Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT COUNTY OF WEBER STATE OF UTAH
IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF: AYESHA FARANI, Petitioner, and SAID FARANI, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE Case No.: 224901477 Judge: Reuben J. Renstrom Commissioner: Brandon Richards

Petitioner Ayesha Farani (“Mother”), represented by Bishop Law P.C., and Respondent Said Farani (“Father”), represented by Taylor Broadhead, hereby agree to a full and final settlement of all issues between them in this case, and hereby stipulate and agree that the Court may enter a decree of divorce in conformity with the terms of this agreement.

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED

AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS

RECITALS

Decree of Divorce

Farani v Farani

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Service Members Civil Relief Act, both parties hereby certify that neither party is engaged in military service, and,

WHEREAS, this is the final and only agreement between the parties, and no other representation, oral or in writing, shall be binding upon them unless presented to and ordered by this Court; and,

WHEREAS, the parties each warrant and represent that they are free from any disability or impairment that might interfere with his or her competence to know and understand the terms and conditions of this agreement and that each has had an opportunity to discuss this matter and this document with his or her own counsel; and,

WHEREAS, the parties each warrant that they have been given the opportunity to retain independent counsel in order to be independently apprised and advised of their respective legal rights, remedies, privileges and obligations, arising out of the marital and co-parenting relationships or otherwise, by counsel of their own choice and selection; and,

WHEREAS, the parties each warrant and represent to the other that they, and each of them, fully understand all of the terms, covenants, conditions, provisions, and obligations incumbent upon each of them by virtue of this agreement to be performed or contemplated by each of them hereunder, and each believes the same to be fair, just, and reasonable; and,

WHEREAS, the parties both participated in drafting this document and there shall not be a drafting presumption against either party; and,

WHEREAS, it is the intention of the parties to agree that Decree of Divorce be entered in this matter; it is the parties' desire to enter into an agreement under which their respective rights, remedies, privileges, and obligations to each other shall be fully settled and resolved.

GROUND FOR JURISDICTION

1. Residency. Parties are bona fide residents of Weber County, State of Utah, and have been for three months immediately prior to the filing of this action.
2. Marriage Statistics. The parties were married on September 6, 2002 and are currently married.

Decree of Divorce

Farani v Farani

3. Separation. The parties separated in May of 2022.
4. Grounds. During the course of the marriage, Parties have experienced difficulties that cannot be reconciled that have prevented Parties from pursuing a viable marriage relationship; therefore, a divorce is hereby granted on grounds of irreconcilable differences, which shall be final and absolute upon entry.
5. Children. The parties have four children together, but only two are minor children. The following are minor children of the parties.

Name	Date of Birth
Z.S.F.	July 2011
F.S.F.	October 2012

PARENTING PLAN

6. Custody/Parent time. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of their minor children. Parent-time with the children shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. The parties agree to the following transitional parent time schedule up to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-305 as follows:

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Sat	Sun
Week 1	Mother	Mother	Father	Father	Father	Father	Father
Week 2	Mother	Mother	Father	Father	Mother	Mother	Mother

- a. The parties shall follow a 5-2-2-5 scheduled, with Father exercising overnights every Wednesday and Thursday, and Mother exercising overnights every Monday and Tuesday, with the parties alternating Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

- b. Summer-time. Summer uninterrupted, extended parent-time shall be according to Utah Code Annotated §81-9-305. Each party shall receive up to four weeks uninterrupted parent time when school is not in session. The two consecutive weeks shall take precedence over regular parent time, but not holidays.
7. Notification of Extended Time. Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the children by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may have priority. Extended parent-time during the summer must be clearly limited to a maximum of four (4) consecutive weeks per parent. This extended time must not alter or affect the established parent-time rotation. Upon completion, the schedule should resume exactly where it left off.
8. Holidays. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. Holidays do not reset, shift, or interfere with the established rotation. The schedule should pause for the holiday period and then continue where it left off. If the parties cannot agree the holidays time will be according to Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-302, including additional religious/cultural holidays as follows:

9. Legal Custody. The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the children's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their children's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the children, the parties will first seek the advice of an expert in the field. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate before court intervention.

Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the children's day-to-day activities when the children are in his or her care.

- a. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated § 15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.
 - b. Educational Plan. The children shall remain enrolled in Weber High School and North Ogden Junior High. They shall continue in those schools unless both parties agree in writing to a different placement or the court orders a change. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.
10. Relocation. Neither party shall relocate more than 100 miles from the other parent without the written agreement of both parties or an order of the court authorizing the relocation.
 11. Communication. The parties will discuss all parenting concerns by text or e-mail at any time needed and will not use their children to deliver messages. The parties will use phone or text contact for emergencies or changes on the day of the exchange. All communication will be civil and will not be for the purpose to harass or annoy the other parent.

12. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Children. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the children.

13. Travel.

a. When the children travel with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

- i. An itinerary of travel dates;
- ii. Destination;
- iii. Places where the children or traveling parent can be reached;
- iv. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the children's location.

b. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the children's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

14. Change of Information. Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

15. Notification of Children's Events. The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their children with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their children may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the calendar shall constitute notice.

16. Special Events. Each parent shall have full control over their own parent-time and may travel or make plans freely, including time with extended family. Parent-time shall not be interrupted except in limited circumstances. Only immediate family events, such as weddings, funerals, or genuine emergencies, may justify a temporary adjustment. Any such adjustment requires reasonable notice and cooperation. Immediate family for these purposes includes the children's first cousins, aunts, uncles, and grandparents.

17. Mutual Restraining.

- a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the children in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the children in a way that promotes their best interest.
- b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the children or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the children's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the children, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the children for information regarding what occurs when the children are with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

- c. The parties will not use their children to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the children or at any children's activity.
 - d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their children about one another or in the children's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.
 - e. The parties shall not go to the other parties' place of employment or residence except for child exchanges without written permission from the other party.
 - f. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.
 - g. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor children from such circumstances.
18. First Right of Refusal. Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight or more during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation.

19. Dispute Resolution. If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their children generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical.
20. Activity Costs. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor children may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Our Family Wizard Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

21. School Fees. Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket required school expenses (i.e. registration, lunches, books, required supplies, uniforms, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.
22. Transportation for the Children. The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, except as otherwise outlined in this agreement, the receiving parent will provide the transportation from the other parent's residence unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

23. Child Support. Given the parties' equal parent-time, and relatively similar incomes, Mother making $5,000 and Father making $4,500 per month, Given the relatively de minimis amount of child support, the child support obligation is suspended until further order of the Court.. Any future determination of child support shall be based on the parties' actual incomes and circumstances as established at that time.

24. Medical/Dental Expenses. The children shall remain enrolled in Medicaid for as long as they are eligible. Neither parent shall be required to obtain private health insurance for the children while Medicaid coverage is available. If either parent elects to obtain private insurance, that parent shall be solely responsible for the cost of the premiums unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.

- a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.
- b. Uncovered medical, dental, orthodontic, therapeutic, or vision expenses shall be shared equally.
- c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party should be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor children as indicated.

- d. If, at any point in time, the dependent children are covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be primary coverage for the dependent children and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be secondary coverage for the dependent children. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent children are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent children.
- e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.
- f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

