Michael C Dixon (801) 309-9715

Communication with the children

18. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

19. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

Records and information sharing

20. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

21. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

22. If the children will be travelling for more than 5 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 14 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 14 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Child care

23. A child care provider for our children must be:
A relative, friend, or neighbor.

Relocation of a parent

24. Neither parent may relocate with the minor children more than 30 miles from their current residence without a written agreement signed by the parties or further court order.

25. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be shared equally.

26. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

27. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

28. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Chelsi S Dixon) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

30. Chelsi S Dixon's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3367. Chelsi S Dixon receives the following gross monthly income:

Income: Respondent (Michael C Dixon) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

31. Michael C Dixon's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $11803. Michael C Dixon receives the following gross monthly income:

32. The adjusted gross monthly income for Michael C Dixon is $11803.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

33. Chelsi S Dixon believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:
The reason(s) for deviation are Michael Dixon and Chelsi Dixon both agree that this amount is fair and justified for our kids to be taken care of with both parents..

34. It is in the best interest of the children that Michael C Dixon be ordered to pay child support to Chelsi S Dixon as follows:

a. $1,200.00 per month. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.

b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:

- a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
- a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

35. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

36. Chelsi S Dixon will give Michael C Dixon the information needed to set up direct deposit through Michael C Dixon's employer. Once Michael C Dixon has the information, Michael C Dixon will have Michael C Dixon's employer set up direct deposit to an account of Chelsi S Dixon's choice. One half of the child support is due by the 5th of each month, and the other half is due by the 20th of each month.

37. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

38. Michael C Dixon will pay any ORS fees. If Chelsi S Dixon is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Chelsi S Dixon, Michael C Dixon will reimburse Chelsi S Dixon.

39. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

40. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

41. As long as Chelsi S Dixon is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Chelsi S Dixon may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

a. Treyton Dixon, Breydon Dixon

42. As long as Michael C Dixon is current on all child support and other court-ordered financial obligations, Michael C Dixon may claim the following children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as allowed by law:

b. Brooklyn Dixon

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

43. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

44. n/a must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage.

This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Michael C Dixon's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Chelsi S Dixon's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Michael C Dixon's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Chelsi S Dixon's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

45. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

46. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.
