9)(a) and (b) and 1/2 of the minor child's travel expenses relating to Subsection (9)(c), provided the noncustodial parent is current on all support obligations.
- (b) If the noncustodial parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, the noncustodial parent is responsible for all of the minor child's travel expenses under Subsection (9), unless the court rules otherwise.
- (c) A responsible party shall make a reimbursement to the other for the minor child's travel expenses within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.
- (17) The court may apply this provision to any preexisting decree of divorce.
- (18) Any action under this section may be set for an expedited hearing.
- (19) A parent who fails to comply with the notice of relocation in Subsection (2) is in contempt of the court's order.
