PARENTING PLAN

This Parenting Plan is being filed in good faith.

This parenting plan is agreed to by Amanda Sue Goodrich and Samuel Wesley Goodrich.

Children - custody

(Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 9, Part 3)

7. It is in the children's best interest that the parties be awarded Joint Legal Custody and that Amanda Sue Goodrich be awarded Sole Physical custody. Samuel Wesley Goodrich should have parent-time at reasonable times and places. Amanda Sue Goodrich is filing this Parenting Plan and verifies the plan is filed in good faith.

Parent-time

8. The parents will follow a custom parent-time schedule:

The parents will follow a custom parent-time schedule.

a. I, Amanda Goodrich will have the children during the weekdays to ensure their going to school, drop offs and pick-ups from daycare and other after school programs. Weekends will alternate as needed between Samuel Goodrich and Amanda Goodrich. If other arrangements need to be made based on special occasions, health, work, or any other reasonable reason we can communicate with one another and adjust as needed. Holidays, so far trading off has worked well for the ones since October, with no trouble. We will continue observing this custom.

	Birthdays take precedence over holidays and extended parent-time, except Mother's Day and Father's Day. Birthdays do not take precedence over uninterrupted parent-time if the parent exercising uninterrupted time takes the child away from that parent's residence for the uninterrupted extended parent-time.

Parent-time transfers

10. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Curbside transfers

11. There will not be curbside transfers. The parent/person dropping-off or picking-up a child may accompany the children to the other parent/person when parent-time transfers are made.

Decision-making

12. Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Sole decision-making.

13. Both Amanda Sue Goodrich and Samuel Wesley Goodrich will make decisions about education together.

14. Both Amanda Sue Goodrich and Samuel Wesley Goodrich will make decisions about health care together.

15. Both Amanda Sue Goodrich and Samuel Wesley Goodrich will make decisions about religion together.

Education plan

16. The school the children will attend is based on Amanda Sue Goodrich's home residence.

17. Amanda Sue Goodrich and Samuel Wesley Goodrich has authority to check the children out of school. Amanda Sue Goodrich and Samuel Wesley Goodrich has access to the children during school. If the parents cannot agree, education decisions will be made by Amanda Sue Goodrich.

Communication with each other

18. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

19. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

20. Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

- By any method

21. Other terms about communication with the children: The Safety of the Children is Number 1. Whether it's a real threat or a perceived one in the care of one parent the children will be allowed to communicate with their other parent openly and the other parent is allowed to ensure the children's safety before returning them to said parent. Open communication will not be punished or penalized by either parent, the children will not be reprimanded or prevented from necessary attendance to school, church, or other places unless the real or perceived threat is in that location and will only be prevented until the real or perceived threat is no longer going to affect the children.

Records and information sharing

22. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

23. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others.

24. If the children will be travelling for more than 2 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 30 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 30 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

25. Other agreements about travel by the children: The children will sometimes travel with Amanda Goodrich to Puerto Rico, her natal country/territory of the United States. Samuel Goodrich has travelled there before and will be provided with details.

Child care

26. A child care provider for our children must be:
A licensed child care provider.
Over the age of 17.

Other qualifications: Only family members previously discussed and authorized by both Amanda Goodrich and Samuel Goodrich. Only Members of our Faith previously discussed and approved by both Amanda Goodrich and Samuel Goodrich. If someone isn't family or a member of our faith both parents, Amanda Goodrich and Samuel Goodrich need to approve this person before the children are entrusted in their care.

27. Other terms about child care: We BOTH, Amanda Goodrich and Samuel Goodrich need to make the other parent aware of where, how long, and with who the children will be. And the other parent needs to be okay with it or other arrangements need to be made. The reason for why the children are being left in trusted care is only necessary if it directly affects the children, the future plans or the schedule.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 81-9-209)

28. If either parent moves more than 149 miles from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

- a. The written Notice of Relocation must include:
 - Information about the move;
 - A proposed parent-time schedule; and
 - A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.
- b. If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the court's order.

29. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other, or if the parents live in different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 81-9-209)

- a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:
 - i. Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and
 - ii. spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;
- b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:
 - i. the entire winter school break period; and
 - ii. the fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes; and
- c. extended parent-time equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks. The children will be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.

d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.

i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent will be entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.

ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.

iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (5) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

30. Other terms about relocating: If a parent is relocating due to safety concerns related to the other parent this opens up friendly and voluntary welcoming of investigation by the alleged unsafe parent to ensure safety either continues or is compromised, and if it is compromised, custody arrangement may be revisited. If safety is provably compromised or only suspected, the children will not be forced to spend time where they do not feel safe unless and until safety can be re-established to a satisfactory level by the children and the alleged safe parent. A third party's vetting such as trusted family member's of the alleged safe parent, clergy members, or even law enforcement's, can be used to re-assert the safety of the children in the care of the alleged unsafe parent.

31. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be paid by the parties as follows: Whoever, by choice, has incurred in the most expenses will carry the extra expenses not previously in existence, unless the reason for moving is medical, in which case both parents are responsible for the health and relocation of the children.

32. If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

33. Reimbursement for the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Resolving disputes

34. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court:

a. Mediation

35. Other agreements about resolving disputes:

b. Involving a licensed counselor, pertinent healthcare professional, consulting with school faculty, law enforcement, or church clergy is acceptable to help bring perspective and attempt resolution. Both parties are required to act in good faith remembering that the purpose of involving anybody else is to keep the children's best interest at heart and to pay attention to unbiased parties that can assist in understanding issues better and resolve them. If that does not work then mediation can be accessed.

Changing the plan

This plan remains in effect until changed. A change comes from a modification of a court order.

END OF PARENTING PLAN

Income: Petitioner (Amanda Sue Goodrich) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

36. Amanda Sue Goodrich's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $1213. Amanda Sue Goodrich base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $151. Amanda Sue Goodrich receives the following gross monthly income:

Income: Respondent (Samuel Wesley Goodrich) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

37. Samuel Wesley Goodrich's gross monthly income for child support purposes is $3042. Samuel Wesley Goodrich's base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $871. Samuel Wesley Goodrich receives the following gross monthly income:

38. The adjusted gross monthly income for Samuel Wesley Goodrich is $3042.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

39. It is in the best interest of the children that Samuel Wesley Goodrich be ordered to pay child support to Amanda Sue Goodrich as follows:

a. $871.00 per month base support. This amount complies with the Utah Child Support Act.

40. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

41. The sole custody worksheet was used to calculate child support.

Amanda Sue Goodrich's base child support amount is $151 per month.

Samuel Wesley Goodrich's base child support amount is $871 per month.

If physical custody of a child changes from what the court orders:

- The parent owing support must pay the support amount to whomever has physical custody of the child.
- The parent must pay the support amount without asking the court to modify the child support order.
- This does not apply to temporary parent-time changes. (Utah Code 81-6-104(4) and 81-6-205(8)(a)).

Child support reduction for extended parent-time

42. If a child lives with the non-custodial parent by court order or written agreement of the parties for:

- 25 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 50% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(a)).
- 12 of any 30 consecutive days, base child support will be reduced by 25% for each child who lives with the non-custodial parent during that time. (Utah Code 81-6-211(1)(b)).

The custodial parent's normal parent-time and holiday parent-time do not count as an interruption of the consecutive day requirement.

43. If a child receives cash assistance through the T.A.N.F. or F.E.P. programs, any agreement by the parties to reduce child support during extended parent-time must be approved by the Office of Recovery Services.

44. The person ordered to receive child support can request mandatory income withholding (Utah Code 62A-11 parts 4 and 5). If support is past due, the State of Utah may take federal or state tax refunds or rebates and apply the amounts to the child support owed.

- a. Withheld income will be sent to the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) until all past-due support is paid. Child support payments will be sent to:
2540 Washington Blvd., 7th Floor Ogden, Utah 84401
unless ORS gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

45. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and will be past due on the first day of the next month.

46. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

47. Amanda Sue Goodrich and Samuel Wesley Goodrich will each pay half of any ORS fee.

- a. If a fee is withheld from payments to Amanda Sue Goodrich, Samuel Wesley Goodrich will reimburse Amanda Sue Goodrich for half the fee.

48. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

49. The parties can ask to change this child support order by motion after three years from the date of its entry if:

- there is a difference of 10% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines,
- the difference is not temporary, and
- the amount previously ordered was not a deviation from the child support guidelines.

If the children receive TANF funds at the time an adjustment is sought, ORS will review the order and ask the court to adjust the amount if appropriate. (Utah Code 62A-11-306.2).