25. 2021 Taxes. The parties currently have a 2021 federal tax debt arrearage. The 2021 federal tax debt shall be paid directly from escrow to the mother. Mother will assess the current balance and Father will release that amount from escrow to Mother. Mother shall have 30 days from receiving the confirmed amount to negotiate to lower the amount owed to federal tax in good faith. If the amount owed was reduced through negotiation, the remaining amount shall be split equally between mother and father, 50/50.
26. Mother's wages were garnished $2,160 for the parties' 2021 state taxes. Mother will be reimbursed one half of those garnishments in the amount of $1,080 from Father's portion of the proceeds from the sale of the marital home.
27. 2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025 Taxes. The parties agree to file separately for the tax years 2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025 with each party being responsible for any individual tax liabilities for those years.
28. CareCredit Debt. The parties currently have a CareCredit debt. The CareCredit debt shall be paid directly from escrow to the mother. Mother will assess the current balance and Father will release that amount from escrow to Mother. Mother shall have 30 days from receiving the confirmed amount to negotiate to lower the amount owed to CareCredit in good faith. If the amount owed was reduced through negotiation, the remaining amount shall be split equally between Mother and Father, 50/50.

29. Dependency exemption. The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor children as follows:

- a. While there are two minor children, the parties will each receive one child as a dependency exemption/tax credit. Father will claim the oldest child and Mother will claim the youngest child.
- b. When there is only one minor child, the parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. Father will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Mother will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

30. Real Property. The marital home located at 1776 North 925 East, North Ogden, Utah (“Marital Home”) has been sold.

- a. The parties shall divide the net equity on the home as follows:
 - i. The parties shall pay the agreed upon marital debts discussed below in paragraph 30.
 - ii. All remaining equity from the sale of the Marital Home shall be split equally between the parties.

31. Personal Property. During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
--------------------------	--------------------

First choice of three of the five Persian rugs	Father
Remaining two Persian Rugs	Mother
Father's tools	Father
Gun safe	Father
AR 15	Father
Handgun	Father
Musical Keyboard	Father
Mixer	Father
Speakers	Father
Camping gear	Father
Two of the four storage racks in garage	Father
Two of the four storage racks in garage	Mother
Television located in the basement	Father
Television upstairs	Mother
Sectional sofa in the basement	Father
Sofa from upstairs	Mother
Samsung refrigerator	Father

- a. Each party is awarded their own personal property and effects and that property which is now in their individual possession or under their individual control, except as indicated within this stipulation.

Debts. There is an unidentifiable amount of marital debt that is solely in Father's name. In the interest of resolving all remaining issues in good faith and avoiding further conflict, the parties agree that they will divide the remaining home equity equally after first paying the 2021 taxes and the CareCredit balance. All fund held in escrow will be disbursed immediately in accordance to paragraph's 26, 28 and 30.

- b. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards or any other form of debt following separation, and all joint accounts shall be closed.
- c. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt should be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.
- d. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.
- e. Undisclosed Assets: Any undisclosed assets shall be awarded to the other party. This specifically includes:
- All bank accounts (checking and savings)
 - Any joint accounts held with third parties

- Retirement accounts, including 401(k)s
 - Investment accounts or financial holdings
 - Any assets held domestically or internationally
32. Name. Mother will have the option of restoring her name to her maiden name of Ayesha Angela Farzaie.
33. Alimony. Neither party should be awarded alimony. Both parties waive and relinquish the right to receive alimony from the other both now and in the future.
34. Protective Order. Mother shall dismiss the criminal protective order against Father.
35. Reimbursement for Marital Home Fees. Mother agrees to reimburse Father half of $178.00 ($89) for her portion of unpaid utilities and half of $295.00 ($147.50) for repairs related to the Marital Home.
36. Deeds and Titles. Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.
37. Full Disclosure. The parties each indicate that there has been a complete accurate and current disclosure of all income, assets, and liabilities. Both parties understand and agree that any failure to provide complete disclosure may constitute perjury. The property and assets referred to in this decree represents all the property which either party has any interest in or right to, whether legal or equitable, owned in full or in part by either party, separately or by the parties jointly. The parties agree that any undisclosed asset(s) or property(ies) later discovered may be forfeited by the non-disclosing party to the other party.

38. Divorce Education. The parties will have taken the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class.

39. Attorney's Fees and Costs. Each party should be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