50. The parties can ask to change this child support order at any time by petition if there has been a substantial change in circumstances because of material changes in:

- custody;
- the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
- income of a parent of 30% or more;
- the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
- the medical needs of the child; or
- the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.

(Utah Code 81-6-202 and 81-6-212)

The change must result in a difference of 15% or more between the amount previously ordered and the new amount of child support under the Utah child support guidelines.

The difference may not be temporary.

The court can consider natural or adoptive children born after the entry of the decree other than those in common to both parties as part of a request to modify an existing award subject to limitations in the law. (Utah Code 81-6-202(8))

51. The parties will do the following for child related support or expenses:

- a. Merely that the child support issue is not in any way ventilated in front of the children, used to add to the children's emotional load or in any other harmful way, or made to become something to discuss with the children. That they not be made responsible for making those grownup decisions. And that the matter is not used to speak ill of the other parent.

52. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

53. The parents may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes as follows:

54. Amanda Sue Goodrich may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in odd numbered years. Samuel Wesley Goodrich may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes in even numbered years.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

55. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

56. Parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

- a. Responsibility for child medical and dental expenses will be as follows:
- b. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Amanda Sue Goodrich's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Samuel Wesley Goodrich's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- c. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:
 - Amanda Sue Goodrich's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
 - Samuel Wesley Goodrich's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.
- d. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.
- e. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.
- f. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.
- g. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.
- h. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.
- i. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

57. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

- a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

Additional provisions

66. The parties will adhere to the following additional provisions:

a.

Additional Provision: 1. Exposure to Pornographic or Explicit Content The minor children shall not be intentionally exposed, nor negligently allowed to be exposed, to pornographic, sexually explicit, or graphic adult content in either digital or physical form or to its derivatives. This restriction applies to exposure by either parent or by any third parties in their care, including friends, relatives, or romantic partners. Age-appropriate educational materials related to health, biology, or human development may be shared with the children when reasonably necessary for medical or academic purposes. In such cases, the parents shall communicate and make reasonable efforts to agree beforehand regarding the appropriateness of the material and the timing of such discussions. This provision is not intended to restrict exposure to legitimate educational, historical, or artistic works that may contain non-sexual nudity when presented in an age-appropriate context (such as museums, textbooks, or academic study). Each parent agrees to make reasonable efforts to supervise the children's access to internet-connected devices and implement age-appropriate parental controls when feasible. IF the children are exposed this brings into question the safety of the minor children and it may open to investigation.

Additional Provision: 2. Illegal Substances, Smoking, and Vaping Neither parent shall possess, use, distribute, or permit the use of illegal substances in the presence of the minor children, nor knowingly allow the children to remain in an environment where illegal substances are present or being used. Neither parent shall use illegal substances or be under the influence of illegal substances while exercising parenting time with the minor children. Each parent shall take reasonable steps to ensure that friends, relatives, or romantic partners do not use illegal substances in the presence of the minor children. Additionally, the parents shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that the minor children are not exposed to smoking or vaping. Neither parent, nor any friends, relatives, or romantic partners present during parenting time, shall smoke or use vaping devices directly in view or inhaling distance of the minor children.

Additional Provision: 3. Firearm Safety If either parent keeps or stores firearms in their residence, vehicle, or property where the minor children are present, those firearms shall be securely stored in a locked container, safe, or with a locking device when not under the direct control of the parent. Ammunition shall be stored separately or otherwise secured in a manner that prevents access by the minor children. The parents agree to take reasonable precautions to ensure that the minor children do not have unsupervised access to firearms and to promote responsible firearm safety practices as the children grow older. Nothing in this provision is intended to restrict either parent's lawful possession or licensed concealed carry of a firearm in accordance with applicable state or federal law. Each parent shall make reasonable efforts to be aware of firearm safety in environments where the minor children may spend extended time, including the homes of relatives or friends.

Additional Provision: 4. Sleep Aids and Supplements The parents agree that sleep aids or supplements for the minor children, including but not limited to melatonin, shall not be routinely administered without discussion between both parents and consideration of guidance from a pediatric healthcare provider. Such sleep aids may be used on a limited basis when reasonably necessary, such as during long-distance travel, significant schedule disruption, or situations where the child is unusually sleep deprived and unable to sleep. Both parents agree to prioritize healthy sleep routines and age-appropriate bedtime practices whenever possible.

Additional Provision: 5. Parental Controls on Devices If the children have a phone or any device with internet access, it will have parental control implemented when feasible. All devices that the children have unfettered access to, like a home computer, will also have parental control.

f.

Additional Provision: 6. Respectful Communication Between Parents Both parents agree to refrain from speaking negatively or disparagingly about the other parent in the presence or hearing of the minor children. The parents shall also make reasonable efforts to ensure that friends, relatives, or romantic partners do not engage in such behavior in the presence of the children. The minor children shall not be used as messengers to relay communications, requests, or disputes between the parents. All parental communication regarding the children shall occur directly between the parents.

g.

Additional Provision: 7. Protection From Adult Conflict Both parents agree that the minor children shall not be involved in or exposed to disputes regarding legal proceedings, financial matters, or disagreements between the parents. The parents shall not discuss court matters, child support, legal strategy, or other adult disputes with the children, nor seek to involve the children in such matters. Each parent agrees to make reasonable efforts to shield the children from adult conflict and ensure that they are not placed in the position of feeling responsible for parental disagreements.

Additional Provision: 8. Social Activities and Curfews When the minor children request to participate in social activities with friends without direct parental supervision, both parents shall be informed and involved in decisions regarding permission for such activities, including the location, supervision arrangements, and transportation when reasonably applicable. When the minor children participate in social activities with friends without direct parental supervision, the parent granting permission shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that the following information is known: • The location where the children will be spending time. • The identity of the friend or friends involved. • Contact information for the supervising adult or the parent/guardian of the friend when reasonably available. The children shall have reasonable means of contacting either parent while away from home when age-appropriate. Both parents agree to establish and enforce reasonable curfews consistent with the children's ages, safety, and the nature of the activity.

Additional Provision: 9. Dating Guidance When the minor children begin expressing interest in romantic relationships or having a boyfriend or girlfriend, both parents shall work together to provide guidance and establish age-appropriate expectations consistent with the family's values and the children's well-being.

j.

Additional Provision: 10. Teen Driving When the minor children reach driving age and express interest in obtaining a driver's permit or license, both parents shall communicate and work together regarding decisions related to driver education, licensing, and driving privileges. The parents shall encourage responsible and safe driving practices and ensure that the children comply with all applicable laws regarding driver training, licensing, and restrictions for minor drivers. Any decisions regarding the purchase or provision of a vehicle for a minor child, as well as responsibility for insurance coverage and related expenses, shall be discussed and agreed upon by the parents in advance when reasonably possible.

k.

Additional Provision: 11. Body Modifications and Major Medical Procedures Neither parent shall permit or authorize permanent or significant body modifications for the minor children without prior discussion and mutual agreement between both parents. Body modifications under this provision may include, but are not limited to, tattoos, piercings (other than standard ear piercings when age-appropriate), or other permanent alterations to the child's body. This provision does not apply to medically necessary procedures recommended by licensed healthcare professionals. This provision does not apply to medically necessary procedures recommended by licensed healthcare professionals. However, except in cases of medical emergency, significant medical procedures involving the minor children shall be discussed between both parents in advance and require the consent of both parents when reasonably possible.

Additional Provision: 12. Children's Social Media Accounts The parents agree that the minor children shall not create or maintain personal social media accounts until at least sixteen (16) years of age, unless both parents mutually agree otherwise. When the children become eligible for social media use, both parents agree to encourage responsible, safe, and age-appropriate online behavior and to provide reasonable supervision of the children's online activity. The parents shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that the children's personal information, location, and identifying details are not shared publicly in ways that could compromise the children's safety.

Additional Provision: 13. Posting Children Online Neither parent shall post images or personal information about the minor children on public social media in a manner that could reasonably compromise their safety or privacy. Neither parent shall post photographs, videos, or identifying personal information of the minor children on publicly accessible social media platforms or online forums without the prior knowledge and consent of the other parent. Identifying information may include, but is not limited to, the children's full names, location information, school names, schedules, or other details that could reasonably reveal the children's identity or whereabouts. This provision is not intended to restrict the private sharing of photographs or updates with family members or close friends through private messages or limited-access platforms when reasonable precautions are taken to protect the children's safety and privacy. Both parents agree to make reasonable efforts to ensure that third parties, including friends, relatives, or romantic partners, do not post identifying images or information about the minor children publicly online without parental permission.

n.

Additional Provision: 14. Right of First Refusal If either parent requires childcare for a period longer than four (4) consecutive hours during their scheduled parenting time, that parent shall first offer the other parent the opportunity to care for the minor children before arranging care with a third party, unless otherwise previously agreed between the parents. The other parent shall have a reasonable opportunity to accept or decline such offer. The parent receiving the offer shall respond within a reasonable time after being notified. If the parent receiving the offer declines or is unavailable, the parent exercising parenting time may make appropriate childcare arrangements. This practice is known as right of first refusal.

Additional Provision: 15. Introduction of Romantic Partners Neither parent shall introduce the minor children to a romantic partner until the relationship has been ongoing for at least three (3) months. This provision is intended to promote stability and allow the parents to exercise reasonable discretion in introducing significant individuals into the children's lives. If either parent marries a partner prior to the expiration of the three (3) month period, the children may be introduced to the spouse at that time. Neither parent shall allow a romantic partner to stay overnight in the same residence while the minor children are present until the relationship has been ongoing for at least three (3) months or until the parties are married, whichever occurs first. This provision applies only to individuals involved in a romantic relationship with the parent and does not apply to ordinary guests, friends, or family members.

Additional Provision: 16. Legal Name Amanda shall retain her current legal last name following the divorce. Nothing in this agreement shall restrict her ability to change her legal name in the future in accordance with applicable law should she choose to do so.

q.

Additional Provision: 17. Non-Interference by Third Parties The parents agree that decisions, communication, and cooperation regarding the minor children shall remain between the parents. Neither parent shall permit a romantic partner or any third party to interfere with, alter, or negatively influence established communication, agreements, or co-parenting arrangements between the parents. The existence of a romantic relationship or marriage shall not be used as a basis to limit, restrict, or modify communication or cooperation between the parents regarding the minor children. Each parent shall remain responsible for maintaining respectful and cooperative communication with the other parent and shall not allow the preferences, opinions, or demands of a romantic partner or third party to negatively affect co-parenting decisions or interactions. This provision does not prevent a parent from seeking advice or support from a spouse or partner; however, final decisions and communication shall remain the responsibility of the parent.

Additional Provision: 18. Supervision of Children in Vehicles The parents agree that the minor children shall not be left unattended in a motor vehicle without direct supervision. A child shall not be left in a vehicle if the parent or supervising adult is not within immediate proximity and able to maintain continuous visual awareness of the vehicle and the children inside. Each parent shall ensure that the minor children are not left in a vehicle for any period of time that could reasonably pose a risk to their safety or well-being, taking into account the children's ages, environmental conditions, and surrounding circumstances.

Additional Provision: 19. Supervision in the Home The parents agree that the minor children shall not be left home alone without appropriate supervision in a manner that would be inconsistent with their ages, maturity, or safety, or that could reasonably place them at risk. Each parent shall exercise reasonable judgment in determining when a child is of sufficient age and maturity to remain home alone for a limited period of time, consistent with applicable laws and general child safety guidelines. Younger children shall not be left home alone without supervision, except in cases of temporary necessity or emergency, and only for the minimum time required under the circumstances. No child shall be left home alone if doing so would violate applicable law or create a foreseeable risk to the child's safety or well-being.

Additional Provision: 20.Notification of Significant Changes Each parent shall notify the other parent of any significant changes affecting the minor children as soon as reasonably possible. Such changes may include, but are not limited to, changes in residence, contact information, or other circumstances that may impact the care, safety, or well-being of the minor children. Both parents agree to keep one another reasonably informed so as to support continuity, stability, and the best interests of the minor children. In other words each parent shall promptly notify the other parent of any change in residence or contact information, and other pertinent information used to access, locate or communicate with the children. Also of health status, schooling, childcare arrangements, or other circumstances that may impact the care, safety, or well-being of the minor children.

u.

Additional Provision: 21.Parent–Child Communication During Parenting Time Each parent shall allow and support reasonable communication between the minor children and the other parent during parenting time. Such communication may include phone calls, video calls, or other age-appropriate forms of contact. Communication may occur on a scheduled or unscheduled basis, depending on the needs of the children and the circumstances. Scheduled communication shall be honored when agreed upon, and unscheduled communication shall be permitted at reasonable times, taking into account the children's routines, activities, and well-being. Neither parent shall unreasonably restrict, interfere with, or monitor such communication in a manner that would inhibit the children's ability to maintain a healthy relationship with the other parent. Both parents agree to encourage consistent, positive, and appropriate communication so as to support the emotional well-being of the minor children and their relationship with both parents.

Additional Provision: 22.Exchange and Pickup Conduct The parents agree to conduct all exchanges of the minor children in a timely, respectful, and conflict-free manner. Both parents shall make reasonable efforts to be punctual and to communicate in advance regarding any delays or necessary changes. Exchanges shall occur in a calm and appropriate environment. Neither parent shall engage in arguments, confrontations, or discussions of disputes in the presence or hearing of the minor children during exchanges. Both parents agree to act in a manner that minimizes stress and supports a smooth transition for the children between households, with the goal of promoting the children's emotional well-being and sense of security.

W.

Additional Provision: 23.Extra Curricular Activities Both parents shall communicate and make reasonable efforts to agree on the minor children's participation in extracurricular activities, including scheduling, transportation, and associated costs. Neither parent shall enroll the minor children in extracurricular activities that would substantially interfere with the other parent's scheduled parenting time without prior discussion and mutual agreement, when reasonably possible. The parents agree to cooperate in supporting the minor children's interests and development, while considering the children's schedules, needs, and overall well-being. Both parents shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that the children are able to attend agreed-upon activities, and to share relevant information regarding schedules, locations, and requirements.

X.

Additional Provision: 24.Child Safety and Temporary Suspension of Parenting Time The safety and well-being of the minor children shall take priority over scheduled parenting time. If either parent reasonably believes that the children may be at risk of harm or unsafe conditions while in the care of the other parent, that parent may temporarily withhold parenting time for the limited purpose of ensuring the children's safety. In such circumstances, the parent shall promptly communicate the concerns to the other parent and make reasonable efforts to resolve the issue in good faith. Parenting time shall resume once the concern has been reasonably addressed and the children's safety can be assured. The parents agree that they will act in good faith to ensure the children experience safety and peace, and will take all concerns from the children seriously until appropriate investigation resolves the matter. When appropriate, and with mutual agreement when reasonably possible, a neutral third party may be involved for the limited purpose of assessing or confirming that the children's environment is safe and appropriate prior to the resumption of parenting time.

Additional Provision: 25. Safety Under the Same Roof The parents agree to inform and, when reasonably possible, consult with the other parent if the minor children will be spending one or more nights under the same roof with individuals who are not part of the regular household or who would not ordinarily reside overnight in that environment. This applies both to overnight guests in a parent's residence and to situations where the children are staying overnight in another location. Both parents shall make reasonable efforts to be aware of and, when appropriate, vet individuals who will be sharing overnight space with the minor children. When such arrangements are discussed in advance, the parents should make reasonable efforts to agree on expectations, including the anticipated duration of the stay. If an overnight arrangement materially changes in a way that was not previously discussed and raises a concern regarding the children's safety or well-being, the parents agree to communicate in good faith and take reasonable steps to resolve the situation. When necessary for the protection of the children, a parent may intervene to ensure the children are returned to a safe and appropriate environment until the concern is addressed. This provision does not apply in situations involving immediate safety concerns for the children or the parent, emergencies, or extenuating circumstances, including but not limited to a parent seeking safety from danger or requiring medical care that necessitates the presence of a caregiver or a temporary change in living arrangements. In such cases, the parent shall notify the other parent as soon as reasonably possible. Both parents agree to act in good faith and to prioritize the safety, stability, and well-being of the minor children. This provision is intended to prevent individuals not known to or trusted by both parents from having unsupervised or inappropriate access to the children.

Z.

Additional Provision: 26. Moral and Environmental Guidance Both parents agree to guide the minor children in a manner consistent with their moral values and to exercise reasonable judgment in the environments, activities, and influences to which the children are exposed. The parents shall make reasonable efforts to avoid exposing the children to situations or environments that may be inappropriate for their age or inconsistent with their well-being, and to communicate in good faith regarding any concerns that may arise.

Additional Provision: 27. Best Interests of the Children These provisions are intended to promote the safety, stability, and healthy development of the minor children. Both parents agree to interpret and apply these provisions in good faith and in a manner consistent with the best interests of the children.

Duty to sign documents

67. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)
